To our Friends in the Country.

The strides which THE NEWS has made in circulation, especially in the country, within the last twelve months, encourage us to redouble our efforts to make it such a paper as everybody wants to read, and a visitor which shall be welcomed in every household in the State.

As a peculiarly attractive inducement to the planters of the State to become subscribers to THE NEWS before the expiration of the present year, we have arranged with Messrs. Walker, Bryan & Cogswell, the publishers of the "Rural Carolinian," to supply that new and superb agricultural magazine, together with THE NEWS, to new subscribers, at the following very low rates:

THE DAILY NEWS and the "Rural Carolinian," one year, for six dollars and fifty cents. THE TRI-WEEKLY NEWS and the "Rural Carolinian," one year, for four dollars.

Subscriptions to the two publications may be sent either to the proprietors of THE NEWS, or to the proprietors of the "Rural Carolinian." But persons desiring to avail themselves of this offer must do so before the first of January next, as the arrangement will not be extended beyond that period.

When these rates are contrasted with those of the Charleston papers before the war, when the yearly price of a daily was ten dollars, and of a tri-weekly five dollars, in gold, or its equivalent, we think we may fairly claim that THE NEWS has labored to some purpose in the diffusion of intelligence among the people at prices suited to the changed aspect of the times.

DEATH OF A JOURNALIST.—Things were received yesterday of the death of E. P. Lucas, Esq., proprietor of the Darlington Democrat.

THE CHARLESTON YET.—The News Job Office is now printing half-pennies in the best style and on the paper, at 25¢ per thousand. Merchants, think of it!

MORRIS ISLAND LIGHTS.—Our special Washington correspondent informs us that proposals are invited for the erection of a keeper's dwelling and two lights on Morris Island.

REMOVAL OF ADMINISTRATOR.—The Columbia Phoenix states that Governor Scott has appointed Julius J. Flamm magistrate for Charleston County, in place of L. Bunch, removed.

PERSONAL.—The Hon. Thomas Y. Simons has returned to the city. Robert Mure, Esq., of the firm of Robert Mure & Co., arrived in Charleston from Liverpool on Saturday.

THE FLORIDA STEAMSHIP LINE.—The steamer City Point will resume her plies upon the Florida route Saturday next, leaving here then, and on every Saturday thereafter, at 5 o'clock P. M. This will give the public three steamers a week to Savannah.

REMOVAL.—The office of W. R. Clayton, Esq., Collector of Internal Revenue for this district, has been removed from Broad street to the new Customhouse. The office of the collector is in the right-hand room, formerly occupied by the deputy collector of the port.

DEATH OF H. F. STROBECKER, Esq.—We are pained to announce the death of this well known and estimable merchant, who, from early manhood, has been identified with the hardware trade of our city. Mr. Strobecker had for many months past been in failing health. His loss will be mourned by the large circle of friends whom he had won by the uniform uprightness and integrity of his character.

THEATRICAL.—A good house attended the closing performance of the Collins & More Dramatic Company on Saturday evening. It is due to the managers to say that during the two weeks they have been with us their company has striven faithfully, and, generally speaking, with success, to please; and it affords us pleasure to announce that they will return a week hence and reopen at Hibernian Hall with fresh and attractive novelties.

BILL-STICKING.—SUIT FOR DAMAGES.—For several days past there has been considerable excitement among the bill-stickers. The bills of the Metropolitan Theatrical Company were first posted about the city. In some places the bills of Skiff & Gaylord's Minstrels were posted upon top of these. The next day the delightful countenances of the knights of the "burnt cork" were hidden, obscured by bills announcing that the Metropolitan troupe were still playing at the Hibernian Hall. On Saturday the New News Job Office prepared suit for damages against Messrs. Collins & More, laying the damages at ninety-nine dollars. The case will come up before Magistrate Schroder to-day.

A MODEL ESTABLISHMENT.—We invite the attention of the friends of THE NEWS in the city and throughout the State to the excellent facilities which our office enjoys for the prompt execution of all kinds of Book and Job Printing. Fully provided with new type and machinery of the latest and most approved pattern, and having a large and carefully selected stock of cards, envelopes and papers of all qualities, the News Job Office is now prepared to fill orders for every description of plain and ornamental printing in the very best manner, and at rates at least as low as any other establishment in the Southern States. Call at THE NEWS building (up-stairs) and examine our scale of prices and specimens of our work.

RAILROAD CONSOLIDATION IN NORTH CAROLINA.—The Wilmington Journal of yesterday announces that Dr. W. J. Hawkins, president of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad has resigned the North Carolina Road for twenty years, at six per cent. per annum upon the capital stock, subject to the approval of the stockholders, at a special meeting to be held in Raleigh on the 11th of November. The Journal is surprised at this attempt to make a private arrangement with one road when three others—Richmond, Danville and Piedmont, Wilmington and Weldon, and the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroads—were equally interested, and if this great work is to be rented, it would have commanded a much greater price at public auction.

DEPARTURE OF BISHOPS FOR THE ECUMENICAL COUNCIL.—The Baltimore Sun, alluding to the departure of the steamship Baltimore from that port for Bremen, on Wednesday next, says: Some ten of our respected prelates and as many priests and theological students have taken passage on the Baltimore for Bremen, thence to proceed to Rome to attend the Ecumenical Council. The list is as follows: The Most Reverend M. J. Spilling, D. D., Archbishop of Baltimore; Rt. Rev. John McGill, D. D., Bishop of Richmond; Rt. Rev. James F. Wood, D. D., Bishop of Philadelphia; Rt. Rev. M. J. Domenec, D. D., Bishop of Newburg; Rt. Rev. Tobias Mullen, D. D., Bishop of Erie; Rt. Rev. Jas. (John) D. V. A. Bishop of North Carolina; Rt. Rev. D. N. E. Bishop of New York; Rt. Rev. W. H. Elder, Bishop of Charleston, and Rt. Rev. W. H. Elder, Bishop of Natchez.

SKIFF AND GAYLORD'S MINSTRELS.—This company will open in this city to-night, and remain with us during the week. If the notices of the press in the different cities and towns they have visited can be taken as an evidence of their worth, we can assure our readers that a rich treat is in store for all who are fond of such entertainments. The following notice is taken from the Norfolk Journal:

The first part of the entertainment was gone through in a highly satisfactory manner. Low Gaylord and Harry Armstrong, who occupied the cad and never failed to keep the house in a storm of laughter, when we were at once silenced by the beautiful singing of Signor Gaudin. He rendered a ballad entitled "Come sit by my side, little darling," full of pathos and sentiment, and his rich baritone voice did full justice to the song. The two fascinating dancing queen, who were introduced by Harry Talbot, Joe Mairs and G. Lang, was very funny. The Triple Coo, by Stiles Phelps and Armstrong, was the gem of the evening. The opera scene from True-Bad-door was a very amusing burlesque. Several other specialties were presented. The performance, presided in by Professor Shaver's Fanciful Comedians. These views are worth the price of admission alone, to say nothing of their ministerial entertainment. It is thought especially commendable performance as entirely free from vulgar allusions or indecencies of any kind. A lady can attend with entire impunity, which is saying a great deal for a minstrel show.

THE FIRE SATURDAY NIGHT.—About half-past 7 o'clock Saturday night the bells sounded the alarm of fire. The engines were promptly out, and, after a long run, found the flames issuing from a kitchen on the premises of Mrs. Blake, at the corner of Columbus and Drake streets. Water was not easily obtained, and before the fire was extinguished Mrs. Blake's house, the house adjoining, occupied by Mr. N. F. Pett, a small frame house occupied by Mr. Moseley, and the stable of Mr. H. P. Strobecker, were consumed. We could not learn whether any of the property destroyed was insured. The loss, including the damage done to the fences, outbuildings, &c., will not, it is thought, exceed $5000. The building destroyed was of wood.

The houses of Messrs. Strobecker and Cochran were slightly damaged. There was a great scarcity of water. Streams were played through fifteen hundred feet of hose. But for this scarcity of water, little damage would have been done by the fire. It is believed that the fire was accidental.

We are informed by the Chief Engineer that there was much confusion because of the carelessness of the bell-ringer at the Orphan House. Desiring the engines from District Three, the bell-ringer ordered the bell to be sounded three times, but the bell-ringer sounded it twelve times, and brought on the entire department. After this the bell-ringer sounded the bell three times, which led every one to believe that there was a fire in District Three, and caused many of the firemen to leave the fire and come down town.

THE SWINDLERS.—THEY CARRY ON THEIR RASCALITY TO THE LAST.—THE NEWS has again received an account of the arrest here of "Westlake" and "Bergman," upon the charge of swindling.

About six o'clock on Saturday last they were carried before Magistrate Whiting and Schroder upon a writ of habeas corpus, and after an investigation were discharged. Lieutenant Phillip requested the postponement of the investigation, stating that the deputy sheriff of Savannah was hourly expected, and when he came could give satisfactory reasons for the prisoners being held in custody.

"Westlake" and "Bergman," as soon as they received their discharge, left on the South Carolina train. About 10 o'clock the same night, Mr. George S. Bartholmeas, deputy sheriff of Savannah, arrived with a requisition for the two men. He had three warrants for their arrest—two for stealing, three for forgery and the remainder for swindling. He communicated with Lieutenant Phillip and for the first time learned that the men had gone. He then stated that he would go in pursuit of them, and Lieutenant Phillip detailed Officer Trull to go with him. Telegrams were then sent to Augusta, Branchville, Columbia and Florence requesting the authorities to be on the lookout for the swindlers and arrest them. The deputy sheriff and Officer Trull left on the South Carolina train yesterday morning.

The swindlers employed a lawyer to represent them before the magistrates and handed him a package marked fifty dollars, the amount they had agreed to pay him. On opening it he found that it contained only thirty-seven dollars.

Officers Bartholmeas and Trull arrived at Branchville at 12 o'clock yesterday and found that the swindlers had left there for Wilmington on the "lightning train" about two hours before. While waiting at Branchville a dog bit one of the swindlers. He wanted to kill the dog with his pistol, but refrained when the owner intimated that he would treat the shooter to a dose of shot if the dog was hurt. The officers telegraphed to the authorities at Wilmington to arrest the swindlers.

CRIMES.—Thomas Graham, negro, one of the parties implicated in the theft of nine hundred pounds of cotton from the plantation of Captain Cordes, has escaped.

One million two hundred and eleven thousand one hundred and ninety-three pounds of sea island cotton, valued at $1,070,754, were exported from the Customs District of Charleston to foreign countries during the year ending the 30th of September, 1869.

Thirteen fowls, saved from the fire Saturday night, are at the Gunarhouse awaiting their owner.

Messrs. W. N. Hughes and C. P. Frazer will endeavor to get pay from the time they were ousted to the date of abolishing the offices of Assessor and Assistant Assessor.

At the Fair of the Library Association, the Comet and Union Star Fire Companies, colored, carried off two prizes offered; the first prize consisting of a silver pitcher and goblets, and the latter of two silver goblets.

Six new lamps were placed upon the King street plank road last week.

Among the jurors drawn by Council Friday night for the State Court is a negro man, Benjamin Mills, charged with being one of the rioters during the visit of the Savannah Base Ball Club.

Thirty-six witnesses have been summoned to appear at the trial of Mr. C. N. Averil, Flour Inspector, to-night.

One hundred and seventy thousand feet of lumber were inspected here last week.

Alteman Green's "Stevenson's bill" will be brought up at the meeting of Council to-morrow night.

The United States Court was not in session Saturday.

"The South Carolina Presbytery," composed of nine colored ministers, which has been in session here for several days, adjourned last Friday to meet in Columbia next April.

Rumor hath it that Governor Scott will deprive R. S. Tharin and Geo. A. Richmond of their commissions as notaries public.

It is understood that an effort will be made at each meeting of Council to get $3000 appropriated for D. T. Corbin.

Mr. James McIndoo, on Saturday, requested us to place upon our bulletin board the statement that he had been appointed by the Mayor Flour Inspector pro tem.

There are about one thousand applications on file for appointments upon the police force, and two or three more are added every day.

Some of the Georgia papers are getting off some bad puns about Manager Templeton.

It is thought that Council will be in session nearly every night this week.

The Mayor and Aldermen elect of Savannah will be sworn into office at 12 M. to-day.

A meeting of the journeymen painters will be held at the Military Hall to-night.

A white man, named Brown, while at the fire Saturday night, imagining that a white man was about to murder him, demanded of some colored friend "protection in the name of the United States."

The Legal Debating Society meets this evening. The thanks of those interested are returned to Dr. M. F. Hanckel for a present to the library of the Parochial School of twenty-five very acceptable volumes.

LOSS OF THE SCHOONER LUCY W. ALEXANDER.—By the arrival yesterday from Florida of the steamer Dictator, we learn that the schooner Lucy W. Alexander, Townsend, from Matanzas for Baltimore, with a cargo of sugar and molasses, was wrecked during the latter part of September, on one of the Florida Keys. Captain Townsend came in the Dictator as far as Savannah, but stopped at that point to note his protest and attend to other matters in the interest of his vessel. The vessel and cargo are reported to be a total loss.
