THE SOUTH CAROLINA MEDICAL THE CHARLESTON BOARD OF TRADE. Fifth Annivers

> The fifth anniversary of the Charleston Board of Trade was celebrated yesterday. The polls were open between the hours of 1 and 4 P. M .. and during the same hours a collation was serv ed. This collation might just as well have been called a dinner. It comprised all the delicacies and substantial viands to be found in the market, and did great credit to the caterer, Mr. Louis Kenacke, already well-known to fame as a cordon bles of the cuisine. The collation was the only circumstance which broke the monotony of the vote for officers of the board. There was a charmng-unanimity of seniment, and only one set o andidates was presented to the members. At night the business meeting was held, and the newly elected officers were installed. healthy tone characterized the proceedings. The members seemed determined that they would not rest content with the fact that they have the finest club-house and reading rooms in Charleston. They appeared to realize, in a practical way that they must work for the good of the city, and efore all like bodies in America. The member evidently mean work, and their new officers, it is not doubted, will spur them on in the race of comnercial usefulness. With a new year, the board turn over a new leaf. Long may they wave ! THE ANNUAL MEETING.

eting, which was largely attended, was called to order by the vice-president, G. H. Walter, Esq., After the reading and confirmation of the minutes of last regular and two special eetings, letters of resignation from Messrs. Thaddens Street and Ellison A. Smythe were read and received, and Messrs. R. E. Brown, George E. Gibbes and Jose Jars were elected members Reports from the board of trustees, committee on accounts and treasurer were read. The trustees report shows that the number of members at the present time is two hundred and ninety-five, and that the expenses for the past year amounted to 36255 25. It also recommended that the constitution be amended by striking out the clause in Rule V. requiring applicants for membership to be engaged in "mercantile" or "commercial" bu siness. The adoption of this amendment was strongly opposed by Messrs. Guiney and Marshall and, after considerable debate, action was finally ostponed.

Resolutions were offered by A. Simonds, Esq. extending the privilege of the use of the clubhouse to the Dental Association, which is about to hold a convention in this city; and, by Mr Marshall, requiring the executive committee to prepare monthly reports, stating the number of bales of cotton, amount of naval stores, rice and phosphates, &c., Shipped from this port, the number of vessels loading for foreign and domestic ports, and what, in their opinion, is necessary to improve the commercial and jobbing trade of Charleston-both of which resolutions were adopt ed. After the adoption of the report, on motion. Mesara, Trepholm, Bollmann, and Willis were ap pointed a committee to inform the newly-electe officers of their election. The president elect, H H. DeLeon, Esq., upon being introduced, was addressed by the chairman, who complimented him upon his election, which he declared was solely due to his personal worth, and the successfu manner in which he had conducted his own private Mairs, and, in conclusion, expressed his belief that, in his hands, the honor and interests of the Board would be entirely safe. Mr. Deleon, upon accepting the gavel, said that there were occasions when tanguage could but feebly express the momptings of the heart, and that this was one of them. "I enter, he said, upon the ardnous duties of my office with the assurance that I can rely upon your confidence and supp rt, which it shall be my earnest endeavor to merit. It will be remembered that this purpose was to throw a safeguard around trade, and this we have, in part, accomplished. Bu much more remains to be done. True, trade has fallen off somewhat but is that to be wondered at when the value of our property has faller from $500,000,000 to $180,000,000, and lustead of $400,000 it now requires $2,000,000 to meet the expenses of the State government; and 'when our legislative halls, instead, as formerly, of being filled with merchants and men of intrinsic worth are now occupied by men who have nothing at stake? It now is your duty, as cutmens and taxpayers, to sake this matter under consideration and carry out such measures against the present taxation, which is only slow confiscation, as will meat the exigencies of the times. When we have thrown is complete safeguard around the commerce of this city, we have accomplished our ob-

ABSTRACTING THE BILLS .- John Doughty and Charles O'Donnell were arrested yesterday afternoon and brought before Trial Justice Ma-grath on the charge of larceny. The two had fallen in, about half past 10 o'clock, with a sailor named James Bennett, on East Bay, who incan tiously displayed a large roll of greenbacks, which he had in his pocket. The party went- to Church and Queen streets, and after numerous drinks, Bennett found himself minus $150. Upon h affidavit a warrant was issued by the trial justice against the two men, in executing which the constable met with considerable resistance from O'Donnell, who attempted to-use his knife. After a partial examination, it was found that another party was implicated, and a warrant being issue for his arrest, the further examination was postponed until to-day. Later in the afternoon George Wellers, the third party, was arrested, and held for examination with the other two.

Spect, your obedient servant, CHAS. A. LEAS, M. D., New York.

No. 26 PINE STERRY, N. Y., Nov. 21, 1867.
UDOLPHO WOLPS, Esq., Present: DEAR SIE—1 have made a chemical examination of a sample of your "Schiedam Schnapps," with the intent of determining of any foreign or injurious substance had been solded to the simple distilled spirits.

The example of the resulted in the concusion

The examination has resulted in the conclusion that he sample contained no poisonous or harmful admixtures. I have been unable to discover any trace of the deleterious substances which are sometimes employed in the acuteration of iquors. I would not hestate to use myself, not to recommend to others, for medicinal purposes, the "Sanf-tam S hnapps" as an excellent and unobjectionable variety of gin. Very respectfully yours, (Signed) CHAS. A. SEELY, Chemist.
