A common man blesses the sunshine, helighted with beautiful day; But the bloated and horrible gas man

Despises whatever don't pay. All nature to him is but business, The sun does a gas tank appear;
The very stars nothing but burners,
And the moon but a big chandelier.

A satrap, he governs our pockets, Our houses, our shops and our rights; The doctors may fuss with our livers. But he must have charge of our lights.

I read in the life of a gas man, The lessons such people can teach, Prophetic of brimstone and blazes, As plain as a parson can preach.

HIS DRATH. How dreadful the death of a gas man, Surrounded and haunted by those Whom his plundering charges have swindled, Till conscience forbids him repose.

Oh I solemn and awful his passage, with the implements gathered around wherewith he has rained his neighbors. And lit his own home under ground,

The coal and coke and bitumen,
. The acids, the tar and the steam,
The sulphur, the lime and foul cdors,
All thronging his horrible dream.

Detestable stenches surround him. fierce demons in gas pipes appear, False metres rise up and confoun And patent jets hiss in his ear.

If he kicks, both his feet must remind him Of the feet overcharged in his bill; . While the click of the clock, like a metre, Each second must give him a thrill. HEREAFTER.

At length, when his oxygen fails him, He sinks with the folks of his sort, When Satan immediately grabs him, And places vim in a retort.

A steady immand has existed throughout the week, and all received has found ready sale, the market closing firm at $5 for new virgin, $3 35 for yellow dip and $270 for hero, per bol of 280 bbs. Nearly all of last year's crop. has been brought in and all of last year's crop, has been brought in, and the receipts will necessarily be small for some weeks, until time for the new crop to come in. SPIRITS TURPENTINE.—In the earlier part of the week the market for this article ruled very firm, and a slight advance was obtained, closing on Saturday at 480. On Monday, however, there was less disposition to operate at this figure, and during the day sales were made at 47a48c. On Tresday the market opened rather better, 474c being peid, at which it has since ruled quiet but steady up to to-day, (Thursday) when it further declined, closing at 470 with ittle or no stock in factors) hands, and receipts meagre.

Rosin.—In this article we have no new feature to report during the week. Owing to the meagre arrivals, and the want of stock, but very fiftle has been done in the way of sales. There is a fair inquiry for strained and fine grades, and when offered parcels find sale at quotations given in our table—while for other qualities the demand is limited. The market, however, closes to day Thursday) at a decline of 5 cents on strained, with less inquiry from speculators. Several parcels of new crop bale have been brought in, and we learn of sales of about 224 barrels at $5.50, $6.25, $6.50, $7, according to quality.

TAR.—Since our last, the market for this article has ruled with less firmness, and the price has fuctuated—closing steady at $1.75, which is a decline of fully $5 cents for the week. UDDLPHO WOLFE, ESQ., Present: DEAR SIR—I have made a cleenical examination of a sample of your "Schiedam Schnapps," with the intent of determining if any foreign or injurious substance had been added to the simple distilled spirits.

The examination has resulted in the conclusion that the sample contained no poisonous or harmful admixtures. I have been unable to discover any trace of the deleterious substances which are sometimes employed in the adulteration of iquors. I would not hesitate to use myself, nor to recommend to others, for medicinal purposes, the "Schi-dam Schnapps" as an excellent and unobjectionable variety of gin. Very respectfully yours, (Signed). Salvation for the Hair.

PHALON'S "VITALL" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scale; yet it reproduces in gray half the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

Phalon's Vitalia

is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural solor of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressip nor for removing scurf or landruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair .-Thes objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.
