APPENTICES' LIBRARY SOCIETY .- An adjourned meeting of this society will be held to-day, at 12 M., at the Library rooms, corner of Broad and Church streets.

INJUNCTION GRANTED. - Yesterday Judge Bryan granted a motion from Messrs. Simonton & Barker, for an injuction to stay a levy upon the property of the Northeastern Railroad for State taxes.

MOONLIGHT EXCURSION.—The Freundschafts bund will have a moonlight excursion on the steamer Emelie, on Monday night next. She will leave Accommodation wharf at 8 o'clock

ELECTION AT SUMMERVILLE.—The following is the result of an election held at the Town Hall, in Summerville, on Tuesday, the 7th instant, for municipal officers to serve for the ensuing year: Intendant—R. J. Limehouse; Wardens—J. A. Sasportas, E. J. Limehouse, F. W. Sasportas, C. Rivers, J. Y. Brown. THE EXPORT TRADE.—There continues a steady foreign and coastwise export trade notwithstanding the dull season, and yesterday Messrs. Goldsmith & Son made two valuable clearances, say the brig J. A. Devereaux for Liverpool, with 115 bags sea island, 1215 bales upland cotton, 28 bundles palm leaf, 38 tons phosphate, 7 psckages beeswax; and the schooner Montana for Beston, with cotton, naval stores, lumber, and other general mer FUNERAL SERVICES OF THE LATE S. J. BUR

gen.-The funeral services of this gentleman. whose sudden death occasioned so much surprise and regret among his large circle of relatives and friends, will take place at St. John's Lutheran Church, at 5 o'clock, this afternoon The remains will be brought to the city on the South Carolina Ballroad train, which arrives at half-past 3 P. M. We are not informed as to the immediate cause of the death of Mr. Burger. It is kr. wn that he suffered greatly from nervous dyspepsia, and this, probably, was the cause.

CLEARING SAVANNAH RIVER .- At Savannah. the parties having charge of the work of clearing the river of obstructions are busily engage ed in their labors. The ladles' gunboat, sunk in thirty-five feet of water, and buried six feet in the sand opposite Fort Jackson, has had a monster cable passed under its bottom, which is forty-five feet in width and one hundred and forty-four feet in length. The estimated weight of the gunboat, as she now lies, is about one thousand tons, and three additional cables will have to be passed under before lifting her from her bed. The first lift will be made during the present week.

U. S. COURT-HON. GEO. S. BRYAN, JUDGE. PRESIDING .- The following business was disposed of yesterday:

ST. PHILIP'S CHURCH "HOME."

Dedication Services at St. Philip's Church, and at the "Home."

There was quite a large attendance of per sons at St. Philip's Church yesterday after-noon, to witness the services connected with CHARLESTON, June 3, 1870.

Hon, A. J. Willard, Associate Justice Supreme Court, Columbia, S. C.:

DEAR SIR—The enclosed notice, [the one from Major Corbin above referred to,] was served on the undersigned, John Phillips, a few minutes since, just after the clock had struck the hour of 3 P. M., and we strenuously object to any action under it. The cars leave the dedication of the "Home," established by the church for those of the members of the congregation whose needs might entitle them to its care and protection. Among those present were the Right Rev. Bishop Davis and the rectors of the various Episcopal Churches object to any action under it. The cars leave here for Golumbia at 7:30 this evening, and the notice is unreasonably short and without exof the city.

On the 19th of December last, Rev. Mr. Howe, rector of St. Philip's Church, preached a sermon from the text: "Blessed is he that considereth the poor; the Lord will deliver him in time of trouble." In this sermon he directed the attention of the congregation to the propriety of undertaking to start a Parish Home, where might be given to every member of the congregation who might need it, and, according to such rules as might be prescribed, a safe, comfortable and respectable shelter first, and then afterwards such comforts and helps in living as the means of the congregation would allow. The rector then showed the necessity of such an institution. This seed sown by the rector bore good fruit. Shortly after his serthe congregation determined to mon. carry out the views set forth in it. The result of this determination was the purchase, for $10,000, of the lot and building at the corner of Queen and Church streets, known as the "Commercial House." Steps were at once taken to put it in order for the reception of those who might need its shelter and comforts. A few days ago the necessary repairs were completed, and yesterday afternoon was selected as the time for the dedicatory services to take place. The "Home" is large, well ventilated, capable of containing between eighty and one hundred inmates, and altogether admirably adapted for the purpose to thich it has been dedicated.

SERVICES AT THE CHURCH. At 5 P. M. the exercises were commenced by the singing of the 27th hymn: "Blest is the tie that binds our hearts in Christian love." After the reading of the collect for the day, the collect for peace, and the prayer for all conditions of men, the following special prayer for the "Home" was offered:

O most glorious Lord God, we acknowledge thing belonging to ourselves; yet we beseech Thee, in Thy great goodness, to accept and bless the purposes of this congregation, where-with we this day set apart, through all time, a Home for such of our brethren as have not Home for such of our brethren as have not where to lay their heads. Prosper, we pray Thee, this our undertaking, and let it be begun, continued and ended in Thee. Give to all who administer it a right judgment in all things, so that laying aside everything which offends, that laying aside everything which onlends, they may consult and act together in the spirit of unity and concord, and with an eye single to Thy glory and to the welfare of brethren.

And unto all those, who shall at any time be gathered under the roof our Home, give Thy grace and heavenly benediction. O God of peace, shed down upon them the blessed spirit of peace, that they may live in perfect love and peace together, and bear one anoth-er's burdens, and thus fulfil the law of Christ. Banish and drive away all envy, hatred and malice from their hearts-let the sun never go down upon their wrath; but whether they wake or sleep, or whatever they do, help them to do all to Thy glory, and with consciences void of offence towards men.

And to the congregation of this parish, give, we beseech Thee, Thy grace and fleavenly benediction. Sanctify their hearts, and enlarge their means. May they rejoice to honor Thee with their substance, and with the first fruits of all their increase. May the Home which they have set apart be for many generations a shadow from the heat and a refuge from the storm, to those who, in this transitory life, shall be in any trouble, sorrow, need, tory life, shall be in any trouble, sorrow, need, tory file, shall be in any trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity.

And bless not us alone, but all Christian effort everywhere—all schools, hospitals, homes—yea, every benevolent institution throughout the whole world, which is devoted to the succor of the poor and afflicted, and the mello-ration of human woe and suffering: And to Thee, O blessed Jesus, who art seated at the right hand of the Father in the unity of the Holy Ghost, be ascribed the giory forever and ever. Amen.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

This prayer concluded, another hymn was sung. The Rev. Mr. Howe then gave a brief sketch of the "Home." He was followed by the Right Rev. Bishop Davis, who, although in very feeble health, made a few eloquent renarks, congratulating the congregation on the success of their worthy enterprise, and invoking the blessings of Heaven upon it.

Hon. C. R. Miles, the chairman of the Committee of Advice, appointed to counsel and adgress and completion of the noble work. Mr. Alonzo J. White, chairman of the Committee on Finance, submitted a report showing that the "Home" was not quite paid for, yet giving assurance from the liberal responses from the congregation and from many disconnected with it, that such would not long be the case. Hon. Edward McCready, Sr., chairman of the Committee on Trusts, Uses and Organization, also submitted a report, showing the operations of the committee.

SERVICES AT THE "HOME." After the singing of the "Gloria in Excelthe keys of the St. Philip Home."

rectly stated, they do not establish any suffi-cient ground for the jadgment prayed for, be-cause that the sheriff, by direction of defend-ant, has levied on and advertised for sale only Rev. Mr. Howe received the keys, and said: "Peace be to this house and to all who dwell therein, in the name of the Father, and of the the right, title and interest, and no more, of the City Council, the defendants in execution, in the named premises, and if, as they allege, Son, and of the Hely Ghost." Amen. they have no interest, they can have no cause of complaint. The purchase will take no more estate than the City Council have, and neither peated alternately, as they moved forward, the Plst psalm of the Psalter. The psalm concluded, the rector said Dearly 91st psalm of the Psalter. The property of the City Council is the property of the incorporated citizens of Charleston, and is held for them and their use. The

to the "public use of the citizens of Charles-ton," is no more or better than the voluntary conveyance and dedication of his property by Son, Jesus Christ; let us not doubt, but earnestly believe that He will likewise favorably The voluntary dedication or conveyance by the owner, while in debt, of his property to his own use, for his pleasure and luxury, or even for the use of another, is fraudulent, and regard this, our beautiful work, and that He whom we can do nothing, and let us here, void as against creditors. The pretended dedi-cations by the City Council, while in debt, of the property levied upon to the use of the citizens of Charleston, if they were true, having His fear before our eyes, once more entreat Him to set His seal to our undertaking and to give His blessing to this house.

The rector then led in prayer, beseeching the blessing of Heaven upon the undertaking and concluding as follows: "Unto God's precious mercy and protection I commit this 'Home.' The Lord bless it and keep it. The Lord make His face to shine upon it, and be gracious unto it. The Lord lift up His countenance upon it, and keep it, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen."

The audience was then dismissed with the benediction by Right Rev. Bishop Davis.

The "Home" was then inspected by all present. The entire building was in a most satisfactory condition, and all were satisfied that those to whom had been entrusted the carrying out the views of the congregation, had done their whole duty. The lower portion of the building was handsomely decorated with flowers and evergreens.

FATHER GARESCHE .- We learn that this dislinguished divine has received permission to remain here sometime longer. We hope that he will give our citizens frequent opportunities of hearing him during his stav. CITY TAXES .- From and after this date to the ist of July, the second instalment of the corporation tax will be received at the city treasurer's office. Twenty per cent. will be added to the taxes of all who fail to pay before the 1st of next month. NOTABLES IN COLUMBIA.-Hon. J. P. Reed. of Anderson; H. P. Hammett, of Greenville; Senator D. Bleman, of Walhalla; Senator J. Lunney, of Dariington; ex-Governor James L.

Orr, of Anderson, are registered at the Columbia hotels.

ILLNESS OF HON. WM. GILMORE SIMMS. We regret to chronicle that this distinguished gentleman, whose name heads the paragraph, is lying dangerously ill at the residence of Mr. Ed. Roach, on Society street. Mr. Simms, who has been in feeble health for some time past, was taken severely ill on Monday last, since which time he has been in a critical condition His hosts of friends and admirers will join with us in the hope that he will speedily recover.

DIED .- Dr. J. W. Stokes, of Hamburg, for many years president of the Bank of Hamburg, died on Friday last. Dr. L. M. DeSaussure, of Camden, died on Tuesday morning last.

Before the war, Dr. DeSaussure was one of the leading physicans in Beaufort, and when that place was occupied by the United States troops, he went to Camden, where he soon obtained a large practice. He was generally esteemed and respected, and his death is as generally regretted.

MALICIOUS MISCHIEF .- The German Fire Company took their new steamer to the corner of King and Broad streets, yesterday evening, for the purpose of trying some new hose and for trial practice, and were surprised at finding a difficulty in drawing water. An examination showed that some evil-disposed person had placed a handful of nalls of different sizes in the valves, which stopped the suction and would have injured the engine if not re moved in time. The company are justly incensed, and offer a reward for the perpetrator of the dastardly act. The engineers of the Ætna and Young America assisted in removing the obstructions, and the machine is now in good condition.

CRUMBS .- B. F. Whittemore is in Columbia. No cases of importance were disposed of by the Mayor yesterday. Rev. James P. Boyce, of Greenville, is in the city. State Senator H. Buck, of Horry, is at the Charleston Hotel.

The members of the police force were paid off yesterday. A man named James Gegur, supposed to be insane, has been turned over to the City Registrar for examination. Coburn Reed, colored, charged with brutally treating a child, is held for trial. The child bears marks of the punishment he received. We are requested to state that the William Perronneau, colored, arrested and held for trial on the charge of bigamy, came from Winnsboro', and is not the person of that name residing in this city.

A man named Smith, who, being dissatisfied with a decision of Trial Justice Mackey, announced in open court that there was bribery in the case, was committed to jail for contempt of court.

On Thursday afternoon there was, in Columbia, a regular old-time summer storm; the rain fell in torrents, accompanied by sharp flashes of lightning and a liberal amount of thunder.

The Subscription of $1,000,000 to the Blue Ridge Railroad.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE NEWS.

The following is a brief history of the transactions, legal and otherwise, connected with the subscription of the city to the Blue Ridge Railroad:

It was made in 1854. Public opinion was decidedly in favor of it, but some of our solid men doubted the expediency of the measure. All of them shrank from the odium of braving vise with the rector in the management of the public opinion, and the subscription would the "Home," read a lengthy and interesting have been undisturbed, but for one gentleman report regarding the commencement, pro- who determined to appeal to the courts before private interests could be compromised by any subsequent unfavorable judgment.

Application was made for a quo warranto, and notice of the same was served upon the city. The case was tried before Judge Frost, (not O'Neale, as "Mechanic" says) and judgment given in favor of the city. Notice of appeal was instantly served, and the case ordered for a hearing before the Court of Appeals in January. At the meeting of the Legislature which intervened, a memorial was presented from the Council, and on that memorial a bill was passed, (by whom introduced I do not rememcis," the audience, headed by the bishop and ber, but it is likely by the chairman of the comthe clergy, proceeded to the "Home," which | mittee on incorporations,) which confirmed adjoins the church on the south. Any body who remembers Charleston at that time, will bear me out in the assertion that, if this subscription had been put to the popular vote it would have been carried by a large majority. Time has proved that all of these subscriptions were unwise and injudiclous; but there was a furore at that time for subscribing to any railroad that promised, however remotely, to add to the commerce of the city; and they who thought then, as the taxpavers think now, did not choose to incur the odlum of a fruitless oppo-If judicial decisions have any validity, this is one of the best established debts of the city.

It is not pretended that there was even a taint of corruption in the matter. The State was subscribing lavishly to construct the road; the city came forward cheerfully to aid in a work which was to pour wealth into her lap. It is not the first time that an unwise debt has been contracted. There was no stock lobbing in the concern, and those who bought the stock, both then and subsequently, did it with as clear a conviction of the validity of their titles as "Mechanic" has of that of the titles to his own workshop. "Mechanic" disingenuously supposes that this stock has been the object of stock jobbing speculators. It never was so until men began to doubt the integrity of the city. Until then it was governed by the laws which regulate prices, -just like all other property. The creditors are fully as much inter ested in the welfare of the city as the debtors are. To drive them to poverty by wiping out the debt would be to inflict misery upon hundreds of innocent persons who put their faith in the integrity of Charleston. They are not rapacious; they are not anxious to thrive on the ruin of others; they are willing and desirous to meet their debtors in a spirit of accommodation; but they feel that their claims are founded on equity, on law, and on
