A dozen engagements I've broken;
I left in the milist of a set;
Likewise a proposal, half spoken,
That waits-on the stairs-for me yet;
They say he'll be rich—when he grows up—
And then he adores me indeed,
And you, sir, are turning your nose up. And then he atturning your nose to And you, sir, are turning your nose to Three thousand miles off as you re

"And how do I like my position?"
"And what do I think of New York?"
"And yow, in my higher ambition, with whom do I waltz first, or talk?" "And isa't it nice to have riches, And diamonds, and siks, and all that 2" And aren't these a change to the ditches

Well, yes—if you saw us out driving Each day in the park, four-in-hand, if you saw poor dear mamma contriving To look supernaturally grand— If you saw papa's ploture, as By Brady, and tinted at the d never suspect he sold bacon And flour at Poverty Flat.

And yet, just this moment, when sitting
In the glare of the grand chandeller—
In the bustle and gluter bedtting
The "finest soiree of the year"—
In the midst of a gauze de Chambery,
And the hum of the smallest of talk—
Somehow, Joe, I thought of "The Ferry,"
And the dance that they had on "The Fork."

Of Harrison's barn, with 15 muster
Of flage festooned o'er the wall;
Of the candles that shed their soft lustre
And tallow on head-dress and shawl;
Of the steps that we took to one fiddle;
Of the dress of my queer vis-a-vis;
And how' I once went down the middle
With the man that shot Sandy McGee.

Of the moon that was quietly sleeping. On the hill, when the time came to go of the few baby peaks that were peeping From under their bed-clothes of snow; Of that ride, that to me was the rarest "the best-paying lead in the State."

Well, it's past; yet it's wondrously funny
To think, as I stood in the glaze
of fashi in and beauty and money.
That I should be thinking, right there,
If some one who breasted high water,
And swam the North Fork, and all that,
Just to dance with Old Folinsbee's daughter,
The Lily of Poverty Flat.

But, goodness! what nonsense I'm writing (Mamma says my taste still is low,) Insteac of my triumpha rectting,
'I'm spooning on Jeseph—heigh-ho!
And I'm to be "finished" by travel—
Whatays's the meaning of that—

Good night—here's the end of my paper;
Good night—if the lengtude please—
For maybe, while wasting my taper,
Four sun's climbing over the trees.
But know, if you haven't got riches,
And are poor, dearest Jue, and all that,
That my heart's somewhere there in the
And varies struck it—on Poverty Flat: And you've struck it—on Poverty Flat:

HAVE PREPARED A SPECIAL FERTILIZER ADAPTED TO THE COTTON PLANT, UNDER

COTTON FOOD! WHICH THEY CLAIM TO BE OF THE HIGHEST GRADE OF FERTILIZERS SOLD IN THE SOUTH,

EQUAL IN ITS RESULTS TO PERUVIAN GUANO, AND OF MORE PERMANENT

It has been used by SEVERAL HUNDRED PLANTERS in North and South Carolina and Georgia, for two Seasons, with the following results: IT INCREASES THE CROP FROM 100 TO 200 PER CENT.

It resists drought in all cases. The crop is not affected by rust.

It resists drought in all cases. The crop is not affected by rust.

It matures the crop three to four weeks in advance, thus insuring the crop against early frosts, or in the event of a backward season for planting enthies the planter to put in his crop three or four weeks later, even as late as the lat of June, with a certainty of success.

It produces a better quality of Cotton.

Looking at the low price of Cotton, the intelligent planter will readily comprehend the necessity of using nothing but the highest grade of Fert-lizers, and of strictly avoiding those whose value has been reduced by adulteration or the use of cheap materials under pretence of meeting the low price of Cotton.

If his crop is only doubled by the use of "COTTON FOOD" it will give him from one to two hun-

If his crop is only doubled by the use of "COTTON FOOD" it will give him from one to two hundred her cent, profit on his outlay, with Cotton at 12% cents per pound, and it will enable him to plant fewer acres with a corresponding reduction of labor and expense with better results.
