THE MORMONS IN COTHAM.

Their Numbers, Condition and Prospects-A Mormon Temple to be Erected in New York-What it will Cost-Interesting Interview with a Mormon

A Mormon temple is to be erected in New York City within the coming year. A committee, at whose disposal the requisite funds will be placed by the Mormons in this country, has been appointed to choose a suitable site and to nothing, and may prove a blessing. make the necessary arrangements for the edifice. They have nearly completed their dress REV. EDWARD A. The New York Times says:

This building, which will cost at least $500,-000, is to be a house of reception for Mormon emigrants from Europe, and a resting place for the travelling brethren of the United States. A portion of it will be set apart for the accommodation of unprotected temales, who, because of the general belief that they are polygamists, are tooked upon as ioose characters, and are beset by men for no other than vicious purposes. Here, however, it is intended they shall be received, watched over and kept patil they can purpus their journey to their until they can pursue their journey to their friends in safety. Those who are poor and without the means to provide for their imme-diate wants, will here find a home until they get employment and can settle themget employment and can settle them-selves confortably. Apartments will be fur-nished also for the use of missionary saints and elders sojourning in this section to watch over the religious welfare of the faithful scat-tered throughout the Eastern States. This temple they will make their Eastern head-quarters, whence they will journey from time to time to make a circuit North and South among the various Mornon communities. With men this is bad enough, but with the females it is terrible. Their miseries in many instances only began with robbery and starvation. These dangers will be lessened, if not entirely obviated, at the existence of the Mormon Temple. Emigrants will step from the ship to it, where they will find warm friends ready to shelter and aid them. The Mormons are fast becoming a large sect among us. They are numerous in t.is city and Brooklyn, although so quietly has Mormonism grown up in our midst, that it is progress has been scarcely objective by the general public. At present are upward of three hendred families of Latter-day Saints in Brooklyn, and as many, if not more, in New York. They have a church in Brooklyn, which is open to all comers, and are governed by a saint and several elders. These people ever look forward to the day which will see them located in the city of the saints and their prophet Brig church, which is well filled from 9 A. M. until 9 P. M. In their business transactions with Christians they are scrupulously honest, and where they deal once they invariably strive to keep up the connection. It seems to be their object, however, to trade as little as possible with those who are not of their creed, in consequence of which they do not come so much under the notice of outsiders, and are so little known to the public.
