UNION REFORM NOMINATIONS.

For Governor,

HON. R. B. CARPENTER, OF CHARLESTON.

For Lieutenant-Governor,

GENERAL M. C. BUTLER, OF EDGEFIELD.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

-Gold sold up to 14 in New York, Saturday, but closed dull. -Cotton was heavy and lower; uplands 16;

cents; sales 2289 bales. -In Liverpool cotton closed quiet and unchanged; uplands 8id.; Orleans 8id.; sales

10,000 bales. -It has been determined by the British Cabinet to make a strong and last appeal to Prussia to consent to peace, in consideration of the destruction of the fortresses in Alsace and Lorraine, without dismembering France. It is rumored this position of England is taken in apprehension of the warlike movements of Russia, which occasions a disinclination to see the power of France too much broken. -A Paris letter says: "Among the many proposals to arrest the march of the Prussians, the most remarkable is one which appeared this morning signed 'A Frenchwoman.' The Frenchwoman begs 20,000 of her sisters in Germany to come at once to Paris, when with 20,000 Frenchwomen they will throw themselves between the contending armies. 'This,' says the Frenchwoman, with some historical accuracy, 'prevented the Greeks and the Roenable him to make a machine capable of destroying the whole Prussian army." In the accounts hitherto published of the flight of the Empress sugerie, there is a hlatus between her departure from Paris and her arrival in England. A correspondent of the London Times supplies the missing facts. The fugitive lady was advised not to try the rallway trains, for fear of being recognized; and she left Paris in a market cart returning into Normandy, in which she spent three days and two nights. She reached the sea at Trouville, where one of her friends went on board Sir John Burgoyne's yacht, inspected the vessel, inquired its sailing qualities, and at last confided to the owner, "on his honor as an English gentleman," the history of the unhappy lady's escape. Sir John promised to carry her across the channel, and the Empress came on board privately, unprovided with so much luggage as a comb, tooth-brush or a change of linen, and made the voyage to Ryde, which was very rough, the sea washing over the deck. -An American officer, in the service of the Viceroy of Egypt, writes to the Herald: "We hope to be, and no doubt will be, of service to this country, and in a short time make the army of Egypt the best little army in the world. I have never seen such material. The soldiers are the finest looking men I have ever seen, well-behaved and subordinate. They would charge the gates of darkness. I am pleased to say that the American officers are very popular with the soldiers and people. It was very different with the French officers who were here before us. With regard to the American officers here, I will inform you that General C. P. Stone is the chief of the staff, General A. W. Reynol' is quartermaster, commissary and paymaster general, General Loring is inspector-general of all the infantry, General Sibley is inspector-general or artillery, Colonel Rhett is chief of ordnance, Colone Kennon is in charge of the coast defences, Colonel F. A. Reynolds is colonel of the light artillery, but is at present acting as assistant inspector-general; Jenifer is inspector of cavalry, General Mott, who had that position, having been transferred to the staff of the Viceroy. While I am writing, a regiment of infantry is just passing. I have never seen such a body of men. Their movements are like clockwork. I have visited most of the places of interest, and am much pleased with all have seen. There is always something going on which interests us in the way of fetes and amusements. I am told the winter here is most delightful. The Viceroy expends large sums of money to amuse his people. We have one of the finest opera-houses in the world. The Viceroy pays all the expenses, and has the best performers in Europe engaged. He will have none but the best and the prettiest women as performers. His balls are magnifi-

-The inhuman cruelties practiced upon the French soidiers by the victorious Germans after the capitulation of Sedan appear to have been of the most shocking character. A correspondent of the London Daily Telegraph, who was a witness, far from prejudiced against the G-rmans, speaks of the treatment of the defeated army as "lar worse than the result of any fight it has yet been my lot to see," though "for the last fifteen years I have visited the scene of every great engagement in Europe within a few hours after it had taken place." until after the 15th inst.

Writing from Sedan five days after the capitulation, he states that for the whole of that time almost all the men of McMahon's army, some 80,000, and all such of the officers as would give their parole not again to bear arms against the Prussians during the present war, were left out in an open field, as wet with the heavy rains as a marsh, without the slightest covering, huddled together like sheep in a space as large as Trafalgar Square, without an ounce of meat, and with only one hard biscuit per man for two days' consumption-two and a half biscuits for the whole five days-and this though, as the writer says, the Prussian troops round Sedan had two good meat meals per diem. Many of the officers had money enough, but "the Prussian authorities would not allow their prisoners even to purchase what they required." A correspondent of the New York World, writing from Sedan on the 14th inst., says that at the village of Bazeilles, which was destroyed by the Prussians in the fight that preceded the capitulation of Sedan. the French troops having been driven back from their positions outside the village, took shelter in the houses and fired on their foes from the windows and the roofs. The Prussian eternal infamy ordered his men to set fire simultaneously to every house in the village. The fire spread with almost lightning speed; in ten minutes the whole town was wrapped in sheets of flame, and hundreds of familiesfathers, mothers and children-were roasted to death, while the combatants, encircled with fire, died fighting to the last. .

The Reform Convention.

The members of the Reform Convention for Charleston County, which meets to-day, are entrusted with a duty whose proper fulfilment will task to the utmost their wisdom, disinterestedness and patriotic feeling-Their action will determine the result of the Reform canvass in this county, and upon a Reform victory here, apart from its local importance, depends, in great measure, the fate of the State ticket.

Charleston County, notwithstanding the large majority of colored voters, can be carried by the Reformers; but to accomplish this, the party must so act as to secure the active co-operation of both the propertyholding class and the industrial class; and it must, besides, be in a position to attract the floating vote, always ready to gravitate towards the side which represents brain, capital and labor. Whatever ticket may be put forth by the Convention will, doubtless, be voted for by the majority of the white voters. But mere voting is not enough. It is necessary that the people should exert themselves in making converts, and that they should work vigorously, in public and in private, from this moment until the closing of the polls on the day of the election. And this is not all sufficient. A large sum of money is required to defray the legitimate expenses of the campaign; and this can only be obtained from the merchants and business men.

It may seem difficult to harmonize conflicting interests, and it is impossible to please everybody; but the County Convention can nominate to-day a ticket which will command the active support of all classes, and will be sustained by the thousands of honest Republicans who are disgusted with the candidates of the Cain and Hurley fac mans from killing each other.' Another gen- tions. A ticket which represents every inhand him over 100,000 francs, in order to terest, and, in each case, by the best men in the popular heart, and be a sure barbinger of good fortune. The colored people must be fairly represented. They have the voting majority in the parishes and on the islands, and from these the larger number of colored nominees may properly be taken. The nominees should be the staunchest and most intelligent of their race-not political intriguers who, because their skin is dark, think they have a right to public office, whether they are qualified or not. The workingmen-the bone and sinew of the Reform movement-will have their place on the ticket. They should be represented by workingmen, who, knowing practically where the shoe pinches, will see to it that the rights of the laboring classes are protected, and that every opportunity is given them of improving their condition. The Germans and the Irish should also be represented. There can be no difficulty in finding such as are progressive and liberal in their ideas, and are permanently identified with the interests of the State. Nor must the merchants and business men be without their representatives. They possess "the bulk of the property in the county, and pay the bulk of the taxes, and without their help the fight cannot be won. In a word, the ticket-if intended to be successfulmust represent whites and blacks, workingmen and capitalists. Germans, Irish, and native Carolinians. The nominees must, moreover, be thoroughly respectable, and worthy of trust. This is no time for cliques, and we have done with hack politicians. What the county needs is men who will

> A ticket of the kind we have described will draw out the whole working and monied strength of the county, and can be elected; but a class ticket, a hole-and-corner or onesided affair, would fall flat and be defeated before the real fight began. We urge the Convention, therefore, to act with the greatest deliberation. They must be ready to sacrifice every personal feeling to the common good, and we feel that we do not count in vain upon their prudence, their unselfishness, and their unswerving devotion to Charleston and South Carolina.

accept office for the public good, not for

AN UNFORTUNATE colored lunatic lies in iail in Camden because the county could not pay the State Lunatic Asylum eighty-six dollars in advance. And Governor Scott has forbidden the collection of county taxes The Voter's Duty.

To the honest but misguided Republicans, upon whose blind and unreasoning fealty to "The Party" depends the sole hope of the Ring for the perpetration of its power, we heartily commend the following words of honest counsel from the New York Tribune, the leading organ, both in ability and influence, of the National Republican Party:

[From the New York Tribune of Wednesday.] "We ask no one to support an Incapable or unworthy candidate for office because he is called a Republican, and has a regular nomination. On the contrary, we urge every voter to strike from his ballot any name which he knows to be that of a dishonest or unfit man, no matter for the consequences. Conventions and wire-workers must be taught that such nominations will not answer, and this is the way to teach them. Do not ask us to particularize and denounce-for the friends of the bad candidates would resent such denunciation by striking at the good ones; but do you make due inquiry, and scratch off every bad man's name from the ballot which you vote. The immediate consequence may be disagreeable, but the ultimate effect will be wholesome and beneficent. Understand, then, once for all, that we do not wish you to vote for a thief or a fool because of his politics. If any Republican nominee is unworthy, you cannot better serve the Republican cause than by refusing to vote for him, and thus compelling better nominations thereafter."

"If every voter would religiously exercise his right of suffrage at each election, taking care to scratch from his ballot any and every name which ought not to be there, whether he put a good name in its place or not, we should soon have the right sort of nominees every time. Unprincipled aspirants would no longer pack primary meetings and buy nominations if the inevitable result would be their dis graceful deleat. Let us all resolve to scratch every bad nominee, but take scrupulous care to vote for every good one !"

These remarks of Horace Greeley, we may add, convey hints that should not be lost upon the members of our own County Nominating Convention, which meets to-day. Delegates, read and weigh well these words of counsel from a shrewd political foe!

It is charged by The Thieres' Own that THE NEWS was paid for its silence on the bill to fund the old issues of the Bank of the State. THE News was not paid for its silence, and was not silent. When will The Thieves' Own tire of lying?

No Registration.

In reply to the question of a correspon dent, we beg to say that there will be no registration of voters prior to the elections of the 19th inst. These elections are held under the act of March 1, 1870, which defines the qualifications of voters as follows Sec. 2. Every male citizen of the United States, of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, not laboring under the disabilities named in the constitution, without distinction of race or color, or former condition, who shall have been a resident of the State for one year, and in the county in which he offers to vote for sixty days next preceding any general election, shall be entitled to vote; provided, any public prison, shall be allowed to vote. Just as we expected, The Thieves' Own is unable to substantiate its charge that THE CHARLESTON NEWS offered to support the Republican party for the State printing. It therefore stands self-convicted of wilful and leliberate lying.

that no person, while kept in any almshouse or asylum, or of unsound mind, or confined in Smythe, a candidate for the State Senate, has withdrawn from the course of the State Senate, has withdrawn from the canvass since the exposure by Judge Carpenter of his infidelity and mean behavior. Perhaps it was thought that Clarendon might be robbed of her senator by the penitentiary when his services were most needed.

The Blue Ridge Business.

If any taxpayer in South Carolina has been led, by the asseverations of Scott. Chamberlain & Co., to believe that the four million dollars of bonds guaranteed for the Blue Ridge Railroad are not a direct liability and a bona ride part of the debt of the State, let him read the letter of Censor, printed in our columns this morning.

The Thieres' Own shifts its ground and now charges that "a representative" of THE News "did offer, in consideration of receiving the public printing, to support Governor Scott and his administration." This is a bigger lie than its predecessor. No representative of this paper, to our knowledge or with our consent, has offered to support the Scott administration, upon any terms, at any time, or for any consideration whatever. Let The Thieres' Own prove its charge, or again stand convicted of wilful and malicious lying.

The Campaign.

-A Reform Club was formed at Ridgeway on the 28th ultimo.

-The Herald understands that one of the Commissioners of Elections for Laurens is willing to agree to the appointment of a joint election committee.

-The Anderson Radicals have nominated William Spencer Moore for Coroner, William H. Haynie (the Reform candidate) for School Commissioner, Napoleon B. Gaillard (colored) for County Commissioner, and Heary Kennedy (colored) for the House of Representatives. -On the 19th, under a new proclamation by Governor Scott, elections for Coroners will be held in the following counties: Charleston, Richland, Edgefield, Anderson, Barnwell, Chester, Chesterfield, Fairfield, Kershaw, Laurens, Marion, Newberry, Oconee and Sumter; also, for Sheriffs in the counties of Union and Clarendon, and Clerks of the Court in the County of Chester. -The Orangeburg Reformers have nominated the following county ticket: For Probate Judge, J. C. Holman; for School Commissioner, Alexander Brown; for County Commissioners, John H. Phillips, Dr. W. S. Barton, Washington Knotts; for Representatives, Dr. B. H. Knotts, S. R. Mellichampe, William Dannerly, Hercules Richardson, William Golson.

-The Georgetown Times reminds the people that Colonel and Judge Robert F. Graham voted for, worked for, was elected a ludge under, and administered, the so-called Black Code, with a merciless severity not known out of Marion County, and that the same ex-colonel and ex-judge is now a flaming, bright and shining light of the Radical party, whose chief stock in trade is the same so-called Black Code, which ex-Colonel and ex-Judge R. F. Graham so mercilessiy and vindictively administered during his brief judicial career.

WE defied The Thieres' Own to prove that Judge Carpenter bribed, or attempted to bribe, any member of the General Assembly. It does not give the proof and it cannot. The public must draw their own

IF Attorney-General Chamberlain, Solicitor of this Circuit, is never at his post, and leaves his place to be filled by the court upon all occasions, why does he not resign and allow the people to choose a man who will discharge the duties of the office to conclusions.

THE indignation of the people at the enormous taxes imposed by the Scott Ring has frightened those worthies into suspending the collection of taxes until the 15th inst. This has been done in Kershaw, and we suppose that the same confidential order has been sent to the other counties.

THE suspension of the collection of taxes until after the 15th inst. is a sharp electioneering dodge, but it will deceive nobody. After the elections the taxes must be paid as usual; and the rule, besides, is a partial one, as only the small taxpayers are to have the benefit of the delay.

The last shift of The Thieres Own is to insinuate that THE NEWS received a telegram, and a letter, asking how much it would take to advocate a measure before the General-Assembly, and that it did advocate that measure. We reply that The Thieves' Own is once more guilty of systematic and malicious lying.
