OUR PRICES CURRENT .- We especially invite the attention of our merchants to THE NEWS Prices Current, issued this morning. FIRE ON WAWMALAW ISLAND.-The cotton in the gin-house of Mr. L. D. Chadwick, on Wadmalaw Island, was accidentally ignited a few days since by friction, and before assistance could be obtained, the building, with its contents, amounting to about a bale and a half of sea island cotton, were destroyed. The total loss will be about $4000.

St. John's Day .- Monday next will be the festival of St. John the Evangelist, a day usually celebrated with great pomp and display by the Masonic Fraternity. The Lodge at Kingstree, S. C., will unite in a procession and proceed to the church. where a public installation of the officers elect will be made, and an address delivered by P. M. N. Levin, of Friendship Lodge, No. 9, of this city, on the "Principles and Practice of the Mystic Art."

GOOD TRIP .- The brig Mary M. Francis, from this port for Havre, arrived there December 15, after an excellent run of twenty-five days. She was laden here by Messrs. Wm. Roach & Co. The prevalence of good winds has caused most of the European bound ships from this port to make fair passages, and the bark A. B. Wyman, already reported, reached Liverpool in twenty-eight days, and the barks Jerome Jones and Juventa have also arrived out.

THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC .- "The Streets of New York" drew a fine audience last night. The depends for its success more upon effective scenery and local hits than upon the intrinsic merit of its plot or dialogue; but it was produced in a manner that could not fail to delight an audience. Some of the effects were applauded to the echo. We are glad to see how rapidly the scenic resources of the Academy are being multiplied under Manager Ford's active and careful management. "The Streets of New York" will be repeated on Saturday night.

MASONIC ELECTION.—At the annual communication of Salem Lodge, No. 141, A. F. M., held at Mayesville, Sumter District, S. J., on the 14th instant, the following officers were elected to G. L. Warren, Master; Brothers J. Harvey Wilson, S. W.; Jas. E. Atkins, G. W.; Wm. G. Muldrow, treasurer; Hugh H. Wilson, secretary; H. Dickson Corbett, (P. M.,) S. D.; Benj. F. Wilson, J. D.; Junius A. Mayes and C. K. Weatherford, stewards; J. B. Trimnal, tyler. A Past Master's jewel was voted to Wershipful H. Dickson Corbett, the retiring

CRUMBS .- The German Friendly Society gave "Christmas blowout" in the shape of a mammoth bowl of egg-nogg at their last meeting. The "Major," who made his debut on the Acad emy boards last night, was the observed of all observers during the morning, and his martial bearing was never more conspicuous. The gay masqueraders, who were wont to perambulate the city at this festive season, are notified of a fulmination from the Chief of Police requiring them to unmask while in the streets. Who's afraid ?

INTERESTING OCCASION.—The pupils of Mr. C. H. Bergmann's academy, accompanied by their parents and friends, assembled at Lindstedt's Hall vesterday afternoon, at half-past 5 o'clock, to in-Christman frolic. The hall was tastefully arrang- price $6 50. ed for the occasion, and the Christmas tree was illuminated so as to display the numerous gifts to the best advantage. The presents and prizes, which were suspended from the branches and bered around the base of the tree, were speed-My distributed among the bright-eyed throng. Several addresses were made by the pupils, and the evening was passed pleasantly in a round of

THE CRICKET ON THE HEARTH.-Dion Boucicault's version of Charles Dickens' delicious Christmas story will be played at the Academy of Music to-night, for the first time in Charleston. The peculiarity of this play, and its great charm in the eyes of the lovers of Dickens' tender Christmas carols is that it gives the whele story, without the addition or taking away of a single incident. Usually a romance when put on the stage is so hacked and distorted as to | Wilson machine is in use in thousands of housebe difficult of recognition, and it was the exceptional merit of Mr. Boucicault's dramatization of the prize at the Paris Exposition, where there "The Cricket on the Hearth" which ied Joseph were eighty-two competitors, and received the tional merit of Mr. Boucicault's dramatization of Jefferson the famous comedian, to say that it was the most admirable adaptation with which he

CIRCUIT COURT.

The court renewed the consideration of the case of Boykin vs. Germania insurance Company et al. The court, on motion, ordered that the special pleas be set aside. This was after hearing full argument. The court also refused to grant motion that plaintiff give security for costs, and that the case be suspended until security be given. The court then proceeded to hear testimony in the case until a late hour at night, and adjourned without closing testimony.

SOCIAL BOUALITY .- Our saplent legislators, who are so anxious to give their colored constituents the power to thrust themselves wherever they are not wanted, might learn a lesson from the test case made some months ago in Washington as to the right of colored persons to enter places of amusement. This case was carried to the Supreme Court, where it is now pending. The point of the joke is, that Wormley, the colored man who made the demand for admission to the National Theatre, is the son of Wormley, the famous colored caterer, who will not allow a colored person to be served in his restaurant at any price. Now it seems to the Washingtonians, as it seems to us, that the colored people should themselves desist from discriminating against their own color in barber shops and restaurants, before they attempt to prevent the whites from managing their own business in their own way The truth of the matter is, that the proprietor of a house of business, white or colored, is the only oper person to decide who he will and who he will not serve, and this is, we believe, the opinion of all the colored people who take the trouble to think about this huge question of "social equality," so-called.

THE REV. L. H. SHUCK .- The following letter from Mr. Shuck, now pastor of the First Baptist Church, to the ladies of Barnwell, is published

Mrs. James Brown, Mrs. J. A. Duncan, and others:

I have just received the valuable present from the female members of my church, and I hasten to express to the generous donors my high appreciation of the gift, suggested, I know, by the warm affection which they cherish for their pastor. The painful separation, which sunders the ties hitherto existing between me and my much-loved church, is felt most keenly by me, but you all may be assured that, although called to labor in another field, my affection for you will still continue. Indeed, I did not know how much I was beloved, or how much I loved my dear church, until the trying scenes of yesterday transpired. I hope, in the 'trovidence of God, that I may be able to revisit Barnwell and renew the delightful associations of the past. May I still ask a place in your warm sympathies and Christian regards, and when we have passed through this vale of tears may we meet in that blessed home above, where adieus are never spoken and partings are unknown. May God bless you, my dear friends, is the fervent prayer of your late but ever affectionate pastor.

SHREDS OF STATE NEWS .- The Sumter Monumental Pair opened on Monday. It is the grandest affair of the kind that Sumter has seen. The Edgefield Advertiser says : Richard Realf, Lewis Berry and wife, John Singley and Steve Merchant, all colored, who have been arrested by the civil authorities, confess to having perpetrated she murder of Mr. Dunwoody, of Newberry. The wife of Berry went to the depot after the murder was committed, and she and Singley watched, one on either side of the building, while the others bored into and entered. No one else, as we learn, has been implicated in this confession, and the public mind may therefore be at rest so far as the knowledge of who the assassins are.
