NEWS OF THE DAY.

-Gold closed in New York yesterday at 13 al32c. -Cotton closed dull, with sales of 2900 bales uplands at 164c.

-In Liverpool cotton closed firmer; uplands 8id; Orleans 8id, with sales of 12,000 bales. -New Orleans has a cotton factory running 3300 spindles.

-Twelve bridesmalds, twelve groomsmen, and twelve ushers are to help to marry a couple in New York next month, in a church where the decorations are to cost over $5000. -Even the children in the schools of Germany are doing something to aid the wounded. They are sent into the woods to pick berries, which, on certain days are delivered at the depots of the sanitary commission, where portions are preserved in sugar, and the remainder sent fresh to the bospitals.

-- There is not a single Confederate prison er in the custody of the United States anywhere at this time." So says Adjutant-Generel Townsend, in response to an inquiry as to whether there are any Confederate prisoners in the Dry Tortugas.

-A great many boys, between the ages of 12 and 16, are missing in the different cities of Germany. In Berlin alone forty have thus mysteriously disappeared. They have run away to join the army, and probably most o them are now at the front.

-Offenbach, having been expelled from Paris as a German, may perhaps be induced to bring out two new operas in America. The managers of the Bouffes Parisiens and the Opera Comique had postponed until September the production of the "Fantasie" and the "Moucheron," thinking them good enough to fill the house in the height of the season.

_Tom Marshall once said, in reply to a fellow in his audience, who kept singing out, "Louder! louder!" when Marshall was speaking at the full capacity of his lungs, "Gentlemen and ladies-At the final resurrection of the great day, when Gabriel will be calling in thunder tones through his trumpet to arouse the dead, some fool from this town will be heard crying out to him, 'Louder ! louder !"

-The work on the foundation for the East River bridge is progressing rapidly, and the huge calsson is gradually sinking to its place. The fourth course of masonry is now being laid, and at the present rate of progress the tower upon the Brooklyn side will probably be completed in about a year. The building of the second caisson, for the lower on the New York side, will be begun immediately.

_ Pape Wrangel," as the Berlin people call the venerable field-marshal of that name, is too old to fight; but he takes the greatest interest in the war, and, when the regiment of culrassiers formerly commanded by him arrived in Berlin, he was at the station to welcome them. Though a man of deeds, rather than words, he managed to make a speech, which he concluded in a characteristic and practical way, by taking out his pocket-book and saying: "Look here, my lads! Here's a hundred thaler note, and that's for the first one among you who takes a Freuch eagle; and here's a fifty thaler note, which is for you my son, (turning to the standard-bearer,) it you bring back your colors, safely and honorably."

-A question much discussed some years ago has lately been settled by the eternally quoted "logic of facts." The question was whether the serious illness of one of the famous Siamese twins would necessarily affect the other. It seems now that Chang has had a paralytic stroke, and that the health of Eng remains quite est on all the bonds it guarantees; (4) that unaffected by it. Long ago it was determined hat the twins could not be separated without involving the death of one or both. But a p rominent medical journal of London affirms that, should either die, the ligature might be ment is, therefore, whatever the Ring may Safety cut so as to preserve the life of the sur- say, a liability on the part of the State to vivor. The twins are now well stricken in pay the interest on $4,000,000 and the prinyears, and it would be almost as anomalous as | cipal at maturity, it being demonstrated that their strange union itself if either survived the the company can pay neither.

shock of being parted from the other. -Already the dangers which are likely to hereafter beset King William, are cropping out in Germany. According to the correspondents, it daily becomes manifest that the South the two French previnces, Alsace and Lorraine; therefore the disposal of these territorial elephants is developing an embarrassment the magnitude of which is apparent to everybody. One thing plainly observable in those States, is the Democratic tendency which is fast gaining among the masses. At no time have the people ever spoken out their will and intention as they do at present, through the press, addresses to the King, and mass meetings. Politics, heretofore the exclusive domain of the few, now pervade all classes of citizens, and voices are heard who demand the formation of a German Reichstag and a vote for the representatives concerning peace, union and liberty of the future realm. Some ultra liberals are even pleading in favor of dealing leniently with the vanquished. In conse quence of this exhibition of liberalism were the recent arrests in Brunswick made. In fact, the government, elated at its recent victories, seems disposed to treat its German subjects like a herd of sheep, and will allow no Democratic manifestations to occur.

The work of the Reform Convention for Charleston County is done, and well done It had before it a task of great difficulty and of no common importance; but its patriotism, liberality and common sense made the body equal to the exigencies of the situation, and have enabled it to put before the people a county ticket which may fairly claim their entire approval and undivided support.

Upon the ticket nominated yesterday there are not, we admit, any old stagers-any veteran politicians. The nominees are nev in public life; but they are old in their identification with the interests of the State, and in their devotion to the cause of honest and economical government. They represent the whites and the blacks, the Germans, the Irish and the native Carolinians. The mechanics, the merchants, and the cap italists have their spokesmen, and, in each instance, the nominees are among the most responsible and most enlightened of their

The Convention, we repeat, has done its work faithfully and well, and the Union Reform ticket for Charleston County deserves, and will receive, the hearty approval of the people. THAT TICKET CAN BE TRIUMPHANTLY ELECTED, but we must not allow the grass to grow under our feet. Work, AND WORK ALONE, from this out, will crown our labor with victory.

Backed Down.

We accept the rejoinder of The Thieres Own as a sufficient vindication of THE NEWS from the charges which have been brought against it. Driven into a corner, convicted of wilful and deliberatelying, The Thieres' Own can only suggest that it Las heard of a man whose grand-aunt's father-in-law thought somebody said that all its defamatory statements concerning this paper were undoubtedly true. We are satisfied, and, at this point, shall allow the discussion to rest. A plea of guilty! was more than we expected, and is all that we desire.

THE Robbing Ring claim that the State will not have to pay the interest on the bonds guaranteed for the Blue Ridge Railroad. Yet the president of the road, in his application to the Legislature, said it was expected that the State should provide for "the payment of the interest on the bonds "while the road is being built."

AND Governor Scott in his message to the Legislature argued that "an expenditure of "four hundred and twenty thousand dollars, "to be raised by taxation," would secure the completion of the enterprise. We suppose that the arithmetic man of the Ring will argue that this $420,000 does not come out of the pockets of the people. What next ?

In a Nutshell.

A correspondent of the Sumter Watchman gives the annexed reasons why he shall vote with the Union Reform party, in the coming election:

1. Our State Government, according to he Republican press of the State, is very

2. The platform of the Union Reform party s not political, but moral. Ignoring all political issues, it seeks only to reform the morals of the State Government.

3. In rallying with the honest and good nen of the State, I hold my political opinions in abeyance, with no sacrifice of principle.

4. There are but two parties in the State. Not to vote at all, will be to give countenance to the prevailing corruptions of the dominant party.

5. Judge Carpenter stood, not only uncensured by the Republican party, but was ts pride and boast, up to the time of his joining the Union Reform party, and has certainly done nothing worthy of censure since.

6. Judge Carpenter is undoubtedly a man of intellectual ability, and if elected, will be associated with gentlemen whose moral parity will be a sufficient guarantee of his moral uprightness.

7. The colored and white people of the State are too far separated. Their mutual interests require that they should unite and form one party, and this is what the Union Reform party proposes.

Our correspondent "Censor" proves (1) that the Blue Ridge Rullroad, until it crosses the mountains, cannot pay the annual in terest on $230,000; (2) that it will take about $8,000,000 to complete the road; (3) that the S.ate will have to meet the annual interunless four millions more be given, the four millions already endorsed will be sunk and made valueless. The Blue Ridge endorse-

The Secretary of State, F. L. Carto themselves the contemplated acquisition of cent companion of convicted felons.

The Jobbing Interest. An observant Alabamian, who lately pass ed through Charleston, has given hir impressions of our city in a frank and sensible letter to the Selma Times. He does justice to the many features which render the City by the Sea so attractive to strangers; he praises our fine hotels and matchless steamship lines; he is enthusiastic over our noble water front and beautiful Battery, and he pays a deserved tribute to the activity and enterprise which distinguish so many of our leading commercial houses. In noticing the date for Congress, makes a speech in Collejobbers of Hayne and Meeting streets, however, he describes them as, apparently, placidly satisfied with the small jobbing trade which they do, and without energy or vitality enough to reach out and grasp that in the Schley land purchase. This was the 'which legitimately belongs to them." And in this connection, he adverts to the remarkable circumstance that the columns of the Charleston newspapers contain scarcely a DeLarge also said that when he was appointsingle advertisement representing a department of trade which should constitute so | tion ($700,000) was already spent. Unfortularge an element of the prosperity of the city. This, surely, ought not to be. With the start which she has in the commercial as he went, he confirmed, in every particurace, Charleston should speedily become the great jobbing mart of the Southern seaboard. But how can our jobbers expect to attain this result if they persist in keeping their light hid under a bushel? If each of our jobbing houses would spend but one hunreap a tenfold return in the additional business that would pour in from the cities and towns of Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Tennessee and Florida, which our railroad connections have now brought, as it were to our very doors. This, especially, is the season when they should seek to make known to the public what they are prepared to offer to purchasers. Even the oldest and best established houses are in danger of being forgotten or eclipsed if they overlook the instrumentality of the press. In New York, leading bankers and the most exten sively known mercantile houses of the city keep their advertisements constantly before the public. As the New York Journal of Commerce truly says: "If a house is not well known, it should become so by liberal 'advertising, and the better it becomes known and the larger its business, and the 'more independent it would seem to be, the better still does it pay to advertise it. Advertising is not only a means of success, but it is at once the evidence of it, and a 'guarantee of its continuance." Those who magine their establishments so built up that they can afford to ignore this auxiliary, do not take into account the competitions in business and improvements in trade, which will put the best and oldest houses in danger of being lost sight of, unless they take the pains to keep themselves known to the public through the proper channels. The fact is that the vast majority of customers throughout the South, at this time, do not know that they can purchase their goods as cheaply and on as advantageous terms, and from stocks as extensive and suitable for the Southern trade, in Charleston as in New York. Are our jobbers resolved to keep them in ignorance of the fact? Murder will Out.

The facts are leaking out concerning the alleged outrages in the Fourth Congression al District in 1868, whose investigation, by the way, cost the State many thousand dollars. Our correspondent at Walhalla informs us that one of the main witnesses who swore that the Democrats would not allow him to vote now says that he did vote. When he was asked why he had sworn to a lie, he swear anything he liked." A person who takes so comprehensive a view of his privieges as a free man, might advantageously be made free of the penitentiary.

Mr. Chamberlain's Little Game.

Mr. Attorney-General Chamberlain is already so intimate with a notorious buyer and seller of legislative votes that he speaks of him, in the public prints, as "my friend, "Mr. Hurley," and it is probable that a live ly sense of benefits to come will draw even closer the ties of confidence and affection What Mr. Chamberlain has done for Tim Hurley is not publicly known, but it is convenient, upon occasions, for a man who lives by bribing others to be the bosom friend of the Attorney-General of the State. What Tim Hurley has done for Mr. Chamberlain, will not be understood until after the meeting of the next General Assembly.

The object of the campaign, in which Tin Hurley acts as chief of staff, is the election of Attorney-General D. H. Chamberlain to the United States Senate in the place of Mr Robertson. As a first step it was proposed to send Tim Hurley to the Legislature at the head of the Charleston delegation, it being understood that the rest of the delegation should be mere puppets, who would vote "to order" with exemplary punctuality Tim Hurley was, accordingly, nominated at the head of the Bowen-Hurley legislative ticket, and every man on the ticket with him is expected to obey blindly Hurley's directions, and to vote early, and vote often, for Attorney-General Chamberlain. There may be a hitch in this little arrangement. Many of the Republican voters know Tim Hurley so well that they will take Horace Greeley's advice and scratch the lobbyagent's name from their ticket. Or he may find that his colleagues have a will of their own, and decline to be bullied and brow-beaten any longer. Tim Hurley is a political Swiss, and works faithfully for his employers. He elected Mr. Sawyer and may elect Mr. Chamberlain. This, at all events, is Mr. Chamberlain's little game. Let him only deny the soft impeachment, and assurance will be doubly DeLarge Denouncing the Ring.

The charges of the Reform party against Robber K. Scott & Co. in connection with the Land Ring have been definite and exact. In each case the sum of money which the Ring paid, and that which they drew from the State, have been set down, and in no one instance have the Ring been able to disprove the accusation that, in every land have knowledge, the people of the State dozo, admitted the general truth of the charges made against the Ring when he said, at Camden, that one among those intrusted with the execution of the Land Commission law had "seen fit to aggrandize "himself at the expense of the people." This is as frank a plea of guilty as the statement of the same individual that the Robbing Ring, when they entered into power, "found the debt of the State about six mil-"lions of dollars, and it is now between "thirteen and fourteen millions."

And now R. C. DeLarge, member of the Legislature, Land Commissioner, and canditon, in which he tears the veil from the corrupt face of the Ring. According to our correspondent, DeLarge admitted that Treasurer Parker received the whole $90,000 purchase of a tract of land for $120,000the seller receiving $30,000, in round numbers, and the Ring pocketing the remainder. ed Land Commissioner the whole approprianately DeLarge was not allowed to finish his exposure of the Land Ring; but, as far lar, the statements made, over and over again, in these columns, and which Scott's overseers have had the audacity to deny.

Seven hundred thousand dollars have been spent by the Land Ring, and of this amount at least three-fourths must have gone dred dollars a year in judicious advertising into the carpet-bag of the Robbing Crew in their own papers, they could not fail to who insolently style themselves South Carolina Republicans.

Negro Ku-Kluk-The Last Dodge.

In Union County the Radicals, instead of murdering some of their own people, as advised in the Confidential Circular, have organized a band of negro Ku-Klux, who maltreat the colored people and then charge the guilt upon the Reform party. Their manner of operating is exposed by the Union Times, which gives the names of the Loyal Leaguers chiefly concerned in the dirty business.

The Truth vs. D. H. Chamberlain.

Attorney-General and County Solicitor D. H. Chamberlain, in the financial speech delivered on August 27th, protested that South Carolina "was never so well or so cheaply "governed." This is a broad assertion, let us look at the facts.

In Kershaw County there are three thousand six hundred and five tax executions to be collected after the elections. The Camden Journal says that these xecutions represent one third of the entire population of the county, and more than one half of the taxpayers. So much for "cheap government" in Kershaw. Now look at the number of acres of land advertised for sale for taxes in four other counties:

In Williamsburg 86,542 Total.....221,542

Assuming that the average of these four counties holds good in the rest of the State, there are now, in South Carolina, one and a quarter million acres of land to be sold under tax executions. This is the fruit of two years of Mr. Chamberlain's "cheap government." He might have called it cheap and-nasty.
