NEWS OF THE DAY.

-Gold closed in New York yesterday at 141 -Cotton closed duil and heavy; uplands 23%c. Sales 2500 bales.

-In Liverpool cotton closed quiet and steady; uplands 11a113/d. Sales 10,000 bales. -The Manassas (Va.) Gazette is a paper of Southern proclivities, all except one column, which supports Grant. -The New York papers say the spring suits fer ladies there, are ornamented with everything, "from Jacov's ladder to a pen-wiper, in silk." -The Avondale mine, at which, on September 6, 1869, the breakers burned and 110 men and boys smothered, has just gone into operation again. -Baron Salomon Rothschild, a mere lad, has been appointed Italian Consul-General at Vienna, as an inducement to the Rothschilds to invest more boldly in Italian stock.

-A colored preacher, W. F. Butler, is demanding equal school rights in New York. He preached a sermon Sunday on the abolition of distinctive colored schools, and in favor of black and white children being educated together.

-The mother of Montaiembert, who was a Miss Forbes, of Bombay, had been prevailed upon by the Duchess of Angouleme to become a Roman Catholic, but after a few years she returned with renewed attachment to the Church of England, in which she was bormand nurtured.

-Rev. O. B. Frothingham preached this in New York last Sunday: "The laws of matrimony should be so remodelled that the husband and wife could States. not be jealous of one another-so that the bonds should not be merely a legal one, but that a condition of marriage should be a permission to each to act as he or she thought proper, and at the dictates of the feelings and affections."

-The New York Herald, of Monday, in its review of the stock market for last week, says: "Southern securities were active for the Ten sees, which advanced to 57, but closed heavy at a decline of 1% per cent. from this squre. South Carolinas were strong and in demand, and the Alabamas rather active at higher quotations. Otherwise the Southern list was steady and dull."

-Captain Ericsson, who has invented so many other things, has invented a torpedo that renders teimposaible to construct any vessel which it cannot blow up and destroy. The New York Times calls apon Congress to legislate with reference to this fact, and not foolishly to expend money in constructing vessels which can be of no service. "The upshot of this new invention will be that no nation need fear on its own shores the maritime power of a rival."

tre, many years ago, the capital of the Old Dominion, in times of peace, has known no such tragedy as that which yesterday brought mourning and desolation to an hundred happy homes. No wisdom, no foresight, could have guarded against this catastrophe, and it is worthy of remark that Dickens's novels, such as Sairey Gamp and many of the victims, whose names are re-Betsy Prig, Captain Cuttle, Mr. Micawber, ported in our dispatches, were engaged at &c. These will be drawn by S. Eytinge, Jr., who has proved himself superior, perhaps, the time of the accident in the discharge of to all other artists who have attempted to the duties of their office. A comparison of the the path of duty, as truly as though their number for April with that for January shows lives had been offered up a bloody sacrifice a marked improvement in the artistic character of Every Saturday, from the begin to the stern God of War. ning. The later illustrations are of a more

In moments of mat grief, words are as nothing; but it m.s lighten the weight of some anguished breast to know that the blow which wounds the motherly heart of the Old Dominion, excites the liveliest sympathy in the thoughts of all our people. So many ties of descent and friendliness unite this State to Virginia, that a doloar which bows the lofty head of the "Mother of "States," cannot fail to arouse in the mind of every South Carolinian the warmest feelings of sorrow and regret.

The Situation.

way, we should soon have an able and up The famous work of Machiavel, entitled right State government. "The Prince," derives its value, not so much from what it teaches as from what it implies. It represents the policy of the Italian princes. It reveals the spirit of the age in which it originated, and unlocks many a dark and on good security. Apply to otherwise imprisoned secret of history, We can measure statesmen justly, when we have in hand the principles and rales which they, accepted as the maxims of statesmanship. Some of these days the Radicals of the republic must submit to a similar ordeal

The axioms of recent American diplomacy will be recorded, and beside the ancient scroll which shows how nobles once destroyed the liberties of the people, will be laid the tearstained and blood-stained volume which explains how beggars destroyed the life of

If treason is a revolt against organized government, what other band of conspirators against public right has ever equalled in disloyal aims and achievements the leaders of the Radical party? The right of a State held up before a Radical maddens him as never bull was maddened by the red flag faunted in a Spaniah amphitheatre. At

G UARDIAN MUTUAL whatever hazard, it must go down. LIFE INSUBANCE COMPANY The fundamental principle of the republi can form of government which Congress is constitutionally bound to guarantee to the States, is, beyond all question, the right of the people to rule through representatives of their own appointment. Under the new HALF LOAN TAKEN. NO NOTES REQUIRED. regime, that right is loudly vindicated in theory and shamelessly denied in practice. Into almost every gubernatorial chair of the Southern States, into almost every position of importance, whether in regard to profi or influence, it has set an alien or a time serving renegade. We are weary of naming the strangers who are crowned with the honors, and fat with the substance, of our humiliated and outraged States. It is necessary for our prosperity that the population of these States should live together in harmony. And there are none who utter more frequently than the Radicals General Grant's campaign bulletin: "Let us "have peace." Such is the profession; but the rule of practice requires a different Chas. G. Rockwood, Cashier Newark Banking maxim-something like this: "Divide and "conquer;" or like this: "Create a desolation "and cail it peace." Dissensions and feuds are the appliances of Radicalism. It is constantly creating and provoking outrages. It is interfering with the quiet and salutary processes of industry upon every Southern acre. It is boastingly arming one class of the community against another, and supplies the departing bayonets of the Union with the Winchester rifles of the militia and the mob. So that to-day Georgia pleads for the poor privilege of having gentlemen, instead of Ballock and Blodgett, as her military desuota. Finally, it is necessary to the welfare of a people that those who hold office should be accountable to their constituency. Without some restraint upon the ruler, what liberty or safety remains to the ruled? But unde the present system, the ruler intrigues with out shame, plunders without check, and in every emergency bribes with his plunder. The State is overspread by oath-bound leagues, who blindly follow the call of cor rupt political leaders, and who sustain party, right or wrong. The scales of leviathan are linked together. Now it is against evils of this sort-portentous and terrible-that we strive to array our forces. A just representation, public peace, political integrity-those are aims worthy of the highest enthusiasm and the most earnest effort. We wish to secure for monthly. ourselves and our posterity that republican form of government which Radicalism does not and will not guarantee. We fain would save the State, and in this great and difficult undertaking we cordially invite all good citizens to unite with us. There are two extremes we need to guard against: a want of heart on the one hand, a want of prudence on the other-the despair which folds its hands, the impatience which grasps after

THE CHARLESTON NEWS: THURSDAY, APRIL 28, 1870.

In New York; on Sunday, Mr. Be on night scenes in New York and Brooklyn, and indulged in a choice variety of eccentric comments. He condemned midnight labor, late par-ties, late suppers, Saratoga, after-dark walks of young men and maldens, &c. He made the point that "good broad streets, well laid out, kept clean and well lighted, will have more moral influence than all the churches and all the preaching put together."

-A New York letter of Sunday says: "The Fenian Congress adjourned yesterday. General O'Nell was re-elected president, and it is understood that a war policy was determined upon. Nothing positive, however, is known of the proceedings. The Executive Council elected by the Chicago Fenian Congress has issued an address announcing the removal of the central office to Philadelphia protesting against their treatment in New York, and promising active military ope-

-In the McFarland trial on Monday, last, John Orr, assistant warden at the city prison, testified that the prisoner could not sleep, and was accustomed to read in his cell at night. Reuben A. Vance, the out-door physician of Bellevue Hospithe restilled that he officially examined the prisoner's condition, and found congestion of the fbrain developed; the witness testified that he be lieved the prisoner absolutely insane when he fired the pistol at Richardson. Mr. Graham, at this point stood up and said that some city papers had reproduced an article from some Western paper which stated that he (Oraham) had gone to the district attorney and disavowed his conduct in the trial with regard to Mrs. Calhoun. He wished to state that neither to the district attorney, nor to any other human being did he make such a statement. The district attorney corroborated Mr. Graham's statement.

-The Hartford Courant has lately detailed a re porter to observe the degree of politeness which prevails in the street cars of that city. The re. port was as follows: "A car starts off down the street, having within ten ladles on one side, sitting closely, yet comfortably, together, and ten men on the opposite side. Presently one lady gets out: the other nine unconsciously rise a trifle, shake their skirts, and the seat is full again. Further on another lady departs; the eight remaining go through the same process of rising. and in a twinkling the seat is still full. A short ride beyond, another lady steps out, leaving seven only, who, by the same sort of spreading, fill the seat again completely. Now enters a lady. On the ladies' side there are three persons less than when the car started, yet not one of the seven remaining moves. And so one of the men on the opposite side gives his seat to the newcomer, and stands during the rest of the journey." We are happy to be able to state that such encs are never witnessed in our street cars. Certainly not.

-"Spectator," the Washington correspondent of the New York San, who is a close observer of men and things at the National Capital, says the navy will be sharply overhauled for the extravagance and corruption which are so conspicuous in its administration, when the appropriation bill wets before the House of Representatives. He thinks that notwithstanding the estimates have been cut down one-half, there is still great room for economy and reduction. The Medisquadron is characterized as noterranean thing more than a grand yachting expedition at the expense, of the American people, without utility of any kind, and only kent up for the convenience of pet admirals and fawning officers. He complains that now, in time of peace, when there is not a ripple on the surface of our foreign relations, splendid squad-FOR I are sent abroad to loiter in the pleasant ports of Italy, with a flag-ship for the favored admiral, which alone cost this overtaxed country | together.
