Hark! 'tis the Saviour's voice! we hear the sound Calling the young and all, into His arms of love, Behold there a grave! an! 'tis his mound! His soul's not there, flitted up to lights above.

So young, so promising and so bright,
In all thy nobleness of soul, of heart,
Scarce had the bud un'olded quite,
When summoned up to take his part.

And he will shine in realms above,

Just fourteen years, so much there was to trace, So much of character there defined, So much to light his happy face. A neart inherited, in truth a noble mind. Father, your son has breathed on earth his last,

There is no language strong enough, alas i But those of tears, of grief, of sacred lov-Parents both-your Gou with love hath torn Him from thy bleeding bosom's care, Then feel it as the Saviour's will alone, Aye, yield in silence—God is always sure.

[FOR THE WEEK ENDING DECEMBER 29.] THE CROPS .- During the week just closed, a most severe spell of cold weather took place, the sharpest experienced for many years, and whatever vegetation may have escaped previous changes, has, no doubt, been terminated by this occurrence! Much rain has also fallen, which, together with the holidays, has suspended all work for this period.

THE RECEIPTS .- The arriva's at the cotton ports for the week up to Friday last were 131,880 bales, against 155,717 bales for the week before, and 114,-031 last season. At New Orleans the receipts were 42,522 bales, in contrast with 24,016 for the week the previous year. The total supplies received at the cotton ports from September 1, 1870, up to the latest mail dates were 1,511.504 bales, in contrast with 1,219,065 bales the year previous show ceipts at the chief Southern centres from September 1, 1870, up to the latest telegraphic intelligence, as contrasted with last season, were as fol-
