THE CENTURY PLANT .- The students of fature, and the citizens generally, who may take an interest in botanical studies, may now see, in great perfection, at the residence of George W. Witte, Esq., corner of Laurens and Wall streets, a century plant well worth notice. It has reached a height of about twenty feet, has thrown off numerous arms, and has apparently nearly attained its flowering condition. As specimens of this vegetable curfosity can only be noticed in all its beauty at long intervals, the present opportunity-to observe the plant in its richest development should not be omitted.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE. -Yesterday morning a colored woman, wno attracted attention by her wild appearance, was seen making her way from Elliott street down to the wha f opposite. Arriving at the edge of the wharf and before any one could anticipate her purpose, she leaped into the dock and the water closed over her. The shock | decorations of evergreens and white flowers which seemed to revive her attachment to this world. and upon rising to the surface she splashed around with much energy. She was scon after fished out by the people on the wharf and went her way. When asked what was the matter, just before taking the plunge, she replied "Tom was gone and she did not care about staying.' Nobody knew Tom.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT .- Yesterday morning, while a number of boys were playing in Elizabeth street, opposite Chapel, a dray driven by a white drayman came rapidly down the street. One of the boys was too slow or careless in getting out of the way, and the wheel of the dray passed over his foot crushing it badly. The screams of the sufferer soon attracted attention, and, stopping his dray, the driver assisted in taking the boy into Mr. Albert Fincken's store, near by where the wound was dressed The foot was bloody and swollen, making a painful and ugly looking mash. Several of the bones in the toes are thought to be broken. The wounded boy was soon after taken home, where, with medical as sistance, he is doing as well as possible,

A PRACTICAL JOKS .- James Fraser, Henry ott Davis and Lewis Davis, were brought before Trial Justice Mack y yester. day afternoon, and tried on the charge of assault and battery upon a colored man. The prosecutor was a greenhorn, who had been working on Vendue Rauge for two days previous, and had gone down to work in the morning. During the day he fell asleep on a barrel, and the other hands had tled him to his couch, prepared him, for a thrashing, and adminstered a sound one with a barre hoop. The prisoners pleaded that it was in joke, out this aid not satisfy the law, and the three list were found guilty and sentenced to pay ten cents and costs, or go to jail for ten days. Fraser was discharged, there being no evidence to show that he had "taken a hand" in the matter.

NEW PUBLICATIONS .- From the presses of Edward Perry, No. 149 Meeting street, we have a new and evi my carefully prepared vade meoum for the housewife, in the shape of a manual of "Modern Domestic Cookery." The intrinsic merits of the thousand and one classified receipts contained in its pages, apart from the consideration that the author is a Carolina ladv. (Miss Theresa C. Brown, of Anderson, S. C.,) make the book a desideratum in every Southern lamily. . The same publisher sends us the proceedings of the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of South Carolina, a neatly printed pamphlet. Walker, Evans & Cogswell have issued a very tasteful and elaborately gotten up illustrated catalogue of their stationery department.

Being brought before the Mayor he pleaded that his mother had made him assame this garb to keep him at home. This excuse did not prove satisfactory, and the prisoner was sent to the House of Correction for thirty PICNIC OF THE GERMANIA BUND .- The grassy walks and cool shades of Mount Pleasant are once more to be called into requisition, and will be enlivened to morrow with the first annual picnic of the Germania Bund. The conveniences of the Mount Pleasant House are too well known to need comment, and, with the fine hall for dancing, the bowing alleys, and other amusements, the members of the bund cannot fail to enjoy the pleasantest of holidays. The steamer will leave the wharf at the foot of Market street, at 10 A. M. and 1, 3 and 5.30 P. M. The last return trip will be at 10 o'clock in the evening.

MILITARY MOVEMENTS .- The Columbia Union of yesterday publishes the following:

THIEVES CAPTURED. - Toby Williams, an old offender, was arrested early yesterday morning with several fowls in a tag. On his way to the Guardhouse, he confessed to having stolen them from a vard near the Northeastern Railroad, and to have put them in the bag to prevent them making any noise.

Wilson Henry was arrested for stealing a case of tobacco from the sloop Maggie Delany, lying at South Atlantic wharf, on Thursday last. The tobacco had been conveyed to a residence in Smith lane, and Wilson was taken up while of fering it for sale. Both of the offenders were turned over to a trial justice.

THE FUNERAL OF MR. JOHN CAMPSEN took place ye terday afternoon at the German Lutheran Church, corner of Hasel and Auson streets, and was largely attended by the friends and relatives of the deceased, and his brother members of the Bruderlicherbund, the German Society, the German Priendly Society and the Freundschaftsbund. The church was well filled, and the chaste had been arranged for the confirmation of the preceding day, afforded a striking and solemn contrast to the mournful features of the occasion: The services were conducted by Mr. Muller, the reverend pastor of the church, who delivered an impressive address on the character and life of the lamented deceased. A large escort of carriages followed the body to the German burial ground at Magnolia, where it was interred in the family burying lot.

MALICIOUS MISCHIEF. - Saturday afternoon when the steamship Champion steamed out of the dock, on her departure for New York, the event was announced by the firing of the small cannon on the bow. This has always been the custom on the line, but came very near being attended with serious consequences on the evening in question. In addition to the harmless charge of powder, some thoughtless or evil-minded person had pushed an iron bolt down the auzzle, and, as the piece was discharged, it went hurtling through the air o er the city in a way strangely suggestive of the days when Glimore occupied Morris Island. The dangerous missil fell in the yard of Messrs. O'Neill & Bowen, blacksmiths, No. 22 Anson street. There were two orkmen in the yard when the report of the fare well gun was heard, and a moment after they heard the rushing of the bolt, which buried itself deeply in the earth, scattering the chips and rubbish in every direction. One of the men was dressed for a promenante, and was walking across the yard when the boit struck a few feet directly in front of him. The b It was afterwards dug up and taken to the Guardhouse, where it can now be seen.. It is about five and a half inch solong an inch and a quarter in diameter, with a square head. It seems to be the half of a coupling boit. It was all blackene i with powder, and looks quite wicked and brimstony.
