Israel Freyer's Bid for Gold. FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 24.

Mands! how the price went fisshing through Will street, Willism, Broad street, New! All the specie in all the land all the specie in all the land Held in one Bing by a giant hand,—For millions more it was ready to pay, and throttle the 'treet on bangman's-day. Up from the Gold Pit's nether hell, While the innocent fountain rose and fell, Loud and higher the bidding rose, and the bulls, triumphant, faced their foes. and the bulls, triumphant, saced their ic t seemed as if Satan himself were in it,

And the second as if Satan himself were in it,
Lifting it,—one per cent a minute,—
Through the reliewing broker, there amid,
who made the terrible, final bid!

Bigg over all, and everhigher,
Was beard the voice of Inzel Freyer,—
A doleful knell in the storm-swept mart,—
*Five millions more! and for any part
"I'll give One Hundred and sixty!"

Israel Freyer—the Government Jew— Good as the best—scaked through and the Good as the best—scaked through and the Good as the best—scaked through and Our Treasury's precious heard of gold; With credit gained in the year he sold
Our Treasury's precious heard of gold;
New through his thankless mouth rings out.
The leaguers' last and cruelest. bout!
Fity the shorts? Not they, indeed,
While a single rival's lett to blead!
Down come dealers in silks and hides.
Crowding the Gold Reom's rounded sides,
Jostling, trampling each other's feet,
Uttering groans in the outer street,
Watching, with upturned faces pale.
The scarrying index mark its laste,
Hearing the bid of larsel Freyer
That ominous voice, would it nester tire?
Five millions more!—for any part,
If it breaks your firm, if it cracks your heart,)
I'll give One Hundred and Sixty!"

One Hundred and Sixty! Can't be true!
What will the bears at forty do?
He will the merchants pay their dues?
How will the country stand the news?
What'll the banks—but listen! hold!
In acrowing upward the price of gold
To that dannerous, last, particular peg.
They had Elled their Goose with the Golden Egg!
Just there the metal came pouring out,
All ways at once, like a water spout,
Or a rushing, guahing, yellow flood,
That drisnoise the bulls wherever they stood!
Small need to open the Washington main,
Their coffer dams were burst with the strain!
Use sime by rushers, it came by wire,
To answer the bid of Israel Freyer,
It poured in millions from every side,
And smoot straingled him as he cried.

All Tipe One Hendred and Sixty!"

Title Vulcan after Jupiter's kiek,
Or the aphorastical Rockets stick,
Down, down, down, the premium fell
Faster ban this rade for me can tall
Thirty per cent, the index and,
Pet Freque will kept making his bid—
"One Rundred and Sixty for any part!" One Hundred and Sixty for any part!"

—The ander run had crazed his beart,
Shattiered his sensee, cracked his beart,
Shattiered his sensee, cracked his beart,
Shattiered his sensee, cracked his beart,
And left him crying again and again—
Still making his bid at the market's top,
Clike the Dutchman's leg that could never stop,)
Till they dragged him, howling, off the floor.
The very last words that seller and buyer
(Beard from the mouth of Israel Freyer—
A cry to remember long as they live—
Were, "Pill the Fire Millions more! I'll give—
I'll give One Hundred and sixty!"

Suppose, (to avoid the appearance of evil,)
There's such a thing as a Personal Devil,
If would seem that His Hishness here got hold,
For once, of a bellowing Buil in Gold !
Whether bull or bear, it wouldn't much matter
Should Israel Freyer keep'to his claster
On earth or under it—(as, they say,
He is doomed)—till the general Yudgment Day,
When the tilerk, as he cites himsto answer for 't,
Shall bid him keep stlence in that Court!
But it matters most, as it seems to me,
That ray countrymen, great and strong and free,
John the countrymen, great and strong and free,
John the countrymen, great and strong and free,
John the countrymen and strong and free,
John the countrymen are to win.
That if even a clowu can only begin So marvel at fellows who seem to win.
That if even a clown can only begin
By steeling a railread, and are its purse.
For cornering a stocks and gold, 'r-wo's For buying a Juege and a Legislature,
And sinking still lower poor human nature,
The gaping public, whatever betall,
Will syallow him, tandem, harlots, and all !
While our rich men diviet and stand amend at the dust and pother his gang have raised,
And make us remember a nursery tale
Of the four and-twenty who feired one small.

what's bred in the bone will breed, you know, Clowns and their trainers, high and low, Vill cut such capers, long as they dare. While honest Poverty says its prayer. white honest Foverty says its prayer.
But tell me what prayer or fast can save
Some hoary tendidates for the grave.
The market's wribkled diami Despair,
Wattering, prooftes, scheming there,
Fommung a college or building a church
feet Beaver should leave him is the lurch,
Better come cut in the rival way, leans your scrip in oven day. Continuing a second district in in the lurch, Bettler come cut in the rival way. Issue your scrip in open day.

And your years wealth in the grimy fist. Of some gross mouthed, gambling pugilist; bears toil and poverty where they lie, Pass thinkers, workers, artists by, Four pot-house isg from his counters bring and make him into a Bailway King!

Betweet such Gantiles and such Jews
Little enough one finds to choose:

Either the other will buy and use,
Est the meet and throw him the bode,

And leaving him to stand the brunt alone.

Let the tempest come, that's gathering near, and give us a bester atmosphere! TDHUND C. STEDMAN. No. 48 Broad street, September 25, 1869.

There was a grand tournament in Yorkville on Friday. The Enquirer says: The following Knights entered the list for the honors and prizes: David D. Black—York—"Rudolph of Hareburg." Jos. W. a slaveholder as long as he could be one, it resembles the Australian boomerang, which, a slaveholder as long as he could be one, it resembles the Australian boomerang, which, when thrown by an unskilful hand, is apt to return and knock down only the one who throws it. The whole speech, as is natural, was bitter against that part; which defeated Mr. W. at the polls last year by 3000 majority. One conspicuous feature of this speech, which ought not to be overlooked, was its gallantry. The speaker basked in the smiles of his charming countrywomen who favored him with their presence, and drew fresh inspiration when he spoke especially to the ladies. It is proper to add the only 'ladies' present were colored."

A FROBABLE FIEND.

The Yorkville Enquirer is informed that two logs were found lying across the track of the King's Mountain Railroad, two and a half miles from town. They were removed by a passer-by. But for this, the train, which arrives at 8 P. M. would probably been thrown off the track. It is supposed the logs were put there with an evil design; but no suspicion attaches to any one as the perpetrator of the villany. A FROBABLE FIEND. LIVELY TIMES IN CHESTER.

The Reporter says: "No more are our streets unthronged. No more are our places of business unfrequented. No more do we see groups of idlers striving to while away the long, dull, hot days. A change has dome. Now, all is bustle, stir, and activ'?. The new cotton is on the market, the ory goeds merchants are dilling their, store-rooms with new goods, the people are flocking to town to invest in the asme; the hot weather is gone; and the fall has commenced in the most cheering and intigorating manner. In many respects a change is chaims around in the most cheering and in agorating manner. In many respects a change is visible. People, relieved of the incubus of old debts, taxes paid, the cotton crop not so bad as was expected, wear more cheerful countenances. Money begins to circulate more freely, necessarily tending to a feeling of easiness, which was not experienced before. For all this let us be thankful."

WAR UPON THE HIGH SEAS.

A Cuban Man-of-War after Spanish

According to the New York Sun, the brig Hornet, from New York, recently seized at Halifax, on suspicion of being intended as a Cuban privateer, and subsequently released, has again sailed for the Cuban coast. The Sun says:

For certain good reasons we do not give the point from which the Hornet received her guns and supplies, but on the morning of the 21st all were on board, and, with a crew of seventy men, Cuba's first man-of-war, with the word Hornet erased and Cuba, her new name, inscribed on her stern and pennant, weighed anchor for a point off Gardiner's Island. Before leaving Hahifax her captain had received his commission. is commission. Captein Eloy Comacho is her commander.

It will be remembered that he surprised the crow of the Spanish steamer Comanditario off the Cuban coast last April, and had to abandon her on account of want of coal and close pursuit by the Spanish man-of-war. He is a bold, dashing, middle-aged Cuban gentle-

The Hornet was a blockade runner, and was captired by the United States war steamship Supply early in 1885, with a cargo valued at $200,000. She has been confused with the Lilian, also a blockade runner. The latter was converted into a man of war while the Hornet was sent to Lekcue Island, where she had remained untillast June. She is eight hundred and twenty tons burden, and pierced for eight guns. She is a side-wheel, and ranked third class. She is Clyde built, and can, under heavy pressure, make fifteen knots an hour. She has seven guns, three on each side, and a pivot bow gun, a 100-pounder Parrott, of long range. The side guns are two 32-pounders, two 68-pounders, two grane and canister pieces, also 68-pounders. Her crew numbers 153 men, 60 of whom are Americans who saw service during our war. She has 22 experienced gunners, and all the munitions, boarding hooks, and complete paraphernalia of a corsair. She is no privateer, but a regularly commissioned man-of-war, commanded of a corsair. She is no privated, commanded by a Cuben, with a commission from Cespedes. Her mission is to capture Spanish merchantmen and take them into Mexican ports for ad judication; she is also to capture and destroy Spanish transports, and all passenger steamers engaged on the Cuben coast, and, when prudent, attack Spanish armed steamships or sailing vessels. She will not be used as a transport, as reported. Whenever it is upsafe for her to carry her prizes into Mexican ports, she will save what she can of their cargoes, and then set fire to them and sink them at sea. sne will save what she can of their cargoes, and then set fire to them and sink them at sea. What the Alabama was to our commerce, the Cuba will be to Spanish commerce. Another use will be made of her. She will es out all expeditions into safe bays, and guard then until landed, and afterward escort the vessel carring them out to sea.

YOU TAKE.

WHEN YOU ABEEXHAUSTED BY OVERWORK of head or hand, and feel the need of something invisorating, don't drink whiskey or any intoxicating thing, whether under the name of Bitters or otherwise. Fuch articles, give just as much strength to your weary body and mind as the whip gives to the jaded horse, and no more. Alcoholic stimulants are injurious to Nerre health, and are ALWAYS followed by DEPRESSING REACTION.

Dodd's Nervine and Invigorator

Dodd's Nervine and Invigorator is a Tonic and Gentle Stimulant which is NoT attended by Beaction. What it gains for you it maintains. When it refreshes body or mind, it refreshes with natural strength that comes to stay. We are not recommending tectotalism in the interest of any faction; but long and extended observation teaches us that he who resorts to the bottle for rest or recuperation, will find, as he keeps at it, that he is kindling a fire in his bones which will consume like the fames of pendition. Turn from it. Take a tonic that will refresh and not destroy. DODD'S NERVINE is for sale by all-Druggists. Price One Dollar. See Book of Certificates that accompanies each bottle.

Dysentery Cordial, Female Tonic

CONSISTING OF HIS CELEBRATED

AND PURIFYING PILLS.

THE EXCELLENT BEMEDIES OF O. S. PROPHITT, M. D., need no recommendation—their well known power in removing the diseases peculiar to our Southern climate having already established for them an enviable reputation in Georgia and the adjoining States. As the majority of persons twing in the South are predisposed to disease of the Liver, it is granted by all intelligent physicians that most of the pains and aches of our people are due to organic or functional derangement of that important organ. Prophitt's Liver Medicine and Anti-Bilious Pills strike directly at the root of the evil. They cure the Liver, which in nine cases out of en, is at the bottom of the Coughs, Dyspepsia, Colic, Sick Headache, Rheumstism, Constipation, Menstrual Obstructions, &c., so common among our strual Obstructions, &c., so common among our people. Farache, Toothache, Acute Rheumatism, Neuralgia and bodily pains of every kind flee before PROPHITT'S PAIN KILL IT

PROPHITT'S LIVER MEDICINE.

PROPHITT'S LIVER MEDICINE.

Dr. Prophitt—Having used this medicine sufficiently long to test its virtue, and to satisfy my own mind that it is: an invaluable remedy for Dyspepsia—a disease from which the writer has suffered much for eix years—and being persuaded that hundreds who now suffer from this annoying complaint would be signally benedited, as he has been, by its use, we deem it a duty we owe to this unfortunate class to recommend to them the use of this remedy, which has given net, only himself but several members of his family the greatest relief.

M. W. AENOLD.

Of the Georgia Conference

Doold County, GA, April, 1887.

This is to certify that I was confined to the house, and most of the time to my hed, and suffering the greatest agony imaginable with Rheumatism, for dive months, and after trying every available remedy, with no relief, I was cured with two bottles of Dr. O. S. Prophitt's Anodyne Pain Kill It, each costing fifty cents only; it relieved me almost instantly. I therefore recommend it in the highest deceive to others suffering from similar disease. I can say that it is one of the best family medicines now out, certain. Yours truly.

V. A. FOREHAND.

Dr. Prophit.—Having used your Liver Medicine for more than a year in my family, I cheerfully recommend it to all persons suffering from Liver affections, Byspepeia or Indigestion in any form. I also recommend your Tysentery Cordial as the best remedy for that disease.

O. T. ROGERS. COVINGTON, GA., July 9, 1867.

STANFORDVILLE, PUTNAM COUNTY, Oct. 1, 1867.

Dr. O. S. Prophitt—Dear Six—This is to certify that I have used your Ague Pills for the last ten years, and I have never failed to cure the Ague in a single instance with them. They always break the chills the first day that they are given. I can recommend them as being the nest ague medicine that I have ever found, and they leave no bad effects following them, as Quinine, &c.

Yours respectfully.

A. WESTBROOK.

PUTNAM COUNTY, GA. September 22, 1868.

Dr. O. S. Prophitt—Sir—I have used for the last two years in my family your Liver Medicine, your Pain Kill It, and your Female Tonic, and I have no fears in saying that they are the best medicines I have ever used for the Liver and Stomach. Neuralgic and Rheumatic afflictions, Headache, Colic, and pains of every kind are subdued by them. After using the medicines so long, I cheerfully recommend them to any and every one, and to all that are afflicted, as the best and safest remedies for all the diseases for which they are recommended, &c.

Yours respectfully, JAMES WEIGHT.

DR. PROPHITT'S FEMALE TONIC. This Medicine, with its associates, is a safe and certain remedy for all curable diseases to which Females alone are liable. It is also an excellent preventative of Nervous Blindness, or Nervous Discases in either male or itemale. It is a powerful Nervins Tonic, setting up a full and free circulation throughout the system.

All of the above Medicines sold by Druggists and Merchants generally throughout the Southwest.
