How graceful was that time an creed
Whice tan in that tongues of old
Dwelt in the mountain and the mead,
And where the torrects soil'd;
And that in times of sacred fear,
With sweet, mysterious a caus,
They stoke soud, while some pale seer
Interpreted their tones.

And, lady, why should we not deem
That in each echoing hill,
And sounding wood, and dancing stream,
A tanguage lingers still?
No lovell r scopes round Delphi spread
Than round thee s retch divine;
Nor Grecian mai! bent brigater head
By baumed stream than thine.

Morn, noon, and eve—bird, beam and breeze,
Here bland to bless the day:
My portion of their memories
Be ever round thy way!
Sweet waters for the weary bark,
Through parching east that sails:
Triends may grow takes and fortune dark,
But Nature never fails,

.. Dlantation Bitters.

WHAT BRICK POMEROY DID WRITE AND WHAT HE DID NOT WRITE Eight o'clock, and he is not here yet! How dreary this little room does seem, and I am so lone some! Ten o'clock. How I wish he would come It is so lonely here with the children asleep! Once he loved to stay with me, but now, alas! Twelve o'clock, and I am so tired, I cannot sleep! My neart aches and grows sad. I am growing old, perhaps. May be my face is not as fair as once, but my heart is as warm, though it is often sad.

ARE YOU DYSPEPTIC, Nervous, jaundiced, low spirited, weak, or are you sick and don't know what ails you; then try Plantstion Bitters and our word for it, it will cure you.

ONE O'CLOCK. What charms can he find in that foul-scented room, by that dusty table. cutting and dealing those iusly cards, filling himself with poison, tainting hi breath rulning his mind, undermining his constitu tion, planting seeds of disease, squadering his noney, clouded with smoke, tired with excitement Is this happiness? is this life? Is this our mission

PLANTATION BITTERS. This delicious cordial and fine tonic is now hailed by thousands as the great health giver and restorer. Resolve to buy a bottle, and don't sleep on

Oh! I am so tired, do come home.

"DO YOU GO DOWN TOWN TO-NIGHT, MY PET?" "No darling, I have labored enough to-day Why should I fice from home, from happiness, from thee? Life is full short to love-too short to squander. I love the phot graph of my | eart too well. No darling, my heart is here; here let me keep it company.

PLANTATION BITTERS Are always pure, reliable. They are strengthening and invigorating, and are Evhausted Na ure's great restorer. As an agreeable and pleasant tonic and appetizer, they cannot be excelled.

THEY WHO ARE RICH, Are they who mind their own business. Find a happy man or woman, and the affairs of another trouble them but a little It is none of your business if the minister kisses one of the sisters, or one of the sisters thus salutes the minister. It cannot effect you when a man you know calls on a gir you don't know, or one you do What if ther is kiesing behind the door, in tunnels, and when the night is dark at the vestibule of the hurch, or even ever the gate. Would you not do the same thing if the chance was offered?

A WINE GLASS FULL Of Plantation Bitters, taken three times a day, before each meil, will make the flame of life again burn brightly, and illuminate a once wretched existence For ladies it is an elegant and gentle stimulant, just such as they require.

"I WENT TO THE LAND OF STEADY HABITS." I wanted to hand several "bricks" down to pos-crity, and was told by father that with a New Engand girl tor a wife, I could raise more children, gro more onious, sain more cels, sing more psalms kn w mo e of what was going on in the neighbor hood, hear more soundal, sleep less nights, have more relatives, eat more beans, love myself and hate others more, and get more out of a dollar, than any other port of woman in this happy country so-called PLANTATION BYPTERS.

Is made from pure et. Croix Rum and Calisav Bark (known the world over for its curative propor ties), and will fortify the syst m against disease caused by change of water and diet. If you are in elined to dyspepsis, try it. If you have the chills and fever or any knodred disease, by all means tak Plantation Bitters. They are sold by all druggist

AND HE HAD A FEMALE CHILD, name was Heva Brightwater, and who was twenty-nine years old: who wore red stockings, red garters, metal tipped shoes, green spectacles, and he prettiest red hair the world ever se eyes on or into. Hexa, a true New England gal, chewed wads of pine gum. and sweetened her broth with onions Hera wasn't so much bandsomer than a doll as to make the coll faint, but she was intelligent; in fact, in telligence was her best hold but one; she was grea on making baby garments, and had her trunks full, packed away, that she might be ready as willing when the evil hour drew nigh, as she trusted it would from year to year.

IP THE LADIES BUT ENEW What thousands of them are constantly relating o us, we candidly believe one half of the weakness prostration and distress experienced by them would

JAMES MARSH, ESQ., No. 159 West First- treet, New York, says be has three children. The first two are weak and puny, his wife having been unable to nurse or attend them; but she has taken Plantation Bit ters for the last ten years, and has a child now 18 nouths old, which she has nursed and re-red ber self, and both are hearty and well. Plantation Bit ters is invaluable to mothers.

Here comes a man who was once rich. He had friends, and money, and a loving family, and posttion, and influence, and self-respect, and integrity, and a future of usefulness before him. But, my boy, he don't look like it now. He was elected to an important office. He forgot the lessons his good nother taught him, and was asked by designing politi lans to sell his vote to a party of swindlers; he could not for the life of him give articulation to the little word, and so he fell.

HOW OFTEN DO WE HEAR THE COMPLAINT, From mother and fother, that the son or daughter is not we'l; that they have no appetite; that they feel languid; that the head sche- all the time; that they are growing thin and feeble, and that they have no life nor energy ielt. And the questions are often asked, What shall I do for them? What shall I give them? Our answer is, let them try Plantation Bitters modera ely, three times a day, and our word for it they will recover.

AND HERE VALTER. IS A YOUNG MAN, Just like you and us, my boy. He has wit, sense education. in elligence, friends, ambition, and is loved. He has a knowledge of the world, acquired by mixing with its people. He has ambition and the same field in which to win honor, fime and dis tin tiou, as had Franklin, Fulton. Morse, and a host of others. He is naturally snart, but, Valter, ny b y, as he meets us do you see the excess of mo'sture in his eye the little puffy ridge under it the gradual torning of the beautiful corners of the nonth his mother so loved to kiss. These, my boy, tell a gad ta's of early shipwreck, of disease, of premature death, of neglected and squandered gifts. Lecember 7 19
