SUPREME COURT DECISIONS, SEPTEMBER 13.—The South Carolina Society vs. William Gurney, county treasurer; motion refused and appeal dismissed.

The Hebrew Orphan Society vs. same; motion refused and appeal dismissed.

INSANE.—Wednesday evening, a colored girl named Lucy Chisolm, about eighteen years of age, was left there, supposed to be insane.

DISCHARGED.—Joe Simons and Joe Glover, charged with stealing clothing, and James Morrison, charged with buying and receiving the articles which the two Josephs had stolen, were brought before Trial Justice Magrath, yesterday afternoon, for examination.

BEARING THE LION.—On Wednesday night a woman named Catharine Kenny made her appearance in a state of mania in the front of the Upper Wards Guardhouse, and gave the inhabitants a serenade of shouts and howls which startled them from their official slumbers.

CLUBS AND STARS.—Mary Wickles, lodged for fighting and stabbing her husband, Robert, with a pair of scissors, was referred to a trial justice for prosecution.

Elizabeth Elliott, lodged for being drunk and raising a disturbance in Church street, was sentenced to pay a fine of ten dollars or go to the House of Correction for twenty days.

James Harper, for being drunk and disorderly in Meeting street, was made to choose between paying a fine of five dollars and going to the House of Correction for ten days.

THE FIRMEN'S FUNERAL.—The funeral of Mr. O. B. Collins took place yesterday at the hall of Hook and Ladder Company No. 1, still draped in mourning in memory of their deceased president, A. B. Jarvis.

A SUGGESTION FOR THE GENEROUS.—Among the numerous sufferers who are now experiencing the care and attention of the Howard Association, there are numbers just convalescing from severe attacks of illness.

HABEAS CORPUS.—William Grant and Ashley Carrere, the two colored boys who were committed to jail some weeks ago for cutting the ankle of a white boy named Mitchell, were brought before Trial Justice Caulfield and Magrath yesterday afternoon, upon a writ of habeas corpus.

HATS IN PAWN.—The conductors on the City Railway have not generally the most agreeable time in the world; but one of their greatest plagues was the habit of the street urchins of clinging to the sides and platforms of the cars and shouting defiance at their enemy.

LOAFERS DISPERSED.—The corner of King and Line streets has of late been the favorite evening resort of a band of colored men and boys, and the complaints of the disturbance caused by their loud talking and other disorderly conduct to the neighbors, made it necessary to bring the matter to a close.

THE HEALTH OF THE CITY.

The city registrar, Dr. Robert Leiby, has kindly furnished us with a detailed official statement of the deaths from yellow fever up to last Saturday, September 9.

Table with columns: DATE OF DEATH, Sex, Color, and Age. Lists deaths from July 25 to September 9, 1871.

Comparing this table with the mortality in preceding yellow fever seasons, we have the following result:

Table comparing mortality in 1854, 1856, 1858, and 1871. Columns: Year, Deaths up to August 5, Week ending, August 12, August 19, August 26, September 2, September 9, Total.

NOTE.—The week in 1856, corresponding to that ending September 9, 1871, ended on September 13, and, in 1858, on September 11.

The death reported on Monday took place on the 9th, and is included in the foregoing statement. Three deaths were reported on Wednesday, and one yesterday, making a Grand Total of 51.

The following table shows the mortality by nationality, excluding the four deaths last reported:

Only one certificate of death from yellow fever was received in the twenty-four hours ending at noon yesterday, viz: A. Rowe, who died on the 13th instant.

THURSDAY'S REPORT. OFFICE OF BOARD OF HEALTH, CHARLESTON, September 14, 1871, 12 M.

In addition to the above, the following certificates have been received since last report: One for broncho pneumonia, dated September 12.

Chloride of Lime. A large quantity of this effective disinfectant has been bought by the city, and can be obtained free of charge on application at the Upper and Lower Guardhouses and at the City Hospital.

Chief M. H. Nathan, accompanied by Messrs. Street and Smith, have had an interview with the Mayor, at which the steam fire engines were offered to the city for use in pumping out the water which has gathered in the cellars and low places of the city.

Mr. JOHN MARSHALL, JR.—One of the most prominent young merchants of our city died on Wednesday evening at his residence, in Washington street, in the thirtieth year of his age.

By this new method the bells are rung direct from the station box by the policeman or fireman, who first discovers the fire, and in an instant everybody knows exactly where the location is.

"NO MONOPOLY."

Opening of the Southern and Atlantic Telegraph Company.

The Southern and Atlantic Telegraph Company opened its Charleston offices yesterday, and is now ready for the transaction of all the business that may offer.

That competition will be an immense saving to the business public is shown by the fact that not long ago the Western Union Company charged $1.85 for a ten word message from Charleston to New York.
