

THE "COUNCIL OF SAFETY."

AN ALLEGED SECRET ORGANIZATION—ITS AIMS AND ITS SYSTEM.

Constitution.
I.—NAME.
Council of Safety.

II.—OBJECTS.
The objects of this organization are, first: To preserve the peace, enforce the laws and protect and defend the persons and property of the good people of this State; and second: To labor for the restoration of constitutional liberty as taught by our forefathers, and to prevent abuses in the government, State and national.

III.—HOW EFFECTED.
Its operations shall be two-fold: 1. Political, social and moral, under the forms of established laws. 2. Physical, according to the recognized principles of the law of self-defence.

IV.—OF COUNCILS.
1. There shall be in every county, (the City of Charleston for this purpose being considered as one county,) one council, to be composed of approved white men above the age of 18 years. They shall be known by the letters of the alphabet.

Each council shall be subdivided into four or more sub-councils, to consist (as far as may be) of not more than ten men each, reference being had in such sub-divisions to the protection of neighborhoods.

After the first organization of a council of more than ten members shall be admitted by a vote of two-thirds of those present at a council meeting, after having been proposed by one councillor and recommended by another.

Before his introduction, an applicant for membership shall give the following pledge, in the presence of five councillors:

"I pledge you my honor as a man, that I shall never reveal anything that I know now, or that hereafter may come to my knowledge, concerning the council or the organization of which it may be a part, unless I shall become a member thereof, and be permitted to do so by the rules, regulations and usages of the council, so help me Almighty God."

Having taken such pledge, he shall be introduced by the five attesting councillors and be received by the council standing, and at the dictation of the superior officer present shall repeat the following pledge, in the presence of Almighty God and these gentlemen, I renew my pledge of secrecy to this council and its associates; and further promise and affirm that I will be true and faithful to the council of Safety, its subordinates and councillors, and obey all its rules and regulations, orders and edicts, coming to my knowledge, and consistent with the articles of the constitution (I and II), as read in my hearing, so help me Almighty God.

He shall then be enrolled by a member, and in all proceedings of the council shall be known and designated by his number. A councillor shall remain a member until honorably or dishonorably discharged by a vote of a majority of his council, or the order of the executive board.

V.—OFFICERS.
1. The officers of a council shall be a chief councillor, a first assistant chief and a second assistant chief, (who shall take precedence in the order in which they are named,) a scribe and a bursar, who shall hold office during good behavior, but subject to removal by a majority of the council, at a regular meeting, upon cause shown, and after a month's notice to the delinquent. But the executive board may, at any time, suspend any officer until he may be tried.

2. The chief councillor shall preside over the council when assembled, and enforce the rules and preserve order with the aid of the assistant chiefs.

3. The assistant chiefs shall aid the chief in enforcing the rules and preserving order, and, in his absence, preside in the order of their precedence.

4. Neither chief nor assistant chief be present at any meeting, a chief pro tempore will be chosen by the councillors present, who shall discharge the duties of the office.

5. The scribe shall keep a record of all that may be written, and extend all orders, notices, or summonses.

6. The bursar shall receive and disburse all funds, as may be directed by the council, and keep a true account of the same.

7. Each sub-council shall elect a sub-chief, who shall discharge the duties of chief councillor in his sub-council, when assembled, and at the council meetings assist in preserving order and enforcing the rules and regulations, and all orders, notices and summonses to his sub-council when required.

VI.—OF GENERAL COUNCILS.
1. There shall be a general council in each county, to consist of two delegates from each council, which shall meet monthly, or on the order of the chief, at the county seat, or other convenient place, to consider and determine all matters pertaining to the safety of the county within the scope of this constitution, and under the rules that may be adopted.

2. The general council shall appoint an office for one year, but delegates shall be subject to the instructions of their respective councils from time to time, and may be removed by them for cause after a hearing in open council.

3. The general council shall appoint a general chief and two assistants, a scribe and bursar, whose precedence and duties shall be as prescribed for similar officers of councils.

4. All communications to and from the supreme council shall be made through the chief or other presiding officer of the general council.

5. The general council, or upon emergency, the chief or other presiding officer thereof, may assemble any or all the councils under its jurisdiction and direct their operations.

6. The general councils shall be numbered and so designated in alphabetical order.

VII.—OF GRAND COUNCILS.
1. There may be assembled, from time to time, at the request of a general council, or by the order of the supreme council, at some convenient place in each Congressional district, a grand council, to consist of two delegates from each general council, and one delegate from each district, to consider and determine such matters as appertain to the general safety of the territory within their jurisdiction.

2. They shall appoint such officers as are prescribed for general councils, who shall exercise within their respective spheres similar duties and authority, to hold office until such grand council shall be dissolved by its own action, or by the direction of the supreme council.

3. Such officers shall have precedence while in office of those of the general councils.

4. The supreme council may dissolve the grand council when the emergency or other cause of its assembling shall have passed away.

VIII.—THE SUPREME COUNCIL.
1. The supreme council shall consist of two (2) delegates from each general council, to be chosen for one year, but subject to removal for cause by the supreme council, or by the general council, by which they are delegated. Said delegates shall be subjected to instructions from their respective general councils, and to the orders of the supreme council.

2. The supreme council shall elect a supreme chief and two assistants, who shall exercise in the supreme council all the duties appertaining to the like officers in the general and other councils, and shall have the right to assume the same duties over any and all the councils assembled on any emergency, in the order of their precedence. The supreme council shall also elect a scribe and bursar, who shall discharge the duties proper to their respective offices for the supreme council.

3. These officers shall continue in office for one year, but shall be liable to be removed for cause by a vote of the majority of the supreme council after a month's notice, and may, in like manner, be suspended from office after charges made pending the hearing.

WAR TO THE KNIFE.

THE REDS THREATEN RETALIATION.

Churches Pillaged by the Mob—All Unmarried Men Ordered into the Ranks—A New Proclamation.

Paris, April 6.—11.30 A. M.
The Versailles troops still hold the height of Chaillon, whence they bombard D'Issy, Vanvres and Meudon. Tuesday was a more disastrous day for the Communists than Monday.

The Communists this forenoon issued another proclamation. A speedy triumph is promised over the "royalists" who have disgraced France by their savage mode of warfare. They are charged with shooting prisoners and murdering the wounded on the field of battle. The battalions of the national guard will be reorganized, and their pay increased. The proclamation announces retaliatory treatment on prisoners, and concludes by ordering all unmarried men into the ranks. A grand review is announced for the 7th instant in the Champ de Mars. The Soleil, Liberte and Nationale newspapers have suspended. The churches of the Madeline and Assumption have been pillaged by the mob. The prices of provisions are rising.

VERSAILLES, April 5.
The insurgents still hold Forts D'Issy and Vanvres, and are resolutely upon the government position at Chaillon. The insurgents attacked Serres Bridge and were repulsed. Disturbances are reported at Limoges.

VERSAILLES, April 6.
The government troops have entered Versailles. They took five hundred prisoners. The insurgent committee fled. Thiers says the government desires, by the effusion of some blood, to convince the insurgents it is in earnest. D'Issy and Vanvres will be attacked. The insurgents are alarmed, and are proscribing each other.

LONDON, April 5.—9.30 P. M.
The Archbishop of Paris has been arrested by the Commune on the charge of conspiracy against the State.

At last advices from Paris cannonading continued. The Peace Conference at Brussels held a session of two hours to-day. One of the French plenipotentiaries has gone to Versailles to consult the government.

General News.
LONDON, April 6.
The physicians report the condition of the Princess of Wales and son satisfactory. The bullion in the Bank of England has increased £88,000.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 6.
A treaty with Turkey for the free navigation of the Black Sea has been signed.

LONDON, April 6.—P. M.
A large French war ship, supposed full of troops, is ashore on the Goodwin Sands. Assistance has been sent.

The Louise Gibson, from Liverpool for Boston, was sunk in a collision with the Great Western. The Great Western returned for repairs, and with one man drowned.

PASSAGE OF THE KU-KLUX BILL.
A Succinct Statement of its Provisions.

WASHINGTON, April 6.
The House passed the modified Ku-Klux bill to-day by a vote of 118 to 91. The following is a succinct statement of the bill as passed, with omissions and additions:

The substitute strikes out the second, third and fourth sections of the original bill. The second section of the original makes it a felony for two or more persons to conspire together to do any act in violation of the rights, privileges and immunities secured by the Constitution of the United States, and punishable in the United States Court.

The third section provides that in all cases of insurrection, domestic violence, unlawful combinations or conspiracies, which so far obstruct the execution of State laws as to deprive any portion or class of people of the rights, privileges and immunities secured by the constitution and laws, and if any State, through its proper authorities fails, or neglects, to apply for national aid, the President may use the national forces to suppress such insurrection, domestic violence, unlawful combinations and conspiracies, and to arrest offenders and deliver them to the marshal of the district.

The fourth section provides that whenever such combinations become so powerful as to overthrow, or set at defiance, the State authorities, or when the punishment of offenders, and the preservation of public safety, shall become impracticable, it shall be deemed a rebellion, and the President may, after proclamation, suspend the privileges of the writ of habeas corpus, which provision shall continue until June 1, 1872.

The substitute for the second section makes it a felony for two or more persons conspiring together to overthrow the government, or to levy war against it, or to oppose, by force, or intimidation, or threat, prevent any person from accepting or holding any federal office, or to prevent him from discharging the duties of the office to leave the State or district where his duties may be lawfully performed, or injure him in his person or property, on account of the lawful discharge of his duties, or threaten or injure a witness or juror in the United States Court, or conspire together to deprive any class of persons of the equal protection of the laws, or of equal privileges and immunities under the laws, or prevent, or hinder, the authorities of the State from securing the full and complete protection of the laws, and confers upon the party injured the right of action for damages. Suits to be brought in the United States Courts.

The substitute for the third section provides that in case of insurrection, domestic violence, unlawful combinations, conspiracies that shall obstruct or hinder the execution of the laws of the State and United States, so as to deprive any class of persons of the rights, privileges and immunities named in the act, and the authorities of the State shall be unable to, or fail from any cause, to afford protection, and shall fail or neglect to apply to the President for aid, such fact shall be deemed a denial of the equal protection of the laws, and it shall be lawful for the President to employ the national forces to suppress such disorders, and to arrest offenders and deliver them to the marshal.

The substitute for the fourth section authorizes the President, after proclamation, to suspend the privileges of the writ of habeas corpus until the 1st June, 1872, whenever in any State the unlawful combination shall be so numerous and powerful as to be able by violence to overthrow, or set at defiance, the authorities of the State, or when the State authorities are in complicity with such combination. All persons arrested under suspen-

WAR TO THE KNIFE.

THE REDS THREATEN RETALIATION.

Churches Pillaged by the Mob—All Unmarried Men Ordered into the Ranks—A New Proclamation.

Paris, April 6.—11.30 A. M.
The Versailles troops still hold the height of Chaillon, whence they bombard D'Issy, Vanvres and Meudon. Tuesday was a more disastrous day for the Communists than Monday.

The Communists this forenoon issued another proclamation. A speedy triumph is promised over the "royalists" who have disgraced France by their savage mode of warfare. They are charged with shooting prisoners and murdering the wounded on the field of battle. The battalions of the national guard will be reorganized, and their pay increased. The proclamation announces retaliatory treatment on prisoners, and concludes by ordering all unmarried men into the ranks. A grand review is announced for the 7th instant in the Champ de Mars. The Soleil, Liberte and Nationale newspapers have suspended. The churches of the Madeline and Assumption have been pillaged by the mob. The prices of provisions are rising.

VERSAILLES, April 5.
The insurgents still hold Forts D'Issy and Vanvres, and are resolutely upon the government position at Chaillon. The insurgents attacked Serres Bridge and were repulsed. Disturbances are reported at Limoges.

VERSAILLES, April 6.
The government troops have entered Versailles. They took five hundred prisoners. The insurgent committee fled. Thiers says the government desires, by the effusion of some blood, to convince the insurgents it is in earnest. D'Issy and Vanvres will be attacked. The insurgents are alarmed, and are proscribing each other.

LONDON, April 5.—9.30 P. M.
The Archbishop of Paris has been arrested by the Commune on the charge of conspiracy against the State.

At last advices from Paris cannonading continued. The Peace Conference at Brussels held a session of two hours to-day. One of the French plenipotentiaries has gone to Versailles to consult the government.

General News.
LONDON, April 6.
The physicians report the condition of the Princess of Wales and son satisfactory. The bullion in the Bank of England has increased £88,000.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 6.
A treaty with Turkey for the free navigation of the Black Sea has been signed.

LONDON, April 6.—P. M.
A large French war ship, supposed full of troops, is ashore on the Goodwin Sands. Assistance has been sent.

The Louise Gibson, from Liverpool for Boston, was sunk in a collision with the Great Western. The Great Western returned for repairs, and with one man drowned.

PASSAGE OF THE KU-KLUX BILL.
A Succinct Statement of its Provisions.

WASHINGTON, April 6.
The House passed the modified Ku-Klux bill to-day by a vote of 118 to 91. The following is a succinct statement of the bill as passed, with omissions and additions:

The substitute strikes out the second, third and fourth sections of the original bill. The second section of the original makes it a felony for two or more persons to conspire together to do any act in violation of the rights, privileges and immunities secured by the Constitution of the United States, and punishable in the United States Court.

The third section provides that in all cases of insurrection, domestic violence, unlawful combinations or conspiracies, which so far obstruct the execution of State laws as to deprive any portion or class of people of the rights, privileges and immunities secured by the constitution and laws, and if any State, through its proper authorities fails, or neglects, to apply for national aid, the President may use the national forces to suppress such insurrection, domestic violence, unlawful combinations and conspiracies, and to arrest offenders and deliver them to the marshal of the district.

The fourth section provides that whenever such combinations become so powerful as to overthrow, or set at defiance, the State authorities, or when the punishment of offenders, and the preservation of public safety, shall become impracticable, it shall be deemed a rebellion, and the President may, after proclamation, suspend the privileges of the writ of habeas corpus, which provision shall continue until June 1, 1872.

The substitute for the second section makes it a felony for two or more persons conspiring together to overthrow the government, or to levy war against it, or to oppose, by force, or intimidation, or threat, prevent any person from accepting or holding any federal office, or to prevent him from discharging the duties of the office to leave the State or district where his duties may be lawfully performed, or injure him in his person or property, on account of the lawful discharge of his duties, or threaten or injure a witness or juror in the United States Court, or conspire together to deprive any class of persons of the equal protection of the laws, or of equal privileges and immunities under the laws, or prevent, or hinder, the authorities of the State from securing the full and complete protection of the laws, and confers upon the party injured the right of action for damages. Suits to be brought in the United States Courts.

The substitute for the third section provides that in case of insurrection, domestic violence, unlawful combinations, conspiracies that shall obstruct or hinder the execution of the laws of the State and United States, so as to deprive any class of persons of the rights, privileges and immunities named in the act, and the authorities of the State shall be unable to, or fail from any cause, to afford protection, and shall fail or neglect to apply to the President for aid, such fact shall be deemed a denial of the equal protection of the laws, and it shall be lawful for the President to employ the national forces to suppress such disorders, and to arrest offenders and deliver them to the marshal.

The substitute for the fourth section authorizes the President, after proclamation, to suspend the privileges of the writ of habeas corpus until the 1st June, 1872, whenever in any State the unlawful combination shall be so numerous and powerful as to be able by violence to overthrow, or set at defiance, the authorities of the State, or when the State authorities are in complicity with such combination. All persons arrested under suspen-

WAR TO THE KNIFE.

THE REDS THREATEN RETALIATION.

Churches Pillaged by the Mob—All Unmarried Men Ordered into the Ranks—A New Proclamation.

Paris, April 6.—11.30 A. M.
The Versailles troops still hold the height of Chaillon, whence they bombard D'Issy, Vanvres and Meudon. Tuesday was a more disastrous day for the Communists than Monday.

The Communists this forenoon issued another proclamation. A speedy triumph is promised over the "royalists" who have disgraced France by their savage mode of warfare. They are charged with shooting prisoners and murdering the wounded on the field of battle. The battalions of the national guard will be reorganized, and their pay increased. The proclamation announces retaliatory treatment on prisoners, and concludes by ordering all unmarried men into the ranks. A grand review is announced for the 7th instant in the Champ de Mars. The Soleil, Liberte and Nationale newspapers have suspended. The churches of the Madeline and Assumption have been pillaged by the mob. The prices of provisions are rising.

VERSAILLES, April 5.
The insurgents still hold Forts D'Issy and Vanvres, and are resolutely upon the government position at Chaillon. The insurgents attacked Serres Bridge and were repulsed. Disturbances are reported at Limoges.

VERSAILLES, April 6.
The government troops have entered Versailles. They took five hundred prisoners. The insurgent committee fled. Thiers says the government desires, by the effusion of some blood, to convince the insurgents it is in earnest. D'Issy and Vanvres will be attacked. The insurgents are alarmed, and are proscribing each other.

LONDON, April 5.—9.30 P. M.
The Archbishop of Paris has been arrested by the Commune on the charge of conspiracy against the State.

At last advices from Paris cannonading continued. The Peace Conference at Brussels held a session of two hours to-day. One of the French plenipotentiaries has gone to Versailles to consult the government.

General News.
LONDON, April 6.
The physicians report the condition of the Princess of Wales and son satisfactory. The bullion in the Bank of England has increased £88,000.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 6.
A treaty with Turkey for the free navigation of the Black Sea has been signed.

LONDON, April 6.—P. M.
A large French war ship, supposed full of troops, is ashore on the Goodwin Sands. Assistance has been sent.

The Louise Gibson, from Liverpool for Boston, was sunk in a collision with the Great Western. The Great Western returned for repairs, and with one man drowned.

PASSAGE OF THE KU-KLUX BILL.
A Succinct Statement of its Provisions.

WASHINGTON, April 6.
The House passed the modified Ku-Klux bill to-day by a vote of 118 to 91. The following is a succinct statement of the bill as passed, with omissions and additions:

The substitute strikes out the second, third and fourth sections of the original bill. The second section of the original makes it a felony for two or more persons to conspire together to do any act in violation of the rights, privileges and immunities secured by the Constitution of the United States, and punishable in the United States Court.

The third section provides that in all cases of insurrection, domestic violence, unlawful combinations or conspiracies, which so far obstruct the execution of State laws as to deprive any portion or class of people of the rights, privileges and immunities secured by the constitution and laws, and if any State, through its proper authorities fails, or neglects, to apply for national aid, the President may use the national forces to suppress such insurrection, domestic violence, unlawful combinations and conspiracies, and to arrest offenders and deliver them to the marshal of the district.

The fourth section provides that whenever such combinations become so powerful as to overthrow, or set at defiance, the State authorities, or when the punishment of offenders, and the preservation of public safety, shall become impracticable, it shall be deemed a rebellion, and the President may, after proclamation, suspend the privileges of the writ of habeas corpus, which provision shall continue until June 1, 1872.

The substitute for the second section makes it a felony for two or more persons conspiring together to overthrow the government, or to levy war against it, or to oppose, by force, or intimidation, or threat, prevent any person from accepting or holding any federal office, or to prevent him from discharging the duties of the office to leave the State or district where his duties may be lawfully performed, or injure him in his person or property, on account of the lawful discharge of his duties, or threaten or injure a witness or juror in the United States Court, or conspire together to deprive any class of persons of the equal protection of the laws, or of equal privileges and immunities under the laws, or prevent, or hinder, the authorities of the State from securing the full and complete protection of the laws, and confers upon the party injured the right of action for damages. Suits to be brought in the United States Courts.

The substitute for the third section provides that in case of insurrection, domestic violence, unlawful combinations, conspiracies that shall obstruct or hinder the execution of the laws of the State and United States, so as to deprive any class of persons of the rights, privileges and immunities named in the act, and the authorities of the State shall be unable to, or fail from any cause, to afford protection, and shall fail or neglect to apply to the President for aid, such fact shall be deemed a denial of the equal protection of the laws, and it shall be lawful for the President to employ the national forces to suppress such disorders, and to arrest offenders and deliver them to the marshal.

The substitute for the fourth section authorizes the President, after proclamation, to suspend the privileges of the writ of habeas corpus until the 1st June, 1872, whenever in any State the unlawful combination shall be so numerous and powerful as to be able by violence to overthrow, or set at defiance, the authorities of the State, or when the State authorities are in complicity with such combination. All persons arrested under suspen-

TESTIMONIALS.

OLD CAROLINA BITTERS.

Read a few of the Testimonials in regard to the EFFICACY of that STEERING MEDICINE, OLD CAROLINA BITTERS.

A few Certificates from the many in our possession from persons who have tested the OLD CAROLINA BITTERS:

FROM THE POSTMASTER AT TUMBLING SHOALS, S. C.
TUMBLING SHOALS, S. C., April 9, 1870.
Messrs. GOODRICH, WINEMAN & CO., Charleston, S. C.
Gentlemen—This is to inform you that about a year ago I was in delicate health, worn out with old age and hard work, weighing one hundred and twenty-five pounds; upon request I commenced using the OLD CAROLINA BITTERS. After using nine bottles, I felt as well and vigorous as thirty years ago—went to work and made money. I weighed, after using the above, one hundred and seventy-two pounds. I have since been strong and hale. Accept, gentlemen, my thanks, and success say to the OLD CAROLINA BITTERS.

(Signed) RANSOM PHILLIPS, P. M., Tumbling Shoals, S. C.

FROM ANDREW CHAMBERS, IRWINGTON, GA.
IRWINGTON, GA., September 25, 1869.
Messrs. GOODRICH, WINEMAN & CO., Charleston, S. C.
Gentlemen—When in your city, two weeks ago, your Dr. Service gave me a bottle of your celebrated OLD CAROLINA BITTERS, which I brought home for my father, whose health was very feeble. After using it he was so well pleased with its effects, that he considers them almost indispensable. Please send enclosed sixteen ($16) the price of two cases; direct them to W. J. Chambers & Son, No. 16, C. R. E. Yards, very respectfully, (Signed) ANDREW CHAMBERS.

ANOTHER VOICE FROM GEORGIA.
FORT VALLEY, GA., September 15, 1869.
Messrs. GOODRICH, WINEMAN & CO., Charleston, S. C.
Gentlemen—I have great pleasure in informing you that my wife has experienced great benefit from the use of the OLD CAROLINA BITTERS. It is certainly a good medicine, and I would be pleased if you would send me another dozen immediately. Respectfully, &c., (Signed) G. A. HOUSER.

Sold by all Druggists in Charleston. The trade supplied by GOODRICH, WINEMAN & CO., Principal Depot, No. 3 Hayne street.

Drugs, Chemicals, &c.

ROSADALIS.

ROSADALIS is the best Blood Purifier. ROSADALIS, a sure cure for Scrofula. ROSADALIS, endorsed by Physicians.

ROSADALIS, a potent remedy for Rheumatism. ROSADALIS, a Remedy tried and true. ROSADALIS, the best Alterative extant.

ROSADALIS endorsed by the following: DR. R. WILSON CARR, of Baltimore. DR. T. C. PUGH, of Baltimore. DR. THOS. J. BOYKIN, of Baltimore. DR. A. DUGAN, of Barbours, W. Va. DR. J. S. SPARKS, of Nicholasville, Ky. DR. A. F. WHEELER, of Lima, Ohio. DR. W. HOLLOWAY, of Philadelphia. DR. J. McARTHUR, of South Carolina, and many others. See ROSADALIS ALMANAC.

ROSADALIS, endorsed by Rev. DANBY BALL, now of Maryland Conference, formerly Chaplain in the Confederate Army of Northern Virginia.

ROSADALIS is Alterative, Tonic and Diuretic, and acts on the late firm of Langlois, Bell & Foster, begs to inform his city and country friends that he will carry on the WHOLESALE MILLINERY AND STRAW GOODS BUSINESS, at No. 141 MEETING STREET. Having just returned from New York with a choice and well selected stock, consisting in part of French FLOWERS, Ribbons, Laces, Velvets, Trimmings and Untrimmed Hats and Bonnets, &c., &c., is prepared to offer the same at prices that will defy competition.

CHAS. A. LENGNIOR, No. 141 MEETING STREET.

ROSADALIS is sold by all DRUGGISTS. Wholesale Agents in Dr. J. BAER, Charleston, S. C.

Fertilizers.

IMPORTANT TO PLANTERS AND FACTORS. MIDDLETON'S FISH AMMONIATED PHOSPHATE.

This excellent brand of Fertilizer comes before the public well recommended, having been prepared with great care, and with the best materials. Its adaptability to the crops of this section is unsurpassed; one evidence of which is the official testimony of Professor SHEPARD, which we annex, as follows:

OFFICE OF THE STATE INSPECTOR OF FERTILIZERS. CHARLESTON, S. C., March 31, 1871. Messrs. J. A. ENSLAW & CO., Agents of Middleton's Fish Ammoniated Phosphate: GENTLEMEN—Enclosed please find the analysis of the sample of Middleton's Fish Ammoniated Phosphate, selected by my assistant from the cargo just arrived.

The large amount of organic matter, rich in ammonia, and the highly soluble condition of the phosphoric acid, are sufficient recommendations for this article. I feel sure that the planter will be benefited by its judicious application to Cotton and other crops.

Respectfully, your obedient servant, (Signed) CHAS. A. LENGNIOR, Jr., Inspector of Fertilizers for South Carolina.

UNIFORMITY OF QUALITY GUARANTEED. PRICES—$50 cash, or for approved acceptance, payable 10 days after receipt. Address J. A. ENSLAW & CO., Agents, No. 141 East Bay, Charleston, S. C. apr5-wfm

THE STONOPHOSPHATE COMPANY

OF THIS CITY, ARE NOW MANUFACTURING THEIR "SOLUBLE GUANO,"

Which will be furnished at $50 cash, or $55 on 12 months next with city acceptance, and their "DISSOLVED PHOSPHATE," for composting with Cotton Seed, at $25 cash, or on 1st November with 10 per cent additional.

"PURE GROUND PHOSPHATE" at $15 cash. Contracts for Fertilizers may be made in exchange for Cotton.

ORDERS SENT WILL RECEIVE PROMPT ATTENTION. J. D. AIKEN, AGENT.

FERTILIZERS. IS CHALLENGED. 100 tons No. 1 PERUVIAN (Chincha) GUANO, warranted pure, and guaranteed to be the best. 1500 bbls. Land Plaster, ground from the best Nova Scotia Rock, and warranted pure. 100 tons Pure Dissolved and Ground Bone. 150 tons White's Vegetable. The Vegetable has been successfully used, and bears a very high reputation. It is second to no other Fertilizer, except Peruvian Guano, offered in this market.

100 tons "Ralston's" Dissolved Bone and Ammonia. 100 bbls. Eastern Island Fish Guano, at $35 per ton of 2000 pounds. T. J. KERR & CO. For sale by febs

SHAMPOOING AND HAIR CUTTING. LADIES AND CHILDREN. Attended at their residences promptly and at reasonable rates. Send orders to W. E. MARSHALL, Barber, Broad street, next door to Telegraph office. jan15-107

Millinery, Dressmaking, &c.

SPRING MILLINERY.

MRS. F. FINLEY, No. 467 KING STREET, (UP STAIRS.) WILL THIS DAY open an assortment of SPRING AND SUMMER MILLINERY, To which she invites the attention of her patrons and the ladies generally. apr3

O P E N E D THIS DAY. A handsome assortment of. SPRING AND SUMMER MILLINERY, Comprising all the NOVELTIES OF THE SEASON.

MRS. M. J. ZERNOW WILL OPEN THIS DAY AT No. 304 KING STREET, A large and varied assortment of MILLINERY GOODS. To which she invites the attention of the ladies in general. DRESSMAKING ATTENDED TO AS USUAL.

BRANCH OF MADAME DEMOREST'S CELEBRATED PAPER PATTERNS. N. B.—All orders receive prompt attention. apr5-wfm

MRS. H. ARMSTRONG Respectfully announces that she will open THIS DAY, AT No. 343 KING STREET, A FINE ASSORTMENT OF MILLINERY.

THE undersigned having withdrawn from the late firm of Langlois, Bell & Foster, begs to inform his city and country friends that he will carry on the WHOLESALE MILLINERY AND STRAW GOODS BUSINESS, at No. 141 MEETING STREET. Having just returned from New York with a choice and well selected stock, consisting in part of French FLOWERS, Ribbons, Laces, Velvets, Trimmings and Untrimmed Hats and Bonnets, &c., &c., is prepared to offer the same at prices that will defy