

CITY AFFAIRS.

Meetings This Day. Charleston Board of Trade, at 8 P. M. Carolina Independent Boat Club, at 8 P. M. New England Society, at 8 P. M. Pioneer Fire Company, at 8 P. M.

Auction Sales This Day. William McKay will sell at 10 o'clock, at his store, stock of a retail dry goods store. Miles Drake will sell at 10 o'clock, at his store, clothing, dry goods and hats.

Crimes.—The monthly prize shooting of the German Rifle Club will take place at the Schutzenplatz this afternoon. C. S. Miller, colored, was yesterday discharged from the office of constable by Trial Justice Caulfield.

The Holy Communion Home and School.—We print to-day, at the request of the settlement to whom it is addressed, the fourth annual report of the operations of the Home and Parochial School of the Church of the Holy Communion. It is a highly interesting paper, and shows how much may be accomplished, with small means, by one who has zeal, energy and faith.

New Rice.—A cargo of 1200 bushels of new Carolina rice was received yesterday by Messrs. W. C. Bee & Co., from the plantation of B. B. Bissell, Esq., Combahoe. The second lot of new Carolina rice on the market, consisting of seventeen thousand, was sold yesterday by Messrs. Ravenel & Co. at 8 1/2c per pound. It was grown by E. M. Barnwell, Esq., Pon Pon.

Hands Off.—Joseph Cross, a colored youth, entered the store of Mr. H. Stencken, at the corner of Meeting and Calhoun streets, about dusk Monday evening, and being watched by the proprietor, was soon after discovered with his hand in the money drawer. Before he could withdraw it, Joseph was collared, and turned over to a policeman. He was brought before the Mayor yesterday morning, and sent to the House of Correction for five days.

Fire Alarms.—At the last regular monthly meeting of the Board of Underwriters, held on Monday afternoon, a committee was appointed, consisting of Messrs. W. B. Heriot, A. L. Tobias, Hutson Lee and Wm. Thayer, to wait upon the city authorities and represent to them the present insufficient system of fire alarms, particularly shown in the case of the last fire—in Meeting street—and to ask that a change be made at the earliest practicable moment.

Spare the Rod.—On Monday night, Celia Simons, an obstreperous colored girl, of seventeen summers, who would not see the evil of her ways, was approached by her mother, who attempted to chastise her. Celia could not see it in this light, and being a robust girl, retaliated in a spirited manner upon the old lady, who speedily got the worst of the fight. The disturbance brought in the police, who took the undaunted daughter to the Guardhouse. She was brought before the Mayor, who, seeing no prospect of peace between the women, ordered the girl to be sent to her father in the country.

The Crops.—The following extract of a letter from an intelligent planter, dated Monticello, Fairfield County, September 5, has been received: I postponed writing you about the crops until this day, we knowing that the effects of the drought could not be fully ascertained, nor a correct estimate made of the cotton crop until picking had fairly commenced; and even now I have concluded to say but little about it, for the reason that so many estimates have been published in the newspapers, during the last two weeks, from Fairfield and the adjoining counties. I would simply say that I have been cotton planting for upwards of thirty years, and am certain that I never saw so complete a failure in the cotton crop.

All's Well That Ends Well.—Yesterday morning a colored man from the country, W. Brown by name, entered the store of Mr. Hart, in the lower part of King street, for the purpose of buying a hat. After suiting himself with one, Brown stood admiring the fit while, and then stepped to the door for the purpose of freeing his mouth from the tobacco-juice with which it was filled. The storekeeper was watching him closely, and thinking he was about to decamp, rushed upon him, seized him by the collar, and crying thief! struck him several blows. A crowd soon collected, and the parties were escorted by the police to Trial Justice McKinlay's office. Cross warrants were taken out, and the trial proceeded at once. Brown was found not guilty of the larceny or attempt to commit one, but Hart was found guilty of the assault and battery. The justice imposed a fine of five dollars and costs upon him, but the defendant appealed to the Court of General Sessions.

All for the Pigs.—Yesterday morning a serious affray took place in Spring street, near King, between Mr. Hogan, the well-known butcher, and Roundman John P. C. Osterholz, of the police force. The latter had been active some time since, in reporting the premises, among them Mr. Hogan's, where pigs were kept, and on his daily rounds was frequently saluted with the call of pig! pig! Not relishing these civilities, he turned on Hogan and asked if he had removed those hogs yet, and hearing that Hogan had threatened to thrash him, told him it was a good time now and "to come on." The latter, nothing loath, pitched into the official in scientific style, and was pummeling him pretty badly when he, the boy in blue, drew his six-shooter and snapped it twice in Hogan's face. The latter, being unarmed, picked up a brick to return the fire, when the doughy official took to his heels, preferring to decide the matter at law. Hogan was arrested and tried before Trial Justice T. J. Mackey for the assault and battery. He made no defence but a plain statement of the case, sustained by witnesses, and was fined one dollar and costs. Upon paying the fine he was discharged.

Clubs and Stars.—Newall Lavendry, arrested for being drunk and disorderly in State street, was sentenced to pay a fine of five dollars or spend ten days in the House of Correction. Charles Williams and Charlotte Lodge, lodged for raising a disturbance and fighting in Calhoun street, were sentenced each to pay a fine of five dollars or go to the House of Correction for five days. Subnel Gay, colored, supposed to be insane, was lodged in the Guardhouse, and referred to the city registrar for examination. Patrick Adams, Lewis James and Agrippa Jenkins, the trio from Florence, and Andy Robinson, all lodged on the charge of larceny, were held for further examination. Nattie Johnson, for whooping and cursing in Queen street, was made to choose between paying a fine of five dollars and spending ten days in the House of Correction.

Andrew Zwinnigan, arrested for being drunk and disorderly in Laurens street, and threatening to shoot C. Plath, was fined one dollar for the cart which conveyed him to the Guardhouse, and was turned over to a trial justice. A horse, found at large in Broad street, was ordered to be advertised, and delivered to the owner on application.

NEWS ABOUT THE FEVER.

No Deaths in the Last Twenty-four Hours.—The Work of the Weather.—Last Week's Mortality.—The Fever in Beaufort, &c., &c. The city registrar reports only one certificate of death from yellow fever during the twenty-four hours ending at noon yesterday, and this death took place on Saturday. This is as cheering a statement as we could desire, and more encouraging than faint-hearted folk had ventured to expect. Doubtless, this glorious "autumn weather" is doing more for us than all the doctors and disinfectants in the city. The nights and mornings are deliciously cool, and the days more like the end of October than the beginning of September. We may, of course, have a return of the summer heats, but as the most critical fever period is from the first to the third week in September, every cool day lessens the chances of any serious augmentation in the number of deaths. This has been an early season. The winter was mild, and the summer temperature—with the exception of a short term of red-hot weather—has been remarkably low. This caused the opinion to gain ground that the back-bone of the summer is now broken, and that hot days for the rest of the season will be few and far between.

TUESDAY'S REPORT. OFFICE BOARD OF HEALTH, CHARLESTON, September 5, 1871.—12 M. One (1) certificate of death from yellow fever received since last report. This death occurred on the 2d of September, and the body was interred in the Trinity M. E. Cemetery. ROBERT LEBBY, City Registrar.

The Mortality of Last Week. We submit the official return of the city registrar for the week ending on Saturday last, from which it will be seen that the total number of deaths from yellow fever during the week was twenty-one:

RETURN OF DEATHS WITHIN THE CITY OF CHARLESTON, FOR THE WEEK ENDING SEPTEMBER 2, 1871.

Table with columns: CAUSES OF DEATH, Whites (Adults, Child), Blacks or Colored (Adults, Child), and Total. Rows include Apoplexy, Dropsy, Burns, Convulsions, Diarrhea, Cholera, Typhoid, etc.

RECAPITULATION. Whites 28, Blacks and Colored 18—total 46; and 1 still-born.

Table with columns: AGES, Whites, Blacks and Colored, Total. Rows include Under 1 year of age, Between 1 and 5 years of age, etc.

ROBERT LEBBY, M. D., City Registrar.

The Iron Line. By the notice in another column, it will be seen that for the present the steamers of this line will take no passengers from this city to New York, in order to insure dispatch and avoid detention of freight at the latter port.

Sanitary Matters. The street cleaning is being pushed forward with energy, and the weather favors the efforts in this direction. Fire carts were yesterday discharged, and also a foreman, who was found drunk. One bricklayer, who was almost in the same condition, was suspended.

A Warning to Hearse Drivers and Sextons. We are requested by the city registrar, Dr. Leiby, to call the attention of hearse keepers and sextons to the provisions of the first section of the ordinance of July 5, 1859. This section requires that the certificates of death be delivered to the city registrar on the day of interment, under a penalty of twenty-five dollars, which will be rigidly enforced against all offenders. The certificates must be left at the city registrar's office, and not at his residence.

Unremoved Filth. At the corner of Rafer's alley and Guignard street is a pile of decomposing matter, which has remained undisturbed for the past two days. Conspicuous in the heap is the carcass of a dead fowl and other matters, which send forth a stench far more agreeable to speak about than to experience. This quarter is the stronghold of the fever, and with such ramparts as the above, the yellow fever demon may make a determined stand. "Charge, Collins, charge!"

About Beaufort. As an answer to the statement in regard to the presence of yellow fever in Beaufort, printed in yesterday's News, we lay before the public the following letter, addressed to Dr. Leiby by the port physician of Beaufort. This letter, it will be noticed, is countersigned by the chairman of the board of health:

OFFICE OF THE PORT PHYSICIAN, BEAUFORT, S. C., September 2, 1871. Dear Sir,—I have just had an interview with the Board of Health. They inform me that two (2) deaths from fever have occurred here during the present week; none from any other cause; that there are three (3) cases of fever now under treatment, and no new case has come to their knowledge for the last seventy-two (72) hours.

JOHN A. JOHNSON, M. D., Port Physician. JAMES M. CROFT, Chairman Board of Health, Town of Beaufort, S. C.

An Enterprising Merchant.—Mr. C. A. Lengnick, who was so unceremoniously dislodged from his new store by the recent fire, has reopened at No. 133 Meeting street (up stairs), a few doors above Market street, where he has just received and opened an entirely new and fresh stock of millinery and straw goods, which he is offering on reasonable terms. Purchasers will do well to give his establishment a call.

Benevolent Association.—A number of young men assembled on Saturday evening and organized under the name of the South Carolina Benevolent Association. The following permanent officers were elected: John Hargrave, president; J. J. Driscoll, vice-president; D. R. Todd, secretary; D. Fogarty, treasurer. The object of the society is to visit and minister to the wants of the sick and destitute, and a more commendable one could not be aimed at. The association has a wide field in which to work, and if conducted in the spirit with which it was organized, cannot fail to effect much lasting good.

MEETING OF COUNCIL.

A regular meeting of Council was held last evening at the usual hour, present the Mayor and Aldermen Cunningham, Holloway, Hampton, Collins, Small, L. F. and E. P. Wall, Thorne, Howard and McKinlay. PETITIONS. The petition of Zion Presbyterian Church to have a lamp lighted in front of the church, was referred to the committee on lighting the streets, with power to act. REPORTS. Alderman Holloway stated that he had several matters under consideration, but had not been able to prepare his reports, and asked for further time, which was granted. The committee on ways and means reported favorably on the petition of Charles H. Moise, administrator, for the renewal of scrip for $1000 in city stock, and recommended that the same be granted. Adopted. The committee on steam engines reported favorably on the petition of F. Weston to erect a small steam engine for manufacturing purposes on Concord street. Adopted. The petition of James F. Slattery, asking to be relieved from the payment of the penalty of twenty per cent. upon his taxes, was reported upon favorably, and the same granted. BILLS.

Alderman Geddings being ill and absent, a large number of bills were left with Alderman Collins, who, being unable to examine and report the same correct, they were, on motion, ordered to lie over until the next regular meeting of Council. COMMUNICATIONS. A communication from six colored fire companies, through their presidents, asking compensation for their services in pumping out during nine days, at the rate of $35 a piece per day, was referred to the committee on the Fire Department, to report at the next regular meeting of Council. The civil engineer offered as sureties upon his bond for two thousand dollars, required by the ordinance creating the office, the names of Messrs. James T. Weisman and D. T. Corbin. On motion, the bondsmen were accepted. A communication from the civil engineer was presented, showing that he was an incumbent at the time of his election to his new office, and that there had been no quorum to approve of his bond, and asking for his increased pay from the date of the ratification of the ordinance creating his office. Alderman E. P. Wall offered a resolution that the ordinance of June 13, 1871, apply to the person holding the office of civil engineer, and that the increased salary be paid from that date. Alderman Collins moved to amend by making the salary payable from the date of election. The amendment was laid on the table. An exciting discussion ensued, and Aldermen Collins and Cunningham threatened to quit, and leave the Council without a quorum. The Mayor pacified them, and the yeas and nays being called, the resolution was passed—yeas 3, nays 3. Adjourned.

BILL HEADS printed on fine paper at $3, $4, $5, $6 and $8 per thousand, according to size, at The News Job Office.

SUPREME COURT DECISION, SEPTEMBER 4.—Thomas E. Cureton, administrator, vs. Mary E. Gilmore et al. Decree affirmed and appeal dismissed. Opinion by Wright, A. J.

A DESERVED COMPLIMENT.—At the last monthly meeting of the Pioneer German Society, of Cincinnati, General John A. Wagener, Mayor elect of this city, was elected an honorary member. ACTIVITY OF THE BURGLES.—Sunday evening a colored man attempted to rob Matthews' clothing store by breaking through the cellar of the house adjoining at the back. He was discovered while at work, and made good his escape. The same night a thief entered the residence of Dr. Ell Geddings, in George street, and made off with over $60—taken from the pockets of the doctor's clothing. Monday night a thief entered the store of Mr. H. Paris, at the corner of State street and Lodge alley, and cleverly rifled the money drawer of its contents without being detected. The proprietor first discovered the loss when he went to his till to change some money. About $16 was carried off.

THE REV. T. S. BOINEST died on Monday of typhoid fever, in Pomaria, Newberry, at which place he has been in charge of Bethlehem Church since he was ordained a minister in 1854. Mr. Boinest was a native of this city, and graduated at the Lutheran Seminary in Lexington. He held the office of president of the Lutheran Synod for four consecutive years, and after the war became one of the projectors of the Immigration Society of Newberry. He was afterwards elected president of the society, and held the office until the day of his death. The first immigrants who arrived here under its auspices came to him, and nearly all his employees after that time were either Germans or Swedes. He was well known and highly esteemed by many friends in this city and throughout the State.

COLUMBIA ITEMS.—The Columbia Oil Mills were sold on Monday, under a foreclosure of mortgage, for $19,500. The Charleston passenger train was delayed about three-quarters of an hour Monday afternoon, by the partial burning of a trestle near Kingville. The Governor offers a reward of five hundred dollars for the apprehension of the murderers of Nancy Coleman, of Fairfield County. The murder was committed by unknown parties, on the night of the 29th of July last. Comptroller-General Neagle has purchased from the Columbia Bridge Company the appurtenances and right of way, &c., over the Congaree River, and he has contracted for the lumber for the building of a bridge across on the old abutments. This will supply a most pressing need. The Mutual Base Ball Club, of the Columbia Garrison, starts this morning for Chester, to play a match game with the club of the garrison stationed there. Considerable interest is felt in the affair, and several of the officers will embrace the opportunity of witnessing it.

THE RIGHT MAN IN THE WRONG PLACE.—J. B. Wright, a former president of the colored Young Men's Christian Association, and ex-member of the Legislature, yesterday brought an action against the present vice-president of the association for forcibly ejecting him from the rooms of the same. The prosecutor had been expelled from the society for non-payment of arrears; but a clause of the constitution provides that should any member, expelled for this cause, appear within three months and pay up all dues, he shall be reinstated into all his former rights and benefits. Wright appeared within the prescribed time to pay up his arrears, but the insiders, he states, called the police and had him forcibly ejected. Upon this he brought the present action for damages against the vice-president. After due investigation, Trial Justice Schroder, before whom the case was tried, held that the action for damages would not lie against the vice-president, but should be brought against the association, and dismissed the suit. Wright was one of the original incorporators of the association, and as a member of the Legislature at the time, was mainly instrumental in obtaining the charter.

A NUISANCE.—The residents in the neighborhood of the corner of Chalmers and State streets were much annoyed, on Monday night, by the outrageous noise which proceeded from a colored ball near by. The disturbance was kept up until a late hour, and the policeman who was on duty in the vicinity, and whose duty it was to have put an end to the nuisance, was observed paying frequent visits to a barroom on the opposite side of the street.

A SEPTEMBER COTTON "SYNDICATE."—The last New York circular from E. J. Dowell, a Pearl street cotton broker, says: The demand for contracts has been greatly increased this week by the energetic efforts of the "bulls" to frighten the "bears." It is rumored that there is a clique, or combination, or ring, or syndicate (which I believe, is the latest name for such things), to receive the cotton on September contracts. Of course nobody will sell September short under such circumstances.
