Spain Demands her Gunboats.—The Terrible Consequences of a Refusal.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE NEWS.]

WASHINGTON, November 26.

An important Cabinet meeting was held to-day. The subject of discussion was the seizure of the Spanish gunboats at Mystic.

It is rumored that General Sickles has telegraphed Secretary Fish, to the effect that the Spanish authorities have instructed their Minister at Washington to demand again the release of the gunboats, and that if the demand is not complied with, he will ask for his passports.

Several Spanish war vessels having gathered at New York, the government has ordered a number of iron-clads to that point.

The impression prevails that after this sensation blows over, the gunboats will be released.

Commissioner Delano relieves split kindling wood from the tax hitherto imposed. Revenue to-day $465,000.

A large number of opinions are expected to be delivered by the Supreme Court on Monday. No arguments will be heard after Tuesday. The new term begins on December 4.

SOUTHERN LEGISLATURES.

NASHVILLE, November 26.

The Tennessee House of Representatives repealed the law allowing negroes to hold office or act as jurors by a vote of 41 to 30.

MONTGOMERY, November 26.

In the Alabama House of Representatives a Democratic member from Mobile was expelled on the ground that before the war he had been a county commissioner. McKinstry (radical) who was defeated by McGehee by 800 majority, will be admitted at an early day. McKinstry was in the Legislature before the war, and was probably a just judge; his disabilities have not been removed. It is thought that several other Democrats will be expelled in a day or two.

BALTIMORE, November 26.

The North Carolina House of Representatives began the investigation of the railroad frauds to-day. The treasurer was examined. He has issued all the bonds to railroad companies. There is much excitement.

A MAN SHOT.

NEW YORK, November 26.

Albert D. Richardson, one of the reporters captured at Vicksburg while floating past on a cotton bale, during the war, was shot last night in the Tribune office by a lawyer named McFarland. The ball lodged in his stomach. McFarland shot Richardson a year ago for intimacy with the (McFarland's) wife.

ANOTHER MAN SHOT.

NEW ORLEANS, November 26.

Mr. Pine shot August Martineau dangerously last night at the residence of the former. The cause of the shooting was a family difficulty.

TAXATION.

Governor Scott and The News—Restoration of Mutual Confidence.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE LEGISLATURE.

WASHINGTON, November 26.

In the Labor Convention to-day, T. J. Mackey, B. S. Youm, J. H. Rainey, (colored), and W. B. Nash, (colored), appointed a committee to prepare a memorial to the Legislature, made their report this morning. The report was adopted amid great enthusiasm. It provides:

1. That claims for laborers' wages be a preferred lien on the land, which shall not be sold by the owner until the lien is satisfied.

2. That the Governor appoint a commissioner on contracts for each county, who shall examine and attest contracts, and be the advisory counsel of the laborers in all disputes. The commissioner shall make a quarterly report of the number of laborers had and employed, the rates of wages, and the names of laborers and employers who violate their contracts.

3. Suits for the recovery of laborers' wages shall have precedence on the calendar over civil suits, and shall be heard at the first term.

4. The Governor shall appoint an officer for each county, who shall superintend the drawing of jurors, so that the laborers may have a fair representation in juries.

5. When lands are sold under execution, the sheriff shall divide them into tracts of fifty acres, so that the laborers may purchase.

6. All due bills given by planters shall specify the terms, be transferable at the option of the holder, and operate as a lien on the crop when given in lieu of payment for labor.

7. Nine hours shall be a day's work where skilled labor is required.

8. That all taxes on rice and cotton by the State or municipality shall be abolished.

9. Wm. F. Fleming, a negro from Laurens, deponent Governor Scott, Joe Crews, Constable Hubbard, and the officials generally as incompetent and corrupt, saying that they were making money out of the laborers. He would not be gagged, but said his say out.

J. H. Rainey, colored, Simon Corley, J. J. Wright, colored, L. W. Wimbush, colored, W. B. Nash, colored, and T. J. Mackey were appointed delegates to the National Labor Convention, which meets in Washington in December.

B. F. Jackson, T. J. Mackey, J. H. Rainey, colored, J. W. Hogan, Laurence Cain, colored, and W. W. Tucker, were appointed a committee to prepare an address to the laborers of the State.

At noon the convention adjourned sine die. The delegates are importuning the Legislature for money to take them home.

Senator Sawyer and Governor Scott are reconciled, and will hereafter pull and work together.

Governor Scott, after reading the first comments of THE CHARLESTON NEWS on his message, forgave the abuse of confidence in sending the message to the Courier in advance.

The Committee on Elections has not reported on the Abbeville contested elections between Colonel Cotman and Giffin, but Giffin, the defeated Radical candidate, will get his seat.

In the Senate, notice was given of the following bills: By Corbin, a bill to protect the rights of parties lawfully in possession of lands and tenements; to define criminal jurisdiction and practice in courts of trial and justice. The following bills were introduced, received a first reading, and will be considered to-morrow: By Johnson, a bill to establish and maintain a system of free common schools; by Rainey, a bill for the regulation of pilots and establishing the rates of pilotage; by Corbin, a bill to authorize the lease of certain lands on Bidsto Island for the erection of a wharf and other structures thereon. The Judiciary Committee reported favorably on a bill to allow the State to purchase the Unobscure property, and recommended that an extract from the presentment of the Grand Jury of Orangeburg County, asserting that the magistrates' courts of the county are a nuisance, be spread on record; and bills to amend an act to organize the Circuit Courts and to amend an act to define the jurisdiction and practice in Probate Courts. The matters reported upon will be considered to-morrow. Of the Code of Practice fifty-five sections passed to a second reading. Bills to punish persons violating section three, article fourth of amendments to the Constitution of the United States; to amend an act to organize the Circuit Courts, were referred to the Judiciary Committee. The bill to incorporate the Clain University was referred to the Education Committee. To incorporate the Edisto Phosphate and Fertilizing Company, Deutscher Artillerie Unterstutzungs Verein and South Carolina Savings and Building Association, were referred to the Committee on Incorporation. The resolution to define the sense of the Senate on the report refusing aid to railroads was tabled.

In the House, notice was given of the following bills: By Jenks, to fix the salary of the State magazine keeper; by Hyatt, to facilitate the manner of affording merchants' accounts. The following bills received a first reading: By Keith, to amend the charter of Wallonia; to abolish the right to traverse; by McKinlay, to regulate pilots and establish rates of pilotage; by DeLarge, to repeal the township law; by Ferriter, to amend the charter of Sumter; to regulate the sale of cotton; by Demars, a bill to give the census-takers additional time. The memorial of the county commissioners of the State regarding the act to organize townships was presented. It urges that the law be suspended for ten years, because the system does not fulfil the intention of the framers. During the suspension a special commissioner to be appointed for each county. The commissioners to be paid two dollars a day when working. They will inspect highways and bridges, and prepare lists of qualified voters for the jury. They advise that the county commissioners be required to summon for work on the roads, for six days in the year, all persons between eighteen and fifty-three. A bill to regulate divorces, and to give the custody of children was read. A bill to amend the special order for Pasley was read. Resolutions of respect in memory of Nash (colored) Webb and Densmore, who died since the last session, were adopted. The House adjourned as a mark of respect.

FROM THE STATE CAPITAL.

What's Done in the Legislature—A Railroad Company wants to Borrow $2,000,000.—The Judge of the Supreme Court—Effect of the Message on State Bonds—Radical Opinions of the Message—Proposed Means to Prevent Cotton Stealing—Pilotage.

[FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.]

COLUMBIA, November 26.

In the Senate, to-day, there was very little business of importance done. The bill offered by Donaldson, giving the consent of the Legislature to the purchase by the United States, of the lot of land situate on Meeting street, in Charleston, known as the "Charleston Clubhouse," for the purpose of a United States Court for the District of South Carolina, and for other purposes, and to code to the United States jurisdiction therein, was read and referred to the Judiciary Committee.

The Code of Practice was read for the first time. A bill introduced at the last session to punish persons for violating section three of article fourth of the amendments to the Constitution of the United States, and to amend an act to organize the Circuit Courts, was read for the first time. The State contains thirty-seven thousand square miles. Let us suppose we divide the State into townships of fifty square miles each, there would be seven hundred and forty townships, which will require, according to the act, seven officers in each township. The amount per diem for each officer, for argument, that these officers are on duty one hundred and fifty days, at one dollar and fifty cents per day, would amount to one hundred and fifty dollars. If one township amounts to five hundred and seventy-five acres, seven hundred and forty townships would amount to four hundred and thirty-two thousand five hundred acres. We are not to mention the million one hundred and sixty-four thousand and five hundred dollars. We are not to mention the million one hundred and sixty-four thousand and five hundred dollars. We are not to mention the million one hundred and sixty-four thousand and five hundred dollars.

Five hundred copies of the Governor's message, and five hundred additional copies with accompanying documents, were ordered to be printed.

Yesterday, Leslie, from the Committee on Railroads, to whom was referred, at the last regular session, a bill entitled "A bill to amend an act to extend the operation of the Union Railroad," reported back the bill, with a recommendation that the consideration of this bill, and all similar bills, be indefinitely postponed. This report, which was adopted, committed the Senate to grant aid to any railroad whatever. To-day, a resolution was submitted providing that the Senate in adopting said report, while indorsing its action to prevent aid to railroads, did not intend to commit itself to the views expressed by that report, that the State is positively prohibited by the constitution from indorsing the bonds of any railroad, whenever such indorsement shall be prudent and consistent with the maintenance of the State credit. No action was taken upon this resolution, but, perhaps, something will be done with it to-morrow.

THE HORSE.

The House adjourned shortly after meeting, in order to give the members an opportunity to attend the Labor Convention. It was resolved to go into an election to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Hoge—who, as Don Platt says, was elected to Congress by a majority of three thousand against him. On motion of DeLarge, colored, it was made the special order for 1 o'clock on Monday next—he saying that nobody had suffered by the resignation, and it was best to give the members time to weigh the merits of the numerous aspirants.

Among those prominently mentioned for the judgeship are Judges Orr, Carpenter, Booser and Worden, (lawyer of Beaufort), and Whipple, colored. Booser will probably be elected, yet it is admitted that the election of Judge Orr would give general satisfaction. The opponents of Whipple claim that his supporters, who are mostly whites, support him only to display their radicalism, and to cover their omissions, not that they care for his election.

THE CIRCUIT JUDGESHIP—THE CHATEAU ROAD. Major, C. Corbin and Governor Brown, of Georgia, enjoy the honor of being talked of as having the chances for the office of United States Circuit Judge. If Corbin be appointed he will have to vacate his office. His friends claim that he would have been appointed long ago but for the knowledge of the struggling, bickering and dissensions which would ensue in the race, by the countless number of those who are always willing to serve their country, for nearly a third of the offices of the State would be left vacant by the appointment.

The Chatham Railroad Company is still represented here. It is rumored that the company desires, as before, a guarantee of $5,000,000 by the State, and are willing to pay $300,000 for it. Only think of the lobbying in prospect. For the credit of the Legislature it is to be hoped that the loan will be "prudent and consistent with the maintenance of the State credit."

WHAT DOCUMENT.

The Governor's message has had the effect intended—the bonds have been slightly buoyed up. A politician yesterday purchased several thousand dollars' worth of them. He says he paid three per cent. more than they were quoted at in Charleston.

The message of the Governor does not please all of the Radicals. Many of them think it very flippant, and express their disgust at the frequent use of slang like "shabby garment."

A bill will be introduced shortly to validate the appointment of proxies made at the last session for the Cheraw and Darlington Railroad. The fight for and against its adoption, it is expected, will be warm.

TURNING OUT THE NEWS.

Some three or four members of the House have no admiration for the bold course of THE NEWS in exposing the villainies of Radicalism, and fearing a free criticism, desire to exclude its representatives from the hall, and it is reported, contemplate introducing a resolution to that effect.

THE SALE OF COTTON.

The bill to regulate the sale of cotton provides for the appointment of a commissioner, with deputies, in each county to sell all cotton sold and taken by the buyer and seller, and that all who buy or sell cotton which has not passed through the hands of the commissioner or his deputies be heavily fined or imprisoned. This bill will meet with much opposition. It is thought that a bill will be introduced to severely punish any one who buys or sells cotton between the hours of sunset and sunrise—many claiming that a law of this character will be a greater check on cotton stealing than all the commissioners and deputies.

THE PILOTAGE QUESTION.

The Legislature is expected to take great interest in the pilotage of the State. Three or four bills and numerous amendments to existing laws are laid off. Rainey, (colored), of Georgetown, has given notice that he will shortly introduce in the Senate a bill for the regulation of pilots and for establishing rates of pilotage. This bill provides that an applicant for the place of pilot must be a native of South Carolina and twenty-one years of age; that he must give $500 bond for twelve or fourteen foot draught, and $1000 for full draught; that there shall be thirty pilots for Charleston harbor, eleven for Georgetown, and six for Beaufort, St. Helena and Port Royal—these to be increased when the commissioners of pilotage deem it necessary; that the increased number of pilots shall be divided into three classes, southeast and westerly direction, for the month of the barometers; that the values of pilotage be as follows: Six feet, $10; eight, $20; nine, $30; ten, $35; ten and a half, $31; eleven, $35; eleven and a half, $40; twelve, $45; twelve and a half, $45; thirteen, $45; thirteen and a half, $45; fourteen, $45; fourteen and a half, $45;
