OUR PRICES CURRENT.—We especially invite the attention of our merchants to THE NEWS PRICES CURRENT, issued this morning. Made up with the utmost care, and handsomely printed with entirely new type, it forms, with the business card of the house forwarding it, the most attractive and welcome weekly commercial circular that can be used. Price, for ten copies or more, with business cards, two and a half cents per copy; single copies five cents.

ELECTION ANNOUNCEMENTS intended for publication in THE NEWS, must, in all cases, be paid for in advance.

S. K. K. C.—The Sub-Klux-Klux Committee left Columbia for Spartanburg on Wednesday.

TELEGRAPHIC.—We are pleased to learn that the telegraph is now in operation to Helena and Cokeretry, on the Greenville Railroad, and the entire line will be open, it is thought, in about three weeks more.

"GARDEN SARE" EXTRAORDINARY.—We were shown several very fine tomatoes yesterday, grown on the premises of Mr. Joseph Guy, No. 5 Burns lane. Some of his specimens measured twelve inches in circumference.

THE STEAMER EMPIRE, of the Philadelphia and Charleston Line, sailed last yesterday afternoon, with an unusually full cargo of cotton, &c., for the Quaker City. This line is attracting a good summer trade, the steamers in both directions going full.

PERSONAL.—Among the departures from New York, on Saturday last, we notice the name of Bernard O'Connell, Esq., of this city. He sailed for Havana, and we learn is returning on a visit to his native land after some thirty years' absence.

THE CONTEST SOCIAL CLUB celebrated their second anniversary on the evening of July 6th, with more than ordinary eclat. The following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year: J. F. Rye, president; F. Boniface, vice-president; P. W. Croghan, secretary; W. L. Hunt, treasurer. Committee on Finance—A. Finnegan, Thos. O'Connell, J. O. Gara. Committee on Letters—F. Boniface, J. R. Kelly, J. Meagher.

CLUBS AND STARS.—Orlando Butler and Alfred James, lodged on the charge of stealing from a sloop on the river, are held for examination.

J. P. Bryan, reported for selling wood on the Savannah and Charleston Railroad without license, was discharged after a hearing.

Wm. Paine and Mary Jenkins, caught trespassing on the premises of a gentleman in Liberty street, were dismissed with a reprimand.

A party who had drowned his sorrows in the cup, and who was in a fair way of drowning himself in one of the mud-holes on the street, was discharged by the Mayor on pleading "the first offence."

THE RESIGNATION OF THE REV. JAMES W. MILLS.—In the latter part of May last, the Rev. James W. Mills, professor of classical literature at the College of Charleston, tendered his resignation to the board of trustees on account of his ill health. A full meeting of the board was held yesterday afternoon for the purpose of considering the same, and the resignation was accepted. The board also passed a resolution appointing a committee of three to consult with the faculty, and present the names of such applicants as should be deemed qualified to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of the professor. As one of the brightest ornaments of Charleston, we cannot but hope that Mr. Mills will soon be restored to full health to his native city.

A BURGULAR CONFESSES.—Robert Fraser, who was arrested a few days ago, charged with an attempt to rob the residence of Dr. Pratt in Rutledge avenue, confessed while in the Grand Hall, where he was confined, that he had recently committed another burglary. This was upon the premises of Mr. M. Y. Arnan, at the corner of Rutledge and Cannon streets. He entered the store through the skylight, and stole several hundred-weight of rice, a box of tobacco, a clock, a pair of shoes, two hats, and other articles. A warrant was forthwith issued against him on this charge, and after an examination before Trial Justice T. J. Mackey, Robert was sent to Sheriff Mackey's Hotel to await his trial at the next term of the Court of General Sessions.

A QUEER VISITOR.—Wednesday evening, a colored man of about thirty years of age, named Prince Gayles, went to the house of a gentleman residing up the road, and demanded his daughter and a small fortune in personal property which, along with her, he said, had been abducted, and was now concealed on the premises. The gentleman remonstrated and denied all knowledge of the matter. This by no means satisfied Prince, who proceeded to attack the castle in order to enforce his demands. This necessitated the calling of a policeman, and the attacking party was captured, and lodged in the Guardhouse charged with being insane. Upon being brought before the Mayor, it was plain that the poor man was demerit, and he was forthwith sent over to the city registrar for treatment.

INQUEST.—A jury was impanelled yesterday to inquire into the causes which led to the death of the unknown colored man, who was mentioned in our last issue as having died at the City Hospital from injuries received by being run over by a train on the Northeastern Railroad, near the Four Mile House. The evidence showed that the deceased was walking on the South Carolina Railroad at about quarter-past 6 o'clock, Wednesday afternoon, and hearing the train coming, without looking back, he crossed the track of the Northeastern Road, about fifteen feet from the other. The whistle was blowing, and the bell rang, but he paid no heed to them until the train got within a few feet of him, with breaks down. He now appeared to see it for the first time, and turning around threw up his hands. The cowcatcher struck him on the leg, and throwing him up in the air, his body was caught upon its edge, as he fell, and was dashed to one side. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death, in accordance with the above facts. The deceased was not identified, and no one appeared to know him.

THE UNITED STATES COURT.—The District Court was opened at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, Hon. George S. Bryan, presiding. On motion of the district attorney the case of the United States vs. Jas. W. Bass, for illicit distilling, was transferred to the Circuit Court, and continued until the November term in Columbia.

John Mappas, of Baden, having complied with all the requisites of the law, was made a citizen of the United States.

The petition of G. J. Pride, in the matter of H. J. Pride, bankrupt, to have the taxes paid on certain lands returned, was dismissed, and the petitioner ordered to pay the cost of the rule, as he failed, and was dashed to one side. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death, in accordance with the above facts. The deceased was not identified, and no one appeared to know him.

I DESIRE to inform the people of Charleston and the country that they can buy a better and cheaper Sewing Machine from me than they can elsewhere, and now is the time, and No. 31 Queen street is the place, to get a first-class Sewing Machine, either new or second-hand, so come one, come all, and let me serve you to a No. 1 Machine. J. L. LINSFORD.

BUSINESS ENVELOPES.—THE NEWS JOB OFFICE is now prepared to furnish good envelopes, with business cards printed thereon, at $4 per thousand. Send your orders. Every merchant and business man should have his card printed on his envelopes. To BUSINESS MEN.—Five hundred fine Buff Envelopes for $1.25. Hazel Street Bazaar. JUN 20-10

IN MEMORIAM.

Alexander Gordon and Robert Mure.

At a meeting of the corporation of the First Presbyterian Church of Charleston, held on the evening of July 8, 1871, Mr. A. S. Johnston offered the following preamble and resolutions, which were unanimously adopted: The angel of Death has recreated his legions, and added two more victims to the grand army of the virtuous and good, and it goes marching on to its final reward.

This church mourns to-day the absence of two of its brightest ornaments—most cherished members and strong supports. Since we last met it has pleased God, in His infinite wisdom, to remove from our midst Alexander Gordon and Robert Mure, both natives of Kirkcubright, Scotland, and since their sojourn in their adopted homes, active members and ruling elders of this church.

A long and intimate social and religious association, taught us to recognize and appreciate those sterling virtues and high moral principles which adorned and illustrated their lives, and which was so beautifully delineated in their deaths.

It is with profound humility that we, as Christians, bow before the Divine Majesty, and recognize in this dispensation of Providence, that "our loss is to their gain," and that their spirits, waited to brighter homes, are in the enjoyment of eternal bliss.

Both of our deceased brothers engaged the esteem, confidence and respect of both pastor and people, and held for four years the highest position of trust in our church. In all times of trouble and distress they were never found wanting in extending a helping hand, cheering the afflicted, and, by their high religious tone, giving moral dignity and strength to all undertakings with which they were connected.

With this church they were peculiarly and dearly connected, and principally through their energy, zeal and sound judgment, combined with true Christian magnanimity, are we indebted for support and comfort in times of our sorest trials.

All classes of our community have united in expressions of sorrow, with deep and profound reverence at the loss sustained, and it remains for us, their Christian brothers and fellow-members of this church, to mingle our tears with theirs, and lay this, our humble tribute of sympathy and grief, at the feet of those who "mourn only as they can mourn," who feel the greatest loss, and trust that an overruling Providence, who worketh all things for the best, will give Christian comfort and consolation in His own good time; therefore, be it

Resolved, That in the death of Alexander Gordon and Robert Mure, our church has lost two of its most valued and most esteemed members—earnest friends, liberal contributors, and exemplary members.

Resolved, That this be recorded upon the minutes of this corporation, and that blank pages be inscribed to their memories.

Resolved, That a copy of these proceedings be sent to the bereaved families of the deceased, accompanied with the hearty condolence of this church.

Resolved, That the same be published in the morning papers of this city and Southern Presbyterian and Index, of Columbia; also the papers of Kirkcubright, Scotland, be requested to copy.

R. B. DOWIE, Secretary.

ATTENTION IS RESPECTFULLY CALLED TO THE NEW NON-POISONOUS AND ODORLESS DISINFECTANT AND ANTISEPTIC, CHLORALUM.

(Chloride of Aluminium, the Saline Antiseptic; harmless as common salt.)

The Lancet, August 27th, 1870, says of this preparation: "It is quite as potent as Chloride of Zinc or Carbolic Acid, and is at the same time non-poisonous and devoid of unpleasant smell of either of these qualities will, no doubt, insure its being extensively used, and at no distant date we may expect it to displace the antiseptics which are at present in vogue."

CHLORALUM is an astringent antiseptic, applied to foul ulcers by London surgeons, as a gargle in scarlet fever, diphtheria and common sore-throat, and has been found invaluable in inflammation of the eyes, &c.

CHLORALUM can be relied on by Farmers in the treatment of Foot and Mouth Disease, and in carrying on disinfection in their homes, stables, cowbays, pigsties and poultry-houses.

CHLORALUM for dog kennels can be used with great advantage and economy in keeping meat fresh for any length of time, in purifying the benches and yards, and completely removing the foul and sickening odor of dirty or ill-drained kennels. For sale in quantities to suit purchasers.

The advertiser is also in receipt of a small lot of Imported Espies Cigarettes, for Asthma. Together with a Fresh supply of CONGRESS, EMPIRE, AND PAVILION SPRING WATERS. For sale low by the case.
