Those who have not lost relatives in the war, but simply wear black as a mark of respect for their friends who have been less fortunate, do not adopt the deepest mourning, but, as a rule, put on black China crape dresses, and this material is invariably worn over a black slik petticoat, trimmed with deep flounces.

The Nathan mansion, it is said, will soon be thrown open to the initiated as a fashionable gambling house. It was sold for $70,000.

-Captain Rynders, who is not unknown to political fame in New York City, was driving a fine horse, worth ten thousand dollars, over the Patterson plank road, in New Jersey, on a Sunday morning, some time ago, when the animal stepped through a dilapidated bridge and was permanently disabled. Rynders sued the company for the value of the horse, but was non-sulted on the ground that the accient occurred on Sunday, on which day a man has no legal right to exercise a horse in New

-The sensation of the hour in Gotham last week was a boat race on the Harlem Liver, in which girls were the contestants. The young ladies who rowed the heats were all daughters of respectable citizens-boat-builders by trade. They were properly and modestly dressed, and behaved in a thoroughly lady-like manner; but the behaviour of the spectators on the shore was outrageous. They yelled and shouted, used slang phrases, and sometimes indulged in vulgarity. The young lady rowers, however, did not heed them, but pulled manfully at their oars. The course was to row one-half mile, making three turns, being two miles in all. Miss Amelia Sheehan was the winner. The other competitors were the Misses Mary Walton, Mary Kyle, Olivia Roberts and Annie Williams. The race was under the auspices of the Empire City Rowing Club. The attendance of spectators was immense

_Louis Napoleon has saved up money enough to put himself and his family beyond the reach of want for the rest of their days. He has an annual income of five hundred thousand dollars from investments in English funds, and as much more from investments in other countries, the United States included. This money has been made not merely by savings upon the enormous salary allowed him as Emperor, but by speculations in stocks and real estate. As he had control of the whole power of France both at home and abroad, it has been easy for him to put the stock market up or down as he chose. The improvements in Paris have also been a most fruitful source of wealth. Knowing before hand where streets and avenues were to be opened, he has been party? The former has kept no promise able to buy city lots at low prices, and then to which it has made; the latter has made no cronies and friends have been enriched in the same manner. Many of them were in the France, but now they are all millionaires. -Anything more disgraceful than the New York Republican State Convention has not for some time eccurred. There were fisticuffs and cut-throat tactics. The delegates are properly characterized as a menagerie of backbiting politicians, Coakling and Fenton of course being the leaders. Conkling out-manœuvred Fenton in the organization and in the nomination, although Fenton had a majority of the delegates. Such was the bitterness between the two factions that a free fight was imminent throughout; unearthly yells and screams came from both sides. Conkling gained everything by pledging offices and places. It is even said that he has made Grant promise to mollify Greeley by giving him the English mission. Of Woodford, the nominee, the World says: "In the war he was a sort of ornamental general, a well-meaning military dandy and flowery spouter, who has no military record that anybody remembers. Mr. Greeley wrote a bulky history of the war in two large double-columned octavo volumes of seven or eight hundred pages, and General Woodford's name is not once mentioned in the whole work!" The paper sums him up as a general without achievements, a lawyer without cases, an editor without vigor, and a candidate nominated without any expectation that he could be elected. The convention has increased the HON. B. B. CARPENTER, OF CHARLESTON. enmity of Fenton and added new leuds to the Republican organization; it will devour itself with the utmost expedition.

Proposals for Peace. The fundamental principle of the Union Reform party of South Carolina is the recognition of the equal right of all citizens to vote and hold public office. This is not, as the Ring attempt to make the colored people believe, a sullen acquiescence in an accomplished fact. It is the expression of the deliberate purpose of the whites to admit, and affirm, every privilege which the laws confer upon the blacks; and this is done, not because of greediness for political power, but because in no other way is there any hope of establishing those kindly relations between the two races, without which neither blacks nor whites can expect to obtain a peaceful, just and frugal State Government. The miserable crew who, trading upon the political capital of better and purer men, gained the confidence of the negroes, and have made the State Government a sink of uncleanness and corruption, succeeded in causing the masses of the freedmen to regard every honest white man as their enemy. Sad experience has shown to thousands of the newly enfranchised race the folly of trusting to the promises of a horde of needy adventurers; but other thousands still regarded Scott and his lieutenants as their political saviours, and were encouraged to persist in their fatal error by the silence and apathy of the whites. In the meanwhile the condition of the State was going from bad to worse, and it was only too evident that, unless the majority of the whites and the majority of the blacks would unite in an effort to secure an honest State Government, it would soon be impossible for any citizen of South Carolina to improve his condition, even if the tax-gatherer allowed him to retain the little property he already possessed. The whites alone could not change the government. Under the guidance of the Scott Ring, there was no prospect that the blacks would choose better men to represent them and us. The only chance was in a union for the one purpose of reforming the State not the son of his own papa, at all, at all. the Press Conference, and, at a later day, by Having lost his throne, some people are de- the Union Reform Convention. Promise and Performance The difference between Radical promise and Radical performance is so great that it can only be appreciated, in its full force, by the unfortunate freedmen who expected to enjoy every comfort of life, and have really received nothing but ill treatment and neglect. When DeLarge, Elliott, Wright, Whipper, and a few others are counted out, it is hard to find a single colored man who is one whit better off to-day than he was when he helped to elect R. K. Scott as Governor of South Carolina. Then, the future of the colored men was all rose-color. Visions of broad acres, of fat mules, of peaceful hearths and happy homes, filled their sight ing been once sceptical as to success, we take and made their hearts light and gay. How is it now? Two years have passed, and not one of their promises have the Radicals kept. They have given money, or place, to the colored men who boasted that they could lead their brethren by the nose, but they have done nothing for the colored people in general. Yes! they have so increased taxation that trade languishes, and the wages of the poor man are cut down to enable his employer to make tongue and buckle meet. And of it. The Abbeville Press says: "The meetthe queerest part of the whole dirty business is, that the notorious promise-breakers of the Scott Ring accuse the Reformers of treachery and bad faith! The Ring judge others by themselves; this is the whole secret.

No member of the Ring can point out any instance in which the Reform party have broken a promise made to the freedmen. These have been represented by men of their own race upon every committee and in every meeting, and in the counties where the whites have a large voting majority, colored men, as well as whites, have been nominated for public office. What is, then, the difference between the Ring and the Reform whole story in a nutshell. The Ring are judged by what they have done; and the Ring, themselves convicted of unparalleled fraud and deception, judge the Reformers by what they, the Ring, have done, and will certainly do again if a ghost of a chance begiven them. Put record against record! And remember that the only charges against the Reformers come from the Scott Ring, who have gulled and cheated the colored people, who have brought the State to the verge of ruin, who are now fighting to avoid the sad necessity of going out of the State or into the penitentiary.

The Coveted Senatorship.

Judge Orr prints a letter in the Columbia Phoenix, in which he says, (1,) that he has never had any conference with Governor Scott or any other Republican, directly or indirecty, with reference to the senatorial "election;" and, (2,) that he "has not been, is not now, and will not be, a candidate for the United States Senate at the approaching session of the Legislature." The coyness of old stagers in political campaigns is something like the protestations of the fair Julia, who, "vowing she would ne'er consent, 'consented," and Judge Orr knows well enough that his refusal to be a candidate would not prevent him from serving if he were elected. The smiling Colfax announces his final retirement from public life, and it is shrewdly guessed that he is, therefore, a candidate for the White House in 1872. A similar strategy probably directs the declarations of James L. Orr-unless that astute political tumbler has come to the conclusion that, under no possible circumstances, can he attain, through the South Carolina Legislature, the goal of his desires.

Keep it Before the People.

The Lancaster Ledger says: "Governor Scott told one of the election commission-'ers in this county, just before the recent 'Congressional election, that if a Republi-'can was not elected the managers were to 'blame. Said he: 'I have appointed the com-'missioners, the commissioners have the 'appointment of the managers; if the man-'agers don't count the votes right, I'm not "to blame."

-The Reformers in Union have filled their county ticket by nominating Mr. J. W. Vinson for the Legislature and Mr. Wm. Hill for Probate Judge.

-There was a joint meeting at Jamison's, Orangeburg County, on Saturday, the 3d instant. Colonel Felder and Mr. Browning vanquished the Radical orators, and the Ring had a bad time of it.

-The Reform Club for Ward 4, Columbia was organized on Friday night, and the follow ing officers elected: J. P. Thomas, president; E. Hope, vice-president; J. E. Giles, secretary and treasurer.

-The Radical meeting at Barnwell, on Wednesday, was a small potato affair. Only 150 Government, and the first step towards it persons were present. Mr. Robert Aldrich Ransier declared himself in favor of removing the Courthouse to Blackville, a thing against which both political parties have formally protested.

-The Horry News says: "When Stonewall Jackson had moved to the proper position to open the seven days' fight in front of Richmond, that resulted in driving General Mc-Clellan to take shelter under the fire of the gunboats in the James River, he telegraphed Governor Letcher, 'I am all right now.' So, too, of Horry in the present Reform move-

-The Laurens Reformers have made the collowing nominations: Legislature-Bristoe Sheridan, colored, Rev. Tolaver Robertson, Colonel Tandy Walker, Captain J. S. Johnson-Probate Judge-W. H. Langston, (incumbent.) School Commissioner-R. H. Yeargin. County Commissioners-G. M. Langston, Joel F. Smith, Captain J. Downs Byrd. The nominations were unanimous.

-There was a rousing Reform meeting at Orangeburg Courthouse on Monday. Colonel Rutledge made a "clear, plain and eloquent" speech, and Judge Aldrich delivered a grand address. A. B. Knowlton, a Trial Justice appointed by Scott, took the stand and said that no decent man could remain in that dishonest (Scott) Ring," and advised the colored people to throw off the Ring and put decent men in office. The meeting was splendidly suc cessful -The Reform meeting at Chesterfield Courthouse was large and enthusiastic. The Democrat says that Judge Carpenter, atter his arrival at the Courthouse, received information and proof of one of the heaviest land swindles that has been perpetrated by the Ring in this county; one in which $26,000 was pocketed by the participants. This transaction alone has opened the eyes of many of the colored people, who avow their determination of no longer following the League leaders, but of voting for Carpenter and Butler.

-The Georgetown Times says: "From hav a great deal of encouragement from the signs around us. The intelligence of the State have taken hold of the movement. The truth, in all of its purity and simplicity, is dawning upon the colored element. General Butler, who has been actively canvassing the State, is confident of success beyond his expectations; and with work, unceasing work, we believe the State will go for Carpenter and Butler.

-The Radicals had a meeting at Abbeville Courthouse on Monday last. This is what came ing, we think, was not a success. In fact, we would like to see another of the same sort. A few more like it, we think, would kill the party here. Judge Hoge congratulated his hearers upon the patriotic zeal which had induced them to leave the workshop and the corn field at the call of duty; but why did one half of the crowd remain in the public square? We would like to see a little more of the same sort of Republican enthusiasm. We may then look for a great Conservative victory."

-The Lancaster Ledger says that in Lancaster the prospect brightens. "The Reform movement is on the high road to success From most every section we hear of the rapid gains of the party from the colored population. In the Waxhaws large numbers of the colored men have already joined the Reform clubs, and the cry is, still they come. The tide has turned, and all that we need now is vigorous

CHARLESTON, S. G., August 30, 1870.

Miss ETTA A. KELLY has been a Teachen of the first class of girls at the State Normal school for the last three years, and as Commissioners of the School, we had the opportunity of closely observing her qualifications as a Teacher. Her knowledge in all the branches taught is accurate and thorough, and she has, in a high degree, the faculty of imparting it and making it interesting to her pupils. Her discipline is admirably compounded of firmness and good temper, and we feel warranted, in view of all her qualifications, in recommending Miss KELLY as one of the best Teachers within our knowledge.

ELAVORING EXTRACTS IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT.

GREAT REDUCTION IN PRICES.

QUALITY STILL FURTHER IMPROVED.

We beg leave respectfully to call the attention of the public to our Superior Flavoring Extracts, As ten years have now elapsed since we first in-troduced them to the notice of the American pubtroduced them to the notice of the American public, we deem it unnecessary at present to enter into a lengthy description of their merits, &c. There is hardly a city or town of any note in the country into which they have not found their way. The reason of this widespread popularity and daily increasing demand is owing entirely to their peculiar excellence and intrinsic worth. Being determined to make them the Standard Extracts of the day, we have still further improved their quality, and now we firmly and honesity believe that they stand without a rival. Our Yanilla Extract cannot be surpassed for richness and delicacy of favor. It is a strictly pure and highly concentrated Extract of Vanilla Beans. In short, we think it the best that is made, at least, this is the decision of the best judge in 'th' coun-short, we think it the oest that is made, at least, this is the decision of the best judges in 'th country. We don't pretend to compete in price with many of the so-called Flavoring Extracts of the day, which are really but worthless compounds, undeserving of the name.

For quality and style, we defy competition. DAVIS & MILLER'S
