GERMAN TUITION .- Mr. Edward C. Stiel, a native of Prussia and a graduate of the University of Breslau in Silesia, proposes to teach Geran, in classes, in this city. Mr. Stiel is strongly recommended as a capable teacher, and his terms will be found to be exceedingly moderate. His present address is the Mansion House, in Broad

THE THEFT OF SEA ISLAND COTTON.—It is claimed by Constable Vanderhorst that he can bring overwhelming proof to show that neither Sergeant Reid nor any other officer had anything to do with the selzure or the two pockets of sea island cotton, or with the arrest of the supposed thief, as reported in the public prints of yester-

UNITED STATES COMMISSIONER, The mate of the ship Missouri, after having been examined already in two cases for the same offence upon two different seamen, was brought before Commissioner Porteous yesterday morning and examined on a charge of maltreatment, made against him by a third seaman. The offer not only not established, but the alleged beating was disproved, and the prisoner was forthwith

WM. P. PATTERSON.-This well-known citizen of Charleston, for many years a master mechanic, died, suddeniv at his residence yesterday morning, after a few hours' illness. Mr. Pattergine Company, and for several years past has been an honorary member of that organization. As a mechanic, he was always held in high esteem among the workingmen of the city, to whom an intimate association for a long number of years has made known the sterling traits of his character. His loss will be deeply felt in the present

STONEWALL JACKSON .- Mr. James Bradley, the agent for Bostwick & Winter, the Cincinnati publishers for the Art Union, is now in this city for the purpose of selling (by subscription only) a spindid steel engraving of General Stonewall Jackson, of a style and size to match hat of General Lee, issued by the same publishers, and o which many copies found a redy sale in Charles ton. The portrait of General Jackson is life-size. and the adelity of the likeness is vouched for by General R. H. Anderson and other well known officers who were intimately associated with General Jackson in the Confederate service.

In Court.-Between 11 and 12 o'clock on Thursday night a fight occurred between several men who were spending the evening at a house in Comperland street kent by a woman reloiding in the soubriquet of Queen Elizabeth. In the melee one of the party struck another over the head with a slung shot, giving him a severe cut. The parties were arrested by Officer Daly, and he of the broken head having taken out a warrant, brought the hero of the slung shot before Trial Instice Mackey on the charge of assault and bat tery. The case was clearly proven, and the prisoner was sentenced to pay a fine of $5 and costs or go to jail for twenty days. He paid up.

THE MUD-HOLE SWAMP, OTHERWISE RCT-LEDGE AVENUE.-It is reported that the municiproposed park at the corner of Calhoun and Ent ledge avenue, and will commence operations for reclaiming the . Mud-hole Swamp, commonly called Rutledge avenue. This swamp about ds in deep holes, where horses sink up to the body, and stray pedestrians are altogether lost to sight. The rails of the City Railroad Company hold good so so far, but may be expected to sink at an early day into the middle of next week. It would take half a dozen fire engines to pump out the middy water lying betwhen Vanderhorst and Calhoun and all the flats on the river might obtain a ful load of semi-liquid mud.

Why is this thus? There is money in the treasury to spend on public parks. Cannot a little be spared for the Rutledge avenue swamp?

CLUBS AND STARS. James Gallagher, arrested for being drunk and unable, to take care of himself, in Beaufain street, was sentenced to pay a fine of $5, or spend five days in the House of Edward Hunter, one of the partners in the late cotton robbery, has turned State's evidence, and confirms the statement of the theft and modus operands published jesterday.

Two large carving knives, a carving fork and one dozen table forks and knives were recovered yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, by Lieutenant Philippy, and are at the Detective office awaiting identification.

THE STATE CIRCUIT COURT,-The Court of Common Pleas was opened yesterday morning, The city process docket was called and heard as far as practicable, but in many cases the witnesses having been summoned for to-day, his Honor deferred the further call of the docket until this morning. The case of Wiecking vs. Zanoga was referred to a special referee to ascertain the issues of law and fact involved.

The appeal in the case of Brown vs. Arnold was and the decree of the trial justice

It was also decided, on an appeal from a trial justice that either plaintiff or defendant could demand's jury trial in civil suits, but, in such case, the party demanding the jury was obliged to pay beforehand the sum of twenty-five cents to FREAKS OF THE FROLICSOME. Between 2 and 3 o'clock yesterday morning a party of young men, who have managed to escape detection wound up a frolic by walking down Meeting street and pulling up every one of the trees which were planted of late by the city authorities on the right hand side of Meeting street going down. The process seems to have been most amusing, for arriving at the Battery they turned down South Battery and continued their work of destruction as far as King street. The frees were all carefully placed transversely across the street so as to be in the way of any horse or vehicle going by before morning. This old-fashicned bit of facetiousness has long become a tradition of the past, and if they had been caught a reasonable term in the House of Correction would reach these gay and festive spirits he serious nature of their trespass. The trees have, with a few exceptions, been re placed in an upright position, but it is feared that most of them will not take root a second time. It is rumored that this shadowy loke was perpe traffed by several young men from a neighboring State, who are by this time safe in a sister city and laughing at the freak.

APRIL FOOL'S DAY.

The Time of Jest and Joke

The world, by common consent, devotes one day of the year to tricks, practical jokes, and other trifling devices, whereby the first of April is fooled away. What is the reason that this day has thus been set apart from time immemorial nobody knows, and therefore all learned scholars, particularly those of antiquarian tastes, speculate largely on the point. It is but just, however, that the fools, who outnumber the saints in a degree which baffles arithmetic, should have one day set apart and consecrated by tradition and old usage to the grotesque pursuits of folly. The saints have an immense number of days, and the fools but one. It is reaenable, therefore, that they should enjoy it with energy, and enact as much folly between the rising of its sun and the going down thereof as ole. Not that they wholly intermit folly on other days if they were brayed in a mortar they would not do that-but on this anniversary they claim entire absolution therefor. As a matter of consistency, it ought, perhaps, to be settled as a principle that laws passed, bargains made, or declarations of love uttered today, should be of no binding force or validity. The man who cut his father's throat on the first of April, and pleaded in justification thereof that he only did it to fool the old gentleman, exhibited a liceral sense of the privileges of the day; and, although they hung him, the principle which he sought to establish is one which would materially widen the scope and multiply the opportunities which belong to the anniversary.

The day is one of delusions. On this day we may look for a plentiful crop of radical promises, made only to be broken. City Council will pro-The unpaid teachers in the public schools will dream of checks and greenbacks. All South Carotina will hearken to the chorus-for this day only of amendment and reformation. And when we wake to-morrow-fooled twice more, it may be-we shall have given one other day to jest and mirth, and, if not wiser, shall be no sadder than we were on the gloomy yester eve.

The worst of it is that news of an exceptional haracter, even if it should happen to be true, is apt to be discredited; so that whatever pretty things we hear to day, the world will regard with as much incredulity as Dr. Johnson regarded the news of the earthquake at Lisbon.,

THE SHOOTING APPRAY ON THE RACE COURSE It was stated in THE NEWS, resterday, that Mason, the colored man held for shooting Mr. Finley at the Rice Course, was balled out after consultation with the solicitor and attendant physician. We are authorized by Dr. Davega to state that his opinion given at the time referred to, was to this effect, namely, that the wounded man was critically ill, and it was impossible for him to say at the moment how the injury would result. This explanation is made to exonerate the doctor from any blame which may attach to the release of a prisoner before it is definitely known whether his victim will survive or die.

HATIMELY JOSTLING .- At the early hour of 2 o'clock, yesterday morning, as an esteemed nember of the typographical fraternity was wending his way homeward, through the Market, from his labors on East Bay, he was met at the corner of Meeting street by three men, who jostled him with some violence. Seeing that the men were drunk he pursued his way, but was overtaken by the party in Market street and again jostled more violently than before. Thinking the three wanted to rob him, he called for the police, and at the sound the trio gave leg ball down the street. A hot pursuit was instituted, and they were overtaken in Archdale street. The police here succeeded in arresting the guilty parties, who were brought before the Mayor and sentence each to pay a fine of $5, or spend ten days in the ction. A warrant has also been issued for their arrest on the charge of assaul and battery, by a trial justice.

THE DARRELL EXCITEMENT As our readers. have already been informed, the amount of hall of Frank Mason and Wm. Darrell, the in the case of Frank Mason and Wm. Darrell, the parties implicated in the shooting of Mr. Thomas Finley, at the Race Course, was fixed at $5000 in each case, and Thursday afternoon Mason was eleased on his producing sufficient surcties. Darrell not being so successful, was again committed to jail. A report, was circulated yesterday that Trial Justice McKiniay had refused to take the ball in the case of the last mentioned prisoner, and between 12 and I o'clock a large and excited Justice McKinlay's office, in the rear of the Courthouse. The report originated in the fact that the trial justice had refused a man whom he did not leem sufficient surety alone on a bond of $5000. Colonel Seymour came out and explained the circumstances, of the case, and at length the crowd quietly dispersed. Darrell has not yet been bailed. Mr. Thomas F nley, the only victim of the Race Course row, is still dang rossly ill at his residence, No. 67 King street, but his condition is slowly improving.

'A HANDSOME MACHINE. The new steamer of the Vigilant Pire Engine Company arrived early resterday morning from New York on the teamship James adger, and was taken up to the engine house, in State street. The engine is made by the Silsby Manufacturing Company, of Seneca Fails, New York, and is of the same build as the Young America, though considerably smaller, being a small (third class engine. She weighs four thousand pound, when all rigged for business, while the Toung America weighs six thou sand three hundred pounds. The "Little Glant," which is the pet name of the Vigilants, has a ro tary pump and engine, and runs on light iron wheels, which seem to be the perfection of strength and neatness. The workmanship is pe-cularly fine, and successfully combines the advantages of strength and durability with as little weight as possible. The company is one of the oldest and most popular in our volunteer Fire Department, and its records show numerous triumphs in contests of rapidity and skill in the handling of their old machine. The beautiful one they now possess is an acquisition to our city, and cannot be in better hands. The company invite their friends and the mem-bers of the Fire Department to inspect the "Little Giant" as she stands in the engine house.

They commence investigations to-day of the State treasurer's books. The examination of these accounts will probably keep the committee in ses sion between three and four months."

They are ground under their own supervision, from minute Crystal Pebbles, melted together, and derive their name. "Diamond," on account of their hardness and brilliancy.

The scientitic principle on which they are constructed brings the core or centre of the lens directly in front of the eye, producing a clear and distinct vision, as in the natural, healthy sight, and preventing all unpleasant sensations, such as glimmering and wavering of sight, dizziness, &c., peculiar to all others in use.

They are mounted in the finest manner, in frames of the best quality, of all materials used for that purpose. Their daish and durability cannot be surpassed.
