NEW LONG COTTON .- Five bales of new Florida long cotton were received yesterday, per the Savannah and Charleston Railroad, by Messrs. W. B. Williams & Son. The cotton was shipped by P. Pinkussohn from Gainesville, Florida. BURNED TO DEATH .- Elizabeth Shepherd, of Columbia, was so severely burned on Friday afternoon, while endeavoring to rescue puppy, which she feared was in danger of getting injured, shat she died at an early hour Saturday morning. COUNTRY ASSESSMENTS REDUCED .- The county board of equalization, which was in session last week, concluded its labors on Saturday. The assessment of 1870, which has hitherto been the standard by which the country real estate of the county has been taxed, has been reduced twenty-five per cent. by the board.

MUNICIPAL ELECTION AT WILLISTON .- The election for an intendant and four wardens for the Town of Williston took place on the 11th instant, and the following gentlemen were chosen to serve that town for the next year: Intendant, Dr. J. L. Brooker. Wardens. J. D. Browne, H. D. Hogg, J. S. Burckalter, T. F. S. Weathersbee.

A New Director .- The Phoenix, of Sunday, says: "At a meeting of the directors of the Charlotte, Columbia and Augusta Railroad Company, held in this city, on Thursday, Mr. W. T. Walters, of Baltimore, was unanimously elected to fill a vacancy in the board. Mr. Walters is one of the party of gentlemen for whom a majority of the stock of the company was lately bought, and has great and extensive railroad experience and influence.'

FLEECED .- Saturday afternoon a colored rustle, John Phœnix by name, was inveigled into a house in Elliott street and robbed of a pair of new shoes and seven dollars in currency. The victim made considerable outcry when he discovered his losses, and, the police coming in, arrested him and Ellen Butterfield, his entertainer. The two came before the Mayor yesterday morning, and after an examination, the case was referred to a trial justice for prosecution.

A FEMININE QUARREL .- Abby Jenkins, colored woman, residing in a house on King street, assaulted her co-tenant, Rebecca, on Saturday night, and a noisy fight followed. The neighbors were more interested in preserving quiet than encouraging the fight, and, cailing the police, had the two combatants arrested. The two beldams were brought before the Mayor yesterday, and sentenced cach to pay a fine of five dollars or go to the House of Correction for ten days.

VILD CAT .- The Southern Express Company as recently made a handsome addition to its zoological department in the shape of a feroclous looking tiger cat. The stranger was caught in the upper part of the State, and is a well-developed specimen. The wild forest spirit is yet strong within him, and he resents The introduction of every visitor with a grow and spring, which makes one feel vastly interested in the strength of the wire grating which forms the front of his temporary abode.

RECEPTION IN SAVANNAH OF THE CONFEDER. ATE DEAD .- The steamship America, from Baltimore, arrived at Savannah Friday, having on board the remains of a number of Confederate dead, removed from the battle-field of Gettysburg. A committee of ex Confederate soldiers took the honored remains in charge immediately, and escorted them to the long room of the Exchange building, where they laid in state until Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock. At that hour they were carried in procession to Laurel Grove Cemetery and interred. The vessels in part lowered their flags in honor of the gallant dead.

A PERSONAL DIFFICULTY .- The Wilmington Journal says: "We learn that a very serious difficulty occurred at Florence on Thursday last, about 3 o'clock, between two residents of that place, Messrs. Echleman and Pawley, by which the latter was pretty badly beaten. It seems that some difficulty had occurred between the two, when, happening to meet, from words they passed to blows. Mr. Pawley is said to have had one eye injured and a jaw bone broken, besides receiving several very severe bruises on other parts of his face and body. No weapons were used in the en-

A FUSS IN THE FAMILY .- Jane Miller was arrested by warrant from Trial Justice T. J. Mackey, charged by her husband, Paul Miller, with stealing two pillows and half a dozen plates, his property. It appears they have been married twenty years, and have two children, the eldest seventeen years old, but the free-love doctrine having taken firm hold of Jane, she had concluded to follow the object of her new love, and carry the above housekeeping commencements with her. The trial stice recommended a division of the house-held property, and that the parties settle their dispute quietly between themselves.

DAY OF ATONEMENT .- Yesterday, the tenth day of the Hebrew month "lishri," was the Day of Atonement, the day which has always been kept most sacred by Israelites of every period since the era of their illustrious lawgiver. On it no work whatever is done; neither food nor drink tasted for twenty-four hours, and the greater part of this time spent in devotional exercises at the synagogue. Those among them who aspire to special sanctity, spent the entire twenty-four hours in the synagogue, engaged in prayer, chanting of hymns, reading of the Scriptures, &c. A blast of the horn denotes the appearance of the stars, when the long black fast is ended. The synagogue was well attended yesterday, notwithstanding the absence from the city of a considerable number of the members.

CLUBS AND STARS .- Edward Fields and David McGillivray, lodged for being disorderly and raising a disturbance on King street, were sentenced each to pay a fine of five dollars or go to the House of Correction for ten days. Eliza Campbell, a colored virago, arrested for cursing and abusing a policeman in Market street, near State, was visited with a similar sentence.

Of six persons arrested for lying down drunk and being disorderly on the streets, one forfeited his deposit of five dollars, and the others were sentenced to pay a fine of five dollars or spend ten days in the House of Correction.

Henry Draine, arrested for being disorderly copy. Trial Justice John G. Mackey's office, was sentenced to pay a fine of ten dollars or spend twenty days in the House of Correction. He appealed from Mayor Pillsbury to Trial Justice T. J. Mackey, and will be heard this morning. fort, S. C.; J. H. Burckhalter, Williston, S. C.

THE HEALTH OF THE CITY.

The Northern and Western press complain that the Chareston papers have very little to say about the yellow lever. What should they say? There is no excitement in the city, all the scare is over, and we are confident that the early arrival of settled cool weather will clean out the dregs of the disease. All the facts are before the public. They know every day how many persons die from all causes, and they can judge for themselves whether the fever is of a malignant type. Here is poor little Vicksburg, with its five thousand inhabitants, reports five deaths from fever in one day, although the disease has just made its appearance; while Charleston, with its fifty thousand inhabitants, after two months of iever, can only report five deaths for the tweny-four hours ending at noon yesterday. Of the five deaths reported by Dr. Lebby yesterday, one occurred on Friday the 22d, two on Saturday the 23d, and two on Sunday the 24th. This will make the total number of deaths, for the week erding last Saturday, twenty-nine instead of twenty-six. Of the fever deaths reported yesterday, one was a German, one an Irishman, one an Italian, one a Charlestonian, and one a native of Colleton. OFFICE BOARD OF HEALTH,

BLOODY WORK.

Colored Man Wounded and Cast Adrift-The Condition of the Victim-Bringing Him to Charleston.

The following letter, from the assistant health officer at Fort Johnson, describes the finding of a negro man, wounded to death, evidently the victim of a foul murder. Suspicions are entertained that the bloody tale is not all told, and that more than one person was murdered. The letter was sent up to the city by a special boat, from the quarantine station, and was received by Dr. Robt. Lebby, at the City Hospital, at 12 M. yesterday:

tal, at 12 M. yesterday:

MONDAY MORNING, September 25.

Dear Futher—I saw a flat upon the beach yesterday morning, and I directed Paul Campbell and Dan. McCord to go and secure it before the return of the tide. Daniel returned and informed me that a colored man was lying outside of the flat, nearly dead. I at once took the rest of the crew up with me, and sure enough. I found a colored man, and, sure enough, I found a colored man, about thirty years of age, with heavy black whiskers, about five feet eight inches high. heavy set, lying in the mud, with a number of cuts about his face and head, and a fracture of the frontal bone about the centre, the brain-matter oozing out and the bone compressing upon the brain, causing unconsciousness. He had on a heavy souff-colored coat, with color-ed pants and a black felt hat. The flat is about twenty-five feet long, painted or tarred black—such a one as is usually used for wood. There is also in the flat a great quantity of blood, with stains of the same bout the gunwales. A foul murder has been attempted, and the poor victim has been left either to die or for dead. He has revived somewhat this morning, but is still unable to speak and give any account of himself. I think that if he was taken to the hospital and the depressed bone raised he might recover. I am doing all I can to save him, but having no instruments I cannot raise

None of the colored people around here know him or the flar, which I have had brought down and put inside of the breakwater in front of my house. I am at a loss to know what further course to pursue in the matter, except to have the circumstances published in the papers.

If you so direct, I will send the man up to If you so direct, I will send the man up to the hospital, or, probably, it would be better to send some one with the necessary instruments to relieve his brain from the compression. Please let me hear at once from you what course to pursue, and oblige, your son, city as fast as the crew could pull the boat. The wounded man was brought to the city in the alternoon, and received into the hospital at five o'clock, still in an unconscious state-His frontal bone was broken in pieces, apparently by repeated blows, and both of his eyes were badly bruised. His feeble state prevented any surgical operations for his relief. When last heard from he had not yet spoken, and was still lying in a critical unconscious state.

THE NEW EVENING PAPER .- "The Advertiser," after one week's existence, has changed its name and character. Its brief experience is that political neutrality in a public journal here is an impos-ibility. It therefore adopts the name of "The Nationalist," and promises to advocate independently "the cause of true Republicanism.

THE CATHEDRAL PAROCHIAL SCHOOL .- The studies of this school will be resumed on Monday next, according to notice given in another column. The course of education is thorough, and the teachers are in every way qualified for their position. The fee for the primary department is one dollar a month, and for the higher departments two dollars a month.

AN APPEAL TO THE SWORD .- During a quarrel yesterday afternoon in a saloon in Market street, near State, between two white men, one of them seized an old sword and, rushing upon the other with the weapon raised, made a swinging chop at him. As the blow descended a colored drayman kindly interposed and caught the sword on his hand. The crowd then separated the combatants before any further blows could pass. The only injury received was by the drayman, who had his hand and fingers severely cut.

A NEW MASONIC PUBLICATION .- The Washngton papers announce the appearance of the first issue of "Mackey's National Freemason," a monthly magazine, devoted to the science, philosophy, history, symbolism and jurisprudence of Masonry, edited by Albert G. Mackey. M. D., past general grand high priest of the G. G. C. of the United States of America, and secretary general of the Supreme Council of the Thirty-Third, for the Southern Jurisdiction of the United States. The high reputation of Dr. Mackey as a writer on Masonic subjects, is a sufficient guarantee that this magazine will form a valuable addition to the literature of the order in this country, and that this magazine will attain an extensive circulation among its members. The contents of the October number are of much interest. Among the most attractive articles are "Parli amentary Law as Applied to Masonic Bodies;" "The Stonemasons of the Middle Ages;" "Henry Cornellus Agripppa, an Uninitiated Freemason," and "Old Records of Freemasonry," all by Dr. Mackey. "Templarism: its Duty and its Sphere," by Albert Pike; "Is Ignorance a Crime in Masonry," by Dr. John Edwin Mason. of Washinton, and "Tidings from the Craft-Freemasonry at Home and Abroad," by Brother William R. At a meeting of Jefferson Lodge, No. 4, I. O. O. F., held on Tuesday evening, the 19th instant, the following preample and resolutions were unanimously adopted: When Death strikes down a member of a society and removes from amongst his colleagues one whom long and familiar associaleagues one whom long and familiar association has endeared to them, the broken ties of individual friendship awaken sorrow and grief in the hearts of the survivors; but when one is taken away from us whom we knew but as a stranger in a strange land, until that portal was passed which brought him within the pale of our order, only a few months ago, and ere we had opportunity of knowing him well, we are necessarily most impressed with the melancholy circumstance of his dying far from his home and those to whom he was bound by ties of kindred, while we cannot but feel grateful that we, as Odd Fellows, have been permitted to extend to him, in his last days, the friendly hand and hearty sympathy of brothers. Therefore, be it.

Resolved, That in the death of Brother Resolved, That in the death of Blother Thomas Fox, who died of yellow lever on the 25th of Angust, 1871, Jefferson Lodge, No. 4, I. O. O. F., has been deprived of a brother whom we shall hold in remembrance, because in his connection with the Lodge and early death thereafter has been exemplified the highest beneficence of our institution.

Resolved, That we are reminded by his removal of the insecure tenure of life, and that we should, therefore, the more carefully show we should, therefore, the more carefully show ourselves to be "true Odd Fellows," that death may not come upon us while our work is un-finished, and that we may meet in "good standing" in the Celestial Lodge on High, there to dwell forever in perfect friendship, love and Resolved. That we sympathize with his relatives, wherever they may be, and regret that we are denied the sad privilege of communi-cating any expression of our sympathy to them.

Resolved, That a page in our minutes be dedicated and inscribed to his memory, and that this preamble and these resolutions be published in the daily papers. Extract from the minutes.

JNO. D. MEYERS, Recording Secretary.

At a meeting of Jefferson Lodge, No. 4, I. 0. 0. F., held on Tuesday evening, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Again, in the space of a few weeks, has Death removed from our midst one of our brothers, and we are now called upon to mourn the loss of one who, by his courteous and kindly manners and meritorious deportment, during the short time of his connection with our Lodge, had drawn around him a circle of warm friends from our midst. Thirteen years ago both of the parents of the subject of our remarks fell victims to the scourge that has so lately laid our brother low in death. We feel less called upon to eulogize his life and virtues than to express our sorrow and sympathy with his afflicted family. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That Jesterson Lodge, No 4, I. O. O. F., has, by the death of Brother Charles H. Konig, lost a member whose conduct, while connected with us, has been in the highest decrease calculated to min owner the highest decrease. gree calculated to win our regard and esteem, and one from whom we are grieved to part.

Resolved. That we shall cherish the remembers brance of his presence among us as pleasant to dwell upon, and of his actions as worthy of our imitation; and that we look forward to a our imitation; and that we look forward to a a happy reunion hereafter in the presence of that Grand Master whose well-done we hope to merit, as has our departed brother.

Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with his bereaved sisters in their great affliction, and tender to them as a sad privilege this expression of our sentiments in the time of their services.

Rescived, That a page in our minutes be in-sembed and dedicated to his memory, and that a copy of this preamble and these resolutions be sent to his family.

MERCHANT'S GARGLING OIL has become one of the most popular Liniments for human flesh that is now prepared, while for horses and cattle it has no equal in the world. We are assured by those who have used it for the piles—one of whom is a distinguished physician—that among all the various pile remedies, none afforded such speedy relief as the GARGLING OIL.

From Grump & Bros., Cochrane Landing, Ohio, November 20, 1856:
We are pleased with your medicine. It has been the means of curing a great number of different diseases upon persons, as also upon horses. We think it cures all you recommended it to do. We want you to send us the larger proportion of the var.ety for "family use," in small bottles.
