Auction Sales This Day.

William McKay will sel! at 10 o'clock, at his store, one bay horse.

RANGE OF THERMOMETER at Joseph Black man's drug store, No. 39 Broad street, February 24: S o'clock, 52; 10, 58; 12, 61; 2, 64: 4, 63; 6, 60; 8, 59.

COTTON FOR LIVERPOOL .- Mr. E. Willis cleared, yesterday, for the above port, the British bark Sailor Prince, with 1471 bales upland cotton and 115 tons phosphates.

MEMORIAL FAIR .- We are requested to acknowledge the contribution of one box of cigars to Mrs. Wineman's table, from Captain Souder, of Philadelphia, through Mrs. DeFontaine.

PEACE JUBILEE .- The members of the Freundschaftbund are invited, by the advertisement in another column, to attend an extra meeting of the bund, at the new hall, at half-past 8 o'clock this evening, for the purpose of making arrangements for a general rejoiving over the peace in Europe. The presidents of all the other German societies are invited to attend.

CRUMBS .- The barrel of ram seized by Officer Daly in the house of Spanish Peter, at Ben hett's mill, has been turned over to the Custom. house.

The Randolph Ridemen are going to Columbia to-morrow, to participate in the ccremonies attending the efection of a monument over the murdered B. F. Randolph.

THE USURY BILL KILLED .- Our Columbia telegrams bring the welcome news, that the Senate, by an overwhelming majority, has given a quietus to the bill to re-establish the usury law. The first announcement of this gratifying result reached the city yesterday in the following dispatch from Lieutenant Governor Ransier to one or our leading merchants: "The usury bill has inst met with a deserved death in the Senate. The enacting clause has been stricken out by a vote of 20 to 2."

LARGE CARGOES .- The palatial steamship Georgia, Captain Crowell, salled on Friday morning for New York with a large and valuable cargo of sea island and upland cotton, rice, rosin, domestics, &c., amounting in all to twenty one hundred packages.

The new screw steamship Fall River, Captain Hinckley, safted about the same time for Philadelphia with a heavy cargo, comprising about 1300 packages of cotton, rice, naval stores, &c. All the coastwise steamships are having very fine weather, and of course making quick voyages, but the passenger business is very light, and all the lines here and elsewhere are complaining.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC .- The performance at the Academy last evening was, in many respects, notably successful. Mr. Buchauser's "Stylinck" deserves me braise of a striking and natural consection, faithfully and consistently narried out bourhout the development of the complex apacteriof he lewiof Vanice, the ispress of a verning ideal, thoughfully and artistically incived, was plathy traceable, and in many of us special scenes with which the play abounds his power was eminently displayed. The interest of the "Merchant of Venice" is heatly ved by the central figure of Shylock, but the binor characters were on the whole well and botted, and Miss McKean's "Portia," though the quai la parts, was very creditable. The comedy of "Used Up" is both novel and maing, and kept the audience in capital humbr

THE LATE JOHN J. O'NEILL. -The funeral of this highly esteemed young man took place esterday afternood at the Cathedral Chapel, and ras attended by the relatives and namerou chands of the de teased. An eloquent and affed ing discourse was delivered by the Right Rev. op Lynch during the funeral services, after which the body was escorted to the Roman Cathdic Oemetery at Magnolis, and interred in the family burying ground. Mr. O'Nelli was stricken with a severe ll'ness some three weeks ago, which terminated in his death on Thursday afternoon. th year, and in his inarse with his fellow citizens had won gold opinions from men in every condition of life. members of the Vigilant. Fire Company, of which the deceased was a zealous and highly useful officer, attended the obsequies in fall

CLOTH STEALER ARRESTED .- About 7 o'clock on Thursday night, two shop-lifters entered the dry goods store of Mr. Lewith, at the corner of Horlbeck's alley and King street, and while the clerk was employed with several other customers, made of quietly with a bolt of blue fiannel. It seems as if they divided the spoil near by, for an hour afterwards, James Williams, one of the depredators, was seen offering twelve yards of blue dannel for sale in King street, near Tradd. The owner of the cloth alleges that it is worth 65 cents per yard, but Williams went in for quick sales and small profits, and was selling out at 121 cents per yard. He was arrested in the act by Officers Daly and Burke, and daly immured in one of the cells at the detective office. After a short hearing before the Mayor yesterday morning he was remanded for further examination.

A STRANGER TAKEN IN .- John Loebeck, a stranger in this country, and halling from Sweden, arrived in the city yesterday by the Northeastern Railroad, and while walking through the streets, was invited into the saloon of Francis Jenkins, at the corner of East Bay and Market street, by a colored fellow named Luke Wright. While resting himself in this miserable place, he gave his bag of clothing to the officious Luke, and having dined, walked out to look around the city. On his return, he demanded his bag from Luke, who refused to give it up, and said that two boys had stolen it. The swindled address was received with much applause. The valedictory orator, D. E. H. Wilkinson, Esq., was then introduced to his audience. The literature of angient Rome, and the glory of the Italian Republic of the middle ages, were the subject of his oration, which was handsomely delivered, and gave evidence of thoughtful care in its preparation .. The closing farewell to his fellow-students was particularly happy. A fine band was present during the evening, and added in no small degree to the pleasures of the occasion.

UNITED STATES COURT .- The District Court was opened at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, his Honor Judge Bryan presiding.

Thomson and Jeffries, assignces of H. J. Pride, vere ordered to pay W. B. Wilson $200 as a counsel fee for professional services in their behalf.

J. F. Dorroh, assignee of Thos. D. ed, asking my optimion with regard to the effective of the "EUREKA PERTIMZER." I applied about 200 pounds per acre, leaving a few rows without any. The "Eureka" rows made three times as much as those not manured. I had my lawd proken fine and deep, put the "Eureka" deep in the soil, running a sub-soil plough through the fertilizer to mix it with the soil before bedding upon it. My sandy land I had cultivated very shallow with sweeps set to run shallow, so as not to break the small roots of the cotton. My still iand i gave it a deep ploughing when the cotton was small, afterwards cultivated very shallow. The "Eureka" has paid me a profit at present price of cotton besides improving my land. Our old lands, from long culture, have become so exhausted of the Phosphares necessary to make good crops that we cannot succeed well in runsing cotton without the use of commercial fer-
