ACKNOWLEDGEMENT.—The treasurer of the Lee Monument Association respectfully acknowledges the following contributions: From St. Luke's Church, Newberry, $15.00; from the congregation of the Episcopal Church, Society Hill, &c.

ANOTHER TRIAL.—There was another interesting trial of the Pioneer steam fire engine in Market street, near Church, last night. It was too dark to measure the distance to which the stream was thrown, but all present agreed that it must have been something tremendous.

TRIAL FOR MURDER.—Lieutenant Corliss and nine officers and soldiers of the Eighth United States Infantry have arrived in Charleston, having been summoned as witnesses in the approaching trial of some soldiers of that regiment for the murder of Policeman Martin, in October last.

TAXES.—General Gurney, treasurer of Charleston County, notifies the public that all taxes not paid on or before March 22, 1871, are liable to a penalty of twenty per cent. All taxes not paid on or before June 15, 1871, are liable to an additional penalty of five per cent, when property of taxpayers will be levied on by distress or otherwise.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—H. Mathews, a colored man of this state, began a quarrel with a companion of his on Saturday afternoon, in front of Trial Justice Mackey's office, in Meeting street. Constable J. M. Hayes came out and ordered him to quiet his quarrel, when the wrathful Mathews made a rush at him and struck him two severe blows in the face. A crowd was speedily collected, but the constable quickly returned the matter at the guardhouse, and had his assailant arrested. The latter was brought before the Mayor next morning, and after a short examination, was turned over to a trial justice for prosecution.

ATTEMPT TO PICK A POCKET.—Robert Fraser and John Hatch, two would-be disciples of Fagin, were observed by one of our sharpest detectives loading down King street yesterday afternoon, and stopping in front of a jeweler's store, in which there were several ladies examining jewelry. Hatch entered the store, Fraser being left to keep watch on the outside, and while attempting to abstract the contents from the pocket of one of the ladies, he felt the hand of Officer Day upon him. He was taken out, and in the street Robert was also arrested, and brought along with his comrade to the detective office. The interesting couple were held for examination.

THE STATE CIRCUIT COURT.—The Court of General Sessions was opened at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, his Honor Judge Graham presiding. The grand jury were called, and thirteen answered to their names, among whom were Mr. J. M. Mulvaney, the foreman for the year. Five other grand jurors were ordered to be drawn to fill up the required number of eighteen.

The list of petit jurors was called, and fourteen out of the thirty, the required number, answered to their names. Sixteen jurors were chosen from the bystanders to make up the two petit juries of twelve each, and the six supermarjories authorized by law. The grand and petit juries were ordered at half-past 11 until 10 o'clock this morning, at which time the witnesses in the cases to go before the grand jury are required to be present.

A FATAL ACCIDENT.—Dr. Joseph Murray, accompanied by his wife and several children, was driving to his home from Church at Ridgelyville, on Sunday evening last. When the party were in the neighborhood of Cypress Camp Ground a sharp squall blew down a large tree, which fell across the driver's seat of the carriage, killing instantly one of the children and severely wounding Dr. Murray and his son Willie. Dr. Murray and the little boy who was killed occupied the driver's seat; the poor boy being in the middle. Fortunately, Mrs. Murray and the other children escaped without injury. The carriage was broken to pieces. The boy who was killed was a fine little fellow, eight years old, named Joseph Johnson Murray.

We are indebted to our correspondent, J. M. C., for the particulars of this sad accident.

CURIOUS RESEMBLANCE.—A tall, robust, speckled gentleman was arrested yesterday morning by Officers Day and Lovett, and taken to the Detective Office. On the way thither the face of the prisoner seemed familiar to one of the officers, who at last recalled to mind a certain gallery of portraits of the celebrated characters in the various departments of crime which adorn the office of the chief of police. The prisoner was taken over immediately, and upon being introduced to the gallery the wonderful resemblance between him and a noted swindler in the insurance business struck all present at once. When arrested he stated that he was a music-teacher, but on being produced with the bogus insurance business, he produced a card on which his name (assumed or real) is given as agent for a Northern liquor house, and said that he came here to solicit orders. He is held for examination.

CLIPS AND STARS.—Janette Singleton, a colored negro, arrested for being disorderly and using abusive language towards the police in Broad street, on Saturday afternoon, was sent to the House of Correction for five days under the warrant of law.

Thomas Bennett, colored, lodged for disorderly conduct and interfering with the police in Elliott street, was fined $5, which he paid.

William Nelson, arrested for disorderly conduct and resisting the police, was sentenced to pay a fine of $5 or go to the House of Correction for five days.

A white man, found sleeping off the fumes of bad whiskey in Broad street, was discharged after an animated interchange of complaints with the Mayor.

Three fine coats and three pairs of pants, recovered by Officer Nipson from the robbers who entered Mr. Combs's house, in Aiken's row, were ordered to be delivered to the owner.

SQUANDERING MONEY.

City Appropriations for 1871.

The bill to make appropriations to meet the liabilities of the City of Charleston during the year ending December 31, 1871, will come up at the next meeting of City Council. The total of the proposed appropriations is $763,000. The one large item of this amount is, of course, the interest on the public debt, which is set down at $320,000. For the Almshouse $23,000 is proposed. Last year it was $23,000. For the Orphanhouse an appropriation of $83,000 is proposed. This is $4000 less than that of last year. For gas light we have $30,000, the same as for last year. For streets and pavements $70,000, as before. A very large sum, too, by the way. The Police Department last year was $70,000, but now it takes a jump way up to $83,000. The Fire Department calls for no more than last year, namely, $40,000. Coming down the list to the Health Department, we have in this a reduction of $3000. Last year it amounted to $10,000. The money is spent, but how? A few hundred dollars should suffice for what honesty are "contingent expenses"; the rest, even if honestly paid out, is a fraud upon the people.

Under the head of "Improvements" $30,000 is called for. For the "Floating Debt of the City" $41,000 is appropriated. Last year the amount was $45,000. But what is done with the treasury balance of $57,000. The total appropriation is $763,000, a fearful sum when the poverty of the people is taken into account. We say that the police should not cost more than $50,000. That is as much as we can afford. And we are not disposed to submit quietly to the paying of $30,000 for such improvements as the new digging in Rutledge street. There is only one way in which the city can get out of the financial straits. Without increasing the gross amount raised by taxation, we must pay the interest on the city debt and create a sinking fund for its redemption. We must come down to the roots. If we cannot afford one hundred policemen, we will take fifty or twenty-five. If the lights cost too much, we must take less of them. The city expenses must be regulated, by the means of the people, and not by their whims. Taxation and expenses must both be reduced. The present Council will not do it. Their successors will if they keep the pledges which secure their election.

SAVANNAH AND CHARLESTON RAILROAD.—The treasurer of the company, S. W. Fisher, Esq., gives notice in another column of the payment of the March interest on its bonds.

AWAITING TRIAL.—Jack Holloway, colored, and Fanny O'Brien, white, were brought before Trial Justice McKinlay yesterday afternoon, on the charge of assaulting Mr. Combs, the residence in Aiken's Row of a large quantity of dry goods, and the latter for receiving the same. A rigid examination, Jack was committed to jail, and the other was bound over, to await their trial at the Court of General Sessions.

THE SENSATION BURGALAR ACQUITTED.—John H. Lewis, whose recent arrest on the charge of burglary and larceny was so well ventilated in the public prints of yesterday, was brought before Trial Justice Schroder yesterday morning for examination, but, strange to tell, none of his numerous victims appeared against him. The examination was postponed until the afternoon, to allow the witnesses to be brought in, but, at 4 P. M., none could be found. After taking the evidence of the detectives, and considering the suspicious circumstances attending the actions of the prisoner, the Justice decided that the evidence against him was only circumstantial, and not sufficient to warrant his detention for trial. He was, therefore, discharged, but kept about the Detective office until evening, when he was escorted up to the South Carolina Railroad Depot by an officer and carefully placed on the train. He is now supposed to be on his way to the far West, and, before leaving, was exuberant in his thanks for the kind and courteous treatment which he has received from the detective officers.

CHURCH BURST AT SOCIETY HILL.—On Friday morning last, about two hours before daylight, the colored Baptist Church at Society Hill, Darlington County, took fire, and was burnt to the ground. The flames obtained the mastery so rapidly that although every effort was made nothing was saved—not even the Bible on the pulpit stand. The general impression, both among whites and negroes, is that the fire was the work of an incendiary, and that the perpetrators were dissatisfied members of the congregation, being a party opposed to the incumbent, Rev. James Hamilton, formerly of Philadelphia, but now postmaster and pastor of the colored Baptist Church at Society Hill. The citizens manifested considerable regret and sympathy, and made offers of other buildings in the neighborhood, suitable for temporary worship, free of charge. The feeling between the two races is altogether cordial, and although the inevitable E. K. K. has been hinted at (no doubt by the guilty parties) as being at the bottom of it, as of all other deeds of darkness, we are pleased to observe that such insinuations find no credence with either white or colored in the vicinity.

UNITED STATES COURT.—The District Court was opened at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, his Honor Judge Bryan presiding. The appointment of Samuel B. Clowney as assignee of Charles W. Faucett was approved by the court.

The order granted on the 21st instant in the case of Benjamin Sanders vs. W. C. P. Bellinger and W. H. Bellinger, restraining the sheriff from proceeding in the levy made under the judgment of S. B. Sanders against the said W. C. P. Bellinger and W. H. Bellinger, was rescinded.

IN ADULTERY. The court resumed the consideration of the bill for possession filed by Alberger & Co. et al and G. B. Keilam et al, against the bark Kedar. After argument by T. G. Barker, Esq., for Alberger & Co. et al, and General James Conner contra Judge Bryan gave a decision that the action of George W. Clark, Esq., collector of customs, in giving the papers of the S. T. Souder, and in changing the register of the vessel, was illegal, and therefore declared null, and that the parties be restored to their original position.—i. e., Captain Charles A. French's name be restored to the register, and he be placed in possession as master of the bark.

The court then adjourned until 10 o'clock this morning.

THE MASS MEETING.

On Thursday night last, the dwelling of Mr. William D. Rowe, nearly opposite the Baptist Church, took fire and was burned down. Most of the furniture was saved, but the building, which was a valuable one, and part of the furniture, were consumed. The general impression seems to be that the fire was accidental.

THE MASS MEETING. CHARLESTON, February 28, 1871. TO THE EDITOR OF THE NEWS. In a city paper of Monday evening, a call appears for a mass meeting of the citizens, to be held this evening, signed by a few individuals, among whom is my name. I do not object to my name, as I signed the call, but did so with the understanding that it was to be signed by business men of influence generally, and only insert this note to disclaim against any such presumption on my part as assuming to speak for the business community of such a city as Charleston. It is not my idea of propriety or right. Very respectfully, sir, M. R. DELANY.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

NEW YORK LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.—TWENTY-SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT.—The company closes its twenty-sixth year of prosperity with cash assets amounting to nearly sixteen million dollars, an increase in one year of nearly three millions; and all this accumulation was made notwithstanding over a million and a quarter have been paid out on losses by death. This company has the credit of originating the endowment policy and making it non-forfeitable; and under the judicious financial management of its officers, this method of insurance has become the most popular. It may be well accepted as a fact that the officers of this company attend to the interests of those who place trust in them. Among the list of trustees we can find only the names of those whose business habits incline them to rigidly enforce the duties with which they are charged. With the affairs of such companies the minds of our legislators will rest at ease; and when we write upon the interesting subject of life insurance we shall feel disposed to take the twenty-sixth report of the New York Life as our text. Thos. Frost, general agent, No. 54 Broad street, Charleston, S. C.

LIENS OF CARPENTERS AND BRICKLAYERS.—Several of the laborers employed by the late Mr. Knuff in the erection of the house of Mr. Nimitz, on East Bay, recently brought suit against Mr. Nimitz, before Trial Justice Northrup, for the arrears of wages due them at the death of Mr. Knuff, and for damages caused by their want of employment while awaiting employment. The justice decided that they had no lien on the building for their wages as they had not complied with the requirements of the statute, and that any promise on the part of Mr. Knuff to answer for the debts of Mr. Knuff must, by the statute of frauds, be in writing, and that mere words that he would get the laborers to finish the work, as soon as the contract was turned over to him, did not render Mr. Nimitz liable for any loss of time.
