

THE CROPS IN THE STATE. PROSPECTS FOR COTTON, CORN AND RICE.

Orangeburg. Our correspondent, Dr. W. F. Barton, writing under date of August 18th, says: In response to your circular requesting me to give you all the information in my possession on the following points: 1st. The area planted in cotton this year compared with the area of 1870. Answer: One-third less.

Marlboro'. The Hon. C. W. Dudley, writing under date of August 18, says: The cotton crop in Marlboro' will be nearly fifty per cent. less than last year. Small corn has been planted, and the drought has severely injured it. There has been more corn planted than usual, but that, too, has suffered.

Abbeville. Mr. J. F. C. Dupre writes to The News, from Abbeville Courthouse, under date of August 18: After careful inquiry from persons in all parts of our county, I have arrived at the following conclusion: The area in cotton, compared with last year, is about four-fifths. Up to middle of June, the crop was very promising.

Georgetown. The Times says: Since our last issue we have had the drought still continuing throughout the county. Good rains have fallen in some neighborhoods, but even these have been too late to do much good to the corn and cotton crops.

Lancaster. The Ledger says: "With but a small exception the drought still continues throughout the county. Good rains have fallen in some neighborhoods, but even these have been too late to do much good to the corn and cotton crops."

All About the State. The telegraph line has been completed to Greenville, and an office was formally opened there on Friday.
