Supply Dears .- Mr. Henry Oetjen, an old resident of this city, died suddenly, on Saturday, se of the heart. He had eaten his dinner, and was in apparent good health when the stroke came without warning. By his industrious and frugal habits Mr. Oction had acquired a nice property, and was among our most respected German fellow-cluzens. He was fifty-six years of age and had been a resident of Charleston for thirty-four years. He leaves a wife and four children.

AN INVOLUNTARY BATH. Early yesterday morning, while a benighted individual was tortu-ously wending his way homeward, he encountered the arcesian Well troughs, in Wentworth street. The sight of so much water evidently made him see sick, and a sudden lurch destroybrium, he was placed hors du com of at the bottom of the trough. The situation ing, but the ducking proved more us than the famous "hock and sods," and he resumed his homeward tramp a wetter and a wiser man, though more firmly convinced that water should be taken with moderation.

ACCIDENT TO THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—The eavy rain of Friday night caused some damage the ceiting of the Opera-House, a portion of the reaco work having been saturated with water the canada it to fall to the ground. It appears a skylight over the third tier had not been ed, but only covered by a tarpaulin. This n insufficient protection, but the damage ally repaired. A CONSTABLE QUIWITTED.-The constable haps, in pursuit of an escaped prisoner, have been stready chronicled, was again made the victim of mispiaced confidence. A few days since, he traced his man to the South Carolina Railroad depot, and then and their seized him. The game was shared and all Souned serene, but the wily prisoner proved again to be too smart for his captor, and relating his stick he tapped the on the cranium. The blow was given er measured of the ground on a lively pair of legs. The constable registered a huge oath that he won't be outwitted the next time.

PILOTAGE. The Philadelphia Ledger says At a meeting of the vessel owners and captains sociation of Philadelphia, on Wednesday, the illegal charges for pilotage in Charleston harbor, S. C. It is the custom there to charge full pilotage at very high rates against all vessels, whether they take a pilot or not. This was protested against, and a resolution passed instructing the captains of longing to the association that are loensed in the coasting trade not to pay pilotage on arriving at or departing from the port of Charleston unless a pilot renders service. As litigation may result, it was also resolved that the association will defend all suits arising under SURVIVORS' ASSOCIATION FOR RICHLAND,g was held in Columbia on Saturday eve ming to form this association. General Wade Hampton was called to the chair, and Mr. R. C. Shiver was appointed scoretary. The meeting or-ganized itself into a Survivors' Association, adopt-ed a constitution, and elected the following ed a constitution, and elected the following officers: Wade Hampton, president; William Wal-lade, A. G. Haskell, W. H. Stack, Warren Adams, Hoe-presidents; W. K. Bachman, secretary; R. C. Shiver, treasurer. Steps were taken to increase the list of members, and the following gentlemen were appointed to represent the Richland Survi vors' Association in the proposed convention to form a State association, which is to meet in the Dity of Charleston on the 18th instant: Wade Adams, William Wallace, J. H. Kinsler, William Weston, J. P. Thomas, R. C. Shiver, Edward Per-Myal, Dr. Darby and W. C. Swaffield.

TVI SORSCRIBERS FOR CHINAMEN. - The Savan nah Republican says: "After a consultation with the sub-agent at this place, we feel it to be our duty to advise those who have contracted with Mr. Joseph, of San Francisco, for Chinese laborers, not to depend upon them for the crop of 1870, but to go on and hire other hands as usual. We do not wish to be understood as reflecting upon the integrity or good faith of Mr. Joseph or his company—and he has stipulated for no particular fay for their delivery, the uncertainties of the seas ng it inexpedient-but we are convinced, in lew of the great distance and the short time to intervene, that the laborers cannot be got here in e to put in the coming crop. We believe they will be here during the spring or early summer, and, come when they may, if subscribers are al ready supplied with satisfactory force, there will off their hands for the remainder of the year."

LECTURE OF THE RIGHT REV. BISHOP LYNCH. A large and attentive audience assembled last H. C. Moffatt, Buffalo, N. Y.; S. B. Holbrood, Or evening, in St. Patrick's Church, to hear a lecture from Bishop Lynch on the "Liquefaction of the blood of St. Januarius." The Bishop gave his audience a vivid description of a visit to Italy, with full details of the miracle as witnessed by himself. He depicted in glowing colors the trials deliver a lecture on the Education of the Blind, at of the saint, and his martyrdom about fifteen centuries ago, and closed with a life-like picture Wadmalaw; R. > WALHALLA.-The Oconee Courier gives this sketch of the Village by the Ridge: "There is no need of idleness here. Work, work, is the great try. Buildings are going up from the depot to the north end, and the saw and hammer of the Haddock, Philadelphia; Thomas Sawyer and fam. fitted and repainted, adding to the appearance of the place. The forge of the smith is not allowed is busy, and the lafer, the drone of society, finds no associates. Walhalla is growing and spreading out her arms, inviting trade. Already in area and inhabitants, she is ahead of her sister towns of the mountains. Her business houses are more numerous and active than in any up-country town. A generous competition governs in every branch of trade, giving the farmer the best prices for his produce and the cheapest market to sup ply his wants. New corn opened in this place at $1 per bushel, old corn is still selling at $1 50. Cotton was sold here last week at 20% to 24 MONTHLY CONCERT OF THE ST. JOHN'S LU-

THESAN CHURCH SUNDAY SCHOOL.—The exercises of this school were agreeably diversified yesterday afternoon by speeches from some of the pupils and singing by the school in concert. The church was crowded, the classes occupying the pews on the centre aisle, the occupants of which were forced to find accommodation elsewhere. Speeches were made by the following young gentlemen, all of whom acquitted themselves handsomely: St. Clair West, "Perseverance;" Herbert Smith, "Appeal for Teachers;" Julian Smith, "The best that I can do;" Charles von Santen, "It is more blessed to give;" Christopher Tidemann, "Childhood's Home," The young speakers handled their subjects like born orators, and only the sacredness of the place and the recollection of the day prevented their receiving their meed of applause. The exercises were varied by singing, in which the little choristers showed great proficiency. An address, suitable to the occasion was delivered by Rev. Dr. Hicks. The Sunday school is under the superinendence of Mr. Robert Chisolm, and is in a flourishing condition.

BOWEN AND MACKEY-ALMOST A BLOODY

ENCOUNTER .- About two o'clock on Saturday afternoon, when business men were preparing to go to their dinners, an incident took place which varied, in a rather agreeable manner, the duliness that reigned around the historic corners of Broad and Meeting streets. Ex-Alderman Thomas Jefferson Mackey was standing near the guard-house conversing with Officer Nipson and Roundsman Read, when his eagle eye espled the Honora ble Christopher Columbus Bowen coming from the direction of the Fireproof building. Promptly crossing over to the Courthouse cerner, Mackey that having heard that he (Bowen) had expressed a desire to meet him in reference to the letter published in THE NEWS of Saturday morning; with a vim, and the constable, wilting under its he (Mackey) had come to reassert to his conserved, relaxed his hold and the quondam prisonhe (Mackey) had come to reassert to his And this he proceeded to do in a liberate and not very genteel fashion. monologue (for Bowen spoke not a word) was interspersed with spicy allusions to the Honorable gentleman's eventful career, and was accom panied with gestires which might fairly be set down as unmistakable symptoms of an over-dose of morphine. Bowen, however, seems to have neglected to take his dose of the pugnacity-inspiring drug, and muttering something about not wishing to soil his (not over-clean) hands by touching his assailant, made a desperate and successful push at an accelerated pace for the Courthouse entrance. Once within its sheltering portals, Bowen rapidly dispersed, while the vengeful Mackey was left out in the cold.

CRIMBS -Joseph Auton was arrested for as sault and battery on Angelo Cervetes. The agray occurred on Union wharf.

Annie Adams, for stealing ninety dollars in noney and two coats, was arrested by Officer Lovett and committed for investigation. A little son of Wm. Hanley's was run over by an express wagon in King street last Friday evening. Though seriously injured, no bones were The three hundred dollar music box raffled at Von Santen's, was won by Miss Emily C. Ravenel. Mr. Peabody's death was announced to the teachers of the public schools on Saturday, and the exercises of their schools closed from respect to his memory.

A boat that was reported to be stolen was found by Officer Lovett on the schooner N. W. Smith. The captain stated that it had been picked up adrift.

A fracas was threatened on Saturday evening between some of the employees at the South Carolina Railroad shops and the police were sent for, but the crowd dispersed without any disturbance. It is rumored that a cockfight will soon take place between two "stags" from Georgetown and Charleston, at one hundred dollars a side. Hugh Craig has been appointed by Governor Scott judge of probate for Chesterfield County. Charles Edmondston, magistrate for Barnwell County, has been removed.

The respective chiefs of the rival Radical clans are evidently on the alert to conciliate the men of the "rich Irish brogue." Pillsbury and Mackey were attentive and conspicuous listeners to the lecture of Bishop Lynch at St. Patrick's Church last evening. Nuff ced.

Tribute of Respect.

At a meeting of Mechanics' Union, No. 1, held at Eagle Hall, on Monday, November 2, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted: Whereas, In the all-wise providence of Almighty culty in getting either class of laborers | God, this Union has been deprived, for the first time since its organization, by death, of one of its members; we desire, therefore, to place upon record some evidence of respect and esteem. Be

CHARLESTON, May 16, 1868.

Mr. J. B. RUSSELL, one of our careful and intelligent Pharmaceutists and Apothecaries, has submitted to my examination the formula for the preparation of a Soothing Cordial prepared and vended by him.

It affords me pleasure to express a favorable opinion of its safe and efficient adaptation to the particular cases of the diseases of children, which it is designed to relieve.

E. GEDDINGS, M. D.

E. GEDDINGS, M. D.

Having had occasion to prescribe Russell's Soothing Cordial in severe cases of Bowel Complaints in children and delicate females, I have been much pleased with its effects. I consider it a valuable medicine in all cases, in which it may be advisable to avoid the use of anodyne, and particularly for family use, as it is perfectly safe.

W. T. WRAGG, M. D.

CHARLESTON, S. C., 1869.

Dear Sir—I have used your Soothing Cordial for Diarrhon in teething children, and find it a very excellent preparation. It has a great advantage over most preparations of the kind in containing no Opium or Narcotic.

When these are required they can be added in proportions applicable to the case.

I therefore can recommend its use in the affections for which it is designed.

Respectfully yours, &c.,

Respectfully yours, &c., T. L. OGIER, M. D.

CHARLESTON, S. C., 1868. I certify that I have most successfully used Russell.'s Soothing Cordial in the Summer Complaints of Infants. He has fully exhibited the ingredients of his remedy, and the tedious method of preparation. I recognize the prescription—containing no anodyne whatever—as a most safe and efficacious one in bowel affections of children. and ellicacious one in bowel affections of children. When much pain or restlessness attends the affection, doses of Paregoric can be added to the prescribed doses of the Cordial according to the age of the patient. The compound, though more often, acts in an efficient manner without any addition of anodyne.

In the Diarrhoza of the aged, in increased doses, it is of great value as a remedy; never disagreeing with the stomach—increasing appetite, improving digestion, and acting as a slow but officient astringent agent.

cient astringent agent. W. M. FITCH, M. D.

Mr. J. B. Russell:

Dhar Sir—I have used your Soothing Cordial for children extensively in my practice, and most cheerfully testify to its merits. I have found it, without an exception, to accomplish all it claims, and consider it superior to anything in use for children.

MOUNT PLEASANT, S. C., 1868.

Its freedom from anodyne of any kind recommends it as a perfectly safe preparation in the hands of mothers and inexperienced nurses.

Vory respectfully, &c.,
