Meetings This Day. Union Kilwinning Lodge, at 7 P. M. Auction Sales This Day.

William McKay will sell at 10 o'clock, at his store, mules, horses, &c.

CONFIRMATION.—The Right Reverend Thomas F. Davis, Bishop of South Carolina, is now on a visit to Charlesten. We learn that he will administer the rite of confirmation at the Church of the Holy Communion to-morrow, at morning

AN INTERESTING OCCASION.—A general missionary meeting of the Episcopal Church of this city will be held to-morrow (Sunday) evening, at 7 o'clock, in Grace Church. The Rev. Campbell Fair, the eloquent Church of England divine, now sojourning in the city, will deliver an address.

PERSONAL -- Rev. Dr. Myers, editor of the Southern Christian Advocate, Dr. Bond, editor of the Baltimore Episcopal Methodist, J. Poisal, editor of the Methodist Quarterly Review, and Rev. Dr. Harrison, who issaid to be familiar with fifteen or twenty languages, are attending the Methodist Conference now in session.

AN OUTRAGE .- On Broad street yesterday a man was found in front of the office of Leitch & Bruns, auctioneers, in a dead faint. On coming to his senses, he said his sudden depression had been caused by overhearing one of the members of the firm ask, Why is Paris the wickedest city in the world? and answer "Because there's Notre Dame Church there." The unfortunate man said his concussion of brain was awful.

MASONIC ELECTIONS .- At the anniversary communication of Landmark Lodge, No. 76, A. F. M., the following officers were elected to serve the ensuing year: William Tennent, W. M.; Edward J. White, S. W.; Alex. W. Marshall, Jr., J. W.; Edward T. Hughes, treasurer; T. Pinckney Lowndes, secretary; Alonzo J. White, Jr., S. D.; George D. Bryan, J. D.; Hutson Lee, Louis McLain, stewards; I. J. Beasley, tiler.

At the auniversary communication of Washington Lodge, No. 5, A. F. M., held at Masonic Hall, Thursday evening, December 8, the following officers were elected and installed for the next Masonic year: T. B. Hacker, W. M.; W. Douglas, S. W.; C. B. Sigwald, J. W.; S. Webb, treasurer; Thomas E. Strother, secretary; Charles Pennal, S. D.; John Magill, J. D.; James E. McCallum. John W. Prescott, stewards; Past Master W. S. Bowman, chaplain; S. B. Daniels, tiler.

MATINEE-THE WEBER TROUPS .-- The matinee this afternoon, at 1 o'clock, promises to be attractive to the ladies and children, and a large audience may be expected. The troupe have made a most favorable impression during their stay in Charleston, and have given the public an idea of the character of a genuine burlesque performance. The singing has been good, the dano ing lively, the dialogue spirited, and the fun contagious. Ernani, which is announced for to-day. is one of the best pieces in the repertoire of the troupe, and the little ones particularly, with their active imaginations, will have no difficulty when they see the performance in believing that real angels in short clothes and tights have come to earth for their especial delectation. To-night the troupe will cap the climax. A fine bill is offered, and as the week's work is finished, two or three bours of rest and amusement will doubtless be sought by hundreds within the walls of the Academy of Music.

CRUMBS. Beautiful chromos were sold yesterday at the gallery of Quinby & Co. for much less than cost price, some of them being even more attractive and spirited than paintings. The steamer Georgia sid not sail until nearly midnight on Thursday. She carried among her passengers the Skiff & Gaylord troupe. Mr. F. P. Gaillard, instead of being agent for the "Life of Christ" for the State, as announced yesterday, is simply agent for the city.

The amount of profanity which resu'ts from the presence of banana rinds and orange peel on the sidewalk is fearful. Several persons have had falls from stepping on these treacherous articles, which sufficiently hint that a little care on the part of those who eat such luxuries may save a doctor's bill.

Considerable numbers of deer and wild turkey are now being killed in the vicinity of Charleston, and find their way to market. Sportsmen are in their giory, and a profitable day of amusement area of ten or-fifteen miles. John Hopkins was tried, convicted and sent to jail by mistake on Thursday. The Mayor found John to the Guerdhouse and supposed him in custodia legis, when in reality he had been placed there for punishment by his father, from whom he had substracted the small sum of $8 75, and not from an old woman, as at first reported. Trial Justice John G. Mackey is raising a subscription for the purpose of giving the three men who sued a boardinghouse-keeper for attempting to kidnap them, an ortist, to enable them to go to works RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.-To-morrow will be an interesting day in many of the churches, from the fact that various pulpits will be occupled by strangers, some of whom are distinguished divines and orators. THE S. C. CONFERENCE OF THE M. R. CHURCH. SOUTH.

Eighty Third Annual Session.

THIRD DAY. The Conference met at half-past 9 o'clock A. M., and was opened with religious exercises by the Rev. J. T. Kilgo. Bishop Pierce took the chair, and the minutes of the proceedings of the day before were read by the secretary and confirmed. R. M. Harrison, a preacher of the Cokesbury District, was granted a location at his own request.

The name of Rev. Wm. Martin, pastor of the Washington Street Church in Columbia, was called. He gave a brief account of the embarrassments under which his church has been laboring since the burning of the church edifice, in 1865. The temporary chapel in which the congregation are worshipping is much too small for the demands made upon it, and a part of the pastor's time has been occupied in securing funds for the erection of a new church building. About $4000 have already been contributed for this important

The Revs. Dr. Bond, of Baltimore, and Mr. Hubert, of Georgia, were introduced to the Con-

on motion of Dr. Whitefoord Smith, George W. Williams, Francis J. Pelzer and Samuel A. Nelson trustees of the building in Charleston known as principles of religion, justice or law, sympathize the "Bishop's House," and by vote of the Conference were directed to convey this property legally to the South Carolina Annual Conference.

On motion of Rev. R. C. Oliver, a committee was appointed to take into consideration the propriety of establishing an orphan's home in South Carolina. The Fishop announced the Revs. R. C. Oliver, J. W. Humbert, W. W. Mood, A. W. Walker and George F. Round on the committee. The names of the preachers on the Columbia, the Cokesbury and the Greenville Districts were called, and their characters passed. S. A. Wagner, Esq., one of the oldest members of the Methodist Church in Charleston, was presented to the Conference

The Rev. A. B. Stevens, on account of his declining health, was granted a superannuated relation to the Conference. The Revs. T. S Daniel, J. A. Wood and J. D.

Carpenter were placed on the supernumerary Rev. George J. Griffith, a minister of Mr. Spurgeon's church in London, upon presentation of his credentials, was received as a member of this Conference. George W. Gatlin and Richard D. Smart were received in the travelling connection.

The Revs. Mr. Yates, of the Mariners' Church, Mr. Gowan, of the Presbyterian Church, Dr. Hicks, of the Lutheran Church, and Mr. Vedder, of the Huguenot Church, were introduced to the Conference.

The name of the Rev. W. A. Hodges, of ] the Greenville district, was called, and he was granted a location at his own request. The preachers of the Spartanburg and of the Wadesboro' Districts were then called, and their characters passed. Dr. Whitefoord Smith, president of the legal Conference, now took the chair, and called the Conference to order. Various business connected with the financial interests of the Conference was transacted, and officers elected to supply vacancles after which the legal body adjourned.

Bishop Pierce again took the chair. The Rev. S. H. Brown, presiding elder of the Columbia District, and editor of the Christian Neighbor, made some remarks in regard to the work of God in his district, and acknowledged the blessing of God by which he had been sustained under the arduous labors which his double work imposed upon him.

Dr. A. E. Williams, a lay member of the Conference, from Walterboro', addressed the Conference in a very earnest and thrilling speech on the duty of consccrating property to the service o' God, and advocated one-tenth of the gross income as the measure of Christian duty in this repect.

On motion of the Rev. T. A. Mitchell, a commitee was appointed to whom was referred the propriety of establishing a tithe society in connection with the South Carolina Conference, the object of which society will be to relieve cases of special distress and destitution among the of the body. The jury adjourned until 10 o'clock, preachers and their families.

A contribution was then taken up among the members of the Conference to assist in the payment of a talance on a missionary debt contracted during the war. The roll of the members was called, and the sum of $906 placed on the secre- ons, &c., manufactured by Wilson, Childs & Co.,

The Conference was now informed that Messrs. to take the members on a steamboat excursion

George W. Williams and F. J. Pelzer had offered around the harbor. The boat will leave central wharf this morning at 10 o'clock and visit the various points of historic interest around the harbor

The Conference then adjourned at quarter past 2 P. M., with the benediction from the chair. The members then assembled on the porch of the church, and were photographed in a body by Messrs. Smith and Yates. The camera was placed on the opposite side of the street, and under the skilful manipulations and arrangements of Mr. T. P. Smith, one of the firm, a neat photograph was produced in which the personal features of the individuals comprising the Conference were easily recognizable.

CONFEDERATE WIDOWS' HOME .- The annual business meeting of the Widows' Home Association was held at the rooms in Broad street yesterday. The Rev. Dr. Bachman presided. The opening prayer was made by the Rev. William Martin, of Columbia, who also made a brief and pertinent address. The annual report of the poard of control showed that the "Home" was not content with what had been done, but had already largely increased its benevolent work. We hope to present the report in full hereafter. A number of the members of the South Carolina Conference were present at the meeting, and made earnest addresses. Our editorial brother, A. A. Glibert, of the Sumter Watchman, spoke eloquently of the fact that, here, Charity, which is the crown of Christian graces, received new ustre from its union with the sacred sentiment of sympathy for the stricken families of our martyred brethren. Thomas S. Moorman, Esq., of Newberry, addressed words of enthusiastic cheer and encouragement to those who have charge of the "Home" enterprise, and Colonel H. H. Harper, an officer of the Confederate army-although he dis claimed ability to speak, being entirely unaccustomed to public address-made as impressive and affecting a speech to as we have ever heard. Each one of the speakers took occasion to address feeling and pertinent remarks to the youthful wards of the "Home," who, to the number of nearly forty, were a most interesting feature of the occa-

The board of control of the "Home" was unant mously re-elected.

On Monday night, the Gentlemen's Auxiliary Association will celebrate its anniversary at Music Hall. Addresses will be delivered by Major Barker and Professor J. W. Miles.

CLUBS AND STARS .- Stephen Haynes, Ann Bryant and Georgiana Robinson were arrested for creating a disturbance and engaging in a general row in Meeting street. Upon examination before the Mayor the two former were sentenced to pay a flue of $5 or go to the House of Correction for ten days. The latter was liberated. Henry Blyd, arrested or larceny and vagrancy, was sent to jail for thirty days as a vagrant. Thomas Simmons was arrested yesterday under a warrant from Trial Justice John G. Mackey, for trespass and assault. He was held for examination. A mule found going at large in Friend street, and taken to the Stationhouse lot, was ordered to be advertised.

FIRE .- The alarm of fire last evening, about half-past 6 o'clock, was caused by the burning of an old outhouse in the rear of lot No. 19 Mazyck street. The engines were quickly on the spot and the fire was arrested in a few moments, not, however, before the outhouse, which was built of wood, was entirely consumed.

THERMOMETER YESTERDAY Bange of the 70 89 Broad street, 8 o'clock, 49: 10, 53: 12, 56: 2, 57; 4, 56; 6, 58; 8, 52.

THE DETECTIVE FORCE. -Inadvertently it was made to appear, in our paper of yesterday, that the detective force of the city consists of a lieutenant and eight men. It should have said a lieutenant and five men, besides a clerk. A figure and a figure 5 are so remarkably crooked at midnight, that it is sometimes difficult to tell "t'other from which."

UNITED STATES COMMISSIONER.-Joshua and Solomon Scott, two youths of about nineteen years of age, were brought before Commissioner Porteus, yesterday morning, charged with voting when under age, at Garrett's Church, in St. John's Berkeley. The charge was sustained upon examination against both of the juvenile delinquents, and they were released on bail in the sum of $250 each for their appearance at the January term of the United States District Court.

THE OCCUPATION OF ROME.—The Right Rev. P. N. Lynch, D. D., Bishop of Charleston, requests and invites the members of the several Catholic congregations of the city to unite in a general meeting, at half-past seven o'clock to-morrow (Sunday) evening, in the Cathedra! Chapel, Queer street, for the purpose of considering a protest against the invasion and occupation of Rome by were elected to supply vacancies in the board of the Italian Government. All others who, on with Catholics on this question, are respectfully invited to attend.

It's ONLY A Hog .- True, but evidently the most intelligent porcine creation ever exhibited in the City of Charleston-a hog that will answe a bystander any question he may ask; tell the time of any number of watches offered him; give you the name of public men, popular drinks, or play a game of euchre or seven-up, without look-ing at the face of a card, and beat you every time. They call him "Wicked Ben," and exhibit him in a store opposite the Charleston Hotel. Ladies and children may safely, and with unusua interest, visit the place during the day, and we have no hesitation in saving that the half human quadruped will excite quite as much wonderment as even the Davenport Brothers. The animal actually exhibits a species of hog spiritualism.

ACCIDENTS .- Mr. Chester Barrett, the first nate of the three-masted schooner Harriet C. Shepard, was knocked down by the sea on Wednesday last, while the vessel was off Frying Pan Shoal, and his leg broken above the ankle. He was brought to the city; sent to the hospital, and ils leg was reset by Dr. J. S. Buist, the surgeon in charge.

In addition to the above, Dr. Buist yesterday amputated the arm of a colored man, named Thomas Lawrence, who had been brought to the hospital the day before. The patient had been employed at Mr. Robert Harleston's place, on looper River, in a mill where they were threshing rice. In attempting to slip the driving band from the large wheel his right arm was caught, and before help could be obtained it was crushed in two places. He is doing very well under the em cient care of the hospital steward, Arthur Fairly, INQUESTS .- The jury in the case of Captain Horace A. Pratt assembled at the City Hall yesterday, at 12 M., pursuant to their adjournment and proceeded with the investigation. Several witnesses were examined, among whom were many of those who testified in the Williams case Their evidence then given was read to them, and such additional facts as were thought necessar, by the jury were elicited by cross-examination This occupied considerable time, and the fury adjourned at half-past two o'clock, in order that other witnesses might be summoned for the ex amination to-day.

The jury in the case of Alfred Ford, who was killed Wednesday night, on the Northeastern Railroad, assembled, pursuant to their adjournment the day before, at the City Hall, at 9 o'clock, yes terday morning. Several witnesses were ex amined, but the evidence thus far throws no light on the matter. The body was found by the conductor of the night train from Florence, with the head nearly severed from the body, and the right arm broken in four places. Various suspicions have been aroused by the unnatural appearance this morning.

BUSINESS NOTICES.
