that can be used. Price, for ten copies or more, with business cards, two and a half cents per copy; single copies five cents. A BURGLAR CAUGHT .- Abram Brown, alias "Pop-Eye," was captured on Wednesday night, after a desperate struggle, by Policemen Nipson and Alston. The policemen were in search of another marauder, when they encountered Abram as he was jumping from a window of Smith's grist mill, in Beaufain street, with a bundle of stolen clothing under his arm. The villain, although caught in the act, made a desperate effort to escape, but was captured after a hard.

fight, with the assistance of several colored people residing in the neighborhood. He was taken to the Quardhouse, and, upon being brought before the Mayor, was turned over to the State for prosecution. Abram is an old jail-bird, and was released from the Penitentiary only a few days ago by an act of Executive clemency. THE POLICE-THEIR PAY AND DUTIES .- The captain of the police of Charleston receives monthly $125; each of his two Heutenants $100; each of the two sergeants $66 68; regular police $60; the four door sentinels $50; two hostlers $50; seven steeplemen $30; three draymen $25; night olicemen $25. The detective force consists of a lieutenant, at a salary of $83 33 per month, and eight men at a salary of $80 per month. Seventy thousand dollars is the amount appropriated for the pay of the entire command. The duty of the police is divided into four hour watches, day and arght. The captain, of course, exercises supervisory control. The lieutenants are executive officers, who take turns day and night in inspect ing every post at least three times. A roundsman is a species of inspector, who, likewise, visits the several beats and men on duty. They are twelve in number. . One sergeant remains at the Guardhouse to receive and enter charges, write up the Mayor's book, attend to the disposition of prisoners, and notify persons of any violation of the

CRUMBS.-Yesterday was observed as a holiday of obligation by the Roman Catholics, and services were held at the different churches of that faith as on Sunday.

A grand masked ball will be given on the evening of the second of February, at the Hibernian Hall, by the German Artillery Association, Messrs. C. F. Lubs, P. Younge, F. J. Lillenthal, O. Biel E Packhaber, H. Huxoli and H. Harms, have been entrusted with the arrangements. The city treasurer is advertising for sealed proposals for making the city badges.

The Randolph Ridemen are preparing for a grand fair to be given at the Military Hail, commencing on the 21st inst. On Wednesday night, a colored man named Alfred Ford, was run over on the Northeastern Railroad, about eight miles from the city, and instantly killed. Coroner Taft was notified of the fact yesterday, morning, and the body having been brought to the city, an inquest was beld over it at the City Hospital. The jury, after a short setting, adjourned over until to day, when they will meet at the City Hall, at 9 o'clock, to continne the investigation.

THE S. C. CONFERENCE OF THE M. E. CHURCH, SOUTH.

Eighty-third Annual Session.

SECOND DAT. The Conference met ye terday morning pursuant to adjournment, at half-past 9 o'clock the Rev. Rishon George P. Pierce in the chair.

The meeting was opened by the usual religious ervices, conducted by the Rev. H. A. C. Walker. The minutes of the day before were then rest and confirmed, and the names of several members who had arrived since the opening of the session reported.

in pursuance of the regular business, the names of several members of the Conference vere called, and their characters passed. The venerable Rev. Dr. Bachman was introduced, and briefly addressed the Conference. Rev. Dr. Poisal, of Baltimore, was then introduced, and presented the claims of the Southern Quarterly Review, published in Baltimore under the editorial care of Dr. A. T. Bledsoe, and now adopted as the organ of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. Bishop Pierce, from the chair, commended the Review to the patronage of the

The husiness was then suspended, and Dr. L. Pierce, of Georgia, preached the annual sermon efore the Conference on the ministerial office. The discourse was listened to with profound attention, and at its close the Conference adopted, by a rising vote, a resolution offered by the Rev. H. A. C. Walker, expressing the pleasure of the Conference at having this venerable servant of paper, the Sumter Watchman, is also in the city, God among them, and their high appreciation of the sage counsel delivered by him.

Dr. Harrison, editor of the New Monthly Magazine, was introduced, and addressed the Conference in regard to various works issued from the publishing house of the church at Nashville. July Harris, a colored preacher, was elected to announcements for preaching were then made and the Conference adjourned at half-past 2 P. M. with the benediction from the chair.

THE BRIGNOLI-MCCULLOCH MARRIAGE.—The marriage of these musical artists, which took place (says the New York Herald) in Canada, last summer, was celebrated by the customary reception of friends a few days ago at the residence of the bridegroom, in Eighty-fourth street. It would have occurred earlier, but for the fact that the Signor was faifilling an engagement with the Nillsson Company.

INTERESTING ANNIVERSARY .- The Gentlemen's Assoc ation, auxiliary to the Confederate Widow's Home, has appointed its first anniversary for Monday night, at the Music Hall of the Academy of Music. The annual cration will be delivered by Major Theodore G. Barker. The cause is one which enlists the interest of our whole people, and with such an advocate, it will not fall to command attention.

THE NONDESCRIPT IN FLORIDA.—The celebrated Mrs. Dr. Mary Walker, a species of bloomerite mortality, was in Savannah at the last accounts en route for Piorida. She proposes to establish her unfortunate State, and nurse her own personal cor- given up as lost for the last eighteen months. porosity. A Savannah paper says her dress was of Confederate gray extending to her knees, the and Preston Owens, arrested while in the act of balance of her attire being a serviceable pair of bifurcated unmentionables, terminating in a pretty pair of gaiter boots.

THE COUNTY SENATORIAL ELECTION .- Curbstonegossip among the corner politicians points unerringly in the direction of a colored candidate for the now vacant office of senator from Charles. ton. Whether Parson Adams or Parson Cain, or some other person whose name has not been published to the world, will be chosen, are questions for time and the caucus to solve; but all the chances are in favor of equal division of the honors between the two races. In other words, Senator Corbin is regarded as a sufficiently distinct, emphatic and individualized representative of the white element to hold his own and satisfy Republican consistency. It is also urged that an honest and capable colored senator is to be pre ferred to a doubtful white Radical, who may possess more intellectual force than moral virtue. This is true, and if the Republicans make their choice of a colored man on such terms they may claim forgiveness for their shortcomings in many other respects.

B. O. B. !-Which being translated means the Blessings of Bankruptcy-blessings that have peen dispensed to a very large crowd of passengers on that high pressure steamboat yclept 'Insolvent Debts." They are generally blessings of a character, however, which the recipients, before they get the full benefit of the shower, discover to be very much disguised. For instance, to be button-holed by a physic gnomically ugly I. O. U. on every street corner; to be rung up by hungry collectors at early hours in the morning, and waylayed in the evening; to be followed by shadows which haunt you by day and become nightmares in your sleep; to be worried, chaffed, abused, enraged, upset; to contemplate vengeful assault and battery on your tormentors, and commit imaginary suicide on yourself; to lose your appetite, become dyspeptic, and morally run "lown at the heel;" to have your tender little wife periodically inquire "what makes you ook so blue?" and pathetically suggest castor oil as an aperient—these are only some of the preliminary tortures of the bankrupt process-the ings in disguise." Then to go before the well-fed registrar, whose fatness throws your poor anatomy in the shade, and intensifies the contrast between your past and present; there make out your schedule of debts, conscious all the while that the world owes you more than you owe it, and have the same paraded before this eye and that, criticised by lawyers and scanned by courts-that's a torment, oo. Finally, however, when your unhappy corpse has been sat upon until every joint has shricked, and judge and jury have submitted their verdict, and you are pronounced free to be o'own wherever the wind listeth, though you may stand, there is clothes that are only a slight im provement on the toilette of Father Adam—say a neck-tie and a pair of shoe-strings, which have money a few weeks since. Tickets only $2. been in mercy left-ah, yes, here's where the real "blessings" come in. Your creditors bless" you mightly-over the left. Your former "friends"-who fed on your bounty and enjoyed your sunshine-they, too, bless you for a poor miserable broken down bankrupt, and turn the cold shoulder. In your imagination all the world looks askance and walks on the opposite side of the street. But no, thank God, not all. In a man's darkest hour there is always a ray of human twilight striving to dispel the gloom; human sympathy somewhere burns to reach misfortune. By and by it finds its object, and then the scene begins to change, and life to build itself anew on brighter-but really, reader, your pardon. We commenced to write only a paragraph stating that, since 1867 there have been entered on the docket of the registrar in bankruptcy for this district upwards of five hundred and forty-one cases, of which number about three hundred have been discharged from their legal obligations. The statistics of the office, however, show that not more than one in twenty declares a dividend worth the trouble of securing it. In a single instance, a dividend of one hundred per cent. was deciared, or dollar for dollar paid with interest. The next highest was fifty-seven and one sixth per cent., from which figure there is a sort of facilis decensus Averni, until you are among insignificant and unappreciable items like three-eighths and two-fifteenths of one per cent.vulgar fractions in a double sense, standing there in black and white to tell the world how mathematically poor a man may become, when he gets into a bankrupt court and does his honorable duty, and what a skeleton prosperity appears when stripped of the last shirt on its back. Speaking of the B. O. B., it is but tasteful to say that in the administration of the affairs of his office, the registrar, Mr. J. C. Carpenter, has uniformly exhibited a spirit of courtesy and accommodation, which has won the appreciative regard of all who have had anything to do with the hu-

"Mun's THE WORD!" The brokers compassed a resolution against the continuance of the publication of the weekly efficial stock list. We understand that the board went further and prohibited the publication, either in the newspapers or in letter-sheet form of any similar price list of stock, &c., by any individual member of the board. This action will account for the nonappearance in this issue of THE NEWS of the usual weekly official stock list.

THE PRATT INQUEST .- A coroner's jury was empanelled yesterday morning to inquire into the cause of the death of Captain Horace A. Pratt, who was one of the sufferers at the explosion at the Etiwan Works, and died from the effects of the injuries he then received. The evidence i the late Williams inquest was submitted, but not proving sufficient to satisfy the jury, they, adjourned over until to-day, when they will mee at the City Hall and examine several witnesses who have been summoned.

FIRE.—The fire briefly recorded in THE News of yesterday, occurred about half-past 1 clock, A. M., in the blacksmith shop in the rea of C. Bart & Co.'s fruit store on Market street. Extending to the front, the greater portion of the store was injured, and the stock badly damaged by water. Scorched cocoanuts, demoralized bananas, mushy-looking oranges and lemons and moist books, made a dreary aspect yesterday of what had been a busy place. Three appraisers were engaged in estimating the damage. The accounts were saved. During the fire, a large amount of fruit and fireworks was stolen. Some of the thieves were arrested, but let off with the North British Mercantile Insurance Company for five thousand dollars.

IXION AT THE ACADEMY .- The rollicking buresque of Ixion, and his firtations in the realms of Olympus, was given last night in very spirited style by the beauteous Blondes. The divinities kept the audience in a roar throughout the performance, and we hardly know whether the pain ought to be awarded to the raging Mars, with is fearful sabre de mon pere, or to the witching Minerva with her Lilliputian helmet and Brob dignagian chignon, who seemed to possess the faculty of communicating to the house the good spirits she so coplously and frequently imbibed from the handy flask in her delicate reticule Miss Weber, as Ixion, was, as usual, immense. Her songs and especially her dances were systematically and enthusiastically encored. This troupe grows in public favor nightly. This (Friday) evening is the fashionable night, and the great musical extravaganza of Lurline, which is to be presented, will be sure to attract a crowded The ladies and children are delighted at the
