On the 12th February, the steamer Danube left Bombay for Liverpool with 4000 bales cotton, and arrived there the 25th of March. In forty-five days from the time of the departure from Bombay, the vessel was returning to the same place with a full cargo, including some cotton fabrics manufactured from her inward cargo. One hundred and twenty days are required for this run land are about emigrating in extensive parties to the countries lying on the River Don and situated among the mountains of the Caucasus. Large numbers are also coming to the United States. The Government of Russia has consented to the removal, and furnishes a passport and sixty dollars to each emigrant. Important aid has been derived from contributions raised in London. Paris and the United States.

neral B. F. Cheatham was dined by officers his old division in Memphis, on Friday evening. In responding to the toast in his honor, General Cheatham said thay all knew he could not make a speech-that the longest speech he ever made was when the disheartening news of the last days of the Confederacy resched them in camp one night in North Carolina; that then the boys all gathered around him to tell them what to do; some wanted to fight it out still, others to go to Mexico, &c. He told them to go home, obey the laws and make good citizens, and then he saw their heads drop as if all hope was gone, and one by one they quietly went to their quarters.

May day is a "moving spectacle" in New York, A correspondent writes that "on this blissful morning old furniture and new; cooking stoves, stew pans, china howls and wooden platters, eld boots and shoes, novels, pamphlets and periodicals: tattered garments, shawls, hats, caps, wigs and leather aprons; metals and mahogany of all sorts and descriptions; baskets of cats, cages of parrots, aquariums and cribs for obildren, basins and washstands, andirons, broken looking glasses, wicker baskets, children's perambulators, dressing cases and boxes, tumbled out of one door into another-all heaped and mingled together in most frightful confusion. meet the bewildered vision at every corner."

One Smythe, the pastor of a Presbyterian Church in New York, excited the ire of the Presbytery by treating some newspaper reporters to gin and milk; and the scandal having brought much discredit on the church, they resolved to sift the charges. The trial came off Tuesday. The erring paster pleaded guilty both to the drinking of the gin and milk and to the association with the reporters, but alleged in his defence that his conduct was prompted solely by medicinal reasons. The ecclesisatical court could not, however, justify their teacher in taking the beverage n question for his kidneys' sake, on Sunday and in a sinful restaurant. Smythe spoke in his own defence, citing the laborious nature of his work, and the reduke which Christ gave his disciples in the corn-field on the Sabbath day after they had plucked the ears of corn, and considered that he was justified under the circumstances Had be confined himself to gin pure and simple, instead of imbibing so unnatural a compound as gin and milk, he would probably have met with some lit"tle sympathy. As it was, he received a "rebuke" from the deacons, and was solemnly warned. -Donn Piatt says it was a great day for America when Zack. Chandler assailed the British lion in the Senate. "The brave, the valorous old senator smote the lien on the snout until he qualled. He shook him by the mane until his old bones rattled. He twisted his talle until the vile beast howled with anguish. All the while the American bald-headed eagle soared and screemed, and screamed and scared, holding aloft forked lightning and the star-spangled banner. It was a proud day for America, and venerable senators, with bald heads and ill-fitting gar ments, snorted defiance while writing letters and reading newspapers. The [conciliatory smile passed for once from the face of the Vice-Presi dent. He sat like Mars, and his majestic brows corrugated, resembled a vulcanized roof in a thunder storm. Electric streams of loyal patriotism-that is not State's right patriotism-flashed and quivered along the galleries, while fear settled like an old hen in the diplomatic gallery, where Mr. Thornton's first attache, and two old ladies of German origin, trembled and shook until their shawls fell off."

"Cut Loose!"

"THE CHARLESTON NEWS has at length cut loose from the Democratic party."

If our Sumter namesake will be good enough to inform us at what time THE CHARLESTON NEWS was tied fast to the skirts of the Democratic party, or any other party, we shall be very much obliged to it for the information. This newspaper has been, is, and always will be, an independent and not a party journal. Its policy is-whatever it believes will promote the good of the whole people of South Carolina. In the mainte nance of that policy, and with no other motive, it gave an honest and hearty support to the Democratic party in the national campaign of 1868. But, holding the conviction that the practical effect of keeping up a Democratic organization in our fall elections of State and county officers, would inevitably be to deliver over South Carolina, bound hand and foot, for an indefinite time, to the mercies of the plunderer Scott, THE News is for a prompt and cordial union of all good men, black and white, Republicans and Democrats, to secure what everybody admits is so much needed in our State affairs -HONESTY, RETRENCHMENT and REPORK.

The First Congressional District.

Captain T. C. Dunn, who has been announced as an independent candidate to represent the First District in Congress, addressed the citizens of Horry County, in the courthouse, on last Monday. The Horry News says that the speech was well delivered and had a marked effect on the audience, and it predicts that "Horry "will give Captain Dunn the largest and "most united vote that she has ever polled."

Captain Dunn will address the voters of the First District as follows: Georgetown, Thursday, May 5; Indiantown, Friday, May 6; Kingstree, Saturday, May 7; Manning, Monday, May 9; Sumter, Wednesday, May 11; Marion, Thursday, May 12; Florence, Friday, May 13; Darlington, Saturday, May 14; Society Hill, Monday, May 16; Bennettsville, Tuesday, May 17; Cheraw, Wednesday, May 18; Chesterfield, Thursday, May 19; Lancaster, Saturday, May 21; Pleasant anxiety. The trustees of his college have voted Hill, Monday, May 23; Camden, Thursday, May 24.

> The Anderson Intelligencer and the June Convention.

> The Anderson Intelligencer takes this view of the political situation:

"It must be conceded that a movement of this character, to secure an affiliation between Democrats and Republicans in an effort to bring about reform in the administration of public affairs, must necessarily be controlled and urged forward by conservative members of the Republican party. We think there is no hazard in affirming that it is out of the question to expect the election of any Demo crat to fill the Executive chair for the next term. The nominee of the June Convention, with the remotest chance of success, must come from the ranks of the Republican party, and must procure the votes of every Democrat in the State, in order to insure a triumph over the disciplined forces of the extreme Radicals. Such being the case, we are led to inquire as o the individual likely to place himself in the hands of a party organized in this way. Is there a prominent Republican yet connected with the movement? We confess that there is no indication to that effect. Unless we have an available candidate, who can unite the entire Democratic vote, and at the same time secure more than 15,000 voters heretofore aligned with the Radical party, deteat is certain and inevitable. These are plain facts that it will not do to ignore in our calculations." We agree with the Intelligencer that the nominee of the June Convention, if intended to win, will not be a Democrat; but the selection of the man must, of course, be left to the Convention, which will, we firmly believe, be able to find a candidate who can beat Scott by ten thousand votes. The Intelligencer, however, thinks it unwise to run an Opposition candidate, and if this be the opinion of the Convention, we shall submit as gracefully as we may. But in order that the whole State may meet in council for the common good, in order that the plan of action or inaction may be the policy of South Carolina, and not of one or two districts, we sincerely hope that every county will be represented by its chosen citizens. The Convention will certainly be held; for at this early day one-third of the counties of the State have given notice of meetings for the election of delegates. And we submit to the Intelligencer that Anderson should not be silent when so many of her sister counties raise their voices in favor of united action for securing Retrenchment and Reform. The Convention is a sovereign body and is tied to no line of policy, and the arguments of the Intelligencer will, we are sure, be carefully and calmly discussed, if they are laid before the body as the deliberate opinion of the people of Anderson.

The Orangeburg News.

Mr. Browning has withdrawn-from theeditorial management of the Orangeburg News, of which Mr. CrH. Hall is now the publisher and sole proprietor. The News is a bold and a vigorous paper, and will continue, we doubt not, to strike telling blows in the good cause of Retrenchment and Reform.

The June Convention.

The Orangeburg News urges the people of Orangeburg to begin at once their preparations for precinct meetings to be held on the 21st to select delegates to the County Reform Convention which assembles on salesday in June.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Orangeburg News, writing about the County Reform Conventions, says: "There need be no resolu-"tions or platforms laid down by these primary meetings, but the object of the party of Retrenchment and Reform be fully and fairly stated to Republicans as well as Democrats, and their co-operation asked in redeeming the State from the misrule and extravagance into which she has fallen."

The Georgetown Railroad.

The Georgetown Times says that there is 'no truth whatever" in the announcement made by the Sumter News that the "George-"town and Charlotte Railroad project has "been abandoned for want of sufficient sup-"port from the people of Georgetown."

The Times says that the prospects of building the road are "better and surer" than they ever have been before, and the road can be built "without "he aid of the "town subscription."

An advertisement appears in the Knoxville Whig for 2000 hands to work on the Blue Ridge Railroad-600 for tunnel work and 1400 for grading. This sounds like business.

Union County has had only one marriage in three months. The county must do better than this or change its name.

A TEMPERANCE SOCIETY has been organized in Manning. We should like to see a similar society in every county in the State.

*MPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT.

We beg leave respectfully to call the attention of the public to our Superior Plavoring Extracts. As ten years have now elapsed since we first introduced them to the notice of the American public, we deem it unnecessary at present to enter into a lengthy description of their merits, &c. There is hardly a city or town of any note in the country into which they have not found their way. The reason of this widespread popularity and daily increasing demand is owing entirely to their peculiar excellence and intrinsic worth. Being determined to make them the Standard Extracts of the day, we have still further improved their quality, and now we firmly and honestly believe that they stand without a rival. Our Vanilla Extract cannot be surpassed for richness and delicacy of flavor. It is a strictly pure and highly concentrated Extract of Vanilla Beans. In short, we think it the best that is made, at least, this is the decision of the best judges in the country. We don't pretend to compete in price with many of the so-called Flavoring Extracts of the day, which are really but worthless compounds, undeserving of the name.

For quality and style, we defy competition.
