Reported.—Nicholas Cullen was reported for obstructing King street with building material.

Fined.—Rachel Simmons and Emma Small, colored, were fined $5 each for abusive language to the police on King street.

Range of the Thermometer at Joseph Blackman's drug store, No. 39 Broad street, August 2: 10 o'clock 84; 10:30 82; 11:30 84; 12:30 82; 1:30 80; 2:30 84; 3:30 82; 4:30 81; 5:30 80.

Bill of Mortality.—The City Registrar's report for the week ending July 30 exhibits a total of fifty-one deaths. Twelve were whites and thirty-nine colored.

Civil Rights Bill.—John Lassano, barber, was brought before Trial Justice T. J. Mackey for an alleged breach of the Civil Rights bill, in refusing to serve W. G. Pinckney, colored.

Is Bond?—A number of warlike persons have been bound over to keep the peace. The King community seem to be in a high state of irritation.

Without License.—A number of persons have been reported for carrying on business without city licenses. Those now under charges will have their cases investigated this morning.

Disorderly Conduct.—Henry Levy and John Galliard, colored, were arrested for disorderly conduct, the former at Military Hall, the latter in Vanderhorst street. Levy was fined $5.

Reform.—The free use of Billingsgate by the contending Radical politicians in our midst is altogether repulsive to refined ears. If they cannot reform their politics, it is highly necessary that they should mend their manners.

The Police.—The duties of the police were becoming monotonous, until the inauguration of the political festivities within the past few days. Business in their department is revived in advance of the general busy season.

Released on Bail.—Wm. Darrell, J. Elliott S. Holmes and Fortune Fishman, colored, who were arrested during the row at the Battery, were released by the Mayor on yesterday morning upon giving bail for their appearance at court. A. J. Bandler and T. J. Mackey securities.

The Emerald Bots.—At the anniversary meeting of the "Emerald" Base Ball Club, held Monday evening, the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing term: D. Flynn, president; T. Mitchell, vice president; L. Stolze, secretary; J. Keegan, treasurer; J. Bowan, 1st director; J. Laffan, 2d director; T. Walsh, captain of First Nine.

Subsided.—On yesterday morning, groups representing both the DeLargettes and Bowentites assembled at the various corners discussing the events of the preceding evening. If the vehemence of their gestures, the violence of their oaths and assertions were indices of their earnestness, they certainly meant no joke. Towards evening, their tone moderated, and the serenity of their minds increasing with the waning of the day, it seemed, before night, that the excitement had in a great degree subsided.

The Lunatic Asylum.—It had been hoped that their general demolition of all that was decent and commendable in our State government, the iconoclasts of the Ring would have spared the Insane Asylum, which, under discreet, humane and able management, has for so many years been one of the finest institutions of this kind in the Union. But this was not to be. Governor Scott has at last removed from the control of the Asylum Dr. Parker, a man whose blameless character and extraordinary qualifications for the position were admitted by all. The Scott appointee to succeed Dr. Parker is a Dr. Ensor.

Crimes.—The old theatre lot was not sold yesterday, there being no bidder. The rain during the past two days seems to indicate the commencement of a wet spell of weather.

The political thermometer indicates a high degree of warmth in its own peculiar atmosphere. The veritable cotton caterpillar is said to have appeared in Southwest Georgia.

The voters of Ward No. 4 will meet at the Masonic Hall, this evening, for the purpose of forming a Reform Club.

A monster rat, weighing over three pounds, was killed yesterday by a gentleman in Calhoun street. The rat was deprecatory in the poultry-house, and killed a large fowl.

Those Resolutions.—As we have already said, the confusion at White Point Garden on Monday evening was so great that the resolutions read by Trial Justice Mshaw could not be heard. They declare in substance that the majority has the right to dictate, and that anything to the contrary is not Republican; that the majority of the Republican voters of Charleston sent the Bowen delegation to Columbia; that no objection was raised until certain delegates found themselves in the minority, whereupon they "bolted," but left two-thirds of their number still in the convention; that they (the Bowentites) look upon the proceeding with great pain, and that this pain is greatly increased inasmuch as the delegation of the bolting minority was recognized and the two-thirds majority ignored by the State Convention; that, in mass meeting assembled, the declaration is again made that theirs was the only delegation having power to act; that the Bowen convention in Columbia was legal, and that its action will be adhered to at all events. We give the eighth resolution entire:

Resolved, That we disapprove all political parties based on the color of the skin; that he who would form a "white man's party" is a public enemy, a disorganizer, and disloyal to the great principles of the Declaration of Independence, and that he who would form a "black man's party" is worse, because he does it knowing all the evils which have in the past grown out of the aristocracy of the skin, evils of which human slavery was one, but scarcely the greatest. We hold to the truth that men are to be respected for their merits and not because they are black or white; and we warn all our brethren to beware of those who prate of the rights of either race as distinct from those of the other.

After an expression of gratitude to the eleven delegates of Beaufort, Barnwell and Colleton for asserting their rights, the resolutions wind up with an endorsement of W. H. Mshaw as chairman of their party in the city.

The Bowentites claim, and their opponents deny, that these resolutions were adopted. The confusion at the time was so supreme and indescribable that our reporter cannot give an opinion as to which statement is the right one.

Reorganization of the Port Royal Railroad Company.—The Augusta Constitutionalist, of yesterday, says:

We are advised of a reorganization and change of officers in the Port Royal Railroad Company, by which Mr. H. B. Hoody, the former treasurer of the company, succeeds Mr. S. C. Millett as president. The work on this line of road is to be at once taken charge of by Mr. Gustav Leblach, engineer of the road, under whose direction and management we understand that it is to be pressed forward to completion as rapidly as possible. To that end he has already commenced the reorganization of a laboring force, having on Saturday engaged about one hundred of the hands who orderly deserted the contractors, George D. Chapman & Co., on account of the failure of the latter to meet their monthly payments. These hands left here on Monday morning on the steamer Carrie for Savannah, from whence they are at once to be thrown on the Beaufort end of the road. This would seem to indicate that the failure of Messrs. Chapman & Co. to execute their contract will not be allowed to interfere to any considerable extent in delaying the progress of this important enterprise, which has already progressed too far towards completion to admit of abandonment.

THE BOWEN-MACKAY WAR.
TO THE EDITOR OF THE NEWS.
The brace of hiring soundrels who edit the Bowen organ, having assailed me scurrilously in their last evening's issue, I beg leave to respond briefly through your columns, as I am denied a hearing by the journal that falsely pretends to represent the party of which I have the honor to be a member.

My statement that I threatened to cowhide any editor who would not publish my resolutions, is ridiculously false. Whenever I desire to indulge myself in the cheap vituperation of cowardly editors of the venal sheet in question, I shall not advertise them of my intention.

I did not "surge up to Major Willoughby" on the contrary, he assailed me while I was engaged in conversation with Mr. W. Teltair, and I caned the hired bully as he fell back.

I was not arrested for riotous proceedings, as stated. General W. Gurney and I were arrested for a supposed encounter between us, which charge was fully disproved, that gentleman not having exchanged a word with me on the occasion referred to. Of equal falsity is the statement that resolutions endorsing Bowen were adopted. On the contrary, no such resolutions were put to the meeting, which was overwhelmingly in favor of DeLargé.

T. J. MACKAY.

HINTS FOR CAPTAIN HENDRICKS.
TO THE EDITOR OF THE NEWS.
On Monday evening last, about 10 o'clock, a gang of unruly negro men marched up Coming street in line, hooting, yelling, rapping at the doors and ringing the bells of private houses—in fact, disturbing the whole neighborhood. They kept up the disturbance in Line street for some time. Where were the police?

A CITIZEN.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE NEWS.
Is it not contrary to police regulations for policemen, while on duty, to hold conversations with persons about the streets? At almost any hour of the day or night policemen (generally colored) may be seen, amenable of their duty, holding forth to their friends or admirers.

THE LIFE-SUSTAINING PRINCIPLE.—The vital and muscular systems are entirely distinct from each other. A man may have the brawn of a Hercules, but if he is deficient in vital energy he will not wear well, or last long, or be as healthy and happy while he does last, as the man of ordinary or even slender build, who possesses a larger share of this sustaining principle. One of the greatest recommendations of this pure vegetable invigorant, HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, is that it increases the vital force of the system. No medicine can double the volume of a man's muscle or thicken and vitalize his flesh and sinews; but Hostetter's Bitters has an effect much more important. Its use promotes constitutional vigor. It reinforces the life-power, of which bone and sinew and muscle are merely the instruments, holding the same relation to it that machinery does to steam. Let the slight and apparently fragile take heart; they may have more stamina, though far less physical strength, than the broad-shouldered athletes they regard with scorn.
To restore, to sustain, to increase this sustaining principle, which, when in full supply, is the source of health and the best guarantee of longevity, is a special property of the famous restorative. It is not only a specific for dyspepsia, biliousness, intermittent fevers, constipation, &c., and a preventive of all diseases of a malarious character, but the best of all medicines for strengthening the constitution and awakening the powers of nature from whatever cause they may have become lethargic.

A GRAND EPOCH IN SCIENCE.—From the time when, in 1834, DR. RUDGE discovered "Carbolic Acid" and its extraordinary medicinal effects, nothing in the history of Medicine has equalled it. Largely used by the French Physicians in treatment of consumption and scrofulous diseases, it was introduced by the Court Physician of Berlin, MAX ERNST HENRY, into Prussia, and since the present day can equal HENRY'S SOLUTION OR CARBOLIC CONSTITUTION RENOVATOR. Patents get better after only one dose has been taken, and we cordially recommend it to the public.—"Editor 'Argus.'" JULY 15
