THE PHILADELPHIA STEAMER GULF STREAM has been unavoidably detained, and will sali on Saturday morning, at 11 o'clock.

PERSONAL .- William S. Tillinghast, son of the late Hon. R. L. Tillinghast, of Beaufort, was admitted to the bar, before Judges Mores. at Newberry, a few days since.

THE AIKEN PREMIUM LAND SALE.—This drawing will take place as advertised, on November 30. No postponement. They who desire to make a fortune at the cost of $5 had better communicate with Mr. Derby at once. THE STREET CARS.—The regular winter schedule of the City Railway Company went into operation on the 1st of October, and the last car now leaves the lower terminus at 9 o'clock instead of 10, as heretofore during the summer. The last Rutledge street car starts from the old Postoffice, and the last King street car from the Battery.

CLUBS AND STARS .- Thomas Parker, a colored youth, arrested for fighting at the corner of Read and King streets, was sentenced to pay a e of five dollars or spend five days in the House of Correction.

Michael O'Rafferty, supposed to be insane, and lodged by his friends for safekeeping, was referred to the city registrar for examination.

SHARP STEALING -Martin Jackson, a colored juvenile, was brought before the Mayor yesterday morning, charged with stealing from his employer. The youthful prisoner had been hired by a barber, and, being left in the shop, appropriated several razors, which he wanted to dispose of. The property was recovered by the owner, and, no prosecutor appearing against Martin, he was discharged with a re-

OUR PRICES CURRENT .- We especially invite the attention of our merchants to THE NEWS Prices Current, issued this morning. Made up with the utmost care, and handsomely printed with entirely new Type, it forms, with the business card of the house forwarding it, the attractive and welcome weekly commer-al circular that can be used. Price, for ten copies or more, with business cards, two and a halt cents per copy; single copies five cents. PARADE ON HORSEBACK.—The Charleston

Mounted Social Club will have a parade this afternoon at the old Militia Parade Ground, near the Magazine. The club will form be tween two and three o'clock at the corner of Shepherd and King streets, in full uniform, and march up to the ground. The organization and preparation of this club have been pushed forward with energy by those in authority, and we congratulate the club on their arst appearance in the field.

THE CAMPEN CASES.—Messrs. Thomas J. An-crum, Jr., and Alexander H. Boykin were brought before United States Commissioner Boozer, in Columbia, on Wednesday, charged with conspiracy, &c., against an officer of the United States. After an examination, in which Mr. Worthington represented the United States, and Messrs. Pope and Kershaw the defendants, they were based in the sum of two thousand dollars to appear at the next term of the United States Circuit Court, at Columbia, on the 4th Monday in November next.

THE BOTTLE ALLEY IMP .- Seabrook Mills, a SALE .- Colonel J. R. Sneed, editor and prosmall colored boy, aged fifteen, was arrested prietor of the Savannah Republican, publishes yesterday morning by Officers Burke and Dacolumn:

Finding, after several years' experience, the duties of the editorial chair and the cares of proprietership not only incompatible, but exhaustive of both mind and body, I have determined to change my occupation for one less laborious and exciting. I therefore offer at private sale the Savannah Republican, including newspaper and job office. Of the rank of the Republican among the public journals of the South, it, perhaps, does not become me to speak. The public, however, has been kind enough to class it among the foremost in character and fiftuence. It is the oldest newspaper in the South, being now in its seventieth year. It has a good circulation for the times, which, with a little effort, may be largely increased, while its local and general advertising patronage is fully equal to that of any paper in the State. vis, charged with stealing some money and a few small articles from a residence in Lamboll street. Seabrook had been employed to do some light work about the premises, but his ruling passion proved too strong for his pricciples, and he made off with such "portable property" as he could pick up. Seabrook is the hopeful lad who, in his flight from the housenwas encountered by a detective in Bottle alley, whom he fooled by telling that he was running to head off another boy. He is

AMONG THE COTTON BALES.-Last evening while the watchman on Fraser's whari was walking around he discovered a dark object snugly esconced among the cotton bales under the shed, and upon stirring up the mass it gave forth signs of life, and presently stepped out in the shape of a small negro boy. He gave his name as Marcus Rivers, and hails from Georgetown, S. C. Not being able to explain the why and the wherefore of his position he was turned over to the police, who carried the boy to the Guardhouse and locked him up on the charge of vagrancy. He will discuss the matter with the Mayor this morn-held for examination.

LUBS TRUMPS .- Justice Grant and Charlie Myers, two fast rouths of color, became engaged in an exciting game of "Old Sledge," yesterday morning, in a grocery store in King street, below Tradd, for a small stake "just to make it interesting." Myers was six to also to be taken out against Chief Hendricks Grant's three, when the former dealt himself High and Low, and, making Out, grabbed the for his participation in the affair. It seems stakes. Grant was losing, and as Myers to be admitted, on all hands, that he was at graveed the stakes he accused the latter of least an accessory in the crime. The whole cheating and pitched into him. In a twinkling matter is to be sitted before Trial Justice Mi-Myers found himself on his back in the middle nott as soon as heads well enough to try the of the muddy street, with Grant upon him. The blows were raining down, and Myers, with of screening or whitewashing any guilty party great presence of mind, bellowed for the police, who came up and found the combatants whatsoever. He informs us that his statein this interesting position. The two were ment in yesterday's News was in response to a direct inquiry from Chief Hendricks as to taken to the Guardhouse and looked up to appear before the Mayor this morning.

THE TIDAL WAVE .- The advent of this tide. which, if taken at the flood, was to lead to Kingdom come, was looked for with much interest yesterday by many citizens, who had more faith in the cold water cure than in the sceptical scientists who declared that the predicted phenomenon was out of the question. The tremendous fall of rain about 12 o'clock confirmed their belief, and anxious faces glanced down Meeting street and over the Battery seaward to observe the first signs of any oceanic commotion. As the day wore on, however, the sky cleared, and the symptoms becoming less ominous, all thoughts of the phenomenon, which never came, were discarded. The flats and boats which have been | ning of October 10. kept perdu in yards awaiting the denouement, may now be brought forth for their pursuits, and the credulous may look out for a new excitement, and convert their life-preservers into coats of mail, on the icecooler principle, so as to be capable of resisting the heat of the conflagration to be produced by Encke's comet.

well-known firm of Goodrich, Wineman & Co.

Mr. Goodrich was a native of Charleston, and was generally regarded as one of our most

Mr. Conner was a native of Macon, Ga.,

and was thirty-six years of age. He became connected with the business of telegraphing

when quite young, and for eighteen years has been regarded as a skilful operator. He was, indeed, a thorough master of his profession.

At the time of the breaking out of the war Mr.

Conner was in charge of the telegraph office

at Macon, but he promptly resigned that position, and went into active service as an army telegraph operator. With the army he remained, doing his duty faithfully and well, until the war closed. He was again placed in charge of the Macon telegraph office, but,

shortly afterward, turned his attention to planting, in which he lost heavily. In coming to Charleston it was Mr. Conner's expectation that he would ultimately take charge of the Southern and Atlantic Telegraph Company's office in his native city, and we doubt not but

EXPLANATION OF THE DISTRIBUTION.

MERCHANT'S GARGLING OIL has become one of the most popular Liniments for human fiesh that is now prepared, while for horses and cattle it has no equal in the world. We are assured by those who have used it for the piles—one — whom is a distinguished physician—that among all the various pile remedies, none afforded such speedy relief as the GARGLING OIL.

From Crump & Bros., Cochrane Landing, Ohio, November 20, 1856:

We are pleased with your medicine. It has been the means of curing a great number of different diseases upon persons, as also upon horses. We think it cures all you recommend—i it to do. We want you to send us the larger proportion of the var.ety for "family use," in small bottles. Numbers from 1 to 10.000 (the same numbers being on the Certificates) are printed on separate slips of paper, which are each encircled in tubes, and are all placed in a Glass Raffle Cylinder. The four hundred awards, in accordance with the Schedule above, are also printed on separate slips of paper, and each is encircled in a tube, and all are then placed in another Glass Cylinder called the paper, and each is encircled are both revolved, and a number is taken from the Cylinder of numbers by a boy blindfolded, and one of the awards is taken from the Award Cylinder by a boy likewise blindfolded, both of which are exhibited to the spectators, and such number will be entitled to the award; and this operation will be repeated until 400 numbers are taken from the Number Cylinder and 400 Awards from the Award Cylinder to such numbers.

The Commissioners will enter down each number on their books as taken from the Cylinder numbers, and the awards to each as taken from the Award Cylinder.

The Raffle will take place on the day and commence at the hour named; there will be no post ponement whatever, and all the awards must be distributed.
