NORFOLK, August 23.—Corron.—Receipts for the week 365 bales. The demand is light, and confined to the better sorts, for which, in straight even lots, there is a fair inquiry at 18½c; but for the lower grades and inferior there is no demand, and buyers for it are scarce at a large deduction. There is considerable badly mixed, packed cotton remaining, which is hard to place at any price. The tone of the market for best sorts is a little strengthened to-day by better news.

Conn.-Receipts 10,700 bushels. There is a steady, small demand. Sales early in the week at $105a107 f'r white; but at the close there is some weakness, and the highest rates are not maintained. Unsound, heated and fly-out, out-of-order corn is not so saleable; for such 90a95c
