THE RIGE TIERCE QUESTION AG AIN. TO THE EDITOR OF THE NEW !.

Charleston and Savannab have been comervial centres for the sale of the rice crops of

No wonder that Randolph had to dodge from place to place for two years to avoid arrest. Finally, it is reported that an officer now invincing was anthorized to inform Randolph that if here would apologize for his insult to the President, he would apologize for his insult to the President, he would apologize for his insult to the President, he would apologize for his insult to the President, he would apologize for his insult to the President, he would apologize for his insult to the President, he would apologize for his insult to the President, he would apologize for his insult to the President had first apologized. It is hardly necessary to say that no apology came. After twenty-three years of service in the navy, and much galant conduct, Randolph without much property, and without a profession, was turned adrift upon the world. During the administration of James Buchanan, John B. Floyd, then Secretary of War, gave Randolph the position of Superintendent of the Agmory in Washington; but he only held the place a short time, as Buchanan hearing of the apointment, ordered it to be revoked for reasons best known to himself.
The origin of the trouble between Jackson and Randolph was this: Some few years ago, it will be remembered, a person named Bouganini eloped from New York with the property and nice of his wife, whom he had then recently married; the forsaken wife was once the wife of General Eaton, Secretary of War to General Jackson; and prior to that the wife of one Timberlake, who died a purser in the United States navy. On the death of Timberlake, andolph was then a lieutenant in the navy, was appointed to act temporarily as purser in his place. He found his accounts in a mixed condition and a deficiency existing against him. Before he had a chance to settle his accounts, Mrs. T. became the wife of General Eaton, Secretary of War, who was also surety for her formar hnaband. It became apparently of interest to both tha nd. lency. Bandolph entered the navy at about the age of sixteen, and had command of a division on the quarter deck of the frigate Constitution under Decatur, in her action with and the cas-ture of the British frigate Macedonian. He was also in the President when that ship was captured by the Endymion and other British vessels, and was carried a prisoner to London, where he cowhided a British officer for using contemptuous language concerning America. A brother of his went down with the sloop Wasp, which sunk at sea after her fight with a line-of-battle ship, the name of which escapes me. He was less than ive feet ten in height, rather slim, had hair of light color, in youth, as shown by a miniature taken in New London soon after the capiure of the Macedonian; his nose was slightly Roman, and he had eyes like an eagle in clearness and power of expression. In his eyes and nose alone were perceptible traces of his Indian origin. He leaves a wife and four children, one a son. ency. Bandolph entered the navy at about the age

More strange that the rice buyers should now find its necessary to combine together and positively refuse to purchase if their demands are not complied with, viz: if the factors de-ding that is necessary to secure a purchas are not complied with, viz: if the factors de-ding to give them the tierces in which the rice is sold. been effected. They know full well that it would have driven nearly every there from Charleston to other markets, and that the in-terests of the city would have been compro-mised by ench astion. But now that the plan-ter is not living, but barely breathing, lying prostrate and dependent for the small means necessary to carry on his planting operations, his factor too poor to back him against this innovation, the blow is struck, and he has to give up one hundred and fifty dollars on every hundred tiarces of rice sent to the Charleston market, or loss the privilege of a sale. To talk about paying more for the rice if the tierce is thrown in for nothing, is idle, for no one be-lieres it.

Beves it. Doubtless the full effect of this change has been well considered by those who anggested lieres it. Doubliess the full effect of this change has been well considered by those who angrested it. At first it was a mere suggestion from the rice buyers to the rice factors. Nothing was positively determined upon, and by some it was hinted that the success of the movement was dependent chiefly upon the mill owners of Charleston. There was little fear that the planters could or would combine against it. Possibly the interests of the city had found antagonism in the pounding mills of the country, and that more rough rice was neces-sary for the city mills. The planter who do-jected to paying one dollar and fifty cents to the millers for tierces, had the option of selling in the rough, and the millers who do make a profit on their barrels could very well afford to lose something for a monopoly in pound'rg. But, be this as it may, it is pretty we catab-lished that, with present indebtedness to fac-tors in Charleston, the growing crop cannot yary well be shipped elsewhere. This setab-lished, and the new system fairly inaugurated, no reaction is likely to benefit the planter. The Chamber of Commerce have taken the buyers upon their shoulders, and, thus mounted, their card is out positively decliming, after the 1st of May next, to purchase any rice where a charge is made for the tierces. The action of the Chamber is a mere expression of opinion, and may be considered aduisory—the action of the rice merchants is uncompromising and compulsory. Have the factors, nothing to say

THE RAILEDAD WAR.—The Augusta Chronicle of vesterday says: "In former ar icles on this subject we expressed the belief that as soon as the City Council passed the ordinance allow-ing the Columbia and Augusta Bailroad Coming the Columbia and Angusta Bailroad Com-pany to construct a bridge across the Savan-nah and enter the city that the litigation be-tween that corporation and the South Carolina Kailroad would commence afresh, and the United States Court would be the scene of war-fare. That this opinion was correct was dem-onstrated on Wedneeday last by a notice being served on Mayor Russell, by Messrs. Gould and Hull, the plaintiff's attorneys, that on the third of next minth an application would be made to Judge Erskine, in the United States Court at Savannah, for an injunction restrain-Court at Savannah, for an njunction restrain-ing the city from allowing the Columbia Road to enter the corporate limits of Augusta."

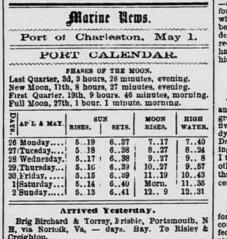

ANOTHER KEROSENE ACCIDENT.—The colored man bamed Adam Dollie, residing in Mill-street, who was dreadfally burned on Sunday night last by the explosion of a kerosene lamp, is dead. This is the second death which has occurred in this city within the last two months from the use of explosive oil, and we hope the grand jury will inquire into the mat-ter, and present any person who has been knowingly seling this dangerous article. PURIFYING PILLS.

The FACELLENT REMEDIES OF O. S. PRO-PHITT, M. D., need no recommendation-their well known power in removing the diseases pe-culiar to our Southern climate having already estab-lished for them an erviable reputation in Georgia and the adjoining states. As the majority of persons hiver, it is granted by all intelligent physicians that most of the pains and aches of our people are due to organic or functional derangement of that impor-tant organ. Prophitt's Liver Medicine and anti-Bilious Pills strike directly at the root of the evil, They cure the Liver, which in nine cases out of 'en, is at the bottom of the Coupbs, Dyspepsia, Colic, Sitck Headache, Rheumstism, Constipation, Men-straid Obstructions, &c., so common among our people. PROPHITT'S LIVER MEDICINE.

PROPHITT'S LIVEK MEDICISE. Dr. Prophil-Baving used this medicine sufficiently long to test its virtue, and to satisfy my own mind that it is an invaluable remedy for Dyspepsia -a disease from which the writer has suffered much for six years-and being persuaded that hundreds who now suffer from this annoying complaint would be signally benefitude, as he has been. By its use, we deem it a duty we owe to this unfortunate class to recommend to them the use of this remedy. which has given not only himself but several members of his family the greater relief. M. W. ARNOLD, Of the Georgia Conference.
