COCK FIGHT .- A main was fought on the Neck, on Saturday, between a Charleston and a New York cock, in which the former was worsted. A subsequent fight between two Charleston birds, Jeff. Davis and Sherman, was won by the former. A number of sporting men were present, and some money changed hands.

PROPLES' BANK .- A meeting of the stockmorning, at No. 10 Broad street, to consider the act of the Legislature touching the banks of the State, and to determine the future policy of the bank. It is generally understood that the finances of the bank warrant a resumption of business, which it is to be hoped will be effected at an early

THE LIGHT-FINGERED GENTRY .- Ever since the Macon Fair, the pickpockets have been busy in Georgia and Alabama. An elderly lady reached Augusta last Saturday, on her way to Chester-fold County, in this State, from Montgomery, picked of eighty dollars, all her available cash. A gentleman on the same train lost three hun-

PUBCHASE OF A GOLD MINE. -On Tuesday, the 9th instant, the valuable mineral farm, containing 565 acres, known as Lorton's Gold Mine, was purchased for $1760 by Mr. John R. Cochran, with the intention of working it. Prior to the war, this mine, situated near Perryville, a station on the Blue Ridge Railroad, was worked by negroes. It possesses every convenience for its working. The work will be pushed rapidly

COMONER'S INQUEST .- Coroner Whiting held uest on Saturday, at the Roper Hospital over the body of a seaman who had been injured by a fall from the masthead while the vessel was at sea. He had been sick for some time, and the jury returned a verdict in accordance with the facts presented.

The jury on the murder case will cenvene to-day at 10 o'clock, and as the witnesses are all on hand a verdict will probably be rendered.

LUCKY ESCAPE .- While Dr. Ogier, Sr., wat driving out in his buggy on Sunday afternoon, accompanied by his servant, the axie napped in two. The doctor and his servant were thrown out, and the horse, finding itself unontrolled, darted off at rapid pace, and went a insiderable distance before it could be stopped. The doctor and his servant, we are happy to say, escaped with only a few slight bruises and a startling fright, the buggy being broken to pieces.

THE CASE OF MR. CHARLES CAHN .- A New York dispatch states that Mr. Cahn, the broker, of this city, whose recent arrest in New York for alleged forgery has already been noticed, has ded in vindicating himself. It appears that he had sent funds to New York to meet his drafts, but reached that city in advance of the money. His draft for $10,000 was dishonored and he was arrested. Satisfactory explanations were made before Judge Ingraham and he was released

PALMETTO LEAVES IN COMMERCE.-Late advices from England state that there lately arrived in Liverpool from New York 4075 bundles of o'clock. Im leaves, weighing forty tons, which were s for $255 currency per ten. The leaves are the product of the palmetto tree of the Southern ites, and a large and profitable business, it is asserted, has been established in gather picking in bundles and exporting, what has here fore been a useless product. In all 7595 bundles of palmetto leaves have arrived in Liverpool.

COMPLAGRATION IN FLOR BINCE, S. C .- On Friday night, about 7 o'clock, a fire was discovered in the bakehouse of Mr. Philip Buchheit, Jr., in Front street, Florence, caused from a defective sue in the chimney. Had it not been for the exboy, John Dart, the whole block would probably have been consumed. The Florence fire engine company were promptly on the spot, but the carcity of water rendered its efforts comparatively useless. Mr. Buchheit has sustained no loss to his stock, and the repairs to the building vill cost but a trifle.

AN AMUSING INCIDENT .- On Friday morning ast, while Jim DuBose (colored constable of E. W. Lloyd, at Florence,) was taking a prisoner to the Darlington jall, for cow stealing, (said prisoner being handcurred and chained to the back of the buggy,) he lost his hat accidentally. Jim, ever poite, gave the prisoner the reins and went back after the hat, whilst Smart, the prisoner, urged on the steed at a fearful speed, leaving polite Jim, hat in hand, far in the distance, a sadder, but we ope, a wher man. After driving rapidly for two miles, prisoner halted the foaming animal, and ring off the back of the buggy to which he had been chained, took to the woods, leaving the vehicle a wreck and the constable a wretched man. Capt. B. W. Lloyd, to whom the buggy be longs, has our sympathies.

THE MAGAZINES .- The Eclectic for December has for a frontispiece a portrait of the famous Pere Hyacinthe. Among the many valuable articles rhich it contains we note especially "France and the Œcumenical Council of 1869," from the British Quarterly, "Terrestrial Magnetism" from Chamber's Journal, and the continuation of "Roman Imperialism," by Professor Seeley. This number closes a volume, and this is a good time abscribe to what is unque tionably one of the est valuable magazines in the country.

The Riverside Magazine for December. Of the Riverside we have often had occasion to speak. It is highly sparkling and pure, as full of information as amusement—the best magazine for young people that we have seen.

Both the Eclectic and Riverside may be had at Pegartie's Book Repository, King street.

CRUMBS.-Laborers were busy on Saturday clearing away the debris of the late fire on East Bay, and the work of rebuilding will soon be com-

The white journeymen carpenters meet this evening, at the Washington Fire Company's Hall, to elect a delegate to the Executive Committee of Workingmen, and to sign the constitution.

The Aiken Hotel has been purchased by some Northern capitalists, but will not change hands until some time in May. Mr. Auderson, the popular flost, will remain in charge.

A MOBEL ESTABLISHMENT.—We invite the at tention of the friends of THE NEWS in the city and throughout the State to the excellent facilities which our office enjoys for the prompt execution of all kinds of Book and Job Printing. Fully provided with new type and machinery of the latest and most approved pattern, and having a large and carefully selected stock of cards, envelopes Brown, Port Royal Railroad; C. M. French, Pittsand papers of all qualities, THE NEWS Job Office is now prepared to fill orders for every description Newberry; Frederick A. Sawyer, City; W. J. of plain and ornamental printing in the very best | Crosswell, Augusta; E. Malcott, J. E. Melville, manner, and at rates at least as low as any other establishment in the Southern States. Call at THE NEWS building (up-stairs) and examine our Alexander, North Carolina; R. McMannus, City; cale of prices and specimens of our work.

CHEAPER COAL .- Consumers will be gratified to learn that a very important reduction in prices occurred in this article at the auction sale in New York on Wednesday. The World says: "There were 70,000 tons sold; the bidding, even at the low prices that prevailed, was not eager-facts which show that, in the opinion of the dealers, an advance in prices is not to be expected, and that holders of this bank will be held at 11 o'clock this | probably a still further decline may occur. Lump coal sold as low as $4 05; steamboat coal at $4 02%; grate coal at $4 30; egg coal as low as $5 15; chestnut at the same; and stove coal as lew as $7 15-which is a decline of about one dollar a ton on this quality, and a much greater decline on all the other varieties. As these are the prices for tons of 2240 pounds, and the dealers sell to their customers tons of only 2000 prounds, the retail prices will probably not be very much higher, ere long, than the rates which obtained at this sale.

THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC.-Everybody is on the qui vive for the opening of our new and beau-Alabama, at which point she had her pocket tiful Temple of the Drama, which Manager Ford formally announces this morning for Wednesday evening next. The company has been organized with care and discrimination, and comprises really meritorious artists. Miss Alexander, the leading lady, is an accomplished actress and a charming stood that the Chief Justice has adjudged the re- and cultivated lady. She belongs to one of the leading families in Western North Carolina. Her father was one of the most brilliant members of heretofore made. He retains the motion for his the bar, and her mother a renowned belle of the State. The Alexanders, Polks and Grahams are historic names in North Carolina, and have been rendered by the Supreme Court. No extended from the date of the Meckienburg Declaration, prominent alike in public and private life. One prother was a distinguished officer of the Confederate navy, and another left the presidency of a college in Texas to serve in the Confederate army, which he did with distinction. The Wilmingto Journal, speaking of Miss Alexander, editorially says: says:

Still young, and as it were just entering upon her duties and studies, she, of course, has still much to learn. Refined in all that makes the true woman, thus early in her career she yet hesitates to give herself up to her parts. With her early associations and culture her nature yet shrinks from too great a display of abandon. But having overcome these difficulties and having practiced her voice, and having educated herself in the stage tricks or business, she will doubtless take a high stand.

We are sure that Miss Alexander will be warmly velcomed upon the Charleston boards.

A MONSTER OF THE DEEP .- Those who "go down to the sea in ships" are usually famous for their "fish stories," but it has fallen to the lot of ome colored fishermen of this city, not only to see, but to capture one of the huge inhabitants of the world of water, and secure their trophy upon terra firma. The monster was seen near Wappoo Cut, in shallow water, and was pursued by the fishermen, who struck him with their oars. Flustered apparently at finding himself in close quarters, he beat wildly in every direction to the great alarm of his assailants, until a lucky flounder landed him in the marsh. He was at once attacked more vigorously, and a flerce engage ment easued, in which he had almost work ed his way off the marsh, but was driven back and dispatched by thrusting an oar into his blow hole on the top of the head, and by repeated blows on the side of the head with an axe. After the captive had ceased his dying struggles, he was attached to the boat and towed to Chisolm's Mill, where with some difficulty the carcass was elevated to the wharf. A large truck was secured, and after wrapping the enor nous fish in canvas, it was transported to the Mutary Hall, escorted by a mixed crowd of gaping wonder-seekers. It was on exhibition on Saturday in the yard of the Military Hall, and was visited by great numbers of persons. It is about eighteen feet in length and four in diameter at the widest part of the body, with a blunt, square-shaped head, having the mouth considerably recessed, and furnished with range of short, conical teeth some distance from each other. The eye is small and dull, with a backward look, and it has the olow hole and fins characteristic of the whale family. The general impression seemed to be that the monster was a genuine black whale, though not full grown. Prefessor Molmes, how ever, pronounced it to be the grampus, of which there are several species, the largest attaining a length of twenty-five feet. The name grampu is supposed to be a corruption of the French rand poisson. Specimens have occasionally been caught off our coast, but this, we believe is the first instance of one of these monsters having been known to visit our harbor. The carcass will remain on exhibition for some hours this morning, after which it will be cut up and tried for oil. A yield of from one to two barrels is confidently expected, and, if realized, will be the first case, as far as we know, of Cuffee "strikproposed terminus of the Deep water and western Railroad.

It contains three thousand (3000) acres of high land, about two thousand (2000) acres of which are cleared, and of the most fertile character for sea island or short cottons and provisions. It is abundantly supplied with springs of good water and affords a line pasturage for all kinds of stock.

On the Plantation is a large Dwelling House and ample outbuildings. There are several settlements which render this property easy to be divided into different plantations. Being an island, it requires no fencing.

It commands a line view of the harbor of Port Royal; is ten (10) miles distant from the entrance; considered healthy to live at all the year, and well known as one of the best Sea Island Cotton Plantations on the coast.

Attended at their residences promptly and at reasonable rates.
