FURTHER PARTICULARS OF THE COUNTY MOVEMENTS.

[From the Walhalla Courier.]

The citizens of Oconee County met in the courthouse, at Walhalla, on Monday last, for the purpose of considering the propriety of appointing delegates to the State Convention to be held in Columbia, on the 15th day of June

On motion, Dr. O. M. Doyle was called to the chair, and Robt. A. Thompson requested to chair, and ROOL. A. Incorporate as secretary.

Bobt. A. Thompson was requested to state the objects of the meeting. He said, in substance: 1. That this movement was not political in its character. 2. That it proceeded upon the accentance of the present conditions. the acceptance of the present condition of affairs in reference to the rights and privileges of all the citizens of the country. 3. Opposition to the present Radical party, its corrup-tion, profligacy and high taxes. 4. Reform and Retrenchment in the administration of the State Government, and county affairs generally. 5. Capacity and integrity as qualifications for office.

Colonel J. W. Livingston endorsed the call for the meeting, and favored representation in the convention. After remarks by Messrs. Holder, Russell, Livingston, Keith and Thompson, the motion was carried.

Though the meeting was not as full a one as was anticipated, in consequence, doubtless, of the pressing demand for every farmer to be at home attending to his growing crop, quite a large and respectable gathering of the substantial citizens of the county was held in the courthouse on Monday last. The m-eting was organized, on motion of Major S. P. Hamilton, by calling Major James Pagan to the chair, and requesting C. S. Brice, Esq., to act as secretary. The chairman, in a clear and forcible way explained that the object of the meeting was to inaugurate measures to secure the cooperation of all honest men in the effort to shake off the knaves who are running the State Government solely for the sake of plunder, and to restore the administration of the government to honest and capable hands, tre-der, and to restore the administration of the government to honest and capable hands, irrespective of color or past party associations. He said that it was the duly of every respectable man to come out squarely and work for an honest government; that all men white and black, rich and poor, are equally interested in the movement to reduce the expenditures of the government.

Colonel W. A. Walker moved that a committee of eight he appointed to nominate delegation.

tee of eight be appointed to nominate delegates to the convention to be holden in Columbia on the 15th instant. The motion was adopted.
Major S. P. Hamilton offered the following preamble and resolutions, and urged their doption in a speech of considerable length, splete with good sence and convincing argu-

Whereas, By the passage of the Fifteenth mendment to the Constitution of the United states, equal rights, both civil and political, ave been granted to all citizens of the United have been granted to all citizens of the United states, and in every State of the Union the said Fifteenth constitutional amendment has become the law of the land; therefore, be it Resolved, That we recognize the said constitutional amendment as the law of the land, and that we the citizens of Chester County will truly and in good faith carry out the principles therein contained.

Resolved, That the resolutions heretofore passed by the Press Conference at Columbia are hereby approved and accepted not only as the announcement of proper principles, but also as the first trumpet note to rouse the whole people for the impending overthrow of the enemies of law and order, truth, virtue and common honesty.

whole people for the impelning overthick with enemies of law and order, truth, virtue and common honesty.

In discussing the resolutions, Major Hamilton first depicted in forcible words the great changes the revolution had brought about, and appealed to the white men present to recognize these changes, and to accord to the colored man cheerfully, sincerely and truthfully, all the civil and political rights that the law now gives him. He met and exposed the falsity of the charge made by the enemies of Reform, that the new movement is nothing but the Democratic party under a thin disguise. The Democratic party in South Carolina, he said, was dead; that the main question of difference between the Republican and Democratic parties had been the status of the colored man; and now that the Reform party accepted in good faith the Fifteenth amendment as the law of the land, there was really-me difference between the platform of that party and that tween the platform of that party and that the Republican party. He forcibly ap-aled to the colored men to assist in wresting State government from the hand of he State government from the hand of he plundering carpet-baggers; that it was brough their instrumentality that the government had gotten into such hands; and that hey owed it to the welfare of the State to use heir power and restore the administration of fairs to honest hads. He warned them to pware of the mean write men who are going that he was the bage that he sale murrouse of securing. ware of the mean white men who are going to the league for the sole purpose of securing fiees for themselves, and said it was good me for honest colored men to know that they are in the wrong flace and come out of it, then such bad specimens of white men were ing in among them. He next proceeded to by up the Land Commission as one of the satest swindles of the age, and stated one tance in which a gentleman of York had dhis land to Leslie at 14 per acre, and aftered getting a glimpse at his books saw ere that immaculate thief had entered it as rehased at 16 per acre. The recently discov-chased at $6 per acre. The recently discov-d $00,000 swindle of N. G. Parker, State asurer, was also ventilated.

The preamble and resolutions were submitted to the meeting and unanimously adopted,

E. C. McLure offered the following resolution:
Resolved, That the delegates appointed to attend the Convention at Columbia, be authorized to fill any vacancies that may occur in its number, by the appointment of other dele-

Which was adopted, and the meeting then Edgefield.

At the public meeting held in Edgefield to ominate delegates to the June Convention, eight colored and seven white delegates were appointed. The Advertiser says:

The speeches made by General Butler, Ma ior Gary, Major Bacon and Mr. Youmans, on this occasion, were, one and all, able, honest and truthful, and all in the same strain and to the same end, viz: That of opening the eyes of the negroes to their true interests, to the of the negroes to their true interests, to the selfishness, knavery and dissimulation of the great mass of the Radical party of the State, and to the honesty and good intentions of the Reform party. General Gary, who has taken no part in politics since the war, appeared only after repeated calls from the meeting. He declared himself an uncompremising oldated by the contract table proceed to require school Democrat, totally opposed to acquies-cing, only so far as we are absolutely obliged, in either the Thirteenth, Fourteenth or Fif-in either the Thirteenth, Fourteenth or Filteenth amendments, totally opposed to negro suffrage, and willing to wait and suffer until dooms-day rather than swerve from the pure doctrines of the Democratic party.

Mr. P. A. Eichelberger, the leading Radical of this section, was present at the meeting—or rather hanging upon its outskirts—and was called upon loudly for his views, with many assurances previously given, that respect, toleration and sar-play should be the order of the day. Mr. Eichelberger, however, did not reday. Mr. Elchelberger, however, did not re-spond. He and certain of his agents and myr-midons were working like beavers in the after part of the day, to undo the work of the morn-ing's speeches.

And now Edgefield, having put herself among the ranks of those moving for a Reform in the government, can only hope that the wise action of the Convention will be productive of such Reform.

PARIS, June 8. Advices from Rome state that the Œcumenical Council is now engaged in discussing the Schema de primatia et infallibilitate by sections. The debate on the preamble has closed. There have been one or two exciting passage between the supporters and opponents of the proposed logma, but, at present, the minority are silent and passive. A great demonstration was made yesterday in favor of Panal infallibility. Jesuits were the prime movers in the affair. A large procession passed through the streets bearing banners inscribed, "Viva Papa Infallibile."

ROME, June 7, VIA PARIS, June 8. The Fathers opposed to intallibility have resented an address to the Pope, through Cardinal Legate, remonstrating against the violent proceedings by which the meeting of the 3d instant was dissolved and the debate on the preamble of the Schema brought to a close. They complain that fifty members who had given notice of their intention to speak remain unheard, among them Monsigneur Dupanloup, and protest against the vote by which the debate was determined, declaring that it was carried by surprise. The address received the signatures of one hundred men.

It is asserted that about the first of May, M Ollivier sent a dispatch to the French ambas sador here instructing him to make no more efforts to restrain the action of the Council. The Marquis of Benneville accordingly suspended negotiations on the subject with the Papal Government, but told the French bishops that it was their duty to defend the opinions o their government, and advised them to do all in their power to obtain modifications of the Schema. The Approaching Monster Concert-Musical Discord-A Big Thing-Summer Piety on the Wing-Tumble in the Rates of Board-Theatrical Gossip.

The promoters of the forthcoming musical festival have lately been involved in a little tempest raised by the opposing clans of Parepa and Kellogg. Both of these ladies wished to be at the head of the list of artists; both wished to have the most prominent places on the programmes, and both wished to have the holcest morceaux of music. At one time it seemed quite impossible to reconcile the contending factions, and the result was that Miss Kellogg's name was on one day omitted from the programmes, and great was the wrath of the Kelloggites. The irate party was, however, appeased. Miss Keilogg was finally secured, and is announced to sing selections from "Trovatore," on the opening day of the festival. A greater prominence is, however, given to the name of Parepa, who will try the solos in the great oratorios. All prima donnas are very exacting, and the management has to use great diplomacy. There are also half a dozen jovial conductors to be reconciled, each one thinking that he alone of all others is the man for the occasion. It is expected that this week the New York singing societies will take hold of the matter more vigorously than they have done hitherto. Three rehearsals are to be held at Steinway Hall this week, at which the oratorios will be practiced. The managers the oratorios will be practiced. The managers have already gone to great expense, the means being furnished by a business firm down town. The advertising bills are prodigious, that of the Herald sometimes amounting to $250 a day. Several of the artists will have to be paid in advance. There is already so much money invested in the enterprise, that it will have to be earlied through and exercised and exercised through and exercised since search. carried through, and every day gives increased assurance of its real attractiveness and merit. In fact, the attendance at the theatres generally is rapidly falling off, owing to the warm weather.

Sunday evening amusements, which ten years ago would have been decreed most sacrilegious, are now openly allowed. Last night Fisk's theatre—the so-called "Grand Opera House"—was crowded to excess on the occasion of a repetition as a concert of the music performed at the recent reception of the Ninth Regiment at the Academy. Several members of the regular company of the theatre sang solos, and Max Maretzek conducted a chorus of 125 performes, who interpreted, instrumentally, a variety of operatic selections. No pretence of "sacred music" was assumed to fit the concert to the day. There are not a few who predict that in ten years hence the leading theatres will be thrown open on Sunday nights, as they are in New Orleans and in most of the European capitals.

UNFAVORABLE PROSPECT OF THE LOUISIANA RICE CROP .- A special correspondent of the New Orleans Picayune writes as follows concerning the prospects of the growing rice crop

In the Parishes of St. Charles and Plaque mines the appearance of the rice crop is de-cidedly unpromising. The fields are overgrown with grass, looking badly, and are very back-ward. Probably on account of the cold weath-er and defective seed, the rice put into the er and defective seed, the rice put into the ground early in March had to be sown again and the stands do not present a very favorable aspect. In Lafourche Parish the farmers ex-pect to realize good returns, if no casualty be-falls them before the harvest. The reports from St. James and St. John-the-Baptist are anything but encouraging. Should the river recede early in June the crop will prove a failure. At any rate, harvesting will commence late in the month of August, and the receipts will not amount to much until the middle of next September.

MESSES. JACOB LIPPMAN & BRO., Savannah, Ga.:

Gents—I have before me your esteemed letter of the 14th instant, containing various documents relative to your "German Bitters." After a careful examination I must confess that your Bitters is really what you represent it to be, an old German recipe of Dr. Mitcherlich, of Berlin, Prussia.
It will no doubt be excellent for Dyspepsia, General Debility and Netvous Diseases, and it is a good preventive of Chills and Fevers. I find it to be the most delightful and pleasant stomachic.

I remain, yours truly,
(Signed)

AUG. P. WETTER.

KIRELAND MILLS, GA., March 22, 1870. MESSES. JACOB LIPPMAN & BRO., Druggists, Sa vannah, Ga.:

Gentlemen—I have introduced your Great German Bitters here to my customers and friends, and I find better sale for them than any I have ever kept before. Those who have tried th prove of them very highly, and I do not hesitate in saying that they are far superior in value to any other Bitters now in use.

Yours, respectfully, (Signed) . KIRKLAND.
