THE GRAMAN LADIES' BALL .- After a long interval of silence the Hibernian Hall once more bloomed last evening into mirth and enjoyment of themy sterious doings of the magical DeCastro, now supported a fine band, and as the attains of mellow music noated through the hall, happy hearts and impetient less beat responsive to its notes. The dancing begun at an early hour, and and wanting at German festivities. Dreamy waltzes, vivacious polkas and piquant schottische ucceeded each other in pleasurable vari-ty, and knew or cared how rapidly the dark hours of night were slipping away. A large attendance on the part of the ladies insured the success, o the entertainment, and all enjoyed themselves with hearty good will. The committee were omnt, and attended to the wants and forth of their guests with all possible kind use and courtesy The ball, in fine, was one of the most enjoyable ones of the season, and in all of its appointments was well worthy as the society under whose patronage it was given.

The steam er Fannie arrived shorty after, and her decks were soon crowded with the excusionists. The steamer eded to Fort Sumter, Morris and Sullivan Island, and other points of historic interest around the harbor, which were viewed with much pleasure by our Northern and Western visitors. The party then went up to the site of the New Bridge on the Ashler, and returning around the Battery, ascended the Cooper River beyond the suburbs of the city. The weather

A CHALLENGE. 10. 05:00 To all Honest Men in the Republican Brutal Attack upon Two White Men

1st. We challenge you to find, in all the world, a body of men more ignorant, corrupt and dishonest, closed to onice by baser france, or sustained in power by a tyrauny more destruc-tive of every principle of true republicanism, han the present Republican State government so called) which now rules with despotic sway over the destinies of the unfortunate people of South Carolina.

2d. We challenge proof that any other party than the Republican majority in Congress is chargeable with being the PRIME CAUSE of the troubles that now afflict the people of South Car-sound reason why the imposition of such a State overnment as we nowhave should be quietly subnitted to by the people of SOUTH CAROLINA. THE COMMON PLEAS.—The juries will be or ganized in this court to-day, and such cases on the process dockets tried as may be ready. ASSAULT AND BATTERY.-Rose Fraser, a colored woman, was tried before Trial Justice Levy, yesterday afternoon, for beating Martha White on the head with her fist. The prisoner was found guilty, and sent to jail for ten days.

For Trial. Pat. Callahan, who was arrested on Sunday night for cetting a colored man named Rutledge with a knife, was examined before Trial Justice Schroder yesterday morning. The offence was clearly established, and the prisoner was released on $600 bail to appear for trial at the next Court of General Sessions on the charge of assault with intent to kill.

CLURS AND STARS. -Of four men arrested proprietress's chest with a hatchet which he had, for being drunk and disorderly on the street, two were discharged and two were sentenced to pay a fine sist or go to the House of Gorrection for five days. Or the two latter, one paid up and the other went to the House.

Two colored women, arrested for allowing the chimney of their premises, No. 143 Market street, torcatch fire, were examined and discharged.

MR. MARTIN MEYER, the proprietor of the popular saloon, No. 113 East Bay, died suddenly yesterday morning of disease of the heart. Mr. Meyer was a native of Germany, and emigrated at 8 o'clock on Thursday night, the 30th instant, to this country from his home-gear Bremen of the twenty-five years ago. He was the proprietor, just before the petr of the well known Marion Confee House, at the corner of East Bay and Unity alley, where he stood his ground until forced to follow his customers by the thickly falling messengers of Mr. Gilmore. Soon after, the close of the war he opened his saloon on East Bay, where his burly form became one of the local institutions. Mr. Meyer was a very large man weighing near four hundred pounds avoirdepois, and had a heart and kindly feelings in proportion to

LAND AND IMMIGRATION ASSOCIATION. -Gene ral M. C. Butler, Mr. John Chadwick and General M. W. Gary have entered into an association for the purpose of introducing immigrants into Sout Carolina, and have matured a plan of operations which will, it is believed, insure the success o their operations. Land-owners are requested to place their surplus lands in the hands of the assoclation to be sold to intending immigrants. For selling the lands the association will charge a resagnable commission. The gentlemen now as sociated together in the good cause need no re ommendation in South Oarolina, and their names and reputation will doubtless give to their undertaking that public c nudence which is one of the most essential elements of success.

Supply State. The swertty of the rale, gray joins, Conwayour for T Laby, Colum-which blew without intermission all day Sunday, bia; Jas. White, Darlington. was something unusual for a March wind, and several mishaps occurred in different parts of the city. The clouds of blinding dust which swept down he streets, the exciting chases after spinning hats. the falling fences-alls howed a thorough blustering day. The unlucky window awnings that were left spread, several of which were to be seen to the windows of the Fireproof building, were speedily torn and twisted out of shape, and in one instance up town a serious accident occurred.
The whole front of a wooden building at the corner of Roders's alley and King street was torn off Trim Houston, Lexington; G. H. Cornelson, Or and thrown some distance into the street. The angeburg; J. Allen Duncan, Barnwell; T. M. John inhabitants, a colored family, were all at home, ston, S. D. Shannon, Benj. E. Holloway, city; R. and, thinking that the whole house was coming down, went out in a harry. The building is a E. Cohen, city. and a half story house, and not in the best of repair. It is owned by Mr. Wilson.

THE STATE COURT .- In accordance with the order issued some time back, a special term of the Court of Common Pleas began to be holden yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, his Honor Judge Graham presiding. The names of the jurors drawn for this term were called, and ten answered, twenty-one being absent. Two of those asswering were afterwards excused, and the speriff was ordered to summon twenty three additional jurors to appear on the 28th instant, at 10 o'clock A. M.

The following are the jurers who were present: J. P. Retis, Peter Lee, Stephen D. Kirk, J. M. Reb-sen, Jno. R. Campbell, colored, Jao. McDall, colored, F. W. Bensamon, Jno. B. Morris, colored, Wm. Emmerly, colored, and J. J. Monaghan.

The issue, process and inquiry dockets for the city and country were sounded, and the cases assigned for trial struck of or continued. A large number of the members of the bar were present and the calling of the dockets occupied until half-

His Honor gave notice that the trial of cases or the city issue docket would commence on Wednesday—calling fifteen cases a day. The court then adjourned until 10 o'clock this

THE STEAMSHIP FALCON. -To the surprise of most persons this ateamer was released from the breakers near Morris Island beach, on Sunday evening about 8 P. M., and came up to the city diving the night. At the time of her escape from the dangerous position no aid was at hand, and she came off by the working of her engine, the assistance of her canvas and a kedge. The staunch manner in which she has sustained herself during two days' trial among the breakers, is the best evidence of the strength of her hull. She bears no outward mark of damage, but has lost about one-third of her cargo, and has some inforto the machinery, arising from the getting in of the sand among the works during the time the engine was in motion among the breakers. The li-t of consignees will be found under the

The following is the report of John F. Harnie, master, of stempship Falcon, of Bultimore of Fig. At 9 O'clock P. M. on Friday night, the steamer Falcon, after a very busiterons massage. At 8 o'clock P. M. on Friday night, the steamer Falcon, after a very boosterons passage, crossed Charleston bar, and on account of the recent changes in the lights, passed too far to the westward and got on the Folly Breakers. The mate and four men were immediately dispatched up to the city, and the agents, Mesers Mordec i & Co., and P. C. Trennolm, with great promptness, dispatched the steamer Pitot Boy, Captain Sly, with men sufficient to render all useful assistance. The Pilos Boy succeeded in getting a hawser to the Falcon, and the steam-tug Emma getting a line to the Piloy Boy to hold her up. they began to pull, and, after several menocessful efforts gave it up. The steamer Emilie and tugs Staples and Reifer also came down, but did nothing on Saturiay morning, the 25th March. At night, the steamer Emilie came down and gave us a hawser, but did not pull at us. The Pil t Boy and tugs also were there, but from some cause urknown to me no attempt was made to communicate with the ship, or to assist her off, except running the hawser from the Emilie. On the cause are morning the Pilot Roy Relief and Staaround the Battery, ascended the Cooper River beyond the suburbs of the city. The weather was fine, and the excursionsts had fair opportunities of viewing the city from every point.

The excursion was in charge of Messrs. S. B.
Pickens, S. C. Boylston and P. L. Clearor, and returned at 2 o'clock, being one of the pleasantest affairs of the kind. After experiencing the hospitalities of our hosts of the Charleston and MillisHouse conveyances were put in requisition, and the delegates were soon to be seen driving on the Battery and along our principal streets in the pleasant spring evening. Numb. we doubt

Escape. A brutal attack, wholly without provocation, Toomer, of King Street Car, No. 1, at about 8 o'cluck, last night. The offenders were a company of negro militis, armed to the teeth with improved rifles and fixed bayonets.

It appears that car No. 1 was going up Kingstreet, when it overtook the company of negro militiamen, who were marching on the track. The car halted three times to allow the black guard to get out of the way, and the car being then behind time, the conductor rang the bell for the driver to go shead. Instantly the militiamen, cursing like demons, surrounded the car, brandishing their weapons over the head of the driver. One squad seized the horse and dragged k to the side of the car. The driver stood to his post and was then struck over the hand with a clubbed rifie. This blow cut the hand badly and disabled the driver. The conductor ran to his assistance and helped him into the car. Now the militiamen turned upon the conductor and struck him heavily upon the shoulder. Those of the militia who could not reach the car with their bayonets, then opened an active fire with brickbats. With these missiles some of the car windows were smashed to pieces. The militia were now thoroughly aroused, but were tened down by an officer of police. His arrival saved the conductor and driver from worse ridlence and the car from destruction. As soon as the road was clear the conductor and driver SINBAD.—Lydia Thompson, and her beau-cous blondes made their bow at the Academy last night to a very full house; and rately have we seen a better pleased and more thoroughly satisfled audience. The troupe fairly vindicated its claim to be the best and completest organization of the kind that has yet been seen out of New York. The music is excellent, the dresses are rich and brilliant, and the company shows the good effect of long and careful training. Becket and Edonin are capital low comedians, and Mis-Lydia, though a host in herself, has formidable rivals in several of her sister blondes. The dancing of Edouin and the gags of Beckett -especially one in reference to the Port Royal Railroadwere received with the most uproarious applaus We may add that there was nothing in any part of the performances which could offend the most fastidious. Sinbad will be repeated for the las time this evening. Seats can be secured without extra charge.

THE COLLEGE COMMENCEMENT.-The annua xhibition commencement of the Charleston College takes place this evening, at 8 o'clock. Orations will be delivered by the members of the graduating class, Mesers, Alfred Hancket, D. E. luger Wilkinson and Langdon Cheves, after which the annual oration before the Alumni Association will be delivered by the Hon. W. D. Perter. The occasion, which is always interesting to the citisens of Charleston, presents more than ordinary attractions, and a large attendance from the ladies Js desirable.

As much confusion has existed respecting the place of holding the commencement exercises, we refer our readers to the advertisement of the secre tary of the faculty, by which it will appear that the Hibernian Hall has been at last determined upon

The foregoing analysis authorizes us to pro-nounce "Bowen & Mercer's" Phosphate a well-balanced and reliable manne, The amount of Ammonia which it contains in aid of that sup-plied from natural sources, furnishes a sufficient stimulus for promoting the growth and maintain-ing the vigor of the plant; while its liberal supply of Soluble Phosphoric Actor in combination with lines must days a satisfactory fruitage for the ing the vigor of the property of Soluble Phosphoric Acid-in combination with Lime, must give a satisfactory fruitage for the direct year. The insoluble Phosphate of the same base, by slow chemical changes, subsequently going on in the soil, will increase its capability for producing a better crop for the succeeding year.
