CITY COUNCIL.-The regular meeting of this body was not held last night.

ITALIAN MONUMENTS .- Mr. A. F. Chevreux stonecutter and architect, has imported direct from Italy some monuments made in that sunny clime, but from plans furnished by himself. The monuments arrived in the steamer Darien, and may be seen at the marble-yard in Meeting

THE FLOUR INSPECTORSHIP TROUBLES.-Yesterday Messrs. John Campsen & Co. were before the Mayor to answer the charge of selling flour inspected contrary to law-said flour having been inspected by Mr. Averill. The Mayor ordered that the flour should be inspected by Mr. Caulfield, who should also receive the fees.

THE COMPLIMENTARY BENEFIT TO-MORROW NIGHT .- A very pleasant and varied programm is presented for the complimentary benefit to be given Mr. Mark Read and Miss La Fond, to-morrow evening, and it is to be hoped that these deserving artists will have a substantial recognition of their dramatic merits.

NEW VESSELS .- Notwithstanding the steady encroachments of steam upon sails, a fair proportion of craft continue to be built to be pro pelled by canvas. During the present season several vessels of superior models have entered our port, and, among others, a new bark called the "Mary Killam," just arrived from Yarmouth (N. S.) She is a fine specimen of a moderate sized merchantman, and is consigned to Messrs. J. & T. Getty, who will place her on the berth for INQUESTS.—Coronor Whiting held an inques Buckley, found drowned in a cistern on Sullivan's Island. The verdict of the jury was "accidental An inquest was also held over the body of a colored infant of a woman named Taylor, living on St. Philip street. The testimony showed that the his opinion that the Alderman they had come to child died from an attack of croup while its expel would not be expelled, and would sue mother was asleep. The verdict of the jury was in accordance with the above.

FIRE IN THE WOODS .- The Columbia Phoenix of yesterday says: "During the past few days our streets have been partially darkened by clouds of smoke, caused by an extensive condagration in the woods, about seven miles above Columbia. We are informed that the fire commenced in the vicinity of the farm of Mr. Reuber Smith, on the Winnsboro' Road, and was quite extensive, although, so far as we have been able to learn, no houses have been destroyed. It is believed that the fire was extinguished last night."

PARADE AND INSPECTION. Yesterday after-noon the United Fire Company, colored, about seventy-five strong, and headed by a band of Broad street, near the Guardhouse, the Mayor and Aldermen E. P. Wall, colored, and Holloway, colored, impreced the company. After the inspection the company manned their drags, ran with their apparatus about one hundred yards, unrecied a section of hose, and commenced to play in a very short space of time.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS-At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Wando Mining and Manufacturing Company, held on Monday last,

At a meeting of the directors, held yes the following officers were re-elected: John R. Dukes, President; Thomas D. Dotterer, Superintendent; T. B. Hacker, Secretary and Treasurer

BILL OF MORTALITY. The Health Officer's report shows that during the week ending Octoher 30th, there were thirty-three deaths in the city—aix whites and twenty-seven blacks. Of the six whites, there were five female adults and one female child. Of the twenty-seven blacks, six were male and nine female adults; five male and seven female children. A reference to the returns of deaths for the last two years will show that the number of deaths of males has exceeded the deaths of females. This week the order is reversed. Of the thirty-three deaths, the females are twenty-two, males eleven.

RESULT OF THE LONGSHOREMEN'S STRIKE.-The apprehensions expressed in recent issues of THE NEWS were yesterday realized, and owing to a lack of organization and of a determined spirit on the part of the shippers, the Longshoremen's Union has carried its point. The "strikers" yesterday, with Stevedore Stoddard at their head, resumed work on the bark A. B. Wyman, and on els, the loading of which had been delayed by the strike. As a result of the resolution passed by the longshoremen that no member should work for any stevedore not a member of the Union under a penalty of ten dollars, most of the stevedores were yesterday making overtures

The views of this paper with regard to the policy-or, to speak more properly, the want of policy-with which the shippers have seen fit to Brown, colored-11. Aldermen Hampton and Mcmeet the aggressive course of the longshoremen, have already been given to the public; and we can only hope that the passive conduct of the employers in this instance may not result in fresh and infurious aggressions upon the commercial interests of the city. SALES OF REAL ESTATE.—The following sales of real watate were made yesterday:

THE SHOOTING GALLERY.

The Mayor Requests A Caucus of the Aldermen, but a Special Meeting of Council is held instead-Alderman T. J. Mackey is not Summoned, but Comes, Armed to the Teeth with the elected to the same." Law-Charges of Assaulting with Inspecting flour, and that being considered by the tent to Kill Preferred against Him-Mayor a violation of said ordinance, he imposed a The Trial to take Place To-Morrow fine of $50. Messrs. Wilkinson and Gilchrist, who represented Mr. Averill, demurred to the jurisdiction of the court, and when the fine was im-

Since last Thursday night, when Alderman T. J. Mackey showed his appreciation for his nephew E. W. M. Mackey, by shooting at him three times in the Council Chamber during the session, the Aldermen generally-exclusive of the two above mentioned-have been in a state of excitement, which increased as the time for the regular meeting drew nigh.

As rumor hath it, one Alderman thought that Alderman Thomas Jefferson Mackey should be expelled, and did any amount of caucusing mong his brethren to ascertain their views and bring them to his way of thinking. In his efforts he was quite successful, and on Monday reported eleven who had expressed their willingness to meet the issue and the "shootist" and vote for his expulsion. But, in the opinion of this Alderman who wished to break up the band of brothers and displace their "General," thirteen votes were necessary to do so and make "one vacant chair" around the festive board, and he had only eleven votes. As he could not obtain any more, the plan of offering, seconding and immediately passing a resolution for immediate expulsion was

The plan of preferring charges and specification against the disorderly member was then thought of. A conference was necessary, however, to ascertain the status of the Aldermen in regard to this move, and early yesterday the Mayor requested the presence of all of them excepting Alderman T. J. Mackey, at the Council Chamber at 1 o'clock. At 1 o'clock the Council Chamber was undisturbed by the presence of any of the fathers. The marks of the missiles on the window, table and wall were the only signs that remained to remind one of the shooting affray only a short time ago. That pistol was not there. [No one seems to know where it was carried after being "uncocked" by an Alderman who did it the day after the shooting at the request of the Mayor, who said, (so the said Alderman says,) he was unaccustomed to such things.] About ten minutes past 1 Aldermen Geddings, Potter, Cunningham, Barrow, Voigt and the Mayor were present. In a few minutes, however, Aldermen Collins, E. W. M. Mackey, Hampton, Small, Howard, Holloway, Brown, Mc-Kinlay, L. F. and E. P. Wall, were reported as present. Aldermen Greene and Thorne and T. J. yesterday over the body of the little son of Mr. Mackey, the latter of whom had not been sumnoned, were absent. Most of the members assembled in the Council Chamber, but after remaining there awhile a number went into the clerk's office and talked matters over. One colored Alderman stated as Council for "assault and battery if it attempted to put him out." Another stated that he (Alderman T. J. M.) weuld fight it out on that line if any attempt was made to expel him. A bystander suggested that if the Alderman were expelled, he (T. J. M.) would organize a Council of his own, declare the old one illegal and with the new one attend to municipal affairs. Just at this moment some one reported that the Alderman in question had arrived, whereupon a brother Alderman, with a dusky skin, thought that if there was any chance of a row the police had better be sent for. Two o'clock arrived, and the prospects of a meeting, although more than a sufficient number to constitute a quorum were present, seemed very unfavorable. The Aldermen were scattered about, some in the Council Chamber, others in music, paraded through the principal streets. On the clerk's office, and some in the Mayor's office. Alderman T. J. Mackey was in his office armed with a large book entitled, "Abbott's Digest Law of Corporations," the contents of which bearing upon his case it was evident he intended, if opportunity were offered, to hurl at the Aldermen with the same freedom that he had hurled bullets from his revolver at the last meeting of Council. MEETING OF COUNCIL.

During this delay, Alderman Voigt and Cunningham were out, and if rumor be true, were at the office of the City Attorney (D. T. Corbin,) havthe following gentlemen were re-elected as the ling charges and specifications drawn up. Short-ling charges and specifications Aiken, George E. Gibbon, L. D. Mowry, F. J. Pelassembled in the Council Chamber, and it was decided that a special meeting, and not a caucus, should be held.

When the meeting was called to order, Alderman Voigt presented the following charge and Assistant Appraiser alias Assistant Assessor, City specification, Alderman T. J. Mackey being pre-

CHARGE AND SPECIFICATION AGAINST THOMAS J. J. MACKEY, ALDERMAN OF WARD NO. 3

J. MACKEY, ALDERMAN OF WARD SO. OF THE CITY OF CHARLESTON.

Charge.—Misconduct in office.

Specification.—In this that he, Thomas J.

Mackey, Alderman of Ward No. 5 of the City of Charleston, did, at a meeting of the City Council of Charleston, duly assembled on the 25th day of October, 1869, in the City of Charleston, and while in the exercise of his office as Alderman from Ward No. 3 of the City of Charleston, and a memwhile in the exercise of his office as Alderman from Ward No. 3 of the City Connell of Charleston, and a member of the City Council of Charleston, make an assault with a deadly weapon, to wit, a loaded pistol, upon E. W. M. Mackey, a member of said City Council and Alderman from Ward No. 2 of the City of Charleston, and with intent to kill him, said E. W. M. Mackey, said deadly weapon three several times, all of which is contrary to the good order, peace and safety of the City Council, and in violation of the rights of said City Council, and in agrant violation of his, said Thomas J. Mackey's, duty as an Alderman from Ward No. 3 of the City of Charleston.

Alderman Geddings then offered the following

resolution:

Resolved, That the charge and specification preferred against Thomas J. Mackey, Alderman of Ward No. 3, of the City of Charleston, be accepted and adopted, and that a copy thereof be served upon said Thomas J. Mackey, and he be summoned to appear before the City Council on the 4th day of November, at 6 o'clock P. M., to answer said charge and specification, and abide the order of said City Council ther. on.

The vote prop. the resolution was taken, and we esolution :

The vote upon the resolution was taken, and we learn that the following voted for it: The Mayor, Aldermen Geddings, Voigt, Barrow, Cunningham, Potter, Collins, (white,) Holloway, Howard, Small, Kinlay, colored (2,) voted against the resolution Aldermen E. P. and L. F. Wall, colored, and E.W M. and T. J. Mackey, (4,) not voting.

The resolution was declared adopted. Council then adjourned until 6 o'clock to-mor-

WILL HE BE EXPELLED?

Some of the Aldermen in favor of expelling Alderman T. J. Mackey claim that he will be certainly expelled, as they will have votes sufficient to do so legally. They claim that the following will vote for expulsion: Mayor, Barrow, Collins, Cunningham, Greene, Geddings, Potter, Voigt, B-P. and L. F. Wall, Small, Howard, Brown, Holloway, (14,) and E. W. M. Mackey, Thorne, Hampton and McKinlay, (4) against.

THE COAL MARKET .- The following intelligence in reference to the present condition of the coal market, is contained in a letter from Philadelphia, under date October 30th: "We have to advise you of a decided advance in the market since we last wrote you. The demand continues very large, and we are obliged to refuse orders. We quote to you, however, red ash egg $7 50 per seventy feet, with a depth of one hundred and ton, with an advancing tendency."

CORRIN HAS AN ORDER FOR THE THREE D. T. Corbin an order upon the City Treasurer for the sum of three thousand dollars, and that on the same day Corbin applied to the treasurer for the money, and when told that that amount was not in the treasury, asked for five hundred dollars on account, which he did not receive-for the same reason we suppose. If a meeting of Council had been held last night the subject would have been brought up, unless the Mayor had put on the "gag," and thoroughly discussed It is thought the money will never be paid. We have heard one Alderman, who was one of the earliest and warmest supporters of the claim, aswest side of Limehouse street, known as lot No. sert that the claim was not legally passed, and and. Send your orders. Every merchant and

THE FLOUR INSPECTOR-HE IS FINED FIFTY DOLLARS, AND APPEALS .- Yesterday Mr. C. N. Averill, Flour Inspector, was arraigned before the Mayor to answer the charge of violating the ordinance "to prevent or punish any person who may exercise, or attempt to exercise, the duties of any municipal office, unless he shall have been duly posed, announced that they would appeal. Afterward Mr. Averill gave bond in the sum of $100 before Magistrate Mackey to appear before the City Court. THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC-A MARKED COMPLI-MENT TO A YOUNG CHARLESTON ARCHITECT .- Mr. John Chadwick, the proprietor of our new and magnificent Opera-House, publishes the following well deserved tribute to the marvellous energy and promptitude with which Mr. John H. The fines imposed by the Mayor yesterday amounted to $87. Five benzine guzzlers were before the Mayor vesterday. Mr. Buckley, whose son was drowned on Sullivan's Island on Sunday last, has lost three children by drowning-one while crossing the bar in a boat, another fell into a tub, and the last in a cistern.

It was Louis J. Taylor, and not Isaac Taylor. who was secretary of the colored Conservative meeting held Monday night. The Grand Jury of the State Court yesterday returned several true bills. There was a council composed of representatives of all the Union Leagues of Charleston County, held at the Military Hall last Thursday.

THE COMING AMUSEMENT SEASON promises to be one of the gayest and most attractive ever known in Charleston. The new Academy of Music, now nearly completed, has, we are gratified to learn, been leased by that excellent gentleman and prince of managers, John T. Ford, of Ealtimore, for two months from the first of December, on which date the building will be turned over to him by its proprietor in complete order. We are much mistaken if this bijou of an opera-house does not prove a powerful attraction to the crowds of visitors from all parts of this and the adjoining States, who resort to Charleston for purposes of trade.

Manager Ford proposes, we learn, to open the Academy of Music with a short season of grand French opera; and as he never does things by halves, we may expect first-rate artists, with a full and trained orchestra and chorus, and a series of performances which will crowd the house from pit to dome. The French opera will be succeeded by the charming Chapman Sisters with the come Bishop, who are now delighting New Orleans-and these in turn by other novelties not less attractive. On the conclusion of Manager Ford's engagement in February, the Academy will be leased for a short season to the famous Worrell Sisters, whose representations have been so popular in New York and throughout the West. Besides these, negotiations are on foot which ins tify the expectation that we shall be visited in turn by Brignoli, Miss McCullough, Parepa-Rosa, Patti and other divinities-so that, altogether, there is no danger of our languishing this winter for want of evening amusements.

THE OUSTED OFFICERS-JUDGE MOSES AWARDS A RULE AGAINST THEM .- On Thursday last the counsel of Messrs. W. N. Hughes, Asses tor, applied to Chief Justice Moses to grant a rule to make P. J. Coogan, M. G. Cemplin, colored to make P. J. Coogan, M. G. Camplin, colored, Just received, and will be OPENED TO-DAY, at offices respectively of Appraiser alias Assesso Sheriff and Flour Inspector, show cause why they should not be attached for contempt of court in not obeying the recent order of the Chief Justice forbidding them to meddle with or concern themselves about the duties of the offices they then held and now hold.

On Saturday the Chief Justice granted the ap plication, as will be seen by the following copy of the rule filed in the Clerk's office yesterday, coples of which have been served on the parties interested:

THE STATE EX REL. THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL VS P. J. COOGAN, [OR M. G. CAMPLIN, OR GEORGE ADDISON, OR M. CAULFIELD, AS THE CASE MIGHT BE.] On hearing the affidavit in this case, on motion of Lesesne & Miles, it is ordered that a rule do forthwith issue against P. J. Coogan, for M. G. Camplin, or George Addison, or M. Caulfield, as the case might be, requiring him to show cause why he should not be attached for contempt, in why he should not be attached for contempt, in not obeying the order of the Court hitherto made in this case, and filed in the office of the Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas for Charleston County on the 8th day of October Inst.

Wilbur & Son, at No. 186 King, opposite Silcox's Furniture Warerooms. The collection will be open to inspection all day to-day.

KISSING EXTRAORDINARY .- To kiss voluntarily is always a pleasure; sometimes it is a luxury There is, we presume, some gratification, how ever small, in one school girl kissing another there is certainly more in a young mother kissing her first offspring, and surely there is the heighth of happiness in a lover kissing his mistress, and vice versa. But to kiss against your will, to kiss your father's grand uncle when you are a boy, or your mother's grand aunt when you are a girl that is abominable. But to be made to kiss the same person one hundred times a day, in public and in private, and that person an old person and an ugly person, a person without heart, soul or inclination, is not that the depth of misery? How, then, should we pity those two India rubber counterfeits of aged humanity, compelled hourly to undergo this mockery of felicity for the amuse Depot, at No. 229 King street.
