ELECTION ANNOUNCEMENTS intended for publication in THE NEWS, must, in all cases, be paid for in advance.

OPEN COTTON.—Marion boasts of the first boll of open cotton. Mr. J. T. Moody has the honor of having it laid to grow on his plantation.

THE IRON LANE.—The steamship Georgia, of this line, sailed from New York, Wednesday, 12th inst., at 3.30, with a fair freight and passenger list.

"HOT AS BLAZES AND NO ICE."—This was the cry of anguish at Savannah on Sunday last, and the papers of that city are loud in their complaints against the parties at fault. We hope we shall not have to chronicle a similar disregard to public comfort on the part of our own city purveyors.

HISTORY OF THE WAR BETWEEN GERMANY AND FRANCE, BY JAMES D. McCABE, JR.—We have seen a copy of this work, neatly got up and very copiously illustrated. Mr. J. P. Strobel, the agent, is at present in this city, canvassing for subscribers to this interesting book, assisted by Mr. B. F. Ford, who will call on our citizens with a specimen copy, of this war history.

SERMONS AT ZION CHURCH.—We are requested to state that the Rev. J. L. Girardeau, D. D., will preach on Thursday and Friday evenings of this week at the lecture room of Zion Presbyterian Church, Glee street, and that the farewell sermon may be expected on Sunday morning. On each and all of these occasions the public generally are cordially invited to attend.

THE EMPEROR WILLIAM cigar store was re-locating yesterday in a new sign, representing the august Emperor, and near by a revolving wheel of fortune, typical of the prizes to be drawn in the fine tobacco sold there, affording customers the opportunity of special payment. The sign is a novelty on the streets, and attracts much attention. It was illuminated at night.

CLUBS AND STARS.—Ann Dwyer, a white woman of about twenty-five years of age, applied at the Guardians for a night's lodging, and on consideration of her destitute circumstances, was sent next morning to be taken care of at the Almshouse.

Ten strings of fish, which were being offered for sale by a vendor without the required license, were seized and sent to the Orphanhouse.

NEWS FROM THE WESTERN PORTION OF THE CITY.—The quiet neighborhood at the foot of Mill street was thrown into a state of feverish excitement Tuesday night by a real fight between H. W. Clark and James Wakefield. O. Kicked and cuffs W. to his heart's content, and W. complained to Trial Justice Magrath. C. alleged that he was having a "bad time" but the excuse was not held valid, and he was held to pay a fine of three dollars and costs or go to jail for five days.

ROBBERING THE GAS COMPANY.—Frank Cordes, a youthful degenerate of about 12 years of age, was arrested yesterday morning by the detectives, at half-past 6 o'clock, charged with stealing a lot of iron fixtures belonging to the Gas Company. Several circular iron caps, usually seen on the sidewalk, and stamped with the name of the company, were found in his possession, and when arrested, he was standing in front of a junk-shop on Queen street, waiting for it to be opened in order that he might dispose of his plunder. The prisoner is held for examination.

THE SULLIVAN'S ISLAND REGATTA.—The following table belonging to the Sullivan's Island Regatta Club will take part in the race to come off this afternoon, at half-past 4 o'clock: Fleetwing, owned by Captain G. S. Patrick; Annie, owned by Captain Thomas Donahoe; Lilla, owned by Captain D. G. Tomby; Hattie, owned by Captain John Smith; Arrow, owned by Captain G. B. Patrick, Jr.; Little Lizzie, owned by Captain Mitchell. The tub race will take place immediately on the arrival of the 6 o'clock steamer at the island. All yachts and other boats witnessing the regatta are respectfully requested to keep clear of the racing boats.

REMOVAL OF CAPTAIN HARENIGHT.—Trial Justice John G. Mackey got back yesterday morning from Columbia, whither he had gone to present a petition to the Executive for the removal of the present chairman of the commissioners of pilotage. The success of his mission was publicly made known yesterday, and the present incumbent will be removed as soon as a proper selection is made of his successor in office. It is said the Governor instructed Mr. Mackey to go among the shipping merchants and forward the name of a reliable pilot, acceptable to them, whose appointment to the office would immediately follow the recommendation.

CUTTING APPRAY.—James Ladson, a colored man, was arrested yesterday morning and brought before Trial Justice Magrath, charged with an assault, with intent to kill, upon Daniel Hines. The evening before the two got quarreling in Calhoun street, near Wall, about a sum of money, and as usual high words with no mediator, a rough and tumble fight. In the scuffle Ladson drew a large knife and swiped Hines across the back with it, inflicting a deep and dangerous cut, extending from his right side across the back to the left shoulder. The combatants were here perturbed and Hines was taken home. He now lies in a critical situation, and it is doubtful whether he will survive or not. Ladson has been lodged in jail for further examination, until the crisis in the wounded man's condition be passed.

MEETING IN WARD 4.—A meeting of the citizens of this ward was held last evening, the president, Ben Lucas, in the chair. The president stated that the object of the meeting was to nominate a school commissioner, this nomination not having been designated among the powers of the delegates to the Nominating Convention.

On motion, it was resolved to nominate and elect an election at once for a candidate for school commissioner for this ward. After a ballot, Mr. Ben Lucas was duly elected.

President Lucas then reported the following central committee as appointed by him, pursuant to a resolution passed at the last meeting: Colonel Z. Davis, Captain A. Melchers, Dr. P. M. Cohen, M. C. O'Neill, Ben Kinloch.

After transacting some other business the meeting adjourned.

GAILING OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA.—This elegantly appointed iron passenger steamship, with spacious deck state-rooms and promenades extensive enough for a yachting party, left her dock at half-past 10 o'clock yesterday forenoon for New York, with 200 passengers and a good line of other freight and full passenger list. About 6000 motions from Augusta went forward, and we noticed the manner of stowing them, which we mention for the satisfaction of consumers. While we mention that the stowage is made of bales of cotton, into which the various lots are put, three or four melons deep. This prevents any movement from the motion of the steamer should bad weather be experienced, and enables the agents to deliver each lot without mixing the melons. The forward between-decks is appropriated to melons, and, with the side ventilators opened, a temperature is obtained which would never be a blanket at night for comfortable sleeping. The Georgia is the next departure on this well appointed line, sailing next Wednesday, 19th inst., at half-past 10 o'clock A. M.

STAMPEDES IN KING STREET.—Tuesday night about half-past 8 o'clock, the Pavilion Hotel omnibus was returning from the railroad through King street, drawn by a pair of stylish bay horses which became highly excited as they passed George street in a rapid trot. The driver did his best to quiet and hold them in, but when opposite Mr. D. O'Neill's shoe store, No. 358 King street, his right rein broke, and the animals and vehicle whirled around in the narrow street as if on a pivot. To accomplish this, the horses rushed upon the sidewalk almost to the door of O'Neill's store, and the heavy iron striking the awning, the iron frame and posts which supported it were torn up and broken in the most terrific manner. Four large panes in the show-windows were smashed, and the huge sign-board was knocked into a cocked hat. The horses and the vehicle hurried on in their mad walk, and the driver was thrown violently to the ground as the front wheel of the vehicle struck the large curbstone in front of Mrs. Brandt's confectionery store. A large crowd had now collected upon the scene of the disaster, but in every direction, as the frightened horses, relieved from the rein, and still attached to the lumbering vehicle rushed down the street, the whole team brought up with a jerk, as the strong wheels struck a stout post in front of Mr. Feldmann's grocery, and the horses were quickly secured. The damage done was considerable, which the owner of the coach promptly ordered to be repaired.

ANOTHER CASE OF MISPLACED CONFIDENCE IN SAVANNAH.—From the Savannah Advertiser we gather the particulars of another extensive and systematic case of swindling. Mr. Frederick Schuster came to Savannah from Europe in 1854, his father being a respectable resident of Hamburg, in comfortable circumstances. Mr. Schuster was quite successful in business, and enjoyed general confidence. He was appointed collector for Prussia at Savannah, and held that position until 1866. He had a large cotton claim, cut down finally to $48,000, which it was generally believed would certainly be paid, sooner or later, by Uncle Sam, and on the strength of this claim, he succeeded in borrowing various sums. He returned from the North not long since, and stated to his creditors they would have to wait a little longer, as his claim had been deferred by the Court of Claims till October. On the 9th of June Mr. Schuster gave out to his friends that the health of his wife compelled him to go to Augusta, and he left that day. It has since leaked out that at once went to New York, and to Europe, having then in his pocket the comfortable sum of $48,000, which, through the influence of the German minister in Washington, the Baron Gerold, had been paid him some weeks ago. His friends and creditors in the Forest City were in that unenviable frame of mind spoken of by the poet as being "Ulla's wild west," when "The waters will vent over his child, and he was left lamenting."

His total liabilities in Savannah are estimated at $30,000.

ATTENTION IS RESPECTFULLY CALLED TO THE NEW NON-POISONOUS AND ODORLESS DISINFECTANT AND ANTISEPTIC, CHLORALUM.

(Chloride of Aluminum, the Saline Antiseptic harmless as common salt.)

The Lancet, August 27th, 1870, says of this preparation: "It is quite as potent as Chloride of Zinc or Carbolic Acid, and is at the same time non-poisonous and devoid of unpleasant smell of every kind. These qualities will, no doubt, insure its being extensively used, and at no distant date we may expect it to displace the antiseptics which are at present in vogue."

CHLORALUM can be relied on by Farmers in the treatment of Foot and Mouth Disease, and in carrying on disinfection in their homes, stables, cow-houses, pigsties and poultry-houses.

CHLORALUM for dog kennels can be used with great advantage and economy in keeping meat fresh for any length of time, in purifying the benches and yards, and completely removing the foul and sickening odor of dirty or ill-drained kennels.
