NEWS OF THE DAY.

-Gold closed in New York, on Saturday, at 148144. -Cotton closed irregular and declining; uplands 191 cents; sales 850 bales.

-In Liverpool, cotton was duli; uplands 91d; Orleans 91d; sales 8000 bales. -The Democratic gain in Vermont is twenty in the House and one in the Senate. -The Right Rev. Bishop McGill, bishop of the diocese of Richmond, has returned from Rome, and resumed his pastoral labors. -The postmaster of Boston is making a

-The Oratory of St. Sacrament, the new ritual mission chapel, was formally opened Taursday morning in New-York City. There was a very large attendance. Twelve masses were celebrated, and other imposing ceremonies took place. A sermon was preached by

Dr. Dix. -Milwaukie is the greatest grain market in the world. It has six large elevators, able to bushels. Yet last week five hundred cars were standing in the freight yards and on the tracks of the city, unable to discharge their wheat. This immense glut is from old wheat, and the merchants estimate that there are a million more bushels of the crop of 1869 to come. -The Prussians have just driven the poor old Baroness de Reumont from her chateau for the third time. They first forced her to fly in '92, then again in 1814, and now at the age of ninety-four she is once more obliged to abandon her home. The baroness lives a few miles from Montmedy, at the chateau of Grand-Verneull, where apartments were prepared to receive Louis XVI during his flight. They were never occupied by the unfortunate monarch, who was stopped at Varennes.

-Nillsson gives six concerts in New York, commencing next Monday. The price of a season ticket is $20, and the sum already realized is over $20,000. The sale of single tickets commences Saturday. Nillsson is in luck to have made an engagement for the year in America. Opera is at a discount in Paris. The terms $1000, gold, a night, for one hundred nights-are quite as liberal as any European capital could afford, and it is only to be hoped that the enterprise of Strakosch may be rewarded.

-The practicability of using steam on common roads appears at last to have been thoroughly tested in Scottland, where the success of Mr. R. W. Thompson's road steamers, after various trials, has earned for them the endorsement of the most sceptical. A six-horse road steamer has been running for several months from Aberdeen, a distance of four miles, over a wretched road, to the Kiltock Flour Mills. In many parts of the road the grade is one in eight, over which the steam engine draws ten tons with great ease at the rate of three miles and a half an hour. When we have canals navigated by steamboats, and locomotives run on common roads, "trade and not, however, be forgotten that the Latin travel" will increase "beyond expression." -By the new system of "Automatic Telegraphy, as it is called, it is claimed that 24,000 words an hour may be transmitted by a single wire-600 words an hour being the capacity of the Morse system. What the nature of the invention is, or why it is called automatic, we do not know; but Mr. Craig, who has been long of 82,000,000 souls within the European in the telegraph business, and who seems to have the management of this invention, says Latin race—the largest single race, so to it is capable of being worked in direct circuits from three to ten times greater than can possibly be done by the Morse system, which is that commonly in use. Experiments have shown that it is quite practicable to telegraph by one manipulation, direct from New York to every other city in the Union, a news report at the rate of 400 words a minute, or 24,000 words an hour, and that this rate of speed can be maintained any length of time solely by electrical and mechanical power. -The awful news of the approach of cholera reminds us of an old idsidious and unconquerable enemy. In Havana it is spreading with frightful rapidity. There were fifty-three deaths in one day and eighty on another. The victims are taken from all classes-from the aristocracy and the chain-gang-equally. In the shipping in the harbor its ravages have been very great, and 1-ters dread lest the epidemic make such hadway as to fill the city with mourning, and to take the population off in countless numbers. In France we hear of the cholera among the German troops. In Southeastern Russia it is rapidly extending. The Journal de St. Petersburg, of the 11th instant, announces twenty-three cases and ten deaths from the epidemic at Rostow, and nine cases and four deaths at Kerich. The appearance of the disease is alone announced at Odessa in a communication dated the 4th instant. The latest news from Taganrog states that from the 25th of June to the 18th of July one hundred and eighteen cases of the malady occurred in that town, seventy-five of which ended fatally.

-With the Strasbourg cathedral knocked over by the Prussian guns goes the famous clock, the product of a German clockmaker, in about the year 1550, and described as a marvel of ingenuity and mechanical skill that has no counterpart. It performs not only the ordinary service of a clock, but exhibits the days and the months and the years; the process of the season; the signs of the zodiac and the names and movements of the heavenly bodies. At each quarter hour an angel comes out and strikes one stroke on a bell; at every hour another angel comes out and strikes twice; and at 12, meridian, a figure of Christ appears, accompanied by the twelve apostles, all of whom move around a central point and pass in, out of sight, by another door, the stroke of twelve being given, and a cock flaps his wings and crows. The clock is enormous in size, like everything else connected with the vast cathedral, and is invisible from the full particulars of the outrage can be the street-the spectator passing through the nave of the cathedral to see it. It has suffered from fire and violence, before the present year, having been out of repair and motionless since the revolution of 1793, until the year 1842, when it was repaired by a watchmaker of Bas-Rhin, and has been in operation since. It is to be hoped that this ingenious piece of mechanism has not been irreparably injured by the present bombardment. The loss of the Strasbourg library-a vast collection of 800,000 volumes, including many collections of rare and curious Monkish parchments-is total and irreparable.

To the Public.

That the Charleston public, in these stirring times, may have prompt access to the latest telegrams, we shall continue to issue, at half-past two o'clock every afternoon, an extra edition of THE NEWS, containing all and foreign, usually published in an evening

existence by national humiliation and na- of council. There was another ticket nomitional defeat. Deluded by the Imperial nated the night previous, by some mal-conministry and betrayed by those whom they trusted most, the people were willing that the Republicans should seize the reins of power, and endeavor to rescue France, at least from dismemberment and national extinction. The French Republic had no leis ure for thought, no time for preparation. Already the victorious Germans were massing their forces for the attack upon the capital. A handful of deputies, celebrated only trial of young ladies as delivery clerks in his for their steadfast opposition to Imperialism, became, in a few hours, the absolute masters of the destinies of France. They did not come into power when France was flushed with the consciousness of her strength, but at the moment when her arm ies were defeated on every side, and more than one hundred thousand French soldiers, in one body, had unconditionally surrendered. The Empire had failed-failed miserahold from hall a million to a million and a half bly and ignominiously to perform the task which it had arrogantly undertaken. There was no hope but in a Republic. And it speaks wonders for the discretion and good sense of the Republican leaders that the change of government should have been effected without riot or disorder. The Republic is now the guardian of public tranquillity, not the fomenter of discord and inrigue. Love of country is the dominant passion in every breast. Whatever France loses by this cruel war, is due to the Empire; whatever she may gain, is due to the Republic. This is, at all events, the bent of public opinion. But we see little prospect that the French Republic will be maintained. England, Russia and Austria are hostile to Republican institutions. King William declines to recognize any other government than that which he has overthrown. France finds no friendly hand stretched out to give her help. Even England, upon whom France has lavished so many substantial marks of friendship and good-will, turns her back upon her defeated ally, and figures up the number of pounds sterling that her merchants may hope to gain by reason of the parlaysis of the commercial and manufac-

> In Italy and Spain alone might the French Republic hope to receive sympathy and support. But Italy is a monarchy, and Spain is governed by a regent; and before either could aid France the existing government must be transformed into a Republic. Neither Victor Emanuel nor Serrano will send an army to fight for Republican France. And the Spanish and Italian Republics are far from their actual establishment. It must races, as the people of France, Italy and Spain are called, constitute in numbers the largest division of the peoples of Europe. Spain has a population of 15,000,000. Portugal has 3,000,000. Italy has 26,000,000. France has 38,000,000. This gives a total jurisdiction of these countries. This is the speak, in Europe. The Sclaves and the races subject to them do not number more than 70,000,000. The Teutons do not exceed 54,000,000. The Anglo-Saxons, and the races whose destinies are united with theirs, do not number more 30,000,000. The 80,000,000 of Latins in Europe possess at least 8,000,000 fighting men. The allied Republics of France, Italy and Spain, once consolidated and united, would be invincible. But this unification of the Latins cannot be expected to be effected while France, with her government in an inchoate condition, is overrun by an invading army, which have fought the war, and Germany and France will finish it.

Tuz Yorkville Enquirer urges the whites to organize a militia company in every township-not to carry on war, but for the purpose of preventing it. The Enquirer says: "If we are to have bloodshed, let the responsibility not lie at our door. Let us "rather strive to prevent it by showing our-'selves prepared for the crisis, and then if it "is forced upon us we can, with a clear con-"science, use our united strength in defence "of our rights and liberties."

now surrounds, with a belt of steel, the

"gay capital of civilization."

The League and the Lash.

A short time since, three negroes received THIRTY LASHES BACH, on their backs, by order of a Union League in Chester County, for exposing some of the rascality in that new order of slavery. Thus, step. by step, the kind of blessings which the Radicals and carpet-baggers have in store for their victims are coming to light! First they bind the souls of the deluded negroes by solemn oaths, administered at the dead hour of night, in a manner intended to impress their superstitious minds with awe and fear, then threaten them with awful punishments, if they dare exercise the rights of freemen contrary to the interests of even the most infamous leaders of their party; and now they restore the slave-driver's lash! We ask the colored people now, who is putting them back into slavery?

The Unionville Times vouches for th truth of the above statement, and adds that given by Mr. Melton, of Chester, or the Rev. J. H. Saye, of Chestnut Grove.

The Campaign.

-Messrs, Wallace and Seibels, of the execu tive committee of the Union Reform party, have called a convention to nominate a candidate for Congress from the Third Congressional District. The convention is called for Tuesday, the 27th of September next.

-The Union Reformers of Chester County have made the following nominations: State Senate-Purvis Alexander. House-0. Barber, Wm. Johnson, Adam Branch. County Commissioners-Wade Osborne, Moses Benson, Sampson Chesnut. School Commissioncr-David W. Boyd. Clerk of Court-David Hemphill. Probate Judge-J. H. McDaniel. Coroner-Dr. Ell Cornwell.

-York County, with a large white majority, nas made the following nominations, carrying out the principles of the Reform party both in spirit and letter: For School Commissionerthe telegraphic dispatches, both domestic Rev. R. Lathan. Judge of Probate-Frank C. Harris. County Commissioners -Captain J. F. Workman, J. M. Jackson, Minor McConnell, colored. For the Legislature - James H. THE NEWS EXTRA will be sold to news- Fayssoux, Dr. J. G. Black, Rev. Anderson Meacham, colored, and D. T. Leslie.

-Orangeburg, on Tuesday last, elected, by a large majority, the following ticket, which had been nominated at the public meeting of citizens, irrespective of politics: Intendant-N. Austin Bull. Wardens-E. J. Oliveros, J. C. The French Republic is the creature of Pike, Henry Dickson, Thad. C. Andrews. Dr. disaster and misfortune. It was called into Oliveros has been elected clerk and treasurer tent and officious Radicals which was badly defeated.

-At the election on Monday last, for intendant and wardens of the Town of Union, the following gentlemen were elected: H. L. Goss, intendant; D. J. Fant, W. D. Humphreys, Boney Farr, colored, Jacob Rice, Wardens. No Radical ticket was run, but the Reform citizens, although composing a large majority of the voters of the town, thought it but just to the colored people to give them a member of the board. Boney Farr is an intelligent and industrious colored man, and belongs to the Republican party. He received the second highest vote.

-The Reformers of Spartanburg elected their whole town ticket, on Monday last, in snite of the most strenuous efforts of the Scott party to defeat them. The successful ticket was as follows: John Earl Bomar, intendant Joseph Walker, H. H. Thompson, John W. Maxwell, R. G. Stone, wardens. The Spartan remarks: "The election is but a type of what old Spartanburg County will do in October. The Rads. make a great blow about the defection of Dr. Winsmith, C. C. Turner and Javant Bryant, but the defection of these men will only make the working men of the county more energetic, and for every one of such office-seekers who leave the Reform party, fifty honest Republicans will join it." -There is trouble among the late constitents of the Ring in Orangeburg. In the County Convention, on Tuesday, there was a serious bolt of all the delegates from "The Fork," notwithstanding which, the Rump Convention proceeded to nominate the following ticket: For Probate Judge-T. C. Andrews For School Commissioner-E. I. Cain. For County Commissioner-J. Felder Meyers, Nero Blum, Joe Robinson. For Representatives-W H Reedish Ren Blas J. L. Jamison, Rev. J. H. Wallace, Rev. Will Dannelly, The voters of "The Fork" are not in anywise bound by the nominations, and declare that they will not support the ticket. They have called meetings and propose to unite with the Reform party and to elect a county ticket. This ticket can be elected!

THE types made Colonel C. W. Dudley say, in accepting the Union Reform nomination for Congress from the First District, that he would endeavor "to unite in a pro-"per spirit" the responsibilities which the nomination imposed. Colonel Dudley really said that he would meet those responsibilities, and we doubt not that he will be better than his word.

CHARLESTON, S. C., August 30, 1870, Miss ETTA A. KELLY has been a Teacher of the of the first class of girls at the State Normal School for the last three years, and as Commissioners of the School, we had the opportunity of closely observing her qualifications as a Teacher. Her knowledge in all the branches taught is accurate and thorough, and she has, in a high degree, the faculty of imparting it and making it interesting to her pupils. Her discipline is admirably compounded of firmness and good temper, and we feel warranted, in view of all her qualifications, in recommending Miss KELLY as one of the best Teachers within our knowledge.

the discharge of her duties a degree of tact and

C E N T U R Y WHITE WHEAT BOURBON WHISK!ES

The attention of the trade is called to the above brand of WHISKEY. It is believed that it must take the place of many of the old brands that have heretofore been favorites. It is very mellow:

has a rich full flavor, that suits a larger percen tage of palates than any Whiskey ever intro duced to the public. Owing to peculiar treatment in distillation, it is the purest stimulant known. See extract from certificate of analysis by Professor Siljiman, State Chemist, of Connecticut:

"I have carefully examined the sample of 'Century White Wheat Whiskey.' In color, taste and odor, this liquor is without fault. It is entirely free from any deleterions substance whatever. The absence of all trace of lead, and of other poisonous or hurtful things in it, is absolute. By distillation, I find its alcoholic strength to be exexactly that of proof spirits by the present United States law, viz: 50 parts by volume (measure) of absolute alcohol, $3.71 parts of water; by weight this corresponds to alcohol $2½ per cent, and water 57½ per cent. The sah is chiefly alkaline carbonate, and is far less than is found in the average of good drinking water. No alcoholic liquor can be purer than the sample of 'Century.' (Signed)

B. SILLIMAN, State Chemist.' The CENTURY WHITE, WHITAT BOURBONS are most carefully distilled from selected stock, after which they are stored away in charred barrels until it reaches a certain age, when it is redistilled by a peculiar process which extracts the Fusil Olis and other deleterious substances inherent in all whiskies, and leaves it a perfectly pure Whiskey. After this it is stored away to ripen and mellow with age, which it does in a much greater degree than any whiskey can which is not similarly treated. The older grades of CENTURY BOURBONS (XXX and XXXX) challenge comparison with regularly distille, whiskies of any age

BOURBONS (XXX and XXXXX) challenge comparison with regularly distillet whiskies of any age or price. Numerous testimonials can be shown from all parts of the country, and endorsements by many prominent members of the Medical Faculty.

The Proprietors respectfully ask the inspection of connoisseurs, and the trade generally, to whom liberal terms will be made.
