THE AIR-LINE RAILROAD .- The vote was taken in York, on Saturday, on the question of subscribing $200,000 to the Air-Line Railroad. It resulted in the defeat of the sesscription by nineteen votes. If the offer be accepted, with anything like proper force, the telegraph can be completed in two months. The railroad bed is now uncorgoing repairs, upon the completion of which the schedule requiring less time to run from Greenville to Columbia will be published. OUR DEBT.

WHAT IS THE LEGAL DEBT OF CHARLESTON.

MEETING OF TAXPAYERS LAST NIGHT. THE SALE OF THE CITY PROPERTY.

CITY ATTORNEY CORBIN APPLIES FOR AN INJUNCTION.

The proceedings of the executors of Gibbon to enforce the payment of judgments obtained against the city for overdue city stock, and the notice by the sheriff of the sale, on Monday next, of the Artesian Well and White Point Garden, have naturally excited the uneasiness and alarm of the holders of real estate, and of the taxpayers in general. With a debt of over five million dollars staring the city in the face, and falling due in large amounts every year; with a burdensome taxation which depresses the value of all property, it was felt necessary that so me steps should be taken to ascertain the real position of the city in relation to its debt, and to do what might seem best for the protection of the tax-paying public. This feeling assumed shape on Thursday last, when a private meeting was held, which resulted in the issuing of the following circular: Dear Sir—The undersigned desire you to meet them on the 3d instant, at 7 o'clock, at the Market Hall, to consider the city debt. We are impressed with the conviction that in its nt form and under present circumstances it is pregnant of disastrous consequences to the city, and we desire to consult with you as to the means of its solution.

WM. AIKEN, RICH. HOLLOWAY, ROBERT HOWARD, B. FOLEY, ALVA GAGE. WM. MCKINLAY. H. F. BAKER, J. H. KALB, J. F. O'NEILL. E. W. MARSHALL, L. W. SPRATT, B. BOLLMANN. COR SMALL. G. S. CAMERON. J. F. TAYLOR, WM. MORAN, And others. HENRY BISCHOFF.

number of taxpayers assembled at the Market Hall last night at the appointed hour. The meeting was called to order by Mr. Jno.

In accordance with this invitation, a large

H. Devereux, who spoke as follows: Gentlemen-We are assembled here for the Gentlemen—We are assembled here for the purpose of taking into consideration the present condition of our city affairs. While almost all the cities in the United States are expanding and spreading their wings, like so many mighty eagles, Charleston, hung in sack-cloth and ashes, is receding step by step, until now, overwhelmed with debt, her public property is about to be put under the hammer of the arctioneer. he auctioneer.

It is not for us to ask whose fault this is, but o set at work at once, and take steps to remely the evil. First, to save for ourselves and our children the only public park of any ac-count that we have, that known as "White Point Garden," and now offered for sale to satisfy the claims of the owners of past due city stock. And next, to consider the propriety and feasibility of offering such terms to the owners of city stock as may be within the ability and power of the people to give.

To my mind, this question has resolved itself into a very simple form. We must either come to some accommodation with the creditors of the city, or they will come into possession of our property. One gentleman, who is a member of City Council, and the owner of some one hundred and six thousand dollars of this stock, has been heard to say, I am told that he would have the last brick and the last shingle, dollar for dollar. The owners of the shingles and bricks are prepared to show that they never delegated to their servants, the City Council, at any time, the power to contract such debts, and furthermore, that in the Issue of city stock, or prom-ises to pay of any kind, they exceeded the power given to them under their charter. The sale of "White Point Garden" will necessarily be followed by others, until even that grandest of all charities, and most noble of all our institutions, the Orphan Asylum itself, will be sold to satisfy the demands of capitalists who hold the promises to pay of this most unhappy city.

With these few remarks, I beg of you to elect a permanent chairman, more able than myself to guide your action and point out the fairest and most feasible plan for shielding our good city from the grave now being prepared ult as early as practicable. Capt. J. M. Mulvaney then offered the follow ing preamble and resolutions:

ing preamble and resolutions:

Whereas, The present condition of the finances of the city is a subject for the anxious consideration of all who live within its limits, and the amount of taxation requisite to keep down the interest charged against the city is preserved in the prosperity of its inhabitants can scarcely be hoped for, while a debt so heavy and taxation are convessive is rendered necessary: and. hoped for, while a debt so heavy and taxation so oppressive is rendered necessary; and, whereas, there is a strong conviction that a large portion of the so-called debt of the city is not a legal obligation of the city, and if not, then that the same ought not to be allowed to oppress those who in their taxes have to contribute to its reduction; therefore,

Captain Mulvaney and Mr. W. P. Russell spoke in support of the resolutions, which were unanimously adopted.

On motion of Mr. Russell, the preamble and resolutions were referred to the Advisory Committee already appointed.

On motion of Mr. Devereux, it was Resolved, That the Advisory Committee sccure the co-operation of as many taxpayers as possible in the movement.

On motion of Mr. Voigt, it was Resolved, That the Advisory Committee be instructed to name sub-committees to canvass the taxpayers in each ward. Mr. Volgt offered the following resolution, which was adopted: Resolved, That the Advisory Committee be authorized to collect all information in referaumorized to collect all information in reference to the city debt, as also all articles which have appeared in the daily papers, and have the same published, together with their report, in pamphlet form for distribution. On mot'on of Mr. Trumbo, amended by General Gurney, the chairman was authorized to call a public meeting of the taxpayers whenever the same should be recommended by the Advisory Committee.

On motion of Mr. Mulvaney, all persons present at the meeting favorable to the object expressed in the resoluntions, were invited to stealing $5 in currency from Wm. Kirkland. come forward and sign their names. Nearly every person at the meeting accordingly signed the roll. It was then ordered that the roll be left at the newspaper offices for further signatures. The proceedings of the meet ingwere ordered to be published, and after passing a vote of thanks to the chairman and secretaries, the meeting adjourned.

The meeting was large in numbers, and influential in character, and its proceedings were marked by earnestness and harmony. The Sale of White Point Garden and the Artesian Well. For several weeks past, E. W. M. Mackey, sheriff of Charleston County, has advertised in the city papers that, by virtue of an execution in the case of John Gibbon, George E. Gibbon, Wm. L. Webb, Andrew McD. Brown, executors of George Gibbon, deceased, vs. the City Council, he would sell in front of the courthouse, on Monday next, 6th of June, all the right, title and interest of the defendants in the premises known as the South Bay Battery or White Point Garden, the Artesian Well, and the premises at the northeast corner of King and Calhoun streets. THE SHERIFF ENJOINED.

As soon as it was known that the sheriff had near the top, and the pleats are merely pressl evied upon the Battery, and there was a prospect of its being sold, all of our citizens, who are justly proud of this place of resort, were indignant and loudly expressed their dissatisfaction. Some of the property owners in that section, it is said, conferred together to ascertain if there was any way to stay the sheriff. Whether this be true or not, certain it is that they have taken no public steps to that end. However, a prospect of relief came from another quarter. About half-past 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Sheriff Mackey received the following notice:

CHARLESTON, S. C., June 3, 1870. The City Council of Charleston vs. John Gibbon, George E. Gibbon, William L. Webb, Andrew McD. Brown, executors of George Gibbon, William L. Webb, Andrew McD. GROUNDS FOR THE MOTION. About the same time a copy of the injunction was filed in the clerk's office of the State Court. It recites:

First. That in the case of the City Council vs. Geo. E. Gibbon et al, executors of Geo. Gibbon, deceased, and E. W. M. Mackey, sheriff of Charleston County, the defendants, with the exception of Sheriff Mackey, secured in March, 1870, a judgment against the plaintiff for the sum of $41,563 40.

Second. That for the purpose of satisfying the execution the sheriff of Charleston County pretended to levy upon the Battery, the Artesian Well and the premises at the southeast corner of Calhoun and King streets, and advertised it to be sold on the 6th of June.

Third. That the property is not subject to a levy and sale under an execution to satisfy the debts of the City Council, for the following reasons: That the Artesian Well property was purchased by the City Council to dig wells upon it to get water for the use of citizens; that the wells had been dug, and the citizens supplied with water for more than twenty years. That on the 7th of May, 1857, the board of field officers of the Fourth Brigade had purchased the property at the corner of King and Calhoun streets, which, with the adjoining Citadel property, was to be used as a mall for the militia and the citizens forever; that the City Council aided in the purchase of this property, and that it had been used for the purpose stated; that owing to its possession by the United States anthorities, it was not now so used. That the Battery property had been purchased by the City Council, to be devoted to the use of the public as a mall or common, and had been so used for more than twenty years. That for these reasons the plaintiff demanded that the defendants, their attorneys and agents, and especially Sheriff E. W. M. Mackey, be forever restrained from selling, or offering for sale, the aforesaid property, by virtue of said execution.

As above stated, the motion will be made before Associate Justice Willard at Columbia today. It was intended to make the motion before Judge Carpenter, but he was called away. Major Corbin left for Columbia last night. It Capt. Geo. H. Walter was then called to the is understood that the counsel for the opposite chair, and Messrs. R. B. Stanley and A. Judge Carpenter has gone North, and the opening of the June term of the Court of General Sessions has been, therefore, postponed until the 13th instant.

FLAVORING EXTRACTS.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT.

GREAT REDUCTION IN PRICES.

QUALITY STILL FURTHER IMPROVED.

We beg leave respectfully to call the attention of the public to our Superior Flavoring Extracts. As ten years have now elapsed since we first introduced them to the notice of the American public, we deem it unnecessary at present to enter into a lengthy description of their merits, &c. There is hardly a city or town of any note in the country into which they have not found their way. The reason of this widespread popularity and daily increasing demand is owing entirely to their peculiar excellence and intrinsic worth. Being determined to make them the Standard Extracts of the day, we have still further improved their quality, and now we firmly and honestly believe that they stand without a rival. Our Vanilla Extract cannot be surpassed for richness and delicacy of flavor. It is a strictly pure and highly concentrated Extract of Vanilla Beans. In short, we think it the best that is made, at least, this is the decision of the best judges in the country. We don't pretend to compete in price with many of the so-called Flavoring Extracts of the day, which are really but worthless compounds, undeserving of the name.

For quality and style, we defy competition.
