THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS-HON. R. F.

GRAHAM PRESIDING -- The court was occupied Saturday on the equity side in hearing motions and granting orders of no public interest, and adjourned at 2 o'clock sine die. THE STEAMSHIP CHARLESTON .- This favorite ship left her wharf, soon after midday on Saturday, for New York, with the large number of about one hundred cabin passengers, and a fair freight list. The "Adger Line" continues to draw public patronage to a most gratifying extent. COLLEGE AND COLLEGIANS .- We have received an elegant pamphlet copy of the fine address delivered by Hon. William D. Porter on the above subject, before the Alumni Association of the Col lege of Charleston, on the last Commencement Day. The society have thus wisely perpetuat d an oration that is c's inquished not more for its eloquent thoughts than to the beautiful English in which they are arrayed. CONFIRMATION .- This impressive religious

Episcopal Church, in the presence of a crowded and appreciative assembly, the service being performed by the Right Reverend Bishop Davis, assisted by the Reverends W. B. W. Howe and John Johnson, the latter preaching the sermon. About twenty ladies and several gentlemen were con-

THE EXAMINATION AT THE TABERNACLE .-Tee nu merous pupils of the Jewish Sunday-school assembled at the Synagogue yesterday morning and were examined in their Hebrew studies by Mr. Straus, the teacher. This gentleman, but lately arrived in this city, is already a favorite at the school. The juvenile linguists acquitted themselves with great credit, and showed a remarkable proficiency in the Hebrew language.

EPISCOPAL APPOINTMENTS .- The following appointments by Bishop Davis are announced: May 3, Wednesday afternoon, at St. Michael's Church; May 7, the fourth Sunday after Easter, in the forenoon at Grace Church, the afternoon at John's Chapel, and at night in St. Mark's Chapel. During the cosuing week, including the 14th, in Charleston, attending upon the conven-

DIOCESAN CONVENTION .- The annual convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of South Carolina will be held in St. Philip's Church, Charleston, on the second Thursday of May, the 11th instant, at 10 o'clock in the morning. To aid in the dispatch of business, the clergy are requested to prepare their parochial reports, with particular attention to the contribution lists, which must run from the 1st of May. 1870, to the 1st of May, 1871, so as they may be handed in on or before the opening of the convention. The opening sermon will be preached by the rector of St. Michael's Church, Charleston.

A PUGNACIOUS TRESPASSER .- A disorderly colored woman, named Sarah Washington, entered the premises of Dr. Burnham, in Burns's lane on Friday night, and not behaving herself properly she was ordered to leave by Sarah Miller, who was living in the yard. Sarah Washington responded with an abusive piece of her mind, and a wordy quarrel speedily ended in blows. The noise brought in the police, and the trespasser was arrested and locked up in the Guardhouse. Having been brought before the Mayor, she was sentenced to thirty days' imprisonmen in the House of Correction under the vagrant law.

PERUVIAN GUANO .- This admirable fertilizer. the value of which is so well known among all who cultivate the soil in civilized countries, can be had in its parity, in this city, at the agents of the Peravian Government here, Messrs. Geo. W. Williams & Co. These gentlemen, to insure its being the exact thing as taken from the C.posits at the Guanape isles, now receive it immediately from that point and Callao. Two cargoes, direct from the Peruvian coast, have just reached here, and the first, per French brig Dauphine, from Callao, is now being dischar, ed at Union wharves; and the second, per Freuch bark Stella Maria, has

CLUBS AND STARS .- Edward Sherman, reported for erecting wooden shantles in Market street, one door from State, in violation of the State law and city ordinance on the subject, had the hearing of his case postponed until this morning. A pair of new boo's recovered from raiders by Officer Nipson, were brought to the office, and ordered to be delivered to the owner.

Robert Smith, colored, was arrested yesterday by Officers Davis and Barke on the charge of stealing groceries from the store of Mr. Wienholiz, at the corner of Tradd street and East Bay. He will be examined this morning.

WHILDEN'S SALE .- As usual, a large number of our best citizens were present on Saturday night, to attend the progress of this sale, and secure the goods offered. Auction er Bruns, with his usual celerity, disposed of a number of lots of silverware, china sets, &c., &c., and at prices far below their value. This was evident to the bidders, and many bargains were obtained. We are requested to announce that there will be 20 auction on Monday night, Monday being the first day of the German Schutzenfest and the Masonic lecture of General Pike being fixed for that time. On Tuesday night, however, the sale will be regamed as usual, and a number of new goods

UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT, SATURDAY, APRIL 29-Hon. GEORGE S. BRYAN PRESIDING .-The case of R. W. Disher and J. W. Keep vs. the Phoenix Insurance Company, removed into this at 8.20 and the Schutzenplatz at 10 P. M. court from the State Court, having been settled between the parties, the attachment issued be fore its removal was dissolved. The order heretofore made in the case of W. H.

Wessen vs. J. E. L. Amacker, directing the marshal to sell the mortgaged premises in February, was modified, and the marshal was ordered to sell whenever required to do so by the complainant's solicitor. In other respects, the order was declared to be the decree of the court. The court then adjourned sine die.

UNITED STATES COMMISSIONER.-Hercules Reef was brought before the commissioner, on Saturday morning, charged with being engaged in the Biggin Church riot during the election last | dy, as our readers are aware, is the great forte of fall. The evidence showed that Hercules was an induential man among the invading party from | bly no rival in America, and this is probably the Strawberry, and being armed was one of the last time we shall see him for many months preleaders in capturing and carrying off the ballot box. He was bound over to appear at the present term of the United States District Court.

Kit Bryan, another juventle member of Congress Middleton's militia company, was brought up charged with voting under age at Bluffton. He was shown to be but eighte n, but the commissioner dismissed the case, not deeping it worth the while for the United States to prosecute such cases when the commissioners of the count had already been convicted of fraud in are clever artistes themselves, and favorites of the manipulation of the ballots.

BISHOP AND THE CHAPMAN SISTERS. -OR Thursday night the Academy of Music will be again opened under the auspices of Bishop and the Chapman Sisters, and a series of comedies will be performed such as have not been enjoyed by a Charleston andience for a long time. Come-Bishop. Indeed, in his peculiar line he has probavious to his tour as a "star,"

It is worth the price of admission to have the cobwebs shaken out of one's brain by his mirthprovoking acting; and certainly no one has stirred the risibilities of a Charleston audience like Bishop. We take it for granted that he will be greeted by crowded houses during his stay, and that, supported as he will be by a strong company, we shall have a week of huge entertainment. The Chapman Sisters and Mrs. Chapman, their mother, the community. Give them a bumper.

A DELIGHTFUL TRIP .- The elegant steamer

Dictator, Captain L. M. Coxetter, will leave this city on Tuesday on an excursion to Florida. She will touch at Savannah, St. Augustine and Palatka, allowing the excursionists ample time to visit the points of interest at each of these places.

An inspection of the ancient Spanish fortress; the cathedral and other relics of St. Augustine the first settlement on this continent, and a sail to the extensive orange groves in the vicinity, are attractions that can but seldom be offered to the excursionist, and the further prospect of a run up the beautiful River St. John's, at a season when the "land of flowers" is decked with the lovely garb of spring, must commend itself to all of the lovers of the beautiful in nature. Go and spend five days of unalloyed pleasure. MASONIC.-General Albert Pike arrived in the city Saturday morning, and is the guest of Colonel Henry Buist. In the evening a meeting of Rose Croix Masons was held at the Masonic Hall, which the General attended. He was in troduced to the brethren, and the lately elected officers of the "Buist Chapter" were installed. The lecture on the philosophy and science of the evening, at 8 o'clock, at the Freundschaftsbund higher degrees of Masonry will be delivered this Hall. The lecturer is sovereign grand commande of the Supreme Council of the Southern Jurisdiction, United States, and one of the most distinguished Masons in this country. His attainments in Masonic lore have placed him among the first in the Order, and his talents cannot fall to render the occasion instructive to the brethren and deeply interesting to his audience. . All Masons of the A. and A. S. R., and the public at large, and especially the ladies, are cordially invited to at-

BUSINESS NOTICES.

IMPORTANT TO THE LADIES. -Furchgott, Benedict & Co. respectfully announce to their friends and the public that they have resolved to reduce their stock, now the largest in the city; and will during the next thirty days sell every variety of fine, fancy and staple dry goods, without regard to cost. This is a rare chance for bargains, and the ladies will consult their interest by calling at either of our stores, No. 244 or No. 437 King street.

SUIT YOURSELF .- Winter is gone; summer is at hand; and the change of seasons suggests, in fact necessitates, a corresponding change in wearing apparel; and Mr. Wm. Matthlessen, with an eye to business, steps forward at this very nick of time, and informs the readers of THE News in his advertisement, (which see in another column.) that he is fully prepared to meet the exigencies of the case. He has an extensive assortnent of spring and summer clothing, made under the immediate personal supervision of the pro-prietor for the trade of this cl. y, and to be sold at astonishingly low prices. Mr. Matthiessen has a long experience in his business, and thorough practical knowledge of all its details, and it is for this reason he can offer first class goods at such unusually low prices. He has a fine stock also of boys' and youths' suits of every description Likewise furnishing goods, such as undershirts, drawers, gloves, neckties, &c., not to forget the far (amed star shirts and collars, of which he has a full assortment. In the tailoring department will be found a full stock of French, English and American summer cloths, &c., &c., which will be made to order in the best manner, in the most fashionable style, and at moderate prices. What more can any one wish? Energy and enterprise, with close attention to business, will tell, and we have, therefore, no doubt that Mr. Matthlessen's store, corner King and Wentworth streets, will be crowded day after day with visitors who mean
