NEWS OF THE DAY.

...Gold closed yesterney at 121. -The New York cotton market closed firm;

uplands 181 cents; sales 2044 bales. -In Liverpool cotton closed quiet and steady; uplands 91d, Orleans 91d; sales 10,000 bales.

-One grave on the battle-field of Gravelotte contains twenty-five hundred corpses. -Parisian sporting characters are betting that Napoleon will be back there within a year. -A new style of earrings is of gold coins hung by a small chain, with a gold star of diamonds between each of them.

-Thousands of farms in France and Germany are divided one from another only by a narrow path; in this country the cost of fences is estimated at $300,000,000.

-Lisa Weber's burlesque company fell into the hands of indignant creditors at Louisville recently, and the proprietor, Mrs. Mulialy, narrowly escaped being gratuitously made up as "Black-eyed William."

-William M. Evarts describes the presen political contest in New York to be a contest "in defence of the property and earnings of the great mass of our people against the rapine and plunder of a greedy combination of Logues in office." -The German gambling-house proprietor who are about to be driven out of Baden, Homburg, Wiesbaden and other German watering-places, are in Paris trying to arrange with the government for a concession in that city. None of the journals have yet raised a voice against the project. -The financial situation in Paris braus to look squally, crediting the testimony of the London Times' writers. On the other hand, other correspondents say the French treasury is in a position to meet all its engagements not only on the first of December, but up to the middle of January. -The Renforth crew had an enthusiastic re ception on their return to Newcastle, Kelley being put in a cab and drawn through the streets. A challenge from this crew to row any four-cared crew a race for £200 a side, within five weeks from the time of the first deposit, has been accepted by the Winship

-The latest wrinkle at fashionable weddings in New York is for a black page, in livery, to walk into church before the bride and groom, carrying a small white satin cushion. on which is embroidered a monogram in gilt letters, which he places in front of the altar for the couple to kneel on, and carries it out again at the close of the ceremony.

-The people of St. Mary's Parish, Dover, England, to whom the Archbishop of Canterbury lately appealed to relinquish the right of choosing their own clergyman, have voted to abandon the privilege. Hereafter the living will be in the gitt of three trustees-the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord-Lieutenant of Kent, and the warden of the Cinque Ports.

-A colored member of the Texas Legislature was recently seen with a roll of greenbacks in his hand, over which he chuckled so loudly as to attract the attention of a bystander, who said to him: "What are you laughing at, Jim?" Jim replied, "You se that money?" "Yes." "Well, boss, I just got that for my. vote. I'se been bought four or five times in my life, but dis is de fust time I ever got de cash myseli."

-in spite of the approach of winter, coal is now lower than it has been for many weeks, and apparently about to reach a still lower figure. The New York World thinks that this is due in part to the large production of the mines and the absence of strikes either at the mines or along the routes of transportation, and in part to the fact that many persons, afraid of monopolists, laid in their winter's supply in July and August.

We learn from the Wilmington Star tha Mr. Sinclair, of Lumberton, has publicly declared his intention to bring suit against United States Marshal S. T. Carrow for alleged forgery. Sinclair, we understand, states that on a certain occasion he borrowed one hundred dollars from Carrow; that subsequently he received through that functionary the appointment of census-taker for Robeson County. He performed the dutles required of him and forwarded to the department at Washington a statement of the amount due him for his services; that a check for the amount was subsequently forwarded by the department, through Carrow, of which he received due notification; but Sinclair states that Carrow, instead of forwarding him the check, as he was in duty bound to do, forged his (Sinclair's) endorsement upon it, drew the amount called for on its face, deducted the one hundred dollars which Sinclair was due him, and forwarded the balance to his address,

-The Meridian, Miss., Gazette has an ac count of a cowardly and unprovoked murder that was recently committed at Artesia by a lawless and infurlated mob of Radicals, both whites and negroes, the victim being a harmless citizen named Lee. It appears that about two thousand persons had assembled near the railway depot to hear speeches from two Radi_ cal orators named Lewis and Bliss. While the latter was in the midst of a violent harangue, Lee walked from a hotel near by to the speakers' stand for the purpose of listening. He was a stranger in the place, and in some way suspicions of his "loyalty" began to be whispered among the crowd, which soon became turbulent and riotous. Perceiving that there was danger of personal injury, Lee was endeavoring to depart, when he was set upon by the yelling assemblage, with guns and knives. One blow of a sabre cut a fearful gash in the back of his head, which alone would have killed him. Only one of the shots fired at him took effect, but that was enough. Not satisfied with this, the cowardly assailants kicked and trampled upon the body after it was lifeless, and then fled in every direction It is established by the testimony of responsible eye-witnesses that Lee was in no manner interfering with the meeting, and he was known to have been entirely unconnected with any poitical quarrel. -The suggestion of the Missouri Republican to the effect that the national Democratic party should make no nomination for President. but attach its powerful organization as a bob ed Republicans may construct in case of Grant's renomination, is not received with favor in any quarter. The Republican itself is the only Democratic journal of influence in the party or the country which countenances the proposal in the remotest degree. Such journals as the Cincinnati Enquirer, the Indianapolis Sentinel, the Chicago Times, and others of weight in the West, where the matter is chiefly discussed. the proposed surrender as an scout absurd and visionary scheme, repugnant alike to honor and to common sense. The Chicago Times styles it a "crazy departure," and ridicules the idea that the Democratic party is unable to furnish leaders for the battle which in either case it would have to fight by itself. It is far from probable that the Democrats of Missouri are ready to accept such a disposition of their political fortunes; and, as for the party elsewhere, the Times is correct when it says that, while furnishing ninety-nine per cent. of the voters of the proposed combination, it would prefer to supply at least one per cent. of the candidates to be voted for. -Parislan correspondence throws more light upon the popular reaction in favor of Napoleon. The result of the recent elections was a surprise to many sanguine and shortsighted Republicans. The Bonapartist vote was not as large as that party expected, but at the same time t was twice as large as anybody else expected. The most striking point in these elections is that the Legitfmist vote was very small, and the Orleanist vote not counted at all. One of the main results, therefore, is that the field has been narrowed down to the contest between the Imperialists and the Republicans. The former gain adherents every day. A correspondent relates an occurrence which illustrates the present state of public sentiment A party of women were making purchases in a shop. "After all," said one, "if things go on in this way two months longer, they'll have to call back the one they have affected to despise so much." "Yes," said another, "say what they may about Napoleon III, he was good to the poor. For my part, the sooner he comes back the better." Public talk has a great effect upon the French, and immediately every one in the shop was eager to say a good word for the Emperor. The onerous taxes levied by the Republicans, whether necessary or not, cannot be borne by the people. They see that they are poorer and not so well governed, and naturally long for a return of the old, pleasant, prosperous days.

The State Finances.

The carefully weighed assertions of the New York World, in regard to an over-issue of the bonds of the State of South Carolina, have excited an uneasiness which will not be removed by any explanation, or promise of amendment, which Governor Scott and his financial coadjutors may vouchsafe to make. There is, as we said yesterday, no confidence in the honesty, or even the good intentions, of the gang of adventurers who hold the strings of the public purse. From the very beginning of their career they have calmly ignored every other consideration than their own profit. And if they have besides the extravagances which are positively known, made a gigantic stroke, in the shape of an unauthorized issue of twenty million dollars of State bonds, they will have done no more than was expected of them. In November, 1869, when the debt of the State was officially declared to be $6,183,349, it was in reality more than $9,000,000. The State officers, even then, omitted from their accounts the past due Fire Loan bonds amounting to $484,444, and the $2,700,000 of State bonds, signed up and in the hands of the Financial Agent. Last May the debt of the State was officially announced to be only $7,665,908, but it really was nearly $10,000,000. The State officers, at that time, omitted from their accounts the $2, 200,000 bonds held by Mr. Kimpton; $490,-000 of which had been sold by him, however, subsequently to the making up of the Comptroller's disingenuous report. Trickery and prodigality, with a keen eye to the main chance, have been the characteristics of the official financiers of the State; but it is hardly to be doubted that, without the stringency in the money market caused by the Chicago fire, they would have contrived to scratch along for some months to come The breakdown is sudden and complete Whether the Ring have, or have not, swindled the State to the tune of twenty millions, their credit is gone, and few persons will be willing to invest a dollar in the carpet-bag bonds of this State. They who are bond fide holders of those bonds had better keep them. Nothing is to be gained by throwing honestly acquired bonds upon a weak and staggering market. But the public will not be in a burry to come in and buy the bonds. That is sure. And the end of all this may be a thorough investigation of the financial condition of the State. We may say, however, at the start, that no investigation conducted by Governor Scott, or any of his officers, will have a feather's weight with this

If the Ring have not done this thing, if they have not issued any bonds which the law does not authorize, we must thank their moderation rather than their public virtue, They have had the power; and Governor Scott admits that twenty million of bonds were actually printed. Why? The taxpay ers of the State had already given forma notice that they would not recognize the Sterling Conversion bonds as a binding obligation. Why were these bonds printed in the face of so solemn a warning? What need was there of any conversion, unless for the purpose of legalizing and covering up fraudulent issues which could not in any other way be kept dark? It is even reported that the "twenty million" bonds are printed with the names of the State officials upon them-that they are, in fact, all ready for a

That Mr. Kimpton has been a costly insti tution to the State of South Carolina, no one will venture to deny. It was pointed out by the Taxpayers' Convention, in May to the tail of the political kite which disaffect- last, that the interest and other charges upon the balances due Mr. Kimpton were at the rate of 17 per cent. per annum, without the agent's commission. The charges of Mr. Kimpton for 1869-'70 amounted to $159,974; without including Mr. Kimpton's commission as agent, the rate of compensation not being agreed upon. And if the reports current yesterday were approximately correct, a fearful debt must still be due this 'Financial Agent." It is stated that Mr. Kimpton charges five per cent. for buying, five per cent. for selling, and five per cent. for endorsing, besides his claim for remuneration as agent. But we are not informed how much is to be charged for obtaining, on the credit of the faith of the State, the money with which the Ring bought up the Greenville and Columbia Railroad. Nor are other of the secret transactions of the party, in all their naked deformity, as yet exposed to

We must wait and hope. The revelations made in New York will pass over the whole country. They will at least, show that the funds and public credit of the State are at the mercy of persons who are wholly unworthy of trust. The negotiation of more bonds-genuine or fraudulent-will be well nigh impossible. And next year, at the polls, the people of the State may, by one gigantic effort, crush out of official existence the plundering demagogues who live by the death of the State.

The Elections To-Day.

Elections take place to-day in New York, Maryland, Massachusetts, Mississippi, Minnesota, Illinois, New Jersey, Wisconsin and Virginia. Illinois elects two Congressmen, both of whom will be Republicans. Last year the State gave a Republican majority of 20,000. Mississippi and Virginia elect Legislatures only, the prospects of the Conservatives being particularly bright in the last-named State. Massachusetts elects a Governor, the expectation being that Mr. W. B. Washburne, the Radical candidate, will defeat Mr. John Quincy Adams. Wisconsin elects State officers and a Legislature, and the contest will probably be close. New Jersey elects a Governor, one-third of the Senate and a full Assembly. Last year the Republicans had 3423 majority; this year they may expect to be beaten. Minnesota, which elects State officers and a Legislature, is counted on by the Republicans. Maryland will elect the Democratic candidates by sweeping majorities. But the main interest centres in New York, where the different lickets are badly cut up. The Democratic State officers are confidently expected to be elected, although, perhaps, by a reduced majority.

hostetter's Bitters. THE MARTYRS OF NEGLECT -It is not too much to say that tens of thousands who are now suffering from billousness, indigestion, constipation, periodical fevers, general debility and nervous affections, who might be restored to perfect health within a month or less by the use of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BIT. TERS. The multitudes who have been cured of these and other aliments by the use of this well known specific are always ready to testify to its virtue as a preventive and a remedy. They are spread over the whole country; they are eager to prai e and recommend it; and yet, notwithstanding its vast popularity, there are many invalids, and mary who are continually exposed to the epidemical d seases, against which it is a suite through indifference incredulity, neglect to seize the opportunity to cure and means of prevention, which they have strange; it is one of the anomalies of human nature which it is impossible to account for or explain. It is, however, quite certain that every day the number of these Martyrs of Neglect is diminishing. This is proved by the statistics of the sales of the great remedy. During the pres ent fall the demand for it has increased beyond all precedent, and it seems as if in the end the entire community would realize the important fact, that when all other medicines prescribed for the ab ve complaints fail, it can and does effect a cure. As a protection against the diseases most common at this season, there is nothing compa
