REFORM MEETING IN COLLETON.—A meeting of the citizens of Graham Township was held on Saturday last. Mr. Daniel Boywer was called to the chair, and Mr. W. Harley was requested to act as secretary. Mr. J. P. Burbage briefly explained the object of the meeting. He showed that the State demanded the services of all her children, and that it was the duty of every honest man to put his shoulder to the wheel and advance the cause of Reform. He spoke in high terms of Messrs. Carpenter and Butler, and spoke cheerfully of the prospect of breaking up the Robbing Ring. Enthusiasm characterized all the proceedings.

IMPORTANT CAPTURE BY THE DETECTIVES.—A line to the authors of several robberies lately committed in our community, was discovered a few days ago by the detectives, who since then have been actively engaged in working the matter up. They have been wonderfully successful. Up to yesterday Francis Jenkins, Daniel Cox, Henry Johnson, Joe Williams and Jack Holloway have been arrested as members of the thieving gang. A large amount of clothing and jewelry has been recovered. Several of the articles have been claimed by Mr. Rials, who, it will be remembered, was robbed on two occasions recently.

The following four-oars are entered: The Belle, the Cyrella, the Louisa and the Alcet. The course will be from a point near James Island across the Ashley River, to a point off Atlantic street—about three-quarters of a mile. The Carolina Regatta Club will present as a prize to the winning boat a pair of oars, of the finest make and quality. And a prize of a magnificent tin-cup will probably be presented to the last boat which reaches the goal. The race is expected to be an exciting one, and will doubtless draw a large crowd of spectators.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—We take great pleasure in announcing that a letter from Mr. John Chadwick, the proprietor of our magnificent dramatic temple, confirms the statement already made that Miss Launa Keene, the celebrated comedienne, will take charge of the Academy, as trustee and directress, on or about the first of November next. Miss Keene will be accompanied by a first-class stock company, and will, during the season, give a series of entertainments of the highest order. The leading theatrical stars of the country will appear in succession on our boards, and arrangements will be made to secure engagements of the best operatic and dramatic combinations. We heartily congratulate our citizens on the prospect of the early reopening of the Academy, and predict for Miss Keene a warm welcome, which we are satisfied that the admirers of the drama in our community are eager to extend to her.

THE REFORM CAUSE IN THE CITY.

Organization of a Union Reform Club in Ward No. 3.

The adjourned meeting of citizens of Ward No. 3, in favor of reformation and reform, was a very full and earnest gathering. Mr. W. H. Easterly, temporary chairman, presided.

Mr. C. O. Trumbo, from the committee on a plan of organization, reported a draft of a constitution and by-laws, substantially similar to those which have already been published in The News, and providing for meetings on the first and third Mondays of each month. The report, after some discussion, was unanimously adopted.

Mr. George H. Moffett, from the committee appointed to nominate permanent officers of the club, reported the following nominations: President—George A. Bowman. Vice-presidents—J. N. Nathans, Henry Hall, M. W. St. Amant, Stephen McLean, David O'Keefe, C. Michaels.

Corresponding Secretary—S. W. Ramsay. Recording Secretaries—Joseph Samson and Wm. Ingalls, Jr.

Treasurer—A. S. Trumbo.

The officers nominated by the committee were confirmed by acclamation.

A committee of six was appointed to wait upon the officers elect and notify them of their choice.

During the absence of the committee several short, but stirring addresses were delivered. Mr. J. B. P. Alley announced his readiness to undertake to bury the Radical party, and said that he intended to bury the Radical party, and said that he intended to bury the Radical party, and said that he intended to bury the Radical party.

At this point the committee re-entered the hall, escorting the permanent officers, who were received with the utmost enthusiasm.

The president of the club, Mr. George A. Bowman, in assuming the chair, made a few pertinent and practical remarks, enforcing the necessity of hard work and the harmonious co-operation of all the members of the club to insure success.

Mr. J. N. Nathans, in response to loud calls, addressed the meeting in a forcible and witty speech, which elicited much applause and admiration. Speeches were also delivered in response to calls, by Messrs. Aaron Harper, C. Michaels and John Nelson.

On motion, the president was authorized to appoint, at his convenience, an executive committee of five members of the club.

The meeting then adjourned.

Preliminary Meeting in Ward 3.
 The citizens of this ward met at the Masonic Hall for the purpose of organizing a Union Reform Club. The meeting, which was well attended, was called to order, and Mr. W. T. Burge requested to take the chair, Mr. Israel Otteulung acting as secretary.

The following committee was appointed to nominate permanent officers and determine a suitable hall for the club: Captain F. W. Dawson, Messrs. J. Foster Black, W. H. Francis, Warren A. Sneed, J. B. Thomas, T. S. Sigward and Cyrus Fenwick.

Speeches, which excited enthusiastic applause, were delivered by Messrs. Francis, Jonas Byrd and Black, showing the Scott party in their corruption and treacherous dealing towards the colored people, and urging them to stand fast by the standard of the Reform party, and to use their utmost endeavors towards the overthrow of the Ring and its minions.

Mr. Rout was loudly called upon, but declined speaking as he was not a resident of the ward. Mr. Turner also declined on account of indisposition, making more than a few very spirited remarks, in which he signified his earnestness in battling for the cause of the right, and urged the citizens generally to enlist with him.

He was followed by Mr. Stephen Riley, who made a stirring and highly amusing speech, calling forth repeated bursts of applause and long-continued laughter, showing how plainly the party now in power were dragging our State down to the depths of degradation and poverty, and showing also that there was but one chance of redemption and that was through the success of the Union Reform movement.

On motion, the meeting then adjourned, subject to the call of the chairman.

THE WAR NEWS IN THE CITY.—The announcement of the double victory won by the Prussian forces, threw the whole community into a ferment yesterday morning. The Germans were radiant, and held firmly to the opinion that King William, at the head of his victorious troops, would soon dictate peace under the walls of Paris. At the same time there was no desire to undervalue the gallantry of the French soldiers; and it seemed to be generally conceded that, if the Germans were the best soldiers in the world, the French were the second best. Many a fagon of lager and Rhine wine was quaffed to the German Fatherland, and one wealthy German kept open house during the morning, welcoming all his visitors with bumpers of champagne.

The French looked decidedly blue, but they have not given up the fight. They admit that Napoleon has received a severe blow, which may lower the spirits of his army and make future victories more difficult; but they argue that a nation of forty millions is not conquered when she has lost two battles and twenty thousand men. One enthusiastic Frenchman declared that his countrymen would soon have news from the Baltic which would throw Haagenau and Forbach into the shade; others maintained that the Prussian victory would wipe out the last trace of opposition to the Emperor, and cause the whole people to rise against the invader. This is the way they put it: Ce n'est pas Napoleon, maintenant, non mais! C'est la patrie-la France. And the cheerful old Gaul trotted off whistling: Mourir pour la Patrie!

The evening dispatches, suggesting that Austria and Italy would side with France, elongated the visages of all the business men. A triple alliance of Austria, Italy and France, makes a general war a fixed fact. Russia will make with Prussia, and as her interests are only opposed in the East to those of France, a diversion may be expected in that direction. John Bull could not very well keep out of trouble when Russia was in the field, but cannot very well join Prussia and Russia unless the latter power agrees to keep hands off Turkey. Still less can England, as things stand, form an alliance with France. And if England goes to war, no matter for what reason or on which side, it will be a serious blow to the South. We wait peace, and peace now is impossible.

THE NEW ECLECTIC.—We have received from Fogarty's Book Depository, on King street, the August number of this magazine. The contents are lively and interesting; among them is the continuation of "Edwin Drood."

BUSINESS ENVELOPES.—The News Job Office is now prepared to furnish good envelopes, with business cards printed thereon, at 4 per thousand. Send your orders. Every merchant and business man should have his card printed on his envelopes.

THE REFORM CANVASS.

THE CAUSE AND THE CANDIDATES IN UNION COUNTY.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

At half-past five o'clock this morning, our party left Spartanburg Courthouse for this place, arriving about seven o'clock. On the train was a lunatic in charge of two men, who were carrying him to the asylum in Columbia. The poor man asked many foolish questions, and among them was this one frequently asked: "Is the Union still divided?" His last recollections were of the days when the two sections were arrayed in hostile attitude against each other. Some few of the citizens of South Carolina, although possessed of reason and intelligence, are not unlike this poor lunatic. They recollect that there was a war, that we were subjugated, that a crowd of adventurers followed upon the heels of the conquerors, worked upon the prejudices of the colored people, were elevated to office and used them to plunder the people of South Carolina. Here the minds of the few South Carolinians above alluded to seem to be of no further use to them; they do not or will not appreciate the fact that the colored man, in the hands of the United States, has been given the right to vote and hold office, and instead of arousing themselves to expel the adventurers by recognizing the rights of the colored man, they are equally interested, they stand aloof and cry out against those who "accept the situation" and have left and are lending their best exertions to rescue their State from the hands of the robber and to its former glory and prosperity. Fortunately these "go-slows," "hossies," are few, and even they are being gradually awakened to the importance of doing something for their State, instead of setting still and wringing their hands.

REFORM IN UNION.
 On our arrival at Unionville, there was every indication that something of unusual importance was to occur. The streets were thronged with voters and spectators, and at that moment the crowd was swelled by fresh arrivals. A large United States flag was suspended across the principal street, bearing the names of Carpenter and Bridges, and on each side of the speaking, a short distance from the town, was alive with people—about two thousand in number—a large number of whom were colored.

The Rev. J. N. Nathans, Dr. T. V. Herndon, General McKelick, Colonel R. W. Shand and Wm. Monroe, Esq.

The meeting was called to order by Colonel Shand, who said that he had come for the purpose of doing honor to the Union Reform party, and then introduced the Rev. J. N. Nathans, each of them delivering eloquent and stirring addresses, which had a telling effect upon the audience. The radicals, as usual, endeavoring to prevent the meeting, but the speakers, by their frequent nods of approval of the remarks of the speakers, they were convinced that they had been deluded long enough by the Scott party.

General Carpenter's remarks, he stated that General Scott had offered a colored man of Union County, whose conservative principles were well known, $500 not to speak or work against him (Scott) in the coming election. He had refused to do so, and he had pledged his energies to the Reform movement.

We are informed that one of our local Radical leaders and assessors of internal revenue for this district, will be relieved of the latter position to-morrow by Henry Sparnick. Tuxberry proposes to run for the Legislature this fall.

REFORM IN EDGEFIELD.
 Speeches of Rev. Jonas Byrd and Governor Bonham.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

To-day at high noon a large audience gathered in the Courthouse to listen to a speech from the Rev. Jonas Byrd, of Charleston, a prominent colored man of the Union Reform party. He has been here for some days on business connected with the interest of his party. The Courthouse was filled to its utmost capacity, and at least one-half of the audience consisted of colored men. The Rev. Byrd, who had served as a delegate from Charleston to the Reform Convention in Columbia, and that the platform adopted by that convention guaranteed to his race all the privileges and rights which are vested in the citizen by the constitution and the laws of the land. He believed in the honor and integrity of the men who composed that convention, and he believed that when they pledged themselves to carry out their pledges in good faith. All that is necessary for the welfare and prosperity of his people were secured to them by that platform, and that the Reform party because he honestly believed it would be to the benefit of his race and of all the people of the State for it to triumph over the corrupt government now in power. The Rev. Byrd had then introduced a delegate from Charleston to the Reform Convention in Columbia, and that the platform adopted by that convention guaranteed to his race all the privileges and rights which are vested in the citizen by the constitution and the laws of the land. He believed in the honor and integrity of the men who composed that convention, and he believed that when they pledged themselves to carry out their pledges in good faith. All that is necessary for the welfare and prosperity of his people were secured to them by that platform, and that the Reform party because he honestly believed it would be to the benefit of his race and of all the people of the State for it to triumph over the corrupt government now in power.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

Early yesterday morning our party left Unionville for Piedmont Depot on the Spartanburg and Union Railroad, to fill the tenth appointment for the Union Reform candidates to address the people.

Upon our arrival we ascertained that Colonel Hill, who, after assuming the chair, had gotten up a meeting for the colored people within a few hundred yards of the place appointed for the Reform candidates to speak, and thus preventing them from hearing truths which, if heard, would cause them to leave their Leagues and join in the movement of Reform and Honesty. But these minions only partially succeeded in their object, as a large number not only attended the Reform meeting, but listened attentively, and many gave assurance that hereafter their efforts would be exerted against those who, by sagacious and bold means, were doing their best to keep the South in the hands of the Ring.

THE MEETING.

The place selected for the meeting was in a beautiful grove, a short distance from the depot. It was held at about 10 o'clock—the first of meeting—were assembled several hundred persons, including quite a number of ladies. The meeting was called to order by Colonel Hill, who, after assuming the chair, had gotten up a meeting for the colored people within a few hundred yards of the place appointed for the Reform candidates to speak, and thus preventing them from hearing truths which, if heard, would cause them to leave their Leagues and join in the movement of Reform and Honesty. But these minions only partially succeeded in their object, as a large number not only attended the Reform meeting, but listened attentively, and many gave assurance that hereafter their efforts would be exerted against those who, by sagacious and bold means, were doing their best to keep the South in the hands of the Ring.

He also showed up a few of the transactions of the Edgefield County commissioners. He said he had had from the best authority, (the books of the internal revenue office) that the Ring had been found to have had a large sum of money, and he had purchased lands in Lancaster and elsewhere, which were not worth two dollars per acre, and sold them to the freed people at a price of $10 per acre; that they had voted fifty thousand dollars for the support of free schools and appropriated thirty one thousand and five hundred of this to pay the school commissioners, besides a heavy salary to the superintendent, and that he had no doubt that the pittance that was left had been stolen before it reached its legitimate destination. If these be our friends, God save us from their friends! The speaker said that the Ring had been found to have had a large sum of money, and he had purchased lands in Lancaster and elsewhere, which were not worth two dollars per acre, and sold them to the freed people at a price of $10 per acre; that they had voted fifty thousand dollars for the support of free schools and appropriated thirty one thousand and five hundred of this to pay the school commissioners, besides a heavy salary to the superintendent, and that he had no doubt that the pittance that was left had been stolen before it reached its legitimate destination.

ARTIFICIAL EPIDEMICS.—JUST as persons are subject to smallpox, measles, scarlet fever and other contagious diseases, so whole communities, cities and countries have their artificial epidemics. Sometimes they take the form of religious revivals or temperance and teetotalism; at others as the result of a patriotic song, an opera, or a ridiculous minstrel refrain; at one time it seizes a world, as the "California gold fever" of 1849.

These social epidemics have sometimes shown themselves in the character of a Tulip or Morus Mulicaulis speculation, or a great South Sea Bubble—a super excitation nervous system of a whole people. Sometimes a passion for political revolution and sanguinary war; sometimes a mania for velocipedes and skating-rinks; sometimes, as at present, spreading all it now all over the South, Southwestern and Western States. In the using in any quantity of SOLOMON'S BITTERS, which has assumed an epidemic type in an incredible short space of time. Tempora mutantur et nos mutamur in illa. aug-11

FALSE PRETENCES.—THE VAST and continually increasing sales of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS have provoked the envy of a certain class of dealers in various parts of the country, who are trying to substitute their utterly worthless local nostrums for the most popular proprietary medicine in the world. These impostors hope by their false statements to obtain from the millions who patronize the great American Tonic a sufficient number of customers to make their speculations upon the health of their neighbors profitable. As the demand for HOSTETTER'S BITTERS is now so large and urgent as to tax to their fullest extent the facilities for its manufacture, these petty attempts to wring in the merest trash by false representations, are of little consequence to its proprietors. They are, however, a serious evil to the victimized. If, for example, at a serious time when a real inventor is greatly needed, the sufferer from general debility, indigestion, biliousness or nervous weakness, is induced into using a wishy-washy compound without any medicinal virtue, instead of the sovereign specific in which the rarest tonic and alterative vegetable elements are scientifically combined. It is obvious that he will rue the day when he allowed himself to be thus deluded. It is in the interest of parties who have been or may be induced by the persuasion of plausible charlatans, that this article is published. With the light of twenty years' experience to guide him, we should an invalid take a leap in the dark! aug-2-11

A GRAND EPOCH IN SCIENCE.—From the time when, in 1834, Dr. EDGEE discovered "Carbolic Acid" and its extraordinary medicinal effects, nothing in the history of Medicine has equalled it. Largely used by the French physicians in treatment of consumptive and scrofulous diseases, it was introduced by the Count; physician of Berlin, MAX ERNST HENRY, into Prussia, and from thence to the United States. Now, in the present day, an equal HENRY'S SOLUTION OF CARBOLIC CONSTITUTION RENOVATOR. Patients get better after only one use. Has been taken, and we cordially recommend it to the public.—Editor "Argus." jan17-11
