The Sumner Social Club will give a picnic on the 23d instant at Mount Pleasant. Tick ets $1.

STATE LAWS.—The attention of the legal fraternity, and others interested, is called to the notice in to-day's paper, emanating from the office of the Secretary of State. This law-book of the acts since 1868 completes the fifth volume of the Statutes at Large of the State. It has been carefully prepared, and will be found a very valuable auxiliary to said acts. The notice gives the necessary information as to where the book can be obtained.

ARRESTING SAILORS.—James Wilson, a sailor, was arrested a few days ago on a warrant issued by Trial Justice Leary on the affidavit of Peter Walker, a sailor boarding-house keeper, alleging that he was a deserter, and after an examination he was committed to jail. A writ of habeas corpus was sued out, and the prisoner brought before his Honor Judge Graham. Mr. George R. Walker, counsel for the prisoner, contended that a deserter could be arrested on the complaint of the captain of the ship from which he had deserted, but not on the affidavit of a boarding-house keeper. After argument and mature deliberation, the judge ordered the discharge of the prisoner.

HAVE WE A STREET INSPECTOR?—There is an anxious inquiry in the upper part of the city to know what has become of the Captain Jenks. The gaiters are overgrown with grass, and being badly graded, are filled with water of a stagnant and putrid nature, which cannot fail to produce disease of various kinds. The street is inspected through Radcliffe and Vanderhorst streets, for instance, and see for himself. But, perhaps, in the classic language of Mr. Schenck, the Superintendent, "Himself, he does not care a fig for us. We hope, however, that such is not the case. We do our duty in directing his attention, and hope he will do his in having the nuisance at once abated."

CLUBS AND STARS.—John Davis and James Jones, arrested for fighting on the street, late Tuesday night, were tried, and the first sent to jail for twenty days. Jones was discharged.

CHARLES FURCHGOTT, charged for disturbing the neighborhood by beating his wife in a house in Morris street, was sentenced to pay a fine of $5 or go to the House of Correction for ten days. The owner of a dog, reported for allowing his pet to run at large, and bite a child in Wolfe street, near the South Carolina Railroad Depot, was discharged on examination.

Ellen Wilson and Melinda Bell, two dashing belles of color, who had been indulging in a little scratching and tearing of each other, were turned over to a trial justice.

PAPER! SAH.—Newsboys are a public convenience in their way, and the "color" of colored urchins who now monopolize this branch of industry have become, by general consent, an established institution in the city. On the streets they are tolerated; but the ban that periodically hangs around the entrance to our principal hotels are often a source of serious annoyance to the proprietors and their guests. They are strictly enjoined from entering the porches, but two of them yesterday morning entered the forbidden precinct, and raised a disturbance in the piazza of the Charleston Ho. El. They were speedily arrested, and being taken before the Mayor were sentenced to pay a fine of $5, or go to the House of Correction for ten days, as a warning to their intruding brethren.

A ROYAL ROW.—Tuesday morning, between 9 and 10 o'clock, the community in the neighborhood of the premises No. 395, Philip street, were somewhat agitated by the proceeding of a party who proceeded from a house on the east. The house was inhabited by Julia, Henriette and Scipio Johnson, Josephine and Harriet Williams, and Carolina Pope, all seven colored, among whom a domestic squabble had arisen. The shrill and sharp tongues of the women soon brought the quartet to a focus, and everybody "went" for everybody else with nature's weapons. The police were soon called in, and arrested the parties engaged, before any damage was inflicted beyond a few bloody noses, scratched faces and torn clothes. The dusky platoon was brought before the Mayor, who discharged Julia, fined Scipio and Josephine $5, and sent the other three to the House of Correction for five days.

"NOW, THEN, BUTTERFINGERS."—About 7 o'clock yesterday morning a precocious youth of color, rejoicing in the greedy appellation of Jake Butler, entered the apothecary shop of Dr. W. A. Spry, No. 250 King street, and after looking around for some time without saying a word to any one, quietly ensconced himself behind the counter. When asked what he was doing there, he failed to give a satisfactory answer, and mumbled something about soda water. His suspicious proximity to the money drawer caused him to be turned over to an officer, by whom he was speedily brought before the Mayor on the charge of vagrancy. His previous character, as told him against him, and Jake got to the House of Correction, where he can philosophize on the wickedness of the world, and reflect on the truth of the Scriptures, that the way of the transgressor is hard.

THE STATE CIRCUIT COURT.—The Court of General Sessions was opened yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, Hon. R. F. Graham presiding. The following cases were disposed of: The State vs. Wm. Small—breach of trust. R. W. Seymour, Esq., for the defence. Verdict, guilty. The State vs. Edward Hunter and August Harzert—grand larceny. J. G. Mackey, Esq., for the defence. Verdict, guilty. The State vs. Ellen Butterfield—grand larceny. C. L. Batts, Esq., for the defence. Verdict, not guilty. The State vs. Wm. Darrel and J. F. Masoun—assault and battery with intent to kill. Continued. The State vs. Edwin Brown—grand larceny. Continued, and heard warrant ordered to be issued against the defendant. The defendants, F. C. Miller, E. P. Wall, and M. McLaughlin in the seven cases now pending against them for official misconduct, were ordered to give bond with sufficient security in the sum of $500, to appear on Friday next, for trial before the Court of General Sessions. The witnesses in the case who were present were also ordered to give bond to appear, and attachments were ordered against those who were absent, returnable on the day of the trial.

Ajourned until 10 o'clock this morning.

THE MUNICIPAL ELECTION.

Meeting in Ward 6.

There was a full meeting of the citizens of this ward last evening at Arnold's Hall, Meeting near John street. R. C. Barker, Esq., was called to the chair, and Mr. J. C. Taylor acted as secretary.

The following committee on permanent organization was appointed to report officers at a meeting to be held at the same time and place next Wednesday night: Messrs. H. H. Honour, J. Nell, James Melvin, John G. Mackay and William Meagher.

The meeting afterwards adjourned to meet as above.

Meeting in Ward 8.

An adjourned meeting was held last evening at the hall at the corner of King and Line streets, President Tobias in the chair. The president stated that he had conferred with prominent men in the ward, and would recommend that the election of delegates be deferred until the 25th instant; but a motion to go into an immediate election prevailed, and the following gentlemen were selected to attend the convention to be held on the 5th of July: R. M. Hogan, J. H. Shirer, Richard Washington, O. W. Matthews, T. F. Heist and D. B. Smith. The meeting then adjourned, subject to the call of the chair.

Meeting in Ward 7.

The banner of the city was well represented last evening at the meeting held at their hall, in Nassau street, pursuant to the call having all citizens in favor of a Conservative government and opposed to the present administration. The meeting was called to order by Mr. E. Dams being requested to take the chair, and Mr. J. N. Pursue to act as secretary.

On motion, it was resolved to elect permanent officers for the club, and Dr. Thomas S. Grimes having been nominated for president, he was elected by acclamation.

Mr. A. N. Prandt was then nominated for vice-president; Mr. Joan Paschall for secretary, and Mr. George A. Douglas for treasurer. These gentlemen were elected by acclamation. A motion was made to defer the election of delegates to the nominating convention, to the 21st of June, which, after some discussion, was lost.

On motion of Mr. Sweeney, it was resolved to go into an immediate election for delegates, and the following gentlemen were chosen by ballot to represent the ward: E. Dunn, R. Gordon, W. H. Sigwald, James M. Eason, E. Powers, and A. H. Petch.

On motion, the meeting then adjourned, subject to the call of the president through the papers.

CITADEL SQUARE BAPTIST CHURCH.—The exhibition in aid of the Sunday-school library of this church is appointed for Friday evening, June 16th, at 8 o'clock, at Holmes's Lyceum, instead of Friday, June 16th, as announced.

MR. G. F. BUCHHEIT HEARD FROM.—Mr. Geo. Francis Buchheit was arrested in Louisville, Ky., on an advance telegram from Lieutenant Phillip, who was sent by his family in search of him. Mr. B. made no resistance, and returned quietly to Augusta, where he arrived last evening. He will remain in that city until his property, which he expected there this morning, can be put in a position of coming with him. Mr. Buchheit states as a reason for his leaving Charleston that he owed large amounts of money, and feared that his creditors might put him in jail. He denies any intention on his part of defrauding the insurance companies. He takes matters coolly, and says he will not willingly return to Charleston unless his father pays his debt. The sum of $55 and a through ticket to the West were found upon his person.

TRIAL JUSTICE ITEMS.—Ann Young, the keeper of an assignation house, was arraigned yesterday morning before Trial Justice Magrath, on the charge of harboring a young girl under age. She was bound over to appear at the next term of the Court of General Sessions.

Betsy Reed was tried before Trial Justice Levy, charged with stabbing Lucy Grant several times in the arm. She was found guilty of an assault with a deadly weapon and sent to ratcliffe for thirty days in Sheriff Mackey's hotel.

Michael Heyward, the colored drayman who was arrested for an inhuman treatment of a boy named Daniel Curry, a few days ago, was brought before Trial Justice Magrath yesterday morning, and after examination, was bound over in $1000, to answer at the next term of court for assault with a dangerous weapon to kill. The father of the boy had offered a $500 reward for his apprehension.

In default of bail they were both sent to jail. The boy has been placed in the colored Orphan Asylum by Lieutenant-Governor Bapsler.

CHLORALUM.—A want long felt in the community is now supplied by Mr. C. F. Panknin, the well-known chemist and apothecary, who offers in this morning's News the newly discovered, non-poisonous and inodorous antiseptic and disinfectant—"Chloralum." The distinctions now in use are all more or less objectionable on account of their offensive odor, to some people, sickening odor. Those in need of such a commodity will be pleased to have a substitute devoid of these objectionable qualities. There is no doubt that for these reasons chloralum will soon come into universal use.

Our readers will also notice that Mr. Panknin has just received a lot of the celebrated French asthma cigarettes; also a fresh supply of the Congress, Empire and Pavilion Spring waters.

Of the Hepatic Bitters manufactured by Mr. Panknin, it is not necessary to speak here, as it is well known and thoroughly established in the trade. Nor need we call attention to his general stock of medicines, chemicals, perfumery, &c., for the character and reputation of the advertiser is a full guarantee for the excellence of the articles he offers to the public.

NEWBERRY COLLEGE IN WALLHALL, S. C.—The catalogue of this institution, which we have just received, indicates that it is in a highly flourishing condition. From the preparations now in progress, the approaching commencement exercises promise to be of extraordinary interest. In addition to the performance common to academic institutions, the corner-stone of the college will be laid by the Masonic fraternity.

In addition to the regular examinations the calendar exhibits the following programme: Concert literary societies, June 26; anniversary literary societies; annual meeting of the board, and anniversary Alumni Association, June 27th; laying corner-stone of college, June 28th; jubilee exhibition 25th. On the 28th the ladies of Wallhall will give a dinner, the proceeds of which will be devoted to the completion of the college building. The address before the literary societies will be delivered by Rev. J. Hawkins. The Alumni will be addressed by Mr. E. H. Housal, and the address at laying the corner-stone, by Rev. W. S. Bowman. The railroad committee will pass visitors and ride from the commencement for one hour, through the generous courtesy of President Magrath and Colonel S. B. Pickens of the South-Carolina Railroad. Excursion tickets will be sold here from the 22d to the 27th instant for $14 the round trip, and will be good to return until the 5th of July. This will afford a splendid opportunity for all persons who wish to take a trip to the mountain regions of our State, to enjoy a long, cheap and healthful ride.

THE HORSE STATUE CELEBRATION.

Among the greetings telegraphed to Professor Morse at the recent celebration was the following from the operators in Charleston: "From the far South we send back the kindly greeting of our father in the North, and wish our brothers of the North, East and West, in making up the circuit of praise to him whose genius devised and whose patient energies worked out this the grandest invention of the nineteenth century."

A BOY DROWNED WHILE FISHING.—A boy, whose name was not given, was found dead on Sunday night, in old Town Creek, near the Eliwan Phosphate Works. From the evidence given at the inquest, it seems that the family of the deceased lived at the Eliwan Works, and on Tuesday afternoon he was last seen going towards the wharf on old Town Creek, accompanied by a boy still smaller than himself, and not quite four years of age. At 6 o'clock he was missed, and at 10 o'clock that night the deceased was discovered in the river, near the wharf, by the watchman, John Hannay. The boy was lying on his face in the mud, with the arms stretched out. The arms and ears were much emaciated, and the face was considerably bruised.

At about 6 o'clock in the night, the smaller boy woke up, and seeing his mother crying, asked why she was doing so. She replied, "for Willie." He then remarked that "Willie was in the water." In the morning he took his father down to the wharf, and told him how Willie had been fishing for crabs, and had, all of a sudden, fallen into the water. The jury found that the deceased had come to his death by being accidentally drowned, as above stated.

LET COMMON SENSE DECIDE.—What is the rational mode of procedure in cases of general debility and nervous prostration? Does not reason tell us that judicious stimulation is required. To resort to violent purgation in such cases is absurd and would be to bleed a starving man. Yet it is done every day. Yes, this stupid and unphilosophical practice is continued in the teeth of the great fact that physical weakness, with all the nervous disturbances that accompany it, is more certainly and rapidly relieved by HOPKINS' STOMACH BITTERS than by any other medicine at present known. It is true that general debility is often attended with torpidity or irregularity of the bowels, and that this symptom must not be overlooked. But while the discharge of the waste matter of the system is expedited or regulated, its vigor must be re-created. The Bitters do both. They combine aperient and anti-bilious properties, with extraordinary tonic power. Even while removing obstructions from the bowels, they tone and invigorate those organs. Through the stomach, upon which the great vegetable specific acts directly, it gives a healthy and permanent impetus to every enfeebled function. Digestion is facilitated, the faltering circulation regulated, the blood reinforced with a new accession of the alimentary principle, the nerves braced and all the dormant powers of the system roused into healthy action; not spasmodically, as would be the case if a mere stimulant were administered, but for a continuous action. It is in this way that such extraordinary changes are wrought in the condition of the feeble, emaciated and nervous invalids by the use of this wonderful corrective, alterative and tonic. Let common sense decide between such a preparation and a prostrating cathartic supplemented by a poisonous astringent like strychnine or quinine. June 10—31st 68c

ATTENTION IS RESPECTFULLY CALLED TO THE NEW NON-POISONOUS AND ODORELESS DISINFECTANT AND ANTISEPTIC. CHLORALUM, (Chloride of Aluminium, the Saline Antiseptic; harmless as common salt.) The Lancet, August 27th, 1870, says of this preparation: "It is quite as potent as Chloride of Zinc or Carbolic Acid, and is at the same time non-poisonous and devoid of unpleasant smell of every kind. These qualities will, no doubt, insure its being extensively used, and at no distant date we may expect it to displace the antiseptics which are at present in vogue."

CHLORALUM is an astringent antiseptic, applied to foul ulcers by London surgeons, as a gargle in scarlet fever, diphtheria and common sore-throat, and has been found invaluable in inflammation of the eyes, &c.

CHLORALUM can be relied on by Farmers in the treatment of Foot and Mouth Disease, and in carrying on disinfection in their houses, stables, cowsheds, pigsties and poultry-houses.

CHLORALUM for dog kennels can be used with great advantage and economy in keeping them fresh for any length of time, in purifying the benches and yards, and completely removing the foul and sickening odor of dirty or ill-drained kennels.
