THE CHEAPEST YET .- The NEWS Job Office is now printing bill-heads in the best style and on fine paper at $250 per thousand. Merchants, think

THE PHENIX. -Our lively contemporary, the Columbia Phonix, celebrates the New Year by a considerable enlargement of its sheet, and presents otherwise unmistakable evidences that the times are brightening. The subscription price of the Phœnix is $4 for six months.

ST. PETER'S CATHOLIC FAIR .- This fair has een so well attended during the past week that it has been determined to continue it until Wedgsday next. A number of additions have been ade, and it has been rendered, if possible, more attractive than heretofore. As the object of the fair is a most deserving one, it should have a substantial and liberal support.

BLACK MONDAY .- Christmas is over, 1869 is numbered with the past, and Black Monday dawns te-day. The "high old time" enjoyed during the holidays renders the return to the thraldom of school or work-a-day life somewhat irksome, and the transition from play to toil will be keenly felt for a time. The various schools in the city resume their exercises to-day, and there will be no more vacation until the Easter holidays.

GRAND MASQUERADE BALL .- Our friends of the Freundschaftsbund, who are always so suc cessful in devising and carrying out schemes of social enjoyment, are getting ready for a grand masquerade ball, to came off at Hibernian Hall, on the evening of the 3d of February. It will probably eclipse anything of the kind that has ever been seen in Charleston. Although the number of tickets will be limited, a cordial invitation is extended to the friends of the Bund and the general public to participate in the festivities.

DEPARTURE OF THE SPANISH FLEET. The fifteen Spanish gunboats that have been anchored off the battery for the past few days went to sea on Saturday morning in tow of the steamtug Samson. The frigate Pizarro was in waiting outside, and the fleet was soon on its way to the "Ever Faithful Isle." Two of the gunboats have not been heard from and are supposed to have bed lost on the North Carolina coast. The wind was very high on Saturday night and the seagoing qualities of the "musquito fleet" were doubtrss severely tested.

CHARLESTON TYPOGRAPHICAL SOCIETY .- At the semi-centennial auniversary of the Charleston Typographical Society, held on the 1st instant, the following officers were unanimously elected for the ensuing year: Thomas J. Webb, president; C. A. D. Church, vice-president; S. D. Hutson, treasurer, vice J. W. Rutland, who declined a reelection; James Ronan, secretary. Standing Committee-J. Carr, J. W. Rutland and E. B. Bradley. Relief Committee-C. A. D. Church, J. D. Parry and E. B. Bradley. Burial Ground Committee H. P. Cooke, H. Holton and J. W. Rutland.

REV. THOMAS SMYTH, D. D .- This venerable and learned divine, who for forty years has been the pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church of this city, was on Saturday last the recipient of a testimonial of affection from his congregation, in the form of a valuable gold watch, presented to him as a New Year's gift. It can be seen for a few days at Mr. Allan's jewelry store, No. 307 King street, and is well worthy of inspection as a very superior article of American workmanship. We also understand that the young ladies of the Sunday school of this church also presented their beloved pastor, on Christmas last, with a handsome buggy blanket and rug, as a token of their appreciation.

MASONIC ELECTIONS .- At a regular convocation of Washington Chapter, No. 24, R.-A. M., held at Bamberg, S. C., December 25, 1869, A. L. 5869, the following officers were elected: C. J. Faust, H. T.; J. S. Bamberg, king; G. W. Turner, scribe; M. W. Felder, C. H.; F. E. Salinas, P. S.; Calvin Rice, R. A. C.; John C. Dowling, G. M., third veil; D. A. Hutts, G. M., second veil; J. A. J. Rice, G. M., first veil; Jas. Smith, treasurer; L. A. Wright, secretary; J.

At a regular communication of Allen Lodge, No. 38, A. F. M., held at Bamberg, S. C., Decem ber 25, 1869, A. L. 5869, the following officers were elected: C. J. Faust, W. M.: J. S. Bamberg, S. W.: F. E. Salinas, J. W.; C. C. McMillan, S. D.; R. F. Simmons, J. D.: James W. Smith, treasurer; L. A. Wright, secretary: A. E. Simmons, tyler: James W. Browning, James Dixon, stewards; Rev. Jas.

THE NINETEENTH CENTURY .- The January number of this magazine was issued on Satur day, and contains an article by Judge Longstreet, on Governor Perry's Sketch of the Life of Calhoun, which will attract attention. Judge Longstreet does not mince matters, and mildly asks the reader whether he has "used a severity towards Mr. Perry unbecoming his age and calling." We have an interesting paper on "Early Literary Progress in South Carolina," by Dr. Simms; "Pattes de Velours," a graceful poem by Mr. Sass, and "Shoulder to Shoulder," by Personne; "A Message from the Sea" will not, we regret to say, add to the literary reputation of the magazine. Poor prose is better than yard-stick

The proprietors announce that in the February number will be given the opening of a new Southern romance "The Storm and the Sunset," by Colonel Harry Cleveland.

SHREDS OF STATE NEWS .- The Orangeburg News says that there has been a great rise in the Edisto. The whole swamp is under water, for three-quarters of a mile from the river bank. Mr. M. P. Harley's dam has given way, and the water as overflowed it in several places. The bridges are all badly damaged, though none of them are entirely gone.

Moses Dowill, of Georgetown, was badly burned on Christmas day, by the explosion of a flask of powder.

On Wednesday, the 22d ult., the store of Mr. A. Morgan, of Georgetown, was robbed of a sum of morey; and on Monday night a negro named Buces was shot while making a similar attempt. Alfred Gelger, negro, has been arrested on suspicion of being one of the would-be murderers of Mrs. Sarah Richardson, near Columbia. Mrs Richardson may recover.

CREMBS. -The Union League wore crape on their badges en Saturday, as a mark of respect to Stanton. Sam Dickerson, the vallant captain of a colored company, had an altercation on Saturday with an outsider, also colored, in which the latter so far forgot the respect due Sam's bullion epaulettes, as to strike him with a small stick. Sam was not "spiling for a fight," and had the offender.

Flags were flying on Saturday from the City Hall and Guardhouse-it is presumed in honor of the emancipation anniversary. Ford's Dramatic Company are staying at the Pavilion Hotel, and Miss Laura Alexander is at the Charleston.

Officer Lovett has arrested Sarah Rivers, color ed, charged with the larceny of $100 from Miss Drayton, and Joseph Young, colored, charged with shoplifting from Mrs. Campbell, at the corner of Hanover and Columbus streets.

NEW YEAR'S DAY-THE EMANCIPATION CELE-BRATION.-New Year's day in Charleston passed off with marked quiet. It was very generally made the occasion as usual of social and family reunions; but if we except the turnout of a few of the colored people, there was no outdoor incident worthy of note.

The procession formed in honor of the anniversary of emancipation was composed of four colored military companies, followed by a straggling line made up of the members of the Union League and other colored associations. The whole was preceded by a band, and was under the chief marshalship of Magistrate T. J. Mackey -the only white man, by the way, in the pageant-who was supported in the execution of his arduous duties by as many ebony assistants, on prancing chargers, as would have sufficed to marshal a countless host. After marching through the principal streets, he procession went to the Military Hall, where the emancipation proclamation was read by R. B. Artson, colored, and an oration delivered by W. H: Mishaw, colored. Speeches were also made by T. J. Mackey and F. J. Moses, Jr.

Mayor Pillsbury, Collector Clark, and the lead ing Republicans of the city, both white and colored, were all invited to participate in the celebration, but they did not respond. The Union League, though mostly colored, has about 150 white men enrolled on its list of members, but they were all minus on this occasion.

BUSINESS CHANGES .- In addition to the business changes incident to the New Year, which we already noticed, announcements of the following will be found in the advertising columns of THE

LENGNICK & SELL.-Mr. Charles Foster has been admitted into this firm, the style of which will in future be Lengnick, Sell & Foster. SEYMOUR & SILCOX .- This firm having been dis solved by mutual consent, the paint and oil business will be continued at the old stand, No. 79 Coming street, by Mr. S. C. Seymour. EDWARD M. MORELAND .- This gentleman hav ing withdrawn from the firm of L. Gambrill & Co., will continue the brokerage business on his own account, at No. 29 Broad street. EDWIN BATES & Co.-Mr. Charles K. Bates was admitted as a partner in this firm on the 1st instant. J. N. TIDEMANN & Co .- This firm having been dissolved by mutual consent, the business will be continued by two of the partners, Messrs, Wm. Burmester and John D. Zerbst, under the style of Burmester & Zerbst.

after an interval of nearly twelve years, there is to be a revival of the Shakespearean drama on the Charleston stage. Everybody will be glad to have a season of the noble tragedies with which we are all so familiar, especially as they will be brought out in splendid style. Manager Ford has been at great expense to secure for a few nights the services of Neil Warner, the eminent English tragedian, who will appear in a series of the standard and favorite plays. Mr. Warner will be supported, we feel authorized to say, by an excellent combination of talent. To night we are to have Hamlet, Mr. Warner personating the moody Prince of Denmark. Miss Eldridge, whom we have hitherto known chiefly in comedy parts, will make a lovely Ophelia. Included in the cast are Mr. Parker as Polonius, Mrs. Eldridge as the Queen, Miss Alexander as the Player-Queen, Mr. Ryan as the Grave Digger, and Mr. O'Neil as the Ghost. The tragedy will be presented with every elaboration of detail. We advise our readers to secure their seats early to-day, as there is sure to be a crowded house.

ELECTION OF VESTRYMEN.-The following gentlemen have been elected to serve as vestry men at the Cathedral Chapel: John McKeegan, Thomas O'Brien, J. F. O'Neill, H. F. Baker, Ber nard O'Neill, M. W. St. Amand, M. P. O'Connor. John Dougherty, and T. C. Ryan.

THE LICENSE BILL AGAIN .- The secret session of Council on Friday night resulted in a modification of the License bill, and a special meeting was called on Saturday night in order to give the bill its second and third readings. Only five of the Aldermen were in attendance, and no meeting could be held. We understand that many of the obnoxious features of the bill have been modified. Brokers are taxed only $50, and the general tax on the various branches of their business has been reduced about one-half. The tax on liquor dealers has been lowered, and that on lawyers and doctors has been increased to $25. The bill has been much improved, and is generally more equitable in its provisions, but will hardly prove acceptable to the majorit of taxpayers. Alderman Wall, we learn, will press an amendment prohibiting persons licensed from making any distinction on account of race or color, under a heavy penalty.

HALF-RATE MESSAGES .- The Western Union Telegraph Company will receive messages at and for all stations on the lines, East of the Mississippi River and west of the Province of New Bruns wick, for transmission during the night, at onehalf the usual tariff rates; provided, however, that the tolls on any message at half rates shall not be less than twenty cents. Half rate messages are required to be written upon half rate nessage blanks, which can be obtained by application at the offices of the company. Messages to be transmitted at alf rates will be received at any hour during the day between 8 o'clock A. M. and 8 o'clock P. M., at all offices which are open between those hours, and until 10 o'clock P. M. at stations which receive night Press reports. The company receives messages to be transmitted at naif rates upon the express condition that it shall not be liable for errors or delays in the transmis sion or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any message beyond the amount received for sending
