THURA KHTY OF [FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.]

ALIOHW ALIAN CANDEN, August 29. One party reached this delightful town yesis as to drop their arrogant hends have before the colored people a truth supported by facts and figures, that S. A. Swalls, with Melvin J. Hirsch as an accomplice, one a senator, the other aderk of the court of this county, had speculated, through the great land commission scheme, on the State of South Carolina to the amount of fitten hundred dollars. Swalls closed the meeting with a renewed ex-hibition of his characteristic: addacty-is long and lond bellowing over his inno-cence. The motley assembly of incongruous alang, squeezed into a nutshell, amounted simply to a reliterated protestation of inno-cence, "corraborated by no facts or reason. save the pusy plea, the pitful dealaration that had he stoles the fiften hundred dollars he would have been sent to the penisentary long igo? He feigns to have lost sight of the true economy of Eadicalism, whose grand, funda-mental principles are, first, to encourage vil-lary and then acount the bief. terday afternoon: We were taken in charge by a committee, and a portion of us quartered at the DeKalb House, and the others at the Kershaw House. The first nameed house, a comfurtable, first-class stopping place, is kept by a well-known Charlestonian, Mr. J. B.

It has several churches, numerous ses, and about two thousand inabitania // Kirkwood, an 'extension of Camden, has a large number of elegant residences and jastefully laid out grounds, and is, very properly, the pride and boast of the people of economy of Badicalism. whose grand, funda-mental principles are, first, to encourage vil-lany, and then acquit the thief. The rich, rare and racy time, however, did not blossom forth till the shank of the even-ing. When hunger grappled with the inner man, and Kingstree's Red. Eye had armed his combatants, the 'hun "grew last and furlow." There never was a farce to equal the smallest scene of it. this section.

today, held in a grove near the Presbyterian Church, was most successful, over four thou-said persons being present. A police forea, numbering seventy five men, had been organ-led, and preserved excellent order. W.Z. Leitner, president of the Central Reform Club of Kernhaw County, called the meeting to or-der, and the exercises ware commenced with prayer by the Rev. Mr. Hayes, of the Presby-terian Church. Among those on the stand were Judge Carpetter. Generals Butler, Ker-shaw and Kenzedy, Rev. Mr. Hayes, J. A. Chesmin, colored, member of the last Legisle-ture, Colonet Wm. M. Shannon, Colonel De-Pass, D.T. DeBansure and Wm. A. Ancrum-the Twillast named being cabdidates on the numbering seventy five men, had been organ-instituter, preserved excellent order. W.Z. Muskets were club-bed, fences demolished, and a charge made by and the dragging out of a few of their num-ber. It was a findere being of the fast therefore meedless to repeat them here; but it is doubtin if their speeches ever be-tor induced word by the colored people how they were enlayed by the colored people ho formers, and told the negroes to beware, as it was oally a Democratic movement in disguise. Our young townsman, Mr. C. P. Sanders, re-plied in an earnest and veoquent speech. He denied in emphatic language that this was a bemocratic movement in disguise. He erx, plained to them the platform of Reform, which be said was broad enough for all honest mea postand upon, and strong enough to enstain both Democratic and Sepublicans who wished an honest State Government. He told them of the frands practiced by the land commis-sion, and denounced Orr in bold and unmeas ured terms. During Mr. Sanders's reinarks, Jackson became daite uneasy; and went among the negroes, urging the measy; and went among pail no attention to him, and gave Mr. S. guiet and respectful litering. Als soon as Mr. S. took his seat, willier and Jackson arose and made a few remarks, unging the colored peo-ple to go away. A large minority, however, remained, and exhibited an earnestness to know the truth, by making the whites white

So common as scarcely to deserve a placing motice, because the meeting was __Republican ! Many of the audience were slow in gathering. Their ripening disgust for everything made at the sease of a distribution to longer handle the unclean thing. The speaking was opened by colored men, who advocated the cause of Reform (!) dn an impressive and constincting manner. Anathemas and invectives were poured by these ignorant, but honest men, with such relevance so to make them wilt. Ike forth's gourd at noonday. A few field forthe were made at reply by colored men_so facehole as neither to benefit Radicals nor injure Beformists. They should the blood-hound and lash war cry. The last straw of the downing man! They rather solicited nity to their baw feet (a sad commentary on Radical prospetify.) and tattered clothing, than arged arguments in defence of their cause. Towards its close the meeting was ably and eloguently addressed by Captain S. W. Maurice, whose ceaseless flood of denunciation so overwhelmed the mulatto leaders of the party as the drop their artogant heads like peacocks whead is of their tails. erved in the marine news column of yes hen an observation could not be estained ow then was it possible for me to convey the formation he sought, to enable him to accertain How then was it possible for me to convey the information he sought, to enable bin to escertain our position, which as a competent and experi-enced full branch pilot of Charleston harbor, with buoys and landmarks risble to harm, he should have fully understood without the assis-tance of glasses or solar observations. It has been alleged that in thick weather the difference in the lands of St. Helena and Charleston entran-ces is scarcely distinguishable. Yet in conversa-tion with Captain Boaktey, an experienced and competent-pilot of St. Helena bar, he distinctly stated that the range of the buoys on that bar, as well as the landmarks indicating the entrance, are entirely different from those observed on en-tering this port. Wilson admits seeing the buoys and yet he is entriely unable to discern any difference between them. We are told that instakes of a similar nature, as that committed by wilson can be easily made. Yet Lam informed by parties capable of judging that they never occur with experienced pilots. But this does not mend the matter. I am the sufferent frong the want of capacity, oompetency, and experience of the pilot who first boarded me. LS: Jowks, "Master Schooner W. L. Springs."

Politics in KERSHAW. This county is regarded by the Radicals as one of their strongholds, but here is every in-dication that in October next they will be rout-ed, "Horse, foot and dragoons." The people of Kershaw have gone to work in carnest. Reform clubs have been organized, and meet-ince are held every few days. At the last elec-

After the barbeche to day several hundred Reformers paraded through the streets. Shori-hy afterward the Balicals secured a file and dram, and paraded with about thirty finen and boys. When they halted. Mr. E. Conway, candidate for senator on the Independent and Union Republican ticket, made them a speech. Before he concluded his andience numbered several hundred. He urgad his hearers not to trust the Radical leaders who had once deceived them, and proposed to do so again, but to give their support to the people of the State who could be trusted. To-fight in front of the hotels, Mr. J. A. Moroso and Jonas Byrd made brief Reform speeches to a large infinite of colored men. If the people of the other counties of the State would go to work as earnestly as the people of Kershaw have done, there would not be the least doubt of Scott being defeated by firy thousand votes.
