ach assigned cells in the Guardhouse. Fosbury was considered to be the agressor in the matter. ROBBERIES .- The rainy weather of the past few days has rendered the noctornal thieves bolder in their operations, and the number of robberies is largely increased. The residence of Mr. J. D. Aiken, at the corner of Charlotte and Alexander streets, was entered by cutting through the slats of a venetian blind, and he was robbed of a watch and chain, overcoat, and other articles. This is the second time Mr. Alken has been robbed in a week.

The house of Mr. George Trenholm, Jr., in Smit street near Calhoun, was robbed of various articles of clothing. Mr. Morrison, a carpenter, living at phia; Mrs. C. F. Sedgwick, Connecticut; R. H. No. 41 Charlotte street, lost $300 worth of tools on the 25th instant. These robberies were all effected on those nights when it was raining flercely No policemen were to be seen, and the inmates of the houses were, with one exception, unaware of the midnight visitors until the next morning.

THE GALTON TROUPE .- "Fanchette," with which the Galton Opera Troupe opened their engagement at the Academy of Music last night, is a light and sparkling operetta, which being well played and well sung, went off trippingly from beginning to end. Operatas of this class demand a peculiar talent in the performers. Mere flue singing and fine acting are not enough. Unless the performers have a particular chic in delivering the dialogue and in giving point to the airs, no ability can redcem them from duliness. The Gal ton troupe, however, are masters of this situation and can give the ephemera of opera with all the delicacy and pungency they require. Miss Susan Galton has a flexible and highly cultivated voice. trills charmingly and acts with marked vivacity. In Panchette "The Last Rose of Summer" was ang deliciously in response to an encore, and, in the after-piece, "Comin' Thro' the Rye" was awarded a similar compliment.

Mr. Kelleher, who played the "Marquis de Beaupre," has a pleasant voice, and the deep bass of Mr. Clark is very effective. The freshest and sweetest voice in the company is apparently that of Mr. Whimn, whose clear tenor notes and facile vocalization were pleasant indeed to hear Mr. Whiffin is a fine actor, and sang the burlesque Stew Pau song so as to gain long rolls of ap plause. The audience were well pleased with the performance, and called the company before the curtain at the close of each act.

To-sight the Galton Troupe will play "66, or the Capital Prize," one of Offenbach's brightest opcmladelphia. The after-piece is "Lischen and Pritzchen," which, in its original dress, was a great favorite with the Parislan public. The Galons, it will be seen, do not attempt too much. They attempt no operas which are beyond their powers, and whatever they do perform they per-form thoroaghly well.
