Sumner introduced a bill in the Senate on Friday supplemental to the Civil Rights bill. which he considers the "crowning glory of his anti-slavery record." It provides in effect for absolute equality of all persons in the enjoyment of all kinds of proper privileges, without distinction on account of race or color. It requires all hotels, restaurants, railroads, theatres, churches, concert halls, academies, common schools, colleges, &c., to treat all alike, and imposes penalties, punishable on conviction in a United States Court, for any refusal of any privillege to any one on account of he or she being of African descent. The bill is so sweeping that it prohibits cemeteries even from being deveted to the sepulture exclusively of white people or of colored people. This latter provision in regard to cemeteries meets the approval of Garret Davis, who says that he is willing to allow the whole race to occupy them without delay. The bill was referred to the Judiciary Committee, from which its author hoped it would soon be reported and passed into a law.

country he loved so well. Immediately upon and a school wherever enough children can his arrival at Havana, his captors, with savage joy depicted on their faces, hurried him at once to the public prison, where a drumhead court-martial soon after assembled, and with 'double-quick"- proceedings sentenced him to be garroted at 8 o'clock the following morning. A few minutes before that hour he was taken from the chapel, where he had been confined during the night, and escorted under a heavy guard to the Castillo del Principe, where the garrote platform had been erected. A priest was allowed to accompany him to the scaffold. Goicuria's step was firm, and his countenance expressed neither fear nor remorse. Looking for a moment at the chair, he calmly turned around and held out his hands to the executioner to be tied. The iron ring was fastened around his neck, the executioner gave a turn of the wrench, the head fell on one side, and Goicuria was no more. He was given no opportunities to make an ante-mortem address, but still managed to shout "Viva Cuba !" the beating of drums preventing anything else he said from being heard. CITIZENS OF CHARLESTON! the time of inaction and sluggishness is past. Now must we strike for Reform, or through weary years be the humble bondsmen of Dishonesty and Vice. There has been, and is, too much despondency and despair in the hearts of the people. We hold our destiny in our own hands. We can win, if we will. And if this people will not, for honor and for fame, for political liberty and for personal security, for purity on the bench and for honesty in public office, unite in a mighty movement for Retrenchment and Reform, then is there no longer blood in the veins, or marrow in the bones, of the free men of South Carolina. To-night, in Mass Meeting, the Reformers will make their onslaught upon Corruption and Fraud. And the fidings of the attack, and its issue, will go forth with lightning speed to every town and hamlet in the land. The State is looking to Charleston to open fire upon the enemies of good government. We must put behind us the memory of gloom and depression. We must remember the motto of our people, and live on in hope, however dark the sky. We must stand to our guns unflinchingly and never give up the ship while rests a shot in the locker.

Citizens of Charleston! Your presence is lemanded at the Reform Mass Meeting tonight. In the name of right and truth, in the name of justice and equality, in the name of shattered Charleston, in the name of a ruined State, we exhort you to muster your peaceful legions, and throng the Hibernian Hall this night.

The enemy trembles and is afraid. Already the wise ones abandon the sinking craft. One united effort here in Charleston, one plain expression of the fixed resolve of the people, and the whole State will take up the refrain and chant in sonorous tones the majestic hymn of Unity and Peace.

Victory is ours if we work and plan aright. And our first coign of vantage is the gathering of the People to-night.

Cheating the People out of their Schools.

The utter faithlessness of the Scott party to the men who raised them to the high places they now disgrace, is shown in every circumstance of their official career. Not satisfied with speculating in State bonds and dress in purple and bathe in Samian wine; not content with piling loan on loan, and debt on debt, until the liability of the State to the public creditor is doubled in twelve months; not satisfied with causing South Carolina to be branded by The Nation as the place in which "politics have reached the "lowest pitch oddegradation," these traitors go further still and aim a deadly blow at the very laborers and workingmen whom they most profess to love. They have driven capital from our shores, they have made business progress tediously slow, they have taken the hammer from the hands of the mechanic and the hoe from the grasp of the laborer. And, worse than all, they neglect the most solemn duties imposed on them by the law-they do nothing for the education of the neonle. More than two years ago the Reconstruction Convention ordained that the General Assembly should provide, by suitable laws. for the appropriation of the Citadel and grounds for educational purposes. But the Citadel is still occupied by the United States troops, and the children of the workingman are without the collegiate education which was ordered to be prepared for them. And if the General Assembly, at the dictation of Scott and his menials, has failed to perform the plain letter of its duty, the same must be said of the County School Commissioners. Senator Cain, the editor of the Missionary Record, who two weeks ago denounced the corruption and frauds of the Land Commission and the county officers, now demands, and with reason, a more rigid enforcement of the school laws of the State. This colored senator, a man whose Radicalism is unquestioned, says that the fact is established that "there are not "schools in one out of every dozen districts "within a county, outside the cities."

Further he says: "In St. Paul's, in St. Andrew's, and all along the Savannah Railroad, there are not four schools from Charleston to Pocotaligo. In "Christ Church, St. Thomas, St. Michaei's, St. "Denis, St. John's Berkeley, St. Stephen's and other points, there are not more "than six schools if that many. Up the Santee there is none, and everywhere complaints "are rife of the palpable neglect of the officers to establish schools for the children."

All over the State it is the same story. The whole receipts from the capitation tax, and fifty thousand dollars besides, were appropriated to educational purposes. This large sum of money has, we suppose, been spent, and where are the new schools, where are the new scholars, where is the fulfilment of the pledges of the Scott Ring that they would educate the people? The truth of it is, and men of all parties know it, we need Reform in the Executive Mansion, Reform in Finance, Reform in the Legislature, and such a Reform in the Meeting to be held at the Hibernian Hall to-be found to fill it. This is a part of the work of Reform, and well may Senator Cain warn the culpable commissioners that "if "they longer neglect the duties devolved "upon them by law, then the people will, in "the next efection, select some one who has "the interests of the people more at heart "than those who are now receiving compen-"sation for neglecting the education of the "youth of the State." And the first step in the right road is this: Let every man who has a child to educate attend, without fail, the Reform Mass Meeting at the Hibernian

The Republicans and Reform.

With the honest Republicans among usthose to whom their party is the result of political sympathies or convictions, and not a mere cloak for every scheme of public plunder-no man in South Carolina need any longer have any cause of quarrel. All the ends for which the party has so long been striving have, in this State at least, become accomplished facts, and, right or wrong, the principle of the Equal Rights of All Men, which is the cardinal maxim in the Republican creed, here has full and undisputed sway. Now, then, is the time when, for the sake of the party itself, all respectable Republicans, white and colored, should unite in the effort to purge the State Government of the shameless corruption which is their disgrace in the eyes of the whole country. Now should they stand shoulder to shoulder with those from whom they have honestly differed in the past, to secure for our tax-burdened people the RETRENCHMENT and REFORM which every good citizen, of whatever party, so earnestly desires. And, in answer to the charge so persistently made by the hireling trumpeter of Governor Scott, (which is supported from week to week out of the money robbed from the people, and the very existence of which depends upon the continuance of the opportunity for public peculation and official fraud,) that the REFORM movement is a Democratic movement in disguise, we will only quote the following editorial, from The Nation, the acknowledged leader in ability, consistency and philosophic thought of the Radical press of the country:

[From The Nation, for May 12.] "The 'Reform Party' in South Carolina, of the establishment of which we spoke some weeks since, seems to be well under way and "to be increasing in size and spirit with grati-"fying rapidity, though we fear there is but "little chance of its carrying the elections; "the State seems to lie almost completely at the mercy of the white and black corruptionists who have been plundering it for some years past; and that the negro voters are not yet "educated to their responsibilities is clear enough to everybody; and if not, it soon will be, for Mr. B. F. Whittemore is to be sent "back to Congress, we see. Apparently, noth-"ing could be worse than the conduct of the "high officials of the State. It is, for instance, "constantly asserted, and is nowhere denied, "that a senator, Leslie by name, who held the "office of Land Commissioner, and spent alto-"gether some $600,000 of the State's money. and then resigned without satisfactorily accounting for much of it, openly declared that "if the Advisory Board tried to make him ac-"count for it, he would have the chairman of "that body 'in his own penitentiary in less 'than two weeks.' The Advisory Board con-"sists of the Governor, the Attorney-General, "the Secretary of State, the State Treasurer, "and the Comptroller-General. More than "this, when Leslie 'resigned,' and there was "talk in the Senate of compelling him to ex-"plain his conduct in office, he coolly inquired which senator would like to begin, and dared his colleagues to press him for the reasons of 'his resignation; and none of them pressed "him, he having a tongue in his head and "knowing certain secrets. Plenty more things of this sort might be related, and have been. and nothing is surer than that the rescue of South Carolina from her present rulers is a thing for which decent men everywhere - Democrats and Republicans, ESPECIALLY REPUB-'LICANS-should pray with fervor. As we say, however, there seems to be as yet but little ground for hope, though probably a thorough organization of the new party and some hard work may secure a Legislature for next year which shall be less of a disgrace to civilization than the last was. We must not forget "to mention that the T. J. Mackey who fig-"ured in a shooting affray in the Common Coun-"cil some months since, and who escaped pun-"ishment by pleading morphine," has just been made a Trial Justice by Governor Scott. REPUBLICANS! Citizens! Business Men! We ask you to ponder over these deliberate expressions of the first Radical journal in the land, and, then hesitate, if you can, as good citizens and honest men, to swell the great popular uprising for REFORM. The voice of Charleston goes forth to-night to her sister counties. See to it that it be, indeed, the voice of her whole people, without distinction of class, color or political creed!

THE Abbeville Press and Banner thinks that the meaning of the speech of Land Commissioner DeLarge, delivered at Abbeville on Wednesday last, was just this: "The "Reform movement will not injure the color-"ed voter, but will deprive the office-holders "of the monopoly they now enjoy. 'To "the victors belong the spoils," and the "fewer the claimants, the larger the share of each. He claimed a monopoly of love "to the colored man, because he would seek "to retain a monopoly of the offices in his 'gift. Thus does selfishness-grasping greed "of office-assume the garb of philanthropy." This makes it all the more important for the colored people to muster in force at the Mass Meeting to night.

A CORRESPONDENT in Barnwell gives some samples of Scott taxation. Colonel B. before the war paid $100; now he pays $400. Mr. G. D. paid before the war $60, and now pays $300. Dr. H. paid $12 before the war, and now pays $160. And it must be taken into consideration that, upon all this property, feaces have been levelled and destroyed, gin-houses have been burned and implements lost. The shoe pinches in the same place in Charleston County, and the remedy is a full attendance at the Hibernian Hall to-night.

CAPTAIN DUNN, who is canvassing the first Congressional District in opposition to Whittemore, addressed the electors of Georgetown last Friday. Whittemore was defended by Representative Jones, who was subsequently flayed by Representative Bowley, who denounced Whittemore and Jones in a very handsome manner. The Dunn meeting was decidedly successful, and as much will be said to-morrow of the Reform Mass

Give Them Light.

THE brazen mouth piece of the Scott Party is politely invited to publish, for the information of its limited circle of readers, the gratifying article of The Nation on the Reform movement, printed in THE News of this morning. The same unregenerate paper will, please also, state that "the lamp still "holds out to burn," and that the Reformers assemble in Mass Meeting at the Hibernian Hall to-night.

We hope that the suggestion of the Ledger that Lancaster elect delegates to the Columbia Convention on sales-day in June, will meet with the concurrence of the county. Charleston elects her delegates at the Hiber nian Hall at 8 o'clock to-night.

DAVIS & MILLER'S FLAVORING EXTRACTS.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT.

GREAT REDUCTION IN PRICES. QUALITY STILL FURTHER IMPROVED.

We beg leave respectfully to call the attention of the public to our Superior Flavoring Extracts. As ten years have now elapsed since we first introduced them to the notice of the American pub lic, we deem it unnecessary at present to enter into a lengthy description of their merits, &c. There is hardly a city or town of any note in the country into which they have not found their way. The reason of this widespread popularity and daily increasing demand is owing entirely to their peculiar excellence and intrinsic worth. their peculiar excellence and intrinsic worth. Being determined to make them the Standard Extracts of the day, we have still further improved their quality, and now we firmly and honestly be-lieve that they stand without a rival. Our Vanilla lieve that they stand without a rival. Our Vanilla Extract cannot be surpassed for richness and delicacy of flavor. It is a strictly pure and highly concentrated Extract of Vanilis Beans. In short, we think it the dest that is made, at least, this is the decision of the best judges in the country. We don't pretend to compete in price with many of the so-called Flavoring Extracts of the day, which are really but worthless compounds, undeserving of the name.

For quality and style, we defy competition.

DAVIS & MILLER'S

PURE YEAST POWDER. A substitute for Yeast in making Hot Bread, Rolls and Batter Cakes of every description, having the advantage of making the dough or batter perfectly light, and ready for baking without delay, and greatly diminishing the liability to become sour become sour.

Many dyspeptics, who cannot tolerate fresh, light cakes when made with yeast, can eat them with impunity when raised in this way.

When used according to directions, it is warranted to make rich, sweet, light and nutritious Bread and Biscuit, Mufflins, Waffles, Corn Bread, all kinds of Griddie Cakes, also Boiled Puddings, Dumplings, Pot Pies, &c.
