THE STEAMER EMILIE.—We learn that the excellent steamer Emilie, so well known in the Georgetown trade, has had a change of commanders, and will in future be in charge of Capt. P. C. Lewis, Captain Isaac Davis, who has been in her, having disposed of his interest in the steamer to the forme

THE NEW BELT AND CLUB OF THE POLICE. The police are soon to be equipped with an enamelled leather belt, with a pocket for the new rosewood club. The Lelt is adorned with a fancy circular silver-plated clasp, with the word "Police" in raised letters. They are expected to be dressed in this new insignia by the 27th instant, the day of the grand annual parade. They may also then appear in the new summer uniform.

SENDING OUT THE NIGHT WATCH .- The sys tem of sending out the night watch from the Guardhouse is now conducted on the New York plan. The watch is formed and is marched at the front of the seigeant's office, where the roster is called and the men are assigned to their posts. As they are notified where they will be stationed they move off with a tick of the rat le. The rest of the watch then return to their quarters to await their turn of duty.

THE EVENING BULLETIN .- The first number of this miniature evening paper was issued yesterday. It is intended for gratuitous circulation, and will rely for support upon advertising ou-iness. The publisher is Mr. J. W. McMillan, o! Hayne-street, who promises that "The Bulletin" shall be "a cheap medium whereby the business relations of our community may be conveyed and enjoyed without detriment." We wish "The Bulletin" an abundant ago, Samuel Orr, colored, was sentenced to imprisonment in the House of Correction. He was sent to work on the drains, and while there retused to come out. After the hands had waited some time, and finding that Orr did not come out, they left the drain. During the night Sam came out, and fied to parts unknown. He had skilfully eluded detection for some time, but on yesterday was brought to grief, and was resentenced to an additional impris-

ROBBERY ON THE STEAMER PILOT BOY .- On several occasions robberies have been con mitted on board of this boat, and no traces could be found of the thief. On her last trip from Savancah to Charleston, Mr. Mills, a passenger, was robbed of jewelry and other valuables. Information was lodged at the police station and Officer Reed was put on the scent, and succeeded in arresting Thomas Morrison and Baze Williams, two firemen aboard. At first they demed all complicity in the matter, but afterwards owned up, and the articles promptly turned over the owner.

PEBBERY.-Belle Caulfield, better known as the "Soldiers' Friend," succeeded, on Saturday night in seducing one Francis Lascke into her house in Bull-street, when, through the agency of Diana. a colored gi l, and Wm. H. Stone, a white accomplice, she fleed d him out of six hundred and thirty dollars, which she transferred to the colored girl. who gave it to the accomplice, who immediately made tracks up the -tate road and buried the money under an old tree near Peyton's Bridge. Lascke had the parties arrested, and when in the cell at the Guardhouse it leaked out where the plunder had been hidden. The money has been recovered and the parties turned over to a magistrate for prosecu tion. This is the se oud time that a similar rob bery has been perpetrated on an unsuspecting dupe

THE UNITED STATES COURT, APRIL 12 .- Hon. GEORGE S. BRYAN, PRESIDING .- In Bankruptcy. The court was engaged hearing petitions in matterpertaining to bankruptcy, and ordering their appropriate reference.

by the same persons.

In Admiralty.-The causes of C. B. Grant and others against the sloop P. C. Gaillard for libel was heard. The marshal was directed to sell the sloop at public auction on the 15th instant, after duly advertising her in the daily papers and that he hold proceeds subject to further order o the court.

In the Circuit Court -W. A. Wardla was appoint ed guardian of sundry defendants. Messrs. Yeadon, Memminger & Banckel were heard in argument, which maintained that the existing jury is the only one practicable under the law, and a legal jury. Juries Nos. one and two, with supernumeraries, ware organized and dismissed until the 19th instant.

Don Pasquale .- Tue opera last night drew one of the most crowded and fashionable audience that we have ever seen gathered in Hibernian Hall Don Pasquale was presented in excellent style and warn or than that given ber at the concert on Saturday. It may be that the res, that the company had enjoyed after the continuous travel and severe efforts of last week had put them in better voice than at their 11-t appearance; certainly the artists all sang with remarkable spirit and time effect. M'lle Eurand is scarcely less charming as an actress than she is pleasing as a singer, and, last right, the most fastidious critic could have found nothing lacking either in her acting or the management of her voice. Even the blurring of the trill, which we had noticed on Saturday, had disappeared as though by magic. Signor Briguoli sang magnificently throughout the the opera, and in the serenade was rapturously encored. The great tenor, however, was somewha tame in his acting. Signor Sarti, as I on Pasquale, confirmed the cood opinion which had already been formed of him. His conception and acting of the characters were good, and his fine voice was used with charming effect. Signor Steffanche, brother of the famous prime donna, Madame Steffanone, played the accompaniments with great precision and taste. This gentleman is of no little value in making the performance a success. As will be seen by the correspondence which we print this morring, the departure of the opera company has been postpouced until a late hour to night, so as to allow of the performance of the Parber of Seville this evening, for the benefit of the Charleston prima donna, M'le Durand. This opera will be given with dresses and all possible scenic effects, and will be over in all probability by 10 o'clock. M'lle Durand is already a great favorite with our citizens. As a Churles!onian she has a cl im upon us, and as a singer she has a charm which we shall not soon forget. We long then that at her benefit to-night every seat will be taken, and that the fair prima donna will long have occasion to remember her first professional visit to Charleston.

ORPHANS' ENTERTAINMENT .- An entertainment is to be given, to commence on the 26th and conclude on the 28th instant, for the benefit of the male orphans of the Cannon-street asylum. The finances of this institution are on the brink of exbaustion, and some step is absolutely necessary to save the orphans from want. The Rev. Father Schachte, who has just recovered from a severe ill ness, has undertaken to manage the matter, and will, no doubt, safely carry the programme through. It will be a refreshmen: and gitt entertainment, and will be conducted at the asylum.

REPORTERS' CRUMBS .- The Rev. Father Ryan (Moina) will visit our city about three weeks hence. A number of velocipedes passed through the city vesterday for Atlanta. The election for librarian of the Charleston Libra ry takes place to-day, at 1 P. M.

The market abounds in silver fish; it is said to be a sure sign of the coming of summer weather.

Officers Coates and 1 eed, recently suspended, were restored to duty yesterday, after an impartial hearing before the Mayor.

A "tax-payer" and a prominent city official had a war of wor's a few days ago, which resulted in a drawn battle (? , each party claiming to be the victor. Some hapless wight gave a dinner party on last Saturday night on the spur of a rumor that the quo warrante had been decided in favor of Pil sbury. A lecture will be delivered before the Young Mens Christian Association this evening, at Trinity Church, at 8 o'clock, by the Rev. White foord Smith,

The Macon and Western Railroad Con pany have declared a d'vidend of thirty-three and a third per cent, out of the carnings heretofore invested in the construction and improvement of the road, and stockholders registered on the books of the New York agency can receive their certificates at the Bank of the Republic, New York-all others at the office of the Company in Macon, Georgia.

ley, on the 20th March, in the 28th year of his age, the liev. FRAN-IS MARION HALL, Minister of the "Church of the Epiplan".

Only a few menths have passed since this young soldier of the cross was ordained to the Ministry of the Protestant Episcopal Church, but his brief service in the Gospel has been marked with an earnest ness and devotion which secured the esteem and love of his flock, and awakened in all who knew him the hope of great usefulness. Thought ul from a boy, with an affectionate heart and talents of a high order, his early manhood was consecrated to the service of Christ; and when called by the spirit of God to devote humsel; to the Ministry, though in feeble hea th, be entered with uniting; labor upon preparation for the work. As he approached the time for ordination has piety rinened, and the sense of responsibility increased. With a single desire to glorify Christ, and a tender love for the souls for whom He shed. His blood, worldly aspirations were laid upon the altar of the Cross, and to fulfill his course, and the Ministry which he had received of the Lord Jesus, was the whof his heart. In the parish in which he served, he sought to perform with efficiency the pastoral work, while he faithfully preclaimed the doctrines of grace; and loudly is his memory chorished by a bereaved flock.

In the family he was cherished with the fondest love, and his removal has let a blank not to be filled. But faith privits those who mourn beyond the grave, and we see him entered into rest. The Gospel which he preached cheered his dying hours, and the saviour—whom he loved—has taken him to himself.

"The morning shall awaken,"

AND THE AUTING MAYOR AND ASSISTANT THEASURER OF THE UNITED STATES AIDING TO MAKE APPROPRIATIONS FROM THE CITY TREASURY IN VIOLATION OF LAW. TO THE EDITOR OF THE NEWS.

The Act of the Legislature of December 13, 1850, in reference to the Munic pal Government of Charleston, provides as follows:
"Sec. 2 The Mayor, and not less than twelve Aldermen, shall be a quorum for the imposition of taxes and the appropriation of money."

I commend the above to Mr. G. W. CLARK, Acting Mayor, and Mr. J. D. GEDDINGS, Acting Alderman, as they seek to excuse their lawless efforts to keep the Republican Mayor and Aldermon elect out of office, by affecting a sonsitive "regard for law." These gentlemen have recently aided in making appropriations out of the City Treasury with a Board consisting, all told, of the Mayor and only ELEVEN Aldermen. Mr. CLARK is the well known Democratic aspirant for the Customhouse, and Mr. GEDDINGS is the Democratic candidate-slightly disguised-for re-appointment as Assistant Treas urer of the United States; and they have doubtless been so busy in getting up memorials in their behalf, signed by violent Pemocrats and Logus Republicans, that this law has escaped their attention. ST. CLOUD HOTEL.

THIS NEW AND COMMO! IOUS HOUSE, LOCAT-ED corner of Broadway and Forty-second-street, possesses alvantages over all other houses for the accommodation of its guests. It was built expressly for a first-class family bearding house—the rooms being large and en sulio, heared by steam—with hot and cold we ter, and turnished second to none; while the culinary department is in the most experienced hands, aff riding gnests an unequalised table.

One of Atwood's Patent Elevators is also among the "modern improvements" and at the service of guests at all hours.

The Broadway and University Place Cars pass the door every lour minutes, running from the City door every lour minutes, running from the City Hall to Central Pa k, while the Sixth and seventh Avenue 'ines are but a short block on either side, affording ample facilities for communicating with all the depots, steamtoat landings, places of amuse-ment and business of the great metropolis. MORE & HOLLEY, Proprietors.
