AUCTION SALES THIS DAY.

T. M. CATER will sell at 9 o'clock, at his store, Brown's wharf, flour, bacon, &c.

ROBERTS.—The premises of Mrs. Tennent, in Blake street, was forcibly entered night before last, and a very large lot of poultry carried off.

GRAU'S OPERA.—We are informed that Grau's Opera Troupe were to arrive in Savannah on Sunday night, and to open there last night. From Savannah they are to come to Charleston.

CLUBS AND GAMES.—The parties engaged in the row on Saturday afternoon were up before the Mayor yesterday morning, and were fined heavily. The officer who fired the pistol had to forfeit it and pay $25.

REAL ESTATE SALE.—Leitch & Bruns sold yesterday, under order of the United States Court, a lot of land fifty by one hundred and thirty-eight feet with buildings thereon, east side of Ashley-street, for $8000—one-third cash, balance in one year.

THE WHITE FAWN COMPANY, of Manager Whitman, will give its last performance in Charleston this evening. Of course there will be a rush of the firemen to see and hear the winning Miss Kimball, and to witness the fine spectacle of the transformation scene.

THE ORPHAN'S ENTERTAINMENT.—The driving rain kept many of the orphans' friends from the entertainment at Schaefer's Hall last night, but those who braved the storm were well repaid. The entertainment will be continued during the week, and will form a pleasant resort for our visiting friends.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Wm. M. Sneed, the business manager of the Savannah Daily Republican, paid a flying visit to our office yesterday. Mr. Sneed visits Charleston in the interests of his journal, and will give some sketches of the Charleston firemen and the day's doings to their Forest City brethren.

MAMMOTH ARTICHOKE.—We received on Sunday some mammoth artichokes, which measured over eighteen inches in circumference. These vegetables were grown in the garden of Mr. E. Lafitte, No. 4 Rutledge avenue, and are, we believe, the largest that have been produced this season.

THE POLICEMEN'S UNIFORM.—The police will be out to-day in their new uniform, minus the new clubs and balls, gotten up by Menke & Muller in excellent style. The coat is blue, buttoning up to the neck, on the sack pattern; the pants gray, and the hat a black felt, with a silver wreath in front with the number inside.

THE UNITED STATES COURT.—The court was engaged yesterday in hearing cases in bankruptcy, and listening to the argument on the first question. Judge Bryan said he would reserve his decision until the arrival of Chief Justice Chase, who is expected here about the 20th of May. The jury was discharged on the 20th of May, the 12th instant.

RUN OFF AT GRANITEVILLE.—The through train on the South Carolina Railroad was thrown off the track at Graniteville on Sunday evening. No material damage was done, and the train arrived in Augusta at 11.20 P. M. It is feared that there was foul play, as the gates had been tampered with. There should be a thorough investigation. This is the first run-off there has been at Graniteville, and it is a somewhat curious coincidence that one should have occurred just at this time.

THE CITIZENS' SAVINGS BANK.—The Charleston branch of this institution will be opened at No. 66 East Bay, on May 1st. Deposits may be made by any minor over twelve years of age and sums of one dollar and upward will be received. General Wade Hampton is the President of the Company; Messrs. E. N. Thurston, Louis D. DeSaussure and C. K. Huger are the local finance committee. Such an institution was needed here, and as its responsibility is unquestionable, it should soon become popular.

EXTENSION OF ST. JOHN'S LUTHERAN CHURCH.—A meeting of the congregation of this church was held yesterday afternoon, to consider the question of extending the church building. After an earnest debate, the motion of the committee, recommending the extension, was adopted. The meeting was largely attended, and considerable interest manifested in the subject. The church will now be extended thirty feet to the east, which will add considerable to the area and be an improvement on the present structure.

THE VISITING FIREMEN.

Their Arrival and their Reception.

RECEPTION AT BRANCHVILLE. At an early hour yesterday morning delegates from the Phoenix, German and Washington Fire Companies, left the city on the South Carolina Railroad to welcome, on the part of the Fire Department of this city, the visiting companies from Augusta and Columbia. On arriving at Branchville, they found their visiting friends drawn up in line on the platform. The Charleston delegation, under Director Augustine T. Smythe, of the Phoenix, faced them, when Mr. Smythe addressed them, assuring them of a hearty welcome in Charleston, and the eager anticipation with which the firemen awaited their coming to participate in the parade. He cautioned them to look to their laurels, for whilst they would be accorded a sincere welcome, to a fair and generous rivalry for the championship, they would need to strain every nerve to bear off the palm. Great things were expected of them by reports which had reached us, but there were "one or two" companies in the "City by the Sea" which expected to give them occasion to do their best. He reiterated a hearty welcome, and in behalf of the Fire Department of Charleston, and especially of the three companies represented in the delegation, whose guests they would be, offered them a fireman's welcome and a fireman's hospitality.

Director Smythe was replied to by Captain Nibling, of the Washington Fire Company of Augusta, Mr. Ellis, a member of the Citizen of Augusta, and Vice-President Shiels, of the Palmetto of Columbia; all assuring him they appreciated his warm welcome, and that his words of caution had not been and would not be neglected by them. After three hearty cheers all round and general introductions they all entered the cars, the whistle blew and on they came to Charleston. THE RECEPTION AT THE DEPOT, &c.

Arriving at the depot in Line-street, they disembarked and formed in the railroad yard, where the German, the Phoenix and Washington Companies were in waiting to receive them.

President George Tupper, of the Phoenix, addressed them as follows: Brother Firemen of Augusta and Columbia: It is my gratifying privilege to extend to you a most hearty and fraternal welcome. I extend it in the name of the "Washington," "German" and "Phoenix" Fire Engine Companies—in the name of the venerable Fire Department of this city, and in the name of the good people of Charleston, who are proud to receive you. We are, one and all, at your service, and the "Old City by the Sea" asks you to partake of her hospitality without reserve.

There will be friendly contests and pleasant rivalries between us; but I am sure that nothing will interrupt the cordial feeling which exists between our respective departments. We, as companions, will be emulous only as to who shall serve you best. We wish to see in your hearts the same fraternal spirit that we see in the names of the "Washington," "German" and "Phoenix" Fire Engine Companies—in the name of the venerable Fire Department of this city, and in the name of the good people of Charleston, who are proud to receive you.

The response to President Tupper was made by the Hon. A. P. Aldrich, a guest of the Georgia, who said: My Friends and Gentlemen of the Fire Department of Charleston: Just escaped from the dust of the cars and fatigue of travel, I desire to say to you that I am proud to receive you for this hearty welcome. In any contest these Georgians will not be found wanting, for they have bright eyes here and loving hearts at home to inspire them. So, firemen of Charleston, let us try to receive you as they would receive us.

The engines were then landed, first the Palmetto, from Columbia, which is a Jeffers engine, of the Stonehall class—around her brakes a large imitation rattlesnake, which whizzed its head to and fro as the engine moved. The uniform of this company is red short coats, trimmed with black braid, black trousers, black felt hats. They bring fifty-five men in all. The following is the roll of the company: President, W. B. Stanley; Vice-President, G. A. Shiels; Secretary and Treasurer pro tem, C. A. Carrington; Directors—Est. J. A. Shiels, James McElroy, S. J. L. Kirkwood; 4th, H. G. Hecht; Axmen—Est. E. Ehrlich; 2d, Jas. McDougall, Jr.; C. Antonio, W. C. Anderson, E. Berry, W. G. Beck, R. H. Brown, H. C. Beard, H. E. Bruce, T. D. D. Barber, M. J. Carter, W. H. Casson, W. W. Dean, J. Deveaux, J. F. Gadsden, H. C. Heise, R. Wear, H. Hennies, C. B. Howell, O. F. Howell, B. T. Dant, W. Keckley, George Keenan, C. Kennedy, S. S. Moore, A. C. Morgan, R. E. Myrnat, James McDougal, Jr., James McIntosh, F. L. McKenzie, H. C. Levy, C. Post, P. M. Porcher, T. M. Pollock, W. B. Royester, James Rawls, J. E. Richards, J. B. Stokes, J. H. Tucker, W. T. Watson, W. W. S. Wetherill, G. F. Shelton, G. W. Newman, E. A. Newman, Tobiasbecher—Masters W. G. Shiels and W. Hearse.

The Georgia Independent Steam Fire Engine Company, of Augusta, wear gray coats trimmed with red, black pants, dove colored patent leather caps, bound with red. The following is the list of members they bring: Captain, G. Adam; First Lieutenant, G. W. McLaughlin; Second Lieutenant, T. W. Henry; Secretary, G. W. Broadwater; Treasurer, W. T. Williams; Engineer, J. F. Keen; Assistant Engineer, B. B. Bottom; Pipeman, J. K. McLaughlin; C. F. Arrell, H. A. Brabe, E. F. Deakley, C. N. Biglow, P. N. Baird, J. C. Barber, Jr., J. C. Cole, J. M. Dye, G. W. F. Wm. Dineen, L. Goodrich, Wm. Goodwin, C. T. Hollingsworth, T. H. Jenkins, A. M. Jackson, F. Kramer, H. M. Levy, S. Leckie, C. A. Lathrop, F. B. McCoy, E. W. Mason, W. E. Mealing, S. M. Pringle, H. Proutant, W. T. Reaney, S. H. Rowland, W. F. Reed, T. H. Russell, A. M. Roberts, M. Simon, S. Sarling, F. Smythe, J. S. Sales, D. S. Wright.

The Washington, of Augusta, a Hunneman engine, was also safely landed; and was accompanied with a likeness of William Bryson, Esq., the Chief of the Augusta Fire Department. This company was incorporated in 1794, and is consequently seventy-five years old. The following is the roll of the members of the Washingtons:

Captain J. H. Nibling, First Lieutenant P. Wallace, Second Lieutenant O. Ganter, Secretary P. O'Connor, Treasurer George Glasgow, Pipeman J. M. Dye, Assistant A. Miller; Frank Hubel, A. H. Kavanagh, A. H. Kennedy, I. T. Horn, W. B. Hayes, W. Brown, M. P. McElmore, J. Magrath, J. Slayton, Wm. Colbert, W. B. Hoher, A. Litzy, T. Gorman, T. L. Lieutenant, E. T. D. Dunn, C. P. Mullern, J. Gleason, W. J. Davidson, D. Naele, John Fox, E. C. Devon, F. Jennings, I. Summers, C. Craler, E. H. McCain, J. T. Keener, J. Meadows, John Galtner, James Galtner, S. B. Harley, John Burns, John Ellis.

The drags of the engines of the visiting companies were manned by the hosts who were to entertain them, and in procession they moved down Line-street, through Meeting to Ann-street, then to the Washington House, where the Palmettos of Columbia were left, and then to the Phoenix House where the "Georgians" were dropped, and finally to the German's quarters in Chalmers-street, where the Washingtons of Augusta were entertained.

At each of these houses collations were partaken of, except the Phoenix—their taking place at the Market Hall, where their guests were re-welcomed. THE RECEPTION OF THE WINYAHS. Yesterday afternoon, between two and three o'clock, the steamer Emilia touched at the commercial wharf with the Georgetown firemen aboard. They consisted of the Winyah Company and their Hunneman hand engine, and a deputation of the Salsamader Fire Engine man.

The Hook and Ladder Contest.—The interest manifested in the fireman's parade has apparently centered on the steam and hand engines, and comparatively few have noticed the programme to be observed by the two hook and ladder companies. They will run a distance of one hundred and fifty yards, dismantling the entire truck, and raise a ladder at the northeast angle of Messrs. Crane, Borton & Co.'s store. A member of the company will ascend and descend the ladder, which will then be replaced and adjusted on the truck. The point of the performance will consist in the celerity of all of the movements, as the prize is to be awarded to that company which excels in this respect.

PLANK ROADS.—The city authorities will soon commence operations on the plank road in Line-street, between King and Meeting. The South Carolina Railroad has agreed to transport the lumber free, and the road will be laid at a comparatively small expense. The road now being laid in Laurens-street, and leading to the wharf, has already been noticed. It is the intention of the authorities to continue this road through Concord to the intersection of Washington and Calhoun streets, where it will connect with that now leading to the Northeastern Railroad Depot. This will form a complete network of plank roads leading from the depots of both railroads to the wharves and commercial centers of the east end. Similar improvements are designed for the Ashley River side of the city, which will be developed in due time.

SEMI-CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION OF THE I. O. O. F.—The Order of Odd Fellows throughout the Union yesterday celebrated their fiftieth anniversary. In this State, but more especially in Charleston, the Order has attained a high degree of prosperity, and five lodges and two encampments participated in the celebration. The inclemency of the weather prevented a large attendance of visitors, and few were present beside the fraternity. The hall at the corner of King and Liberty streets was tastefully decorated, a place was assigned to each lodge and encampment, the names appearing in gold letters in circles of green. The exercises were opened with music, and prayer by the Rev. William B. Yates. Addresses were then delivered by Past Grand Masters T. Y. Simons and John H. Honour, Jr. Past Grand Master R. S. Dwyer, who was to have been one of the orators of the occasion, was prevented by sickness, and his place was supplied by Rev. William B. Yates. The addresses were illustrative of the principles of the Order—Friendship, Love and Truth—and were heard with great attention. Among the visitors were a number of our firemen guests.

Nettles, Williamsburg; C. S. Fuller and wife, Providence, R. I., and Members of Georgia Steam Fire Engine Company, Augusta.

REPORTER'S CAUTION.—There are a number of new faces in town, probably driven here by the celebration to-day. The Patriotist will to-day present their President, Hugh Ferguson, with the elegant gold testimonial already described in THE NEWS. The presentation of the Fox to the Marion Fire Company by the Phoenix, will take place this morning at the Marion engine house. The Phoenix boys will take their guests on an excursion to-morrow. There is some talk of giving the visiting firemen a public entertainment. The city has already contributed. The Phoenix boys flung to the breeze yesterday, at their engine house, a large white banner, with "Welcome, Georgia," in large black letters thereon, together with an effigy of the emblematic bird from which they derive their name. Mr. B. O'Neill, wholesale grocer, East Bay, has found it necessary to increase the capacity of his establishment by connecting the East Bay store, by a large addition, with the extensive warehouse in the rear on State-street. The public schools have yielded to the pressure, and the Mayor's Parade will be a bigger holiday than ever before. Messrs. Cameron & Barkley had a large illumination in front of their establishment last night, and the street was a blaze of light as far as the Charleston Hotel.

The fire companies of the city kept open house last night, and the uniforms were about fitting everywhere about the streets as if the owners were impervious to the deluge that fell. A number of ladies and gentlemen, friends of the visiting firemen, accompanied them hither yesterday.

OUR GAIN DAY. What stir and commotion has characterized the approach of this eventful day to our quiet citizens, and how the heart beats with new life and emotion in contemplating the approaching anniversary of the Fire Department of Charleston. Take a stroll with us, gentle reader, and whilst we view and understand the "animus" which pervades our citizens, let us endeavor, to portray, if we can, the various emotions which pervade the breast of those who now pass in review before us. But one sentiment, one aspiration fills the breast of the pressers by. The business of the day has been consummated in the delivery of the letters from the mail, and nothing new awaits our clerks and business men but "the thoughts of the morrow." True, no vision of "notaries public," with their bland manners, torture them, but the thought of the success of each one's "particular machine" is uppermost, and the tendency to beat upon their favorite company, is their all engaging topic. Each and every one is as its.
